

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For State Senator.
As the democratic candidate for state senator in the second senatorial district, I am soliciting the votes of the citizens of the district. The investigation of the record made in the legislatures of 1909, 1911, 1922 and 1924 will show that I have espoused all progressive legislation including the bank guarantee law and other measures for the interest of the whole people and opposed reactionary measures. Your support will be appreciated.

W. B. BANNING.

For State Representative.
It being impossible to meet personally all of the voters of Cass county in the pre-election campaign I am placing my candidacy for your consideration as the representative from Cass county in the last legislature was a member of the farm group that sought the enactment of progressive measures and if re-elected will continue to oppose measures that might undermine the good laws that have been enacted for the protection of Nebraska people and to strive to aid in an economy program in the interests of the taxpayers.

EARL TOWLE.

For County Treasurer.
Serving my first term as county treasurer, I am now the democratic candidate for re-election. In the discharge of the office of treasurer I have endeavored to give the taxpayers a 100 per cent service and invite the inspection of the office of county treasurer and the business methods used in caring for the $1,000,000 business of Cass county. If re-elected will continue the program of business efficiency as in the past. Your support will be appreciated if you believe that the office has been properly administered and that "one good term deserves another."

From Friday's Daily—
Central P. T. A. held its first afternoon meeting of the year, yesterday at 3 o'clock at the Central building. The attendance was a least 50 per cent of the mothers now members, and more were added at this time and it is hoped more will avail themselves of this opportunity to aid in the efficient development of the children by this means.

Meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Dovey and the business session took care of regular routine of reports and new matters for consideration. A prize of $1.50 will be given to the room bringing the largest per cent of parents present each month. Mrs. Carlson's room again won the honor as last month. Time for some of the rest of us to take notice. The home talent play to be given early in November is on its way for presentation, which receipt will be used to cancel debt on the supervised playground of last summer. It is hoped to have a surplus to use another summer. It takes faith to put a project across without funds. We ask all who believe in the plan to co-operate and give what support you can in whatever way possible.

The report of the state convention at Lincoln, Oct. 12-15 was given by Mesdames Douglas, Clout, Patterson and Dovey. It is evident that those attending were well repaid and if this association keeps up with the pace the state has set. We have a program on thrift, recreations, child health, citizenship, pre-school child and it seems every subject that can touch an individual as he lives.

The program was then given in charge of Mrs. Schurz who reviewed the bulletin and introduced Mrs. Mann to take charge of the lesson from "The Child, His Nature and His Needs," on the child as he adjusts himself to his environment and gains knowledge of life about him from birth thru early grades of school. This was especially interesting to those whose children have just entered school and who are anxiously watching how they will progress. No one would find it wasteful to read the chapters oneself and the discussions in the child welfare magazine, which reminds us that this magazine can be obtained for 50c per year in a club of ten at this time and is so full of things that parents are asking themselves every day that to it by subscribing jointly with a neighbor friend. Mrs. Frank Clout is taking care of all subscriptions.

DOES POULTRY SANITATION PAY?

These extracts are taken from the revised edition of Nebraska Experiment Station Bulletin 195 to show that prevention is the only practical way to handle the most common poultry diseases: Four cholera—Treatment of cholera infected fowls is entirely useless and there is not the slightest reason to believe that the use of medicine of any kind can either save infected birds or depend on to influence the course of an outbreak in the flock. The giving of medicine to fowls with a view to curing cholera is about as futile a thing to do as making a child swallow drugs in the hope that they will cure the measles. Fowl typhoid—"Affected birds rarely recover and there is no method of treatment by which this unfavorable outlook can be improved. No time or money thus should be wasted trying to save the fowls already sick." Bacillary White Diarrhea—"The mortality ranges between 40 and 90 per cent and there is no reliable evidence that this high death rate can be reduced by any method of medical treatment." Tuberculosis—"Nothing can be expected from curative treatment." Blackhead—"Many methods of treatment have been recommended but the most painful search for evidence of success fails to disclose anything which is the least encouraging. In fact, the results reported and the consideration of the nature of the disease warrants the conclusion that the course of the disease, once established in a turkey, cannot be changed by means of treatment now known." These facts have been established after several years of thorough work by recognized leaders in this field of investigational research. The first fifteen pages of their new bulletin deal with sanitation as the means of preventing these serious diseases. Clean houses, clean water, clean feed, and a rotation of chick yards are the big points in their recommendations.

Frisco Folks Frightened by Earth Shocks

Tremors Felt in Several Parts of the State But No Damage Is Reported.

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—San Francisco residents were awakened today by an earthquake shock that started the guests of the downtown hotels. Not a building in the city, even of the oldest and flimsiest construction, was damaged except for a few broken windows and cracked plaster.
Some hotel guests dressed and sought the open spaces, where they remained a short time and then returned to their rooms. The shocks of which four were felt here, extended from Santa Rosa, 60 miles north, to Paso Robles, 130 miles south.
The first tremor was registered by the University of California seismograph at 4:26 a. m., the second an hour later and two others at 6:42 and 8:04. The first was the sharpest. The last was not felt generally.
In the downtown district, where stores reported their stocks were undisturbed and those dealing in china said they suffered no loss.
The center of the disturbance was 70 miles south of here in Monterey county. The city that met today's shocks was vastly different from the one that was destroyed in 1906 earthquake and fire. Steel frame construction which proved practically immune from earthquake damage in 1906 is today the rule.

Some Queen Pranks.

At Stockton the court-house clock was stopped and the chandeliers in the state hospital for the insane were whirled around by the temblor.
On the Monterey peninsula windows and dishes were rattled and small household articles were broken. In Oakland the Schlesinger department store reported a queer prank of the temblor. A wax model plunged through a plate glass window into the street and was decapitated. The ball on top of the flagpole of Oakland's city hall was reported missing, and water pipes at the Oakland Technical High school were broken.
The temblor appeared to move in the path of the famous San Andreas fault, which skirts the coast of northern California.
In Santa Cruz the famous Casa Del Rey hotel was the point of greatest local disturbance, but only a small portion of the plaster fell over the main entrance.

PLEASED WITH SENTIMENT

Flynn, general manager of the lines west of the Burlington railroad, in which Mr. Flynn expresses his sentiment of pleasure of the article appearing in the Journal of October 13th, relative to the Burlington and the city of Plattsmouth. Senator Watson Denies Having of Any Klan Deals

Reed Adjoins Hearing to Kansas Hearing Testimony of Nearly a Dozen Witnesses.

Indianapolis, Oct. 23.—With denials from Senator Watson, republican, that he had any understanding with the Ku Klux Klan for its political aid and from W. Lee Smith, grand dragon, that the Indiana Klan was supporting that senator in his campaign for re-election, the senate campaign funds committee Friday practically concluded its inquiry into the political situation in this state.
After taking Senator Watson's statement in his room at the Methodist hospital where he is recovering from injuries received in an automobile accident, Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, the committee chairman, heard Senator and half a dozen other witnesses and then adjourned the hearing to Kansas City next Monday.
Coming here from Chicago at the request of Senator Watson, Senator Reed went to the senator's room with a stenographer and took his statement.

SLUSH FUND ON PACIFIC

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 22.—Samuel R. Sumner, chairman of the republican state central committee of Washington, announced tonight that he had appointed Scott Z. Henderson, Tacoma, to assist him in presenting his case before the senate campaign funds committee, which opens an investigation here tomorrow into campaign expenditures of A. Scott Bullitt, democratic senatorial candidate. Bullitt and the state democratic campaign committee denied the accusations and asked that Senator McNary inquire into a report that the Anti-Saloon League and the republican national committee had financially aided Jones.

Coming here from Chicago at the request of Senator Watson, Senator Reed went to the senator's room with a stenographer and took his statement.
The Indiana senator denied that the Klan was supporting him and asserted that testimony given the committee at Chicago that William F. Zumbunn, counsel for the Klan, had sought to influence him in the contest over the seat held by Senator May, held, democrat, Texas, was without foundation.
"The charges that Dr. Evans (imperial wizard of the Klan) and Zumbunn made a deal with me by which I was to receive klan support in Indiana if Senator Mayfield was seated here absolutely and unqualifiedly false," Senator Watson declared.
During the re-examination of R. Earl Peters, chairman of the Indiana state democratic committee, Senator Robinson interjected additional testimony with a show of heat, declaring that he never had changed his opinion on the world court question and that his vote on that question in the senate was a matter of public record.
Peters retorted that he had been informed that the senator had written a letter to members of the Irvington Methodist church here saying that he favored American adhesion to the court protocol.
Several more former officers of the Indiana klan gave testimony that it was their understanding that the klan was to "get behind" Senator Watson.
"Why were you to get behind Senator Watson?" Senator Reed asked James Boland of this city.
"I don't know; that's what I'd like to find out," Boland replied.
The witness said he thought klan support for Watson had something
