

MURDOCK DEPARTMENT.

PREPARED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE JOURNAL.

Emil Kuehn was looking after some business matters in Elmwood on last Thursday afternoon.

Jess Landholm and Floyd Hite were looking after some business matters in Lincoln on last Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Jessie Melvin was called to Lincoln on last Tuesday, where she was looking after some shopping for the day.

John Amgwert was a business caller in Manley on last Friday morning, driving over with his car and sample books of wall paper.

Odd was harrowing the streets to get them dried so they could be dragged and gotten in condition for the winter which is liable to hop out on us any old time.

Bryan McDonald, who is attending the state university, was a visitor at home for over Sunday, coming to Ashland, where he was met by the folks with the car.

H. R. Schmidt and wife and Louis Schmidt and family were visiting in Lincoln and looking after some business matters as well as doing some pre-Christmas shopping as well.

J. E. Hendrix and wife were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Esmund on last Tuesday evening, where all enjoyed a most pleasant oyster supper and visited for the evening.

Glenna Davis, of Stella, who was visiting and assisting with the work at the Kroh cafe, departed for her home just after Thanksgiving and is staying at home for the present, assisting with the work there.

Fred Stock, Sr., was taken very ill on last Wednesday afternoon, and a physician was called and after treatment he was feeling some better although far from feeling the best as yet. His many friends are hoping he will soon be back in his usual good health.

Mrs. H. A. Guthmann was a visitor with friends in Omaha last Thursday, making the trip via the Rock Island which now gives about as much time in Omaha as possible for it goes a little before daylight and returns after the curtains of night have gathered.

Mrs. A. Stauss has been at Hastings for the past week, where she has been taking treatment for her eyes, which have been giving this excellent woman much trouble for some time and with her being correctly fitted with glasses it is hoped she will see better and be relieved from the trouble with her eyes.

L. Neitzel was a business visitor in Lincoln on last Thursday afternoon, going via Greenwood and driving in his car. He was hoping along for the making of the trip and returned besides looking after the business that called him there in two hours and thirty-five minutes and surely that keeps a Universal car galloping right along.

Gust Gakemeier, who is sure a farmer and who was fortunate in that his farm fell in a little moister portion of the country than some others, is hoping to it picking his corn, which seems to be yielding pretty well. Gust was getting from some portions of the land approximately 70 bushels to the acre. Of course some did not yield as much as that.

On last Sunday A. H. Ward, who is one of the excellent mechanics of this vicinity, with the wife and little one, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gillespie and Miss Viola Everett hitched their automobile up and in the forenoon departed for Ashland, where they visited and had their dinner and then drove to Lincoln and Eagle, getting home in time for the supper which their trip gave them an appetite for.

The Royal Neighbors of America, at their last meeting, after the completion of their regular lodge work, conferred the degree on Miss Bird, of Alvo, and which was followed by a luncheon. The ladies of the order are doing good work at this time and are adding to their list of members with each month. They will hold their election of officers for the ensuing term at their next regular meeting, which will be held on December 7th.

The Ladies Aid society of the Evangelical church gave a dinner and bazaar on last Friday at the hall, with dinner beginning at noon. They continued to serve dinner as long as anyone was hungry and there was certainly no need for their being so, as the ladies know just how to cure that kind of an ailment and they did it too. They also conducted a bazaar along with the dinner and had an excellent time, working hard and netting a nice sum for their efforts.

Emil Kuehn and O. E. McDonald were over to Murray on last Wednesday, where they were attending a land sale which was being held there. There were 40 acres in the tract for sale, located on the highway, and the purchase price was $150 per acre, or $6,000 for the forty acres. The purchaser was L. M. Davis, of Lincoln. A 360-acre farm a mile and a half north of the highway did not sell, as the highest bid on it was $101 per acre and the owner would not let it go for that amount.

W. O. Gillespie and A. H. Ward were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on last Tuesday, driving via the Red Ball highway, which they complained was very bad the farther east they got. They declared, however, that the portion which Mr. Eppings looks after was in pretty fair shape. Sure, Mr. Eppings knows how to care for the roads and is willing to do it, for the other night, after it snowed, he was out and over his section of the road before it came day light. While this is more than is expected, he is showing a willingness to do what he can to keep the roads in good condition.

We, the members of the Ladies Aid society of the Evangelical church, wish to thank the public in general for the co-operation and support given us at our bazaar and dinner. Your patronage assured our success for which we thank you. LADIES AID SOCIETY.

The School Playing

This playing is studying and hard work as well, being in the shape of a play which was given on last Friday night, and of which we do not know materially about, other than that it must have been good, when they were going after it in earnest. The play, which was directed by Gladys Reiber, of Elmwood, one of the teachers of the Murdock schools, was entitled "The Feast of the Red Corn."

Otto Klemme Doing Nicely

While with other children at play, Otto, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klemme, sliding on a pond of ice, the little fellow had the misfortune to fracture one of the bones in his leg, which was very bad, the bones slipping past each other at the fracture. John Amgwert, the painter and barber, passing at the time, took the little fellow to the home and from there he was taken to the physician at Elmwood and thence to a hospital in Lincoln, where the fracture was reduced. The little fellow is getting along nicely at this time, but it will be some time before he will be well again.

Getting Ready for Christmas

At the drug store the goods were being re-arranged and room made for the Christmas display which is now on at the business place of H. V. McDonald. Step around and see what he has for sale and do your shopping in Murdock—also do it in time to have the goods arrive at their destination if you have to send the presents away.

Shower Bride to Be

The young people, friends of Miss Fred Werner, who is soon to become a bride, gave this estimable young lady a shower of things which newly married people find handy, such as kitchen utensils and house articles and at the same time had a most delightful time as young people can and do. The date of the wedding when this young lady is to be joined in matrimony will be in the near future.

Celebrate Wedding Anniversary

On December 2nd, 1914, Mr. and Mrs. Lacey McDonald were united in marriage and have made their home in Murdock, where they have a large number of very close friends and of the latter, a number were gathered at their home on last Thursday evening to appropriately celebrate the passing of their twelfth wedding anniversary. A most pleasant evening was had and all present enjoyed the good time which was had and in departing, extended the wish that this excellent young couple might enjoy many years of happy wedded life.

DORCHY ASKS REHEARING OF THE SUPREME COURT

Washington, Dec. 3.—August Dorchy, the labor leader, whose conviction for violating the Kansas industrial relations act in the calling of a coal strike was recently affirmed by the supreme court, asked today to grant him a rehearing. He contended his conviction should have been set aside because the compulsory arbitration features of the Kansas act did not apply to coal mines.

Izzak Walton League to Name Perman't Officers

Local Chapter to Get Into the Game Right—Walton League Gains Over State.

From Saturday's Daily—The local chapter of the Izaak Walton league which was formed some time ago is now well on the highway to becoming one of the largest and largest organizations in the city and at their next meeting they will take up the matter of the selection of the permanent officers of the chapter and get ready for the task of making hunting and fishing a real sporting proposition and in seeing that the wild game, birds and fish are given proper protection that will assure them being preserved for the future generations.

The meeting of the local chapter will be held on Wednesday evening at the chamber of commerce rooms at 8 o'clock and at which time in addition to the election of officers there will be the arrangement for the holding a banquet in the near future by the losers to the winners in the membership contest.

J. E. Boggs, national field representative of the Izaak Walton league, was here yesterday for a few hours interviewing the local Waltons and states that at the present time there are 212 chapters of the league in the state and all of whom are doing fine and aiding in the good work of the game protection. Mr. Boggs reports a new chapter organized at Falls City and a splendid meeting that was addressed by Congressman John H. Wheeler and the president of the league, who is well pleased here with the local conditions and feels that every sportsman in the community should be enrolled in the league.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

On Monday evening a number of men met at the parlors of the Clements building and enjoyed a social evening with E. T. Comer in honor of his seventieth birthday. The evening was spent in playing Somerset up to ten o'clock, when all went to the home of Mrs. Olson where they were served to a feast consisting of an oyster stew, celery, pickles, coffee and a large birthday cake upon which were seventy candles and one big one which was to represent a big year for June in 1927. Mr. Comer carved the cake which was a big double decker angel food. At the close of the repast Mr. L. A. Tyson made a short talk in which he congratulated Mr. Comer upon his active life as a good sport and hunter and also said that they desired him to always retain his good health so that he could have his annual duck feeds. This received a hearty applause. A fine silver cake tray was presented Mr. Comer with the occasion and he carved the cake which was a big double decker angel food. At the close of the repast Mr. L.
