Missouri Pacific Will Add to Its Train Service

reach this city about 7:45 a. m. and is due at Omaha at 8:30 a. m., giving the Missouri Pacific two trains that will fill every need of the traveling public.

The new trains will give the Missouri Pacific trains that are among the best in the country and operated on the very best schedule for the residents of this community.

The locomotive will pull but eight cars, four of which will be Pullman coaches, one diner and three day coaches.

It will carry a divided coach from Lincoln to St. Louis, a club coach Omaha to St. Louis, a day coach Omaha to St. Louis, a Pullman, Lincoln to St. Louis, a Pullman, Omaha to Hot Springs, Ark., a Pullman St. Joseph to St. Louis, and a diner.

On the Omaha division the train will cut about two hours off the running time between the two cities from the fastest passenger now in use by the Missouri Pacific.

ADDITION OF TWO TRAINS GIVES ONE OF THE BEST SERVICES IN THE COUNTRY.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The Missouri Pacific railroad has announced that commencing on Sunday, December 5th, there will be two new trains added to the service on the main line between St. Louis and Omaha and which will give Plattsmouth one of the best train services of any place in the country and one that the Missouri Pacific can feel proud of in serving the patrons of their territory from St. Louis to the north.

The new train No. 110 will leave Omaha at 5:45 p. m., and should arrive at Plattsmouth at 6:15 p. m., a splendid train that will be most popular with the visitors in Omaha who wish to get home in time for the evening.

Honor Veteran Mason Who Is Leaving State

Thirty-Third Degree Masons Tender Dinner to Hon. Francis E. White and Wife.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Hon Francis E. White, pioneer resident of Plattsmouth and Cass county and one of the leading figures in Masonic history in Nebraska, was, with Mrs. White, guests of honor at a dinner tendered by the thirty-third degree Masons of Omaha on the eve of their departure from Omaha for their future home in California.

The dinner was held on Monday evening at the Athletic club in Omaha and was one of the most notable of its kind held in many years and at which was gathered practically all of the members of the highest degree of Masonry. The dinner was given by Frank Cargill Patton, sovereign inspector general of Nebraska.

The compliments of Mr. Patton was presented by James R. Cain in which he outlined the accomplishments of Mr. White in the Masonry of Nebraska. Mr. White responded briefly with a few words of appreciation of the demonstration of the friends. Mr. Patton presented Mrs. White with a very handsome bouquet of flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. White left Omaha yesterday for Los Angeles where they expect to spend their declining years in that pleasant surroundings and where a great many of the relatives are now making their home.

Mr. White is one of the oldest residents of Cass county as his family came here in 1857 and he resided here until 1903 when his selection as secretary of the grand lodge of the Masons made necessary his removal to Omaha and where he has since made his home. While a resident here Mr. White was very active in the political life of the county and was elected as state representative on the democratic ticket several times. Mr. White was also U. S. marshal under President Cleveland from 1893 to 1897.

Besides holding the office of secretary of the Nebraska grand lodge he was grand secretary of the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons, of the grand council of Royal and Select Masters, and of the grand commandery of the Knights Templar, all of Nebraska.

Among those present were Frank C. Patton, Francis E. White, George H. Thummel, James R. Cain, J. C. Robinson, T. W. McCullough, Rev. Luther M. Kuhns, George Platner, Alva M. Smith, Dr. John Simpson, Alva M. Smith, and the following officials: Dan A. Johnson, venerable master of Mt. Moriah Lodge of Perfection; Hugh T. Cutler, wise master of Sempter Fidelis chapter of Rose Croix; Sam J. Leon, eminent commander of St. Andrew's preceptory Knights Kadosh, and Sol J. Levy, venerable master of Nebraska constituency.

CAPTURE STRAY COW

From Wednesday's Daily—
The police department of the city has a guest on their hands at this time that is eating her head off and requires the constant care of Officer Clyde Jackson who made the capture. From the residence of William F. Falk in the south part of the city last night came word of the fact that their peace and quietude was threatened by the presence of one Jersey cow, residence unknown and likewise her destination. The police officer hastened out and led the cow on in to the main section of the city where she is lodging in style at the barn of George Jacks and awaiting the coming of the owner. The cow is apparently a valuable one and gives a goodly amount of milk as Officer Jackson was called upon this morning to look after this part of the cow's care. The owner of the bovine can secure her by settling for the keep and trouble that she has occasioned.

Modern Woodmen to Have a Degree Team

Fred H. Vincent, Chief Forester Gets Team of Fifteen Members Started.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Cass Camp No. 332, Modern Woodmen of America, will have in a very short time a real live and snappy degree team that will add much interest to the meetings of this large fraternal order and which is to be composed of the young and live wire members of the order who will see that the ritualistic work of the order is properly carried out at the meetings.

The head of the new organization will be Fred H. Vincent as chief forester and who will be assisted by a large staff of workers.

There was some fifteen present at the meeting last night and this evening another meeting will be held at 7 o'clock to further enlarge the membership of the drill team and all members of the Modern Woodmen who are interested are urged to get out and join in the new team.

The drill team organized by the election of officers, the following being named: L. M. Boynton, president; William Bartek, vice president; Clemens Wooster secretary; G. A. Bartek, treasurer.

The members of Cass camp who were in the initial fifteen members of the team are L. M. Boynton, William Bartek, Clemens Wooster, G. A. Bartek, Howard Dodds, R. H. Price, H. P. Ddw., A. J. Schlieske, Floyd Hacker, Fred Vincent.

Chamber of Commerce Gets Set for Work

Committees Selected and Now Drive for Active Work Will Be on in Community.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The directors of the chamber of commerce met last evening at the rooms on North Sixth street and by the appointment of committees got lined up for the carrying out of a great many plans that might be developed along community developments and expansion in the next twelve months.

The chamber of commerce has not had their active functioning committees hitting their right stride this season and the line up of the various committees now will result in a great deal more energy being found in the civic organization.

Since coming here in September Secretary W. G. Davis has done a great deal of the stimulating of interest in the city and its interests but he has been handicapped by the fact that there was a lack of live and active committees with which he could co-operate in the various moves that would be brought up for the advancement of the city and the community. With the assignment of the committees and the aid that they can give our live and energetic secretary there should be a great deal of progress made along all lines of industry and future advancement.

Let the secretary and committees have the wholehearted support of the community and they can get through with any proposition but without the general support the greatest civic organizer in the world would be handicapped in his work. Get busy now and stand squarely behind Secretary Davis and the committees of the chamber of commerce in their work of boosting Plattsmouth and its best interests.

GIVES FRIEND FAREWELL

From Wednesday's Daily—
The W. H. E. S. club, composed of a number of the young ladies of the city were entertained at the home of Miss Emma Johnson on South 8th street, the event being in honor of Miss Mildred Schlater, who departed yesterday for Bridgeport, Nebraska, where she will join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Schlater and reside on the ranch there.

The evening was spent in playing bridge and in the contests Miss Schlater was awarded the prize for her skill at this fascinating game.

The only part of the evening that was not enjoyed to the utmost was the fact that the members of the club were having to part with Miss Schlater who had been such a popular and highly esteemed member of the club and one of the most charming young ladies of the city.

The serving of dainty refreshments at an appropriate hour added to the enjoyable features of the evening.

Misses Helen Libershal and Catherine Kelligher were among the guests of the club.

Being Unafraid One Way to Attain Success

Secretary W. G. Davis Has Many Suggestions as to Community Enterprises.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Yesterday L. R. Snipes called—he claims Nebraska offers a great field for the farmer in turkey raising. Spell "turkey"—our King of Eats with a capital "T" if you please. The greatest difficulty in turkey raising is that they cannot be raised along with chickens account of the chickens infesting them with worms, that cause death. But our wide range, insects, cheap feed, and climate are ideal for the turkey.

FOR MISS DOROTHY COWLES

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin E. Greene, Jr., on South Lakesside Drive, was the scene of a delightful miscellaneous shower given Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Dorothy Cowles, whose marriage to Mr. Frank McDaniel will occur on Tuesday, November the twenty-third. The date also being the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Propst, a sister of Miss Cowles.

Decorations throughout the house were in keeping with Thanksgiving, the approaching season. A general social time was spent in games for which a number of prizes were won. The guests hemmed tea towels for the bride-elect, also each one presented her with their favorite recipe.

A dainty refreshment course was served by Mrs. Greene in which the color scheme was used.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the honoree. Those enjoying the afternoon with Miss Cowles were: Mrs. Alice Cowles, Mrs. Wm. E. Propst, Mrs. W. A. Hendry, Mrs. Charles E. Wilcox, Mrs. Lyge Regan, Mrs. Wm. Stratman, Mrs. Dwight A. Propst, Mrs. Percy Hardisty, Mrs. A. D. Sole, Mrs. Frank Brink, Mrs. J. I. Wilson, Mrs. E. E. Greene, Sr., Mrs. Ivan Williams, Mrs. Frank Hardin, Mrs. Cora Kiser, Mrs. M. Tumber, Mrs. Wentworth, Mrs. W. Avery, Mrs. Irving Heglund, Mrs. Gilchrist, Mrs. Harry Molander, Mrs. Norman Anderson, Mrs. George Krieger, Mrs. McLaughlin, Miss Dorothy Brink, Miss Vivian Holley, Jasper, Thanks, old scout—it is appreciated. Jasper is a Plattsmouth booster—buys his coal here when he could ship in at considerable saving.

Greene, Jr.

H. Pollock, on his small sheep investment, realized 50% profit, and has the original ewes for breeders. This from the wool and lambs! Others can do as well. These hills about here along the river offer ideal sheep grazing.

So—if we do sometimes repeat our stuff—and wait to mention stuff you'd like to hear about, just know the secretary is not discouraged, but is sitting "tight" and chasing every clew available to bring into Plattsmouth what we need. We need right now tho, a still greater spirit of "Unity and Co-operation" and confidence in the wonderful possibilities of our own city. That will do it.

W. G. DAVIS,
Sec'y. C. of C.

Was asked why I said nothing more about a cannery for Plattsmouth? Wondered if I was discouraged. Want to say never felt more encouraged or more hopeful for Plattsmouth than right now. Don't see a thing to be discouraged about. If you saw the "heart rendering" letters we receive from canneries approached, you'd realize that conditions don't justify expansion on their part right now—but eventually, all right. Patience is a great virtue, when it falls to stint enthusiasm.

If Plattsmouth cared to raise $20,000, have a man with $25,000 more to put into the Alfalfa mill and install a four car capacity cold-storage and open up a first class dressed poultry plant. Will take $45,000 to do this, but with it comes an experienced poultry man. He sees a great future in this business in Plattsmouth.

Lexington, Missouri, just established the Lexington Textile mills, thru their Chamber of Commerce. Employs 200 men—so the secretary of the C. of C. writes me—but Lexington furnished the building and site at a cost of $35,000 to the city.

It is being un-afraid that encouraged our three leading dealers in men's clothing to carry in Platts-mouth the finest line in the state of Nebraska! If they had been "afraid" we'd be running to "omeyha" for our duds.

The movies made of President McKinley's inaugural in 1897 were the first ever taken of an important historical event. Time flies!

"In Chicago a barrel of beer costs $3 to make; sells for $60; leaves $57 for ammunition."

The task of Missionaries is much easier in lands where the people can't read about the white civilization.

If Plattsmouth wants the alfalfa mill running, at present, would cost $20,000. Ten thousand dollar subscriptions will do it. Who wants to start the ball-rolling Who's un-afraid?"

ACCEPTS NEW POSITION
From Wednesday's Daily—
Donald Pickle, who has been working at the store of Grist & Grist in their sales department, has severed his connection with that institution and will start in on his work as a clerk at the local Burlington shops. Mr. Pickle is a very efficient and popular young man and should make a most efficient employe for the Burlington.
