

Union Department

Prepared Exclusively for The Journal.

Col. W. R. Young, better known as Rex, was looking after some business matters in Union on last Friday evening.

Charles Greene was a visitor in Murray for a time last Sunday and also was spending some time at Cedar Creek as well.

The new proprietors of the lower cafe report that business is very good with them and it keeps them on the hustle all the time.

Clifton B. Smith and wife were visiting with friends and looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Monday evening.

J. A. Eaton, better known as Alex, was at Nebraska City twice on last Monday, where he was delivering hogs at the packing house for L. G. Todd.

Mrs. Mary Johnson of Weeping

Water, a sister of Dan Lynn was a visitor at the Lynn home for Thanksgiving and all enjoyed the occasion very much.

L. G. Todd and wife were guests on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Todd, of near Murray, where all enjoyed the day most pleasantly.

Mrs. G. S. Upton, who has been feeling quite poorly for some time, is at this time reported as being much improved which is good news to her many friends.

Miss Margie Hoback was spending the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor and the occasion was enjoyed very much by both the guest and her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Upton, who have purchased a home in Union and are having it fixed up, will move to town as the home is completed and put in the condition which they are desiring.

C. G. McCarthy shelled and shipped the corn which he has been having stored in the crib at the elevator, and Wm. Craig has been hauling and delivering cobs to the people of the town.

M. R. Rathe and daughter, of near Adams, were visiting for last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Rathe, who makes his home north of Union on one of the farms of Mr. L. G. Todd.

Charles McCarthy, while things are rather quiet in the grain business, has been putting in his time painting the elevator and making it look real nice, as well as preserving the structure.

H. H. Becker, with his saw rig, cut the winter's wood for Dan Lynn on Monday of this week and now Judge Lynn and the good wife will be able to keep warm the remainder of the winter.

The extension service which is being put out by the farm bureau held a meeting at the home of Mr. E. A. Dowler of Union last week and a report of which will follow in another issue of next week.

The teachers of the Union schools were enjoying the Thanksgiving day and days following incident to the short holiday at their homes and returning for the school work again the following Monday.

Word was received from Everett Armstrong, who is receiving treatment in a hospital at Lincoln, that he is making some very satisfactory improvements, and is able to be up and around a portion of the time.

Attorney C. E. Tefft was a visitor in Union for a short time on last Wednesday evening, as he was changing trains for his home in Weeping Water, he having been looking after some legal matters in Plattsmouth.

B. Everett, of near Nebraska City, who is to move to the vicinity of Union in the spring, was looking after some business matters in Union on last Monday, driving over to the stirring little city of Cass county in his car.

Joe Bauer and Lee Farris, who were called to Plattsmouth to assist in straightening out some legal tangles, were allowed to come home on last Wednesday evening to enjoy the dinner and supper which was served by the ladies of the Baptist church.

Attorney Charles L. Graves, the hustling counsellor of Union was a visitor on Friday of last week at Murray, where he was a guest of his brother, A. H. Graves of that place, and where Mr. Graves of Union helped his brother celebrate his 86th birthday anniversary.

Mont Robb, who has been suffering with rheumatism to the extent that he was not able to be at the cream station for some time, has so far recovered that he was able to be at the place of business on last Monday, but was feeling far from his accustomed good health.

James W. Holmes and wife of Plattsmouth were visiting for last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mont Robb, where they all enjoyed the occasion very much. They were pained to know that Mr. Robb was suffering so much from rheumatism, but pleased that he was showing improvement.

The Union druggist is happy and has abundant cause for the same, for his daughter arrived at about nine o'clock last Monday and reports the arrival of a very fine young lady at their home, who promises to be a comfort for them in their advancing years. But the chances are ten to one the little lady will want a home of her own in another twenty years. We don't blame her, either.

Mrs. R. H. Christweiser, who was nursing at Plattsmouth for some ten days, arrived home last Thursday in time to enjoy the Thanksgiving festivities with the folks, but was called to the Jesse Adams place on last Friday, and as she had promised to assist at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moore when they had company, and which arrived on Monday, she came to town and is nursing Mrs. Moore and the little babe.

Phyllis Ribn and wife were banquetters at the Baptist ladies' dinner in Union Thursday, where they sure got a good dinner and one that was greatly enjoyed. In the evening they ate with the ladies of the Christian church at Murray, getting another excellent meal, and with that pace they certainly could not complain of not being well fed.

Some of the people of Union and vicinity were visiting in Plattsmouth on last Sunday night and one was agreeable to staying for a few days on invitation of the officers, though another returned home, though with a difficulty for he had to miss meeting the officers, who came down the first of the week and insisted on his coming up and being company for his friend. They both are not enjoying their stay in the county seat very much.

Will Use Union Gravel
The company which was working in Union distributing gravel on the highway, have effected a lease with Joseph Lindsay whereby they will during the coming summer use much of the gravel which is deposited in the banks on the farm of Mr. Lindsay. This will make the building of good roads in this vicinity much easier and will also make the labor market in Union and vicinity more active.

New Manager for Store
Wayne Ackley has been secured by A. L. Becker as manager of the store, which will still remain the property of Mr. Becker but which will be conducted by Mr. Ackley and wife in the future, and will be run on a cash basis, which will permit the selling of the goods at a lower figure and secure better goods at the same price. Mr. Ackley and wife are both experienced in the matter of business and will keep the business in good condition and serve the people well.

Receives Injury on Face.
Eddie Towne, while operating a trap for the projecting of blue rocks at a shooting match a few days since received a very severe injury, when the trap slipped and struck this estimable young man in the side of the face and neck making a very severe laceration, which bled profusely, but which is getting along nicely at this time.

Will Give Bazaar and Supper
The ladies of the Methodist church of Union will give a dinner and bazaar on December 11th, for the benefit of the church, watch for further announcements of the entertainment.

Dinner a Success.
The Baptist ladies Thanksgiving dinner, supper and bazaar was a fine success in every way. Despite the stormy day and bad roads there was a large crowd present. We heartily think all of our patrons for their loyalty, also all those who helped us in any way to make this day a success, and hope you will all be with us next year. We also wish one and all of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy Prosperous New Year.—Committee.

Will Have Roll Call
The services of the Baptist church on December twelfth, will partake of a different program than the ordinary service, as the discourse by the minis-

Urges Graveling of Country Roads for Better Travel

Secretary of Chamber of Commerce Has Some Words in Regard to Road Needs.

John Barleycorn is dead but he left a bootlegger.—Exchange.

"Following the news of last week that the atom is divisible comes a dispatch from Chicago that skirts are to be shorter and tighter this winter."

Regardless however of the shortness or tightness of skirts, or the divisibility of an atom, or the legacy of John Barleycorn—(may his soul rest in peace)—the most serious proposition confronting Cass county is the graveling of her terrible, muddy, slick, sloppy, rutty country roads, and as soon as it is appreciated what a toll these roads take from all of us, and especially the rural communities for excess gas, depreciation, and loss of time, and nervous energy, there should be a howl go up that will sound like a real revolution.

If we don't holler, you bet we'll never get heard!

Wish some of you victims that struggle into market over these rotten mud roads, would come in and tell us what you think of them. We can go in the back room and lock the door so you can express yourself freely.

You might also figure, how much is a good road worth to you

The American is the most patient and most abused mortal in the world. Aside from letting his wife boss him to-death he'll for years get stuck in the mud; pay out good dollars for skid chains; slip off into the gutter; spend quarts and buckets of gasoline on bum roads; wear out his car; lose his time; and take it for granted.

Next time you try to climb that long steep mud-slick hill without chains 'cause you forgot and left 'em at home, how much would a good gravel road mean to you then?

It may be sweet glorification dying while praying but if we get good roads, we'll have to quit praying, start cursing, and perhaps something will begin to go bang!

Some folks and some places have honor thrust upon them. Marysville, Kansas, we take to be such a place. That city has the first merchandise display store, fresh from the over, red hot, for Montgomery Ward Co! No, sweetsie, we can't buy anything here, but just inspect things, and send away for something to be like something that we inspected to be something. And the Montgomery Ward pays Marysville the following crushing compliment "There are thousands of our valued customers living within 30 miles of Marysville etc. etc."

A "Valued Customer" for a mail order house always makes me think of an Omaha street car—"Pay as you enter." It should be "pray as you enter." Did you ever try this scheme—"Dear Montgomerysearrowspuk Co.: Enclosed order is for your Buproof Castiron Sheets and pillow tubing; please send return mail. Will send you check as soon as I have picked my corn, or sold my faters." Try it once—you'd be 'sprised at how "valued" you are!

Many a man of mediocre talents has reached the highest pinnacle of success, by his LOYALTY.

All-weather roads are a good investment. Nebraska can't afford to be without them.

Have you anything to sell? Tell the world about it through the Journal's Want Ad department.

The Nebraska Good Roads Association is working for the construction of county roads, as well as the state-highway system and is requesting that the gasoline tax be increased one cent per gallon, all of this increase to be used on the county roads.

From fifty to one hundred per cent of the money expended for road construction and maintenance goes directly or indirectly for labor.

In many localities, noticeably Otoe and Sarpy counties, the farmers recognizing the value of gravel roads by their farms are putting their money into it as an investment.

Poor roads are laying an enormous burden upon the people of the state and the nation. A burden many times greater than the so-called good road taxes.

I hate to be a kicker, I always long for peace; But the wheel that does the squeaking Is the one that gets the grease.

—Sanford Herald. W. G. DAVIS, Sec'y C. of C.

ADDRESSES BIBLE CLASS

From Wednesday's Daily—Last evening the members of the young men's class of the Methodist church held a very interesting meeting at their rooms in the church and which was very largely attended by the members of this class. The usual "sing" was enjoyed at the opening of the meeting and which was followed by a short address by County Attorney W. G. Kieck. Mr. Kieck spoke on some of the phases of law enforcements and the experiences that come in the office of the prosecuting attorney in the investigation of crime and its punishment and which was most interesting to the members of the class and which they followed with the closest interest.

LEIPERT CASE ON DOCKET

From Wednesday's Daily—The next case to be called in the present jury term of the district court will be that of Philip G. Leipert vs. the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad. This is an action in which the plaintiff seeks to recover damages for the loss of grain alleged to have occurred during shipment over the railroad of the defendant company. This will be the last case of the jury panel until December 20th when the jury will be called back to try the case over the estate of the late Aaron Gamble of near Elmwood.

Announcement:--

We have secured the services of Mr. Wayne Ackley and his wife as managers of our store, and who will be in charge beginning December 1st. . . .
