From Wednesday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon W. M. Hampton of Hillsbro, Montgomery county, Illinois, was here for a few hours and enjoyed the opportunity to visit several of the Grand Army veterans and to renew the ties of the days of 1861-65. Mr. Hampton is visiting at the home of his son, H. L. Hampton in Lincoln who was called here to look after some matters with the local school authorities and Mr. Hampton, Sr., took advantage of the occasion to visit this garden spot of the west. This is his first visit to Nebraska and he has enjoyed it very much and is especially delighted with the friendly and cordial welcome that he has been extended by the Nebraskans.

Change Made in Local Lumber Firm First of Month

John L. Tidball, Jr., Will Take Over Business Here and John L. Sr. Will Enjoy Rest.

From Wednesday's Daily—
A change will occur in the Tidball Lumber Co., one of the leading business establishments of the city on the first of October when John L. Tidball, Sr., the head of the firm will retire from active participation in the business and the entire control of the company be in the hands of John L. Tidball, Jr., who has been associated with his father in business here and at Holdrege for the past several years.

The change is made because of the fact that the advanced years of the distinguished head of the firm, some eighty-two years, lead him to desire a little rest that was not possible in the harness of the lumber business. Mr. John L. Tidball, Sr., has been in active business in Nebraska since 1869 and more than fifty years of his business life has been in the lumber interests and he feels that at the close of a very successful business life he can afford to enjoy a well deserved rest. He was in the banking and lumber interests at Crete for a number of years and late at Holdrege from which place he came to Plattsmouth with the son and family.

Mr. John L. Tidball will take over the active management of the lumber and coal yard here and Mr. Tidball, Sr., be able to enjoy a relaxation because of the fact that the change brings with it the acceptance of a position with the new organization by Emil J. Hild, who takes up his work there on the first of the month.

Mr. Hild has been for the past seven years with the firm of C. E. Wescotts Sons and is a thoroughly reliable and clever young business man who will make a splendid assistant in the lumber yard and one that will be able to take up a large part of the work that has been heretofore shared by the Tidballs, father and son. Mr. Hild will have charge of office work as well as other lines of the business and at which he will be found a real asset.

The change in the Tidball firm also brought a new face into the store of the Wescott firm as the clerkship there that has been heretofore held by Mr. Hild will in the future be handled by Rudolph Iverson. Mr. Iverson is a graduate of the class of 1926 of the Plattsmouth high school and one of the best known and popular young men of the community and in his new venture in the business world should be a real success.

Catholic Daughters Hold Shower and Farewell

Ladies Entertain in Honor of Miss Lillian Palacek and Miss Kathleen Darcy.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mullen at 7th and Marble street was the scene of a very pleasant meeting of the members of the local court of the Catholic Daughters of America.

The ladies had arranged the occasion as a special event in honor of two of their popular and highly esteemed members, Miss Lillian Palacek, whose marriage to Mr. John A. Stander of Manley, Nebraska, will occur in the near future, and Miss Kathleen Darcy who is leaving this city to accept a position at Yankton, South Dakota, in the future.

The hostesses of the evening were Mrs. Mullen, Mrs. Charles Peterson, Jr., Mrs. Lon Henry, Mrs. William Woolcott and Miss May Murphy, these ladies having arranged a very delightful program for the evening and which they all enjoyed to the utmost.

The time was spent in playing bridge, high five and rummy, in the bridge games prizes being won by Mrs. August Bach and Mrs. Cyril Kalina while in the high five and rummy games Mrs. Anton Vitersnik and Miss Anna Palacek were awarded prizes.

In honor of the occasion Miss Palacek received a large number of gifts that will be cherished by her in her new home while Miss Darcy was presented with a very beautiful silver bracelet as a remembrance of the many friends that she has made in her stay in Plattsmouth.

People of Cass County Respond to Florida Call

American Red Cross in Cass County Will Be Able to Lend Aid to Sufferers.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The people of Cass county have demonstrated their generosity and sympathy by a double donation to the sufferers in the storm swept areas of the United States in their contribution just sent to the Midwestern branch office of the American Red Cross, according to H. V. McDonald, chairman of the Cass county chapter.

"They gave first when the contributed their dollar membership in the American Red Cross," he said, "thus enabling that great relief organization to get on the ground at once and render temporary succor in the way of food, shelter, medical care and clothing to those made destitute by the storm. The second time was when they contributed directly to the disaster in the donation just sent to the American Red Cross."

"It is only through the membership which comes in to the treasury during the annual roll call," said Mrs. Henry A. Tool, treasurer, "that the American Red Cross is enabled to get into action at once in case of great public calamity. The membership dues pay for nurses, doctors, supplies and works to hasten to the stricken area at the first report of disaster. Many times the disasters are not of sufficient magnitude to make it necessary to ask the public for donations. In these cases the Red Cross carries all of the expenses out of its fund made up of membership dollars."

"In such gigantic catastrophes as that in Florida and the gulf coast, however, the relief and rehabilitation work is of such a great magnitude to be handled by the Red Cross unaided and therefore the public is asked to give. The American Red Cross already has given $100,000 from its treasury for immediate relief work in addition to paying the expenses of conducting the work. Not a penny of the special donation from the public goes to anything but relief in the stricken area for which it is asked and these who have given to the Florida storm fund as well as those who have given to the relief funds for the various Midwest relief work in addition to the present season may be absolutely sure that all they have sent has gone directly to its appointed destination.

"If it were not, however, for the membership dues of last fall the Red Cross could not have organized its relief corps and supplies the emergency needs of these sufferers at once but would have to wait for the public fund to be collected. Knowing this I feel that the people of this community will gladly enroll their names in the Tenth Annual Roll Call which is to take place this fall and so enable the Red Cross to be prepared for whatever great catastrophe takes place in the future."

SAFE IN FLORIDA

From Wednesday's Daily—
Robert L. Propst, who has been visiting here for some time past with relatives in this locality, has received a wire from his daughters, Mrs. Loretta Wilcox and Mrs. Roberta Green, at Lake Worth, Fla., stating that they were the happiest and safest in the hurricane that swept over that section of Florida a week ago. Lake Worth is a subdivision of Palm Beach and but a short distance from that place and the hurricane swept on both sides of the town, their escaping the general destruction being most fortunate.

W. E. Propst, who has been here for the past four days looking after the closing up of some business affairs departed by auto this morning for Lake Worth. Mr. Propst has been in the western part of the state, looking after his harvest and crops in that locality and will reach Florida in a week or ten days after leaving here.

PHILATHEA CLASS MEETS

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening the members of the Philathea class of the Methodist church were most pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. William L. Heinrich on west Main street and the occasion proved one of the greatest pleasure to the large number in attendance and Mrs. Heinrich who was assisted by Mrs. Elvin Craig proved real entertainers.

The ladies enjoyed a contest in which the prizes were won by Mrs. Sam Moyer as well as Mrs. J. T. Marshall and which proved a very delightful feature of the evening.

The ladies of the class also arranged for a Halloween party for the latter part of October which will be one of the main events of the fall and winter social season.

LEAVE FOR EASTERN TRIP

From Wednesday's Daily—
This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Hager, of Lincoln, and Mrs. A. L. Tidd, of this city, a sister of Mrs. Hager, will leave for a visit of several weeks at Pittsburgh, New York and Philadelphia. On their visit to Pittsburgh, Mr. Hager will have the opportunity of visiting with an old friend of many years ago in Plattsmouth, Arthur Humphrey, now president of the Westinghouse Airbrake Co., who received his first mechanical training in the local Burlington shops many years ago while Mr. Hager was also a very young man learning his trade here. Mr. Humphrey has recently published a story of his life work in the American magazine and in which he tells of his first venture in the machinist trade that led to his present success. He was a lad employed in a drug store here in the seventies when he attracted the attention of the late Dr. R. R. Livingston who urged him to give up the drug store work and devote his time to the following of the machinist trade which he did and with the result that he has won a great success. Mr. Hager is planning a very pleasant visit with the old friend.

VERY HAPPY EVENT

From Wednesday's Daily—
William Harvey Mason, the veteran left gardner of the local baseball team is feeling very happy the last few days and there are two reasons, one of which is the fact that he made three hits in the ball game against Greenwood, but the chief source of the happiness is the fact that a fine little daughter arrived at the Mason home Monday evening. It had been planned to name the new arrival William Harvey but, as it is a sweet little lady there will be a change in the naming of the new arrival. Mrs. Mason and the little daughter are doing nicely and the brother and sisters of the little one are more than happy over the addition to the family circle.

Problems of the Farmer are Vital to All Classes

Problems of the Farmers and Merchant Are Woven Into the Same Fabric.

J. C. Gillespie of Weeping Water we observed at the Weeping Water fair on Plattsmouth day had a ton exhibit of live pork that was a credit to this community. Out of a litter of eleven pigs, he saved ten, and brought them to a total of a little over 2000 pounds of pork by the fair date. This is some accomplishment and it shows a choice of good stock and a fine knowledge of scientific feeding. Wish Mr. Gillespie would drop in and tell us how he did it. Quick turn over in pigs before they eat all the profits up in unscientific feeding is one of the farmer's problems. City folk often think it is just "raisin' pigs," but this sort of pig business requires experience, brains, and energy of the highest class.

There is no such an expression as a "business man and a farmer." The farmer is as much a business man as the merchant—just a different line. From this we know that the interests of the merchant and the farmer are interwoven until both suffer or profit together accordingly.

Any merchant who has to hold over his goods and sell on a losing market, is in the same position of a farmer tied up with a large bunch of hogs to be fed, and corn bringing a $1 per bushel, with hogs quoted at four cents per pound. Or a cribbage of cheap corn, and no hogs, when hogs are at a good price. Just sit down and scratch your head over that! The farmers gamble with frost, rain, hail, and tornadoes and hot winds. The merchant gambles with poor crops and farmers curtailed in buying.

Poultry and dairy products, and fruits in season offer a safer road for the farmer, we believe, as it gives him several shots at the bulls eye! A merchant who put in only Bud's shirt and trousers, is in as bad shape as the farmer who depends only on corn oats and wheat with which to hit the mark. Therefore the merchants urge more eggs; more butter fat; more fruits to the farmer—it is not only in his self defense but in honest good feeling toward the ultimate prosperity and comfort of his best patron—the farmer. So, more confidence in the good intentions on both sides will build a greater spirit of mutual co-operation. We need the farmer. Let's get closer together!
