DOING VERY NICELY

From Wednesday's Daily—
The reports from the hospital in Omaha state that Virgil Perry, who was operated on there last week for an attack of appendicitis, has been rallying very nicely from the effects of the operation and is now showing the best of condition and his rallying powers has been very pleasing to the members of the family circle and gives the brightest hopes that he may soon be able to return home and resume his usual activities. During the illness of Virgil, his brother, Russell Perry, of Harrington, Texas, who has been here since the death of the father, is remaining to look to the conduct of the farm.

Woman's Club Has Very Interesting Meeting

Delegates to State Convention Named and Work for the Coming Year Is Planned.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening the members of the Plattsmouth Women's club met at the auditorium of the public library to start out the new year of work in the club field and a very large number of the ladies were in attendance. The president, Mrs. Allen J. Beeson presided in her usual pleasing manner and conducted the routine business of the club.

One of the main features of the business session was the election of the delegates to the state convention which will meet at Lincoln October 27th to 29th inclusive and the ladies named as their delegates Mrs. L. L. Turpin, Mrs. J. F. Gorder and Mrs. W. R. Holmes while the alternates selected were Mrs. J. F. Wolf, Mrs. E. J. Richey and Mrs. R. B. Hayes. It was decided by the meeting to hold the next session at the public library on Friday evening, September 17th and at which time the year book work will be completed and the report made to the club meeting with the members getting lined up on the various events of the club year.

The work will be conducted along the departmental lines and with a great many new features that will make the work more thorough and interesting to all of the club membership. There will be no names in the year book where the members are not paid in advance for their dues it was decided at the meeting.

Mrs. Beeson at the close of the meeting told of the courtesies extended to her at the California state federation convention as a president of a visiting club and which gave her a greater appreciation of this honor.

The club is extending an invitation to all of the ladies of the city to join in the membership and if they have not been approached they can apply to Mrs. Beeson for the membership.

New Secretary Has Warm Spot for New Home

W. G. Davis, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce Here With Mrs. Davis to Make Home.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Editor The Daily Journal—

Arrived yesterday afternoon, and glad to be here which is "home" to me. Appreciated very keenly the fine boosting I found in your good paper since I was here last Monday.

Could not help but be wonderfully impressed with conditions in and about Plattsmouth, as I made the trip from Kansas City by day so as to get a closer view of the surrounding country. Crops around Plattsmouth look better than at any point between here and Kansas City.

While in Kansas City spent some considerable time in the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce offices, personally with Mr. J. M. Guild, president of that organization, whom I found to be a former resident of Plattsmouth. Mr. Guild had only words of praise for Plattsmouth, and its fine civic spirit.

Also talked with Charles W. Armour, president of Armour & Co., at Kansas City, and he stated Plattsmouth was located in the most prosperous section of Nebraska, and that this as a wonderful country through this territory and Plattsmouth is a splendid city. It is fine to realize others appreciate what a good place Plattsmouth is, along with our own home people.

Had a good visit with my old friend Mr. Woods, assistant to J. F. Holden, vice president of the Kansas City Southern R. R. Mr. Woods stated their company had been responsible for many of the Nebraska potatoes being sent to Arkansas for seed, on account of the superiority of the Nebraska spud.

Mrs. Davis arrived with me and is most enthusiastic over this city, and we are happy and proud to make it our home. I feel confident I am going to receive the undivided and enthusiastic support of this entire community, which means a great deal to me. I want you all to come in and see me at the Water Works office and get acquainted.

W. G. DAVIS.

Indian Chief An Educator

Caupolican's Greatest Ambition Has Been to Elevate His Race.

"My ambition is the raising of the Indian race to the intellectual level of the white man and the lifting of the white man to the spiritual and physical level of the Indian," are the words of Chief Caupolican, distinguished Chilean Indian, who is delighting Orpheum patrons this week with his repertoire of songs and ballads.

In vaudeville, as well as on the lecture platform, Chief Caupolican has been seriously engaged in acquainting the American public with the present conditions of his race in view of the education and general development of the Indian.

His vigorous personality, his marked intelligence and his entertaining ability have all combined to make him a universal stage favorite.

Before entering vaudeville, Chief Caupolican was a Chautauqua lecturer. At the present time he is also very much interested in the organizing of Indian schools in the United States.

His particular hobby is golf and he is naturally a lover of the great outdoors. He has great athletic strength and his stature is characteristic of his ancestry.—San Francisco Bulletin.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Bates departed this morning for Chicago where they will spend some little time visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy French and family, Mrs. French being a sister of Mrs. Bates and will also visit at other points in southern Illinois.

Young People Married at Havelock Last Night

Miss Ruby Schoonover and Mr. Edgar L. Peterson Married at Home of the Bride's Parents.

From Wednesday's Daily—

The marriage of Miss Ruby Schoonover and Edgar L. Peterson took place at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schoonover in Havelock. Thirty-five guests gathered for the ceremony at which Rev. G. A. Randall officiated. Miss Elsie Curtright played "Love's Old Sweet Song" before the entrance of the bridal party, and "I Love You Truly" during the ceremony. She also played Mendelssohn's wedding march as a procession and a selection of nuptial music during the offering of congratulations. An arch formed of ferns and roses and garden flowers formed the setting for the marriage service, and a profusion of garden flowers decorated the rooms of the home. Miss Mary Peterson who attended the bride wore a frock of blue satin and carried roses. The bride was gowned in ruse satin trimmed in lace and carried roses. Milo Schoonover attended the groom. At the reception which followed the wedding, Mrs. Charles Wagley and Mrs. Steven Vilda assisted with the serving. Mrs. Sophia Mayfield presided at the guest book and Mrs. Charles Curtright had charge of the gift room. After a short trip Mr. Peterson and his bride will be at home at 924 K street, Havelock. Guests from out of the city at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schoonover and Frank Schoonover, Cambridge; Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Peterson, Miss Mary Peterson, Mrs. Sophia Mayfield, Mr. and Mrs. John Schultz, Mrs. J. C. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. M. Peterson, and Mr. and Mrs. Charley Peterson, Plattsmouth; and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Peterson of Dakota City.—State Journal.

Rev. Gardner is Greeted by a Large Audience

Increasing Interest Shown in Christian Church Revival—"What We Need in Church," Subject.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Evangelist Nelson Gardner used as the subject of his sermon last night, "What We Need in the Church." By the use of the blackboard he made daubly clear the message reaching the minds of his hearers through the two avenues of hearing and seeing. The diagram was a wheel with 12 spokes with Christ as the hub or center. The evangelist said: "Christ is the center of the church. The 12 spokes are named as follows:

1. "The church is a divine institution. Matt. 16: 16, 18. Jesus said, "Upon this rock I will build my church." His church. It belongs to no other.
2. A truth inspired church. "We do not put our trust in men's teaching. II Tim. 3: 16, 17. If the Bible makes one perfect, we need nothing more.
3. A spiritual church. More spirituality is needed in the church. Too much of the world in the way of dancing and card playing has been brought into the church. The class of people who participate in these worldly amusements are not soul winners. We need more of the spirit of the apostolic days.
4. A missionary church. Here the Great Commission was emphasized. There are people in Nebraska 50 years old who have never heard a sermon. Nebraska has one county without a church. Folks there have gone 75 and 100 miles to church.
5. A philanthropic church. Some people claim they have nothing to give. Christ was poor but he gave more than any other. When the church learns to thith there will not be so much work about finances.
6. A progressive church. That does not mean getting away from God's truth, but going forward with His truth.
7. An aggressive church. A fighting church. Sometimes a church becomes a hospital instead of an army. We go backward when we cease fighting. Paul said: "I have fought a good fight." "Onward Christian soldiers marching as to war," should be our song.
8. An energetic church. One that is working.
9. A cheerful church. The man who knows that his sins are forgiven has a right to be happy. "The man worthwhile is the one who can smile."
10. A preserving church. Never give up.
11. A soul saving church. We are to win others.
12. A heaven bound church. We want that none shall be lost.

The two special numbers of song by Catherine and Wallace Terryberry, and Frank Gardner were appreciated. Number of scripture verses last night 9,960. Services each evening at 8 o'clock.

PUBLIC AUCTION

COMPETITION IN WORDS

One who goes into the market to buy a motor car today is naturally confused.

He has read the words BEST and GREATEST so often that they have ceased to be convincing. Where ALL is best, he reflects, there can BE no best.

Thousand-dollar cars have been described to him in ten-thousand dollar language. And vice versa.

He finds himself the target in a war of adjectives; the helpless victim in a gigantic competition of words.

And so he is forced to rely on chance—the advice of friends—or his own limited experience.

Dodge Brothers, Inc., have never participated in this verbal competition.

They are content with the position they have long maintained in the far more vital competition of HONEST VALUE.

They have continued steadily to improve their product, not only in comfort and beauty, but BASICALLY—beneath the body and hood where fundamental values lie.

Yet they have not unduly stressed each betterment that has marked the steady progress of their motor car toward a higher perfection.

And when economic conditions or greater sales have permitted them to reduce prices without reducing quality, they have announced the fact without excessive emphasis.

Unexaggerated truth is not spectacular. But in the long run, implicit public confidence has been Dodge Brothers reward, and this they propose to preserve FOREVER by continuing to build just a little better than they tell.
