A. L. BECKER'S
On the Corner Union, Nebraska

James H. Donnelly, of Omaha, was a visitor in Union last Wednesday, looking after some business matters for the Omaha firm with which he is connected.

Moss McCarroll has sold his store business to two parties, one in Murray and one in Plattsmouth, who will in a short time take charge of the business here.

Roscoe Luse, of Alma, in the western part of the state, has been visiting in Union for the past few days, being a guest at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Jessie Dyart.

Harry Royal and wife, of Lincoln, were visiting with the father of Mrs. Royal, Mr. C. L. Graves, in Omaha, over the week end, and all enjoyed the occasion very much.

Mrs. Alkec Hughson and sons, Amos and Guy, returned Monday evening from Winnebago and other places near there, where they had spent two weeks visiting with relatives and friends.

Earl Merritt was painting and decorating the upper cafe, known as the Cozy cafe, which had been taken over by Mrs. Mattie Pickering and will be conducted in the best manner in the future.

Alda Taylor, who has been visiting his mother, arrived home hursday afternoon. While at Sheridan, Mo., he attended the three day picnic there. His mother accompanied him home to attend the picnic here.

Mrs. Ralph Burr and two children of Omaha, who have been visiting for the past three weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Davis, of Union, departed on last Sunday for their home in Omaha, after having had a most enjoyable time.

Joseph Banning, better known as Joe, accompanied by Mrs. Banning, were in Omaha on last Monday, they driving over to the big city in their car to look after some business matters. While they were away, Lucean looked after the business at the store.

James F. Wilson was a visitor in Omaha last week and while there visited with Mr. Ellis LaRue, both at his business place and home and he found that gentleman and his good wife finely situated and enjoying a good business as well as having a very beautiful home in which to live.

Dan Sudduth and family and Homer Campbell and family departed last Saturday for Fairplay, Mo., at which place they will visit for some time with relatives and friends. They were accompanied by Mr. C. L. Sudduth, who has been visiting here with his son Tony and family for some time.

Earl Merritt and wife and W. F. Moore and the family were visiting at Ashland last Sunday, where they were guests of E. W. Keedy and also were enjoying the festivities at the National guard camp incident to Governor's day and the breaking up of the camp after two weeks of intensive drill.

Uncle Ell Eaton, who with his daughter, Mrs. J. F. Clugey, of Plattsmouth, have been visiting in the western portion of the state, and at Denver for some time, and where they enjoyed the occasion very much, returned home last Sunday after having met many of their relatives and friends there.

Howard Taylor and mother were visiting for some time at Ohlows, where they were the guests while there of June DeLameter, making the trip in their car. On their return they also went to Carnavon, Iowa, where they visited with relatives for a short time as well and enjoyed both visits very much.

A Dodge sedan found grief at the new bridge which is being installed near the home of Dan Anderson, when the driver did not see the bridge was out until the car was right at the place, and in attempting to turn out he hit a large tree, breaking a wheel off the car. Fortunately no one was more than shaken up as a result of the accident.

Mrs. Kate Smith, who has been feeling quite badly of late, found it necessary to go to the hospital in Omaha on last Sunday for treatment and perhaps an operation. It is to be hoped that she may not have to undergo the ordeal of an operation. She was accompanied to the hospital by Miss Gussie Robb, who will care for the patient.

A party of tourists hailing from Omaha met a rather sad and sudden stop at the corner east of Union, when they bolted through the guard rail and then plunged into the orchard of W. B. Banning. They had to be dragged out by the police force and the car was damaged. The driver, who was not injured, assisted in getting their car in shape to continue on their way.

Peter Clarence, sheriff of one of the counties in the northern part of the state, accompanied by a deputy, Gust Lambert, were visiting in Union for a short time last week. They had taken a prisoner to the state penitentiary, where he began serving a term of imprisonment, and Mr. Clarence and his deputy returned this way for a short visit with friends.

On last Sunday evening there was begun in the Propst building, where Mr. Harding formerly had his store, a series of revival meetings, which it is hoped will be a source of much good to the community. The meetings will be provided with excellent speakers and with good singing and music should attract a goodly crowd of people to the gatherings.

Henry H. Becker and the family returned from a visit in the northern portion of the state, where they were in the little Sioux valley. They visited with Mrs. Becker's folks while they were away and in speaking of crop conditions prevailing there, Mr. Becker had to say that the corn looked good all the way, and that there was good prospect for a crop.

Mrs. Nancy McNamee and her son Amos departed one day last week for the east, where they will spend some time visiting at the home of relatives at Brush, Colorado, they driving with their car and expecting to be gone for some two weeks. While there they will visit at the home of a daughter of Mrs. McNamee, Mrs. A. R. Eikenberry, formerly of Union and vicinity.

Congressman John H. Morehead was a visitor in Union last Thursday, and was meeting his friends politically, looking after the interests of the people generally, seeing the town and what it is doing, as well as the needs of the people. Congressman Morehead is a candidate for re-election and his splendid service in the past will insure his being returned to Washington to continue looking after the interests of the people of the First Nebraska district.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lowery, of California, with their little son, arrived in Union for a short visit with the uncle of Mrs. Lowery who was formerly Miss Mayme Graves, and a daughter of the late A. J. Graves and niece of Attorney Charles L. Graves, of Union. After visiting here with the uncle, the party departed for Plattsmouth and from there went to Bellevue and later Lincoln, at all of which places they visited with relatives and friends before their departure for their home at Oakland, California.

Property for Sale.
I am desirous of leaving Union and am offering my property here for a fraction of what it is worth. There are six lots, with a six room house thereon, a large barn with shed attached, three good chicken houses, and two good wells. This will be sold cheap with terms to suit.
M. LYNDE,
Union, Nebraska.

Attend the Reunion.
The annual reunion of the old settlers of Union and vicinity which comprises Cass and adjoining counties, will be held this week, Friday and Saturday. Forget your work for a day or two and get out and enjoy a visit with your neighbors and old friends. A number who are at the reunion this year will not be with us the coming year, as the reaper death is claiming heavy toll among the old-time settlers of the county, whose hard work and privations have earned for us of today the conveniences of this ultra-modern age. Just as well come out and enjoy this occasion, for it comes but once a year and you will not miss the time you take off to attend, as there will be plenty of amusement for all. You will be entertained and cheered with good music, eloquent speakers will enlighten you on present day topics. Each evening there will be a dance at the M. W. A. hall to provide enjoyment for the young people.

Finds Long Lost Purse.
Leslie Everett more than a year ago lost a pocketbook containing some $23, which was searched for by a number of persons for an entire day without success. The other day, as he was out in the pasture he saw the pocketbook lying on the ground in plain sight. The leather itself was almost entirely rotted away, but the bills were sufficiently preserved to discern their denominations, and Mr. Everett took them to the bank to be sent to Washington for redemption.

Will Entertain Saturday.
The Union Dramatic club, composed of Mrs. Earl Merritt, L. Olive Finney, Mildred Clarke, Mrs. Fred Clarke, Dorris Frans and Mrs. A. W. Propst, will give a play on the last day of the old settler's picnic, Saturday, August 21st. The title of their offering is "The Old Maid's Club" and it is said to be filled with wit and humor, with startling climaxes that will be greatly appreciated by the visitors at the picnic.

Wanted! A Doctor!
It has been the unanimous decision of those who are closely in touch with the situation that there is a good opening for a physician on the corner east of Union, where people go through the railing into the orchard of W. B. Banning every once in a while and sometimes oftener. Only a short time ago the guard rails were broke by some one who could not see the turn.

Methodist Church Notes.
Sunday school at 10:00 a. m.
Epworth League at 7:15 p. m.
The two services above are the only services to be held in the Methodist church next Sunday. Please note that Sunday school will begin at 10 o'clock next Sunday, concluding in time for the union services in the hall, beginning at 11.
There will be services at 11 a. m. and at 8 p. m. in the hall. A good attendance is expected at these services. Rev. Hunter, the evangelist, will deliver both sermons of the day and Mr. Ramshire will have charge of the music.

Enjoyable W. C. T. U. Picnic.
A delightful evening was spent by members of the local W. C. T. U. last week, when, by special invitation, about fifty met on the spacious lawn at the home of Sen. W. B. Banning and wife, the latter a former Cass county president and state superintendent of institutes.

Automobile Mix Up on Highway Near Union.
Trio of Strangers Smear Up Highway but No One Hurt as Result of Peculiar Smashes.

The residents of the territory a mile and a half northeast of Union on the K. of T. highway had the opportunity Sunday of seeing a merry mix-up on the highway of three cars, all driven by non-residents and who made the highway near the Charles Garrison farm a warm spot for a few moments.

The cars were all coming from the north and the procession was led by a very ratty and delapidated specimen of the auto makers art, in fact seemingly more adapted to the junk heap than as a means of travel, but which was getting along in fine shape. Following the ancient car came a car from California filled also with tourists and which was but a short distance behind the first car. As the autos approached the Garrison place, the driver of the first car decided to stop and failed to give any sign to the car behind him of his intention. This caused the driver of the California car to have to swing quickly to the left, almost to the center of the road to avoid a wreck.

In a few seconds the third car came suddenly upon them and not being able to see the condition of affairs for the dust, bumped into the California car with more or less force and which in turn struck the first car and in an instant the highway was full of cars and loud talking as the parties attempted to decide who was the goat and why.

It is reported that the occupants of the ancient vintage gave the other motorists a real howling out and insinuations were passed that the wreck was deliberately planned to prevent the occupants of the car from reaching Oklahoma, where they were to settle up an estate and dispose of a farm. The other motorists hastened to explain that they were merely road travelers on their way and had no knowledge of the private affairs of the other parties or any desire to learn anything of them.

After the gab fest the cars were all cleared away and started for the south again, but traveling at long distance from each other.

SELLS OUT RESTAURANT.
In the general increasing activity in the business and real estate market here a change was made yesterday afternoon in the ownership of the cafe located in the basement of the Hotel Main and which has in the past been conducted by "Posey" Chilton and Ed Fullerton.

The restaurant business was purchased by Mr. Fullerton several days ago but the title and possession of the place was not given until yesterday and Mr. Fullerton is now the sole owner of the restaurant and will conduct it in the future.

This is one of the popular places of the city and located at one of the important corners in the business section has been very successful in the past year and under the management of Mr. Fullerton, who will be assisted by Mrs. Fullerton, should continue its successful course of looking after the needs of the public.
