Justin Sturm, Former Nehawka Boy Has His Work Recognized in Literary Field.

From Saturday's Daily—
"Justin Sturm, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm of Nehawka, and a former Lincoln high school student, has just made his debut as a literary light, his first book having been announced by Harper Brothers to appear September 3. Two other novels are on the way to be published by the same company. The first book is a satire entitled 'The Bad Samaritan.' Of it the Harper's catalogue says: 'It would not be difficult to recognize the style of Mr. Sturm's story—his plot, his characters and his denouement. But all of that would leave out the most important things, to-wit: his delightful sense of absurdity and the remarkable skill with which he has woven entirely familiar materials into an astonishing pattern of fantasy and hilarity. As a gay and highly diverting farce comedy, 'The Bad Samaritan' deserves attention. Mr. Sturm is a new writer. He is an artist with an abundant humor and gift of making fantasy more than real realism.'"
"Mr. Sturm, who is twenty-six years old, distinguished himself on the football team at Yale, where he graduated in 1922, but until recently no one suspected that he had literary tendencies. His Lincoln high school associates recall him as being athletic rather than literary. He was a member of the football team."
"Following his graduation from Yale he sailed for England where he married Katherine McCormick, daughter of Mrs. Alexander McCormick and the late Mr. McCormick of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Sturm live in Lake Forest."
"Because of his high scholastic standing Mr. Sturm was allowed to receive his degree from Yale a few weeks in advance of commencement and he started immediately on an European trip with his bride. During that year he obtained material for the stories he is now writing."—State Journal.

Yesterday afternoon the Auxiliary of the American Legion enjoyed a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. William Kraeger on South Ninth street and which was attended by a very pleasing number of the ladies despite the fact that the vacation season has taken many of the members from the city. In entertaining Mrs. Kraeger was assisted by Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Mrs. Clyde Jackson and Mrs. Otto Keck.

SEARCH, BUT IN VAIN
From Saturday's Daily—
Yesterday Sheriff E. P. Stewart and Deputy Sheriff W. C. Schaus drove to the vicinity of Union where a complaint had been received from, stating that there was the manufacturing of intoxicating liquors being carried on at the place under suspicion. The sheriff securing the necessary search warrant made a careful search of the premises that were under question but failed to locate even any of the liquor let alone the appliances for its manufacture and therefore was compelled to return to this city empty handed. The place that was visited has been complained of as one of the sources of supply that have caused Union citizens to become highly liquored but from the facts it would seem that they have some other sources from which the intoxicants are secured.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING
A large Eastern telephone company recently sent a questionnaire to its subscribers, which actually invited them to "kick" if they had any complaint about the service. Out of several hundred thousand subscribers, only 3,500 were moved to reply. Hence, it can be pretty safely assumed that there was little dissatisfaction with the service.

Of the 3,500 who replied, 73 per cent found no fault, and many actually complimented the service. The remainder of replies covered a wide variety of comment, questions and criticism, from which the company has been able to correct some difficulties and make improvements.

This is real service to the customer such as was not dreamed of by industry and business a few short years ago.

Every shade of crepe paper and all the new novelties and favors as well as a complete stock of picnic needs can be found in the Dennison line, sold exclusively at the Bates Book and Gift Shop.
