CHICKEN-STEALING COYOTE CAUGHT IN SPRING TRAP
Newcastle, Aug. 31.—A half-breed coyote, part dog and part coyote, which had its haunts in the hills in this locality for several years and whose cunning had foiled all efforts of men and dogs to capture him, was caught in a big spring trap by Charles Wendte. The cunning half-breed was led into the trap by tying a fat hen nearby.

The coyote had been ranging from this locality to the Daily community, several miles southwest of here, killing spring chickens and making life miserable for many farm wives, and his death is a source of satisfaction to chicken raisers in this locality.

LENROOT CHARGES STAND FALSIFIED

Superior, Wis., Aug. 29.—Senator Irving L. Lenroot, speaking here Saturday night, charged that legislative representatives of the railroad brotherhoods had falsified his position on the anti-strike provision of the Cummins rail bill, and then to save themselves from the wrath of the rank and file of railroad men and discharge from their present positions, were stating additional falsehoods.

"Before this incident is closed the brotherhoods themselves will have an opportunity to declare whether they will continue in their employ men who will falsify the facts," Senator Lenroot said.

"Senator La Follette in a speech said I voted to prevent railway employees from striking. Later La Follette, a republican at Washington, repeated the statement. I cited the Congressional Record showing my vote for the Stanley amendment striking out the Cummins bill the anti-strike provision."

SUES A RUSSIAN DANCER

Chicago, Aug. 30.—Barred from the estate of her husband, Miriam Noel Wright, wife of Frank Lloyd Wright, famed architect, brought suit today against Olga Milinoff, Russian dancer and companion of Wright, for $100,000.

Mrs. Wright, who has made her home here since she was refused admission early in June to Taliesin, Noel Wright's wife near Spring Green, Wis., blamed Miss Milinoff the suit, for Wright's refusal to give shelter to his wife.

Her attorney, Arthur Cloud, declared in a statement that "Mrs. Wright takes this action only because she is forced to do so, having exhausted all other means of securing what she considers her positive rights."
