L. R. UPTON

Union,

Nebraska

Mrs. W. H. Younker son, Vernie, and wife arrived in Union from their home at Ogallala, Neb., Thursday to spend Christmas with relatives in their old home town.
Little Eileen Chriswiler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Chriswiler, is quite ill at the home of her grandparents, H. M. Chriswiler, of Murray, with an attack of pneumonia.
Charles Green, who has been having some time with one of his teeth, which has been aching of late, was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Monday, where he had the disturbing molar treated.
Kenneth Crook, son of Jesse Crook, living just south of Union, who is a student in Cotner University at Bethany, has been home for the past week spending his vacation at the home of his father.
Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lynn, of Parsons, Kansas, were enjoying a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Irwin, of Union, both the guests and the host and hostess and their family enjoying the visit.
Mr. R. E. Hastings, who makes his home in Union, went to Ohio, Nebraska, last Wednesday to attend a Home coming banquet of the Masonic and Eastern Star orders, of which he is a member.
Henry H. Becker and wife entertained at their home in Union and had as their guests for the occasion the parents of Mrs. Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Mullis and a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mullis, of Nebraska City.
Happiness came on Christmas day to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McQuinn, when the stork and Doctor Kintner presented this estimable couple with a fine young man, who is to make his home with them in the future.
A letter from M. Lynde and wife who some time ago departed for the west and who are at Snohomish, Washington, tells of them having some four inches of snow in the west. They are enjoying the west fine, however.
Mrs. John Lidgett entertained the Woman's club of Union last Tuesday afternoon. A good number of members were out and a very interesting meeting was held, after which a dainty lunch was served and enjoyed by those present.
Mrs. Emma McCarthy, mother of Messrs. F. H. McCarthy and C. G. McCarthy, was a guest of the latter at his home in Union for Christmas, and she and the child, and all surely had fine time this Christmas day.
W. B. Banning and wife will depart for Lincoln on Saturday of this week to make their home for the term of the state legislature. They will make their home at 648 South 12th street, but will spend their Sundays in Union as a general thing.
J. W. Banning and wife of Alvo were guests at the home of Henry O'Donnell and sister on Christmas day and also visited for a short time with friends and relatives here. They enjoyed a most excellent dinner and had a splendid visit at the O'Donnell home.
On Christmas day, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Robb and wife were visiting in Elmwood at the home of the parents of Mrs. Robb, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Tyson, where they also entertained for the day and dinner, Cyres Tyson and wife and their son, Jimmie, of Omaha.
S. A. Hathaway, of Poplar Bluffs, Mo., who formerly resided in Union and was engaged in business here many years since, was visiting with his many friends for the past few weeks and was spending the Christmas tide with Mr. and Mrs. Emery Hathaway.
Harold Nickles and wife of near Greenwood were spending their Christmas at the home of Frank and Anna Bauer, where all enjoyed the time very much, they remaining over until Sunday, when the husband and wife returned, while the kiddies stayed for a longer visit with Uncle Frank and Grandmother.
Mrs. Lovina Comer entertained at her home in Union on Christmas day and had for her guests a number of relatives and friends for dinner and the day. A most excellent dinner was served which was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Stine and family, David Murray and family, Grandmother Catherine Stine and Tabitha Smith.
Mrs. George Saxton, who has been quite poorly for some time past and who is visiting with her son, George Saxton, at his home in South Omaha, underwent treatment for an abscess on one of her kidneys, having a drainage tube inserted and while she is still very weak and quite ill, it is thought that she is somewhat improved.
Dr. Sherman, whose wife is a sister of Mrs. Clara Davis, of Union, and who formerly lived in Union and later for a number of years in Kansas City, died at his home in Redfield, S. D., at an early hour Christmas morning, being 65 years old. The remains were taken by the wife to King City, Mo., for interment. Mrs. Davis joined her sister at Union, going on with her for the funeral and interment in Missouri.
Mrs. J. D. Cross, who has been at Ottawa, Kansas, for some time, caring for her sister, Mr. Arthur, and Mrs. W. B. Gates, who have been quite ill for some time, with a turn for the better in their condition, was able to return home, arriving here on Christmas eve and enjoying the following day at home, but was called back Sunday morning, as the sister had turned suddenly worse and the husband was still very ill. Mrs. Cross departed immediately for her sister's home, where she is again caring for her sister and husband.
A complaint growing out of a disagreement between Herman C. Ross and D. B. Porter, which was heard before Municipal Judge C. L. Graves, resulted in a dismissal of the defendant, Mr. Porter, who was charged with profanely, the costs of the prosecution amounting to some twenty dollars. Some, thinking that justice had been defeated, filed a complaint before the county judge charging Mr. Porter with disturbing the peace, and he went up and pleaded guilty and received a fine of one dollar and costs, amounting to $3.50, making the entire charge $4.50. This should satisfy everyone.

Two of the young people of near Union, who had lived in the vicinity for many years and who had known and loved each other, slipped away to the state of Iowa, where there was a Grains Green, but known in the Hawkeye state as LeMars, and were there united in marriage on December 20th, they being Mr. Frank Roddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Roddy and Miss Charlotte Moore. The young people have returned home after a visit and will engage in farming during the coming year. The Journal joins with their best of friends in extending to the newlyweds best wishes for future happiness, prosperity and many friends.

Married in Iowa

Charles Riden Atkinson was born in the state of Kentucky March 25, 1874 and departed from this life on December 24, 1926, at the age of 51 years, 8 months and 29 days.
On May 6, 1900, he was united in marriage to Ollie Ann Adams, at Noel, McDonald county, Missouri, where they resided for four years, after which they moved to Polk county, Missouri where they lived until eight years ago, when they moved to Nebraska to make their home.
To this union nine children were born, all of whom, as well as the beloved wife, survive him. The children, of whom there are five girls and four boys, are as follows: Mrs. Frank Cottingham of Hawley; Alice Atkinson of Omaha; Jim, Blanche, Harlan, Coy, Ruby, Finis and Georgia, residing at home. There are also three grandchildren.
Besides his immediate family, Mr. Atkinson leaves a step-mother, six brothers and three sisters, they being Will and Eliza, of California; Sherman of Arizone; Annie, of Kansas; Walter, of Missouri; Mrs. Maggie Atkinson, Alice, Marvin, Homer and Harry, all of Nebraska.
Charlie was a kind, loving father, ever thinking of his family first and he will be greatly missed by his children and wife, but it seemed to be God's wish that he should be separated from them and being God's wish, we will try and live better lives and some day join him in the Great Beyond.
The funeral was held on Sunday, December 26th, at the late home, being conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor, and interment was in the West Union cemetery.
The Journal joins with the many friends of this good man in expressing condolences to the family who are thus bereft of a loving father and husband.

Passing of C. R. Atkinson

Maxine Hathaway, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hathaway, died on Tuesday, December 21, at the age of but one day. The funeral was held on December 22, conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor, with interment in the East Union cemetery. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of their many friends in the sad loss that has come to them during the Holiday season and it is the sincere wish of all, including the Journal that time may soften the sorrow and brighter days come into their lives as the months and years go by.

Death of Little One

Enjoy Christmas Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frans entertained at their home in Union on Christmas day a party of friends who joined in the dissection of the turkey that graced their festive board, along with many other good things to eat. Those present were Mrs. Jennie Frans, mother of Ray Frans, Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore and their son, John, of Murray; Mrs. Rose Kendall, Miss Rachel Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. Rue Frans and their daughter, Miss Juan.

Dinner Party

Family Reunion Christmas
At the home of S. W. Copenhaver, on Christmas day was gathered the family and there all enjoyed the occasion very much. There was an excellent dinner served which only Mrs. Copenhaver knows how to prepare. There were there for the occasion Art Copenhaver and wife, of Plattsmouth; Mrs. Ralph McNamee and husband, of Brush, Colorado; J. C. Shaveley and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Arden Ruhman and Charles Swan and family, of Union.

Judge Lynn and Wife Entertain

At the very pleasant home of Judge and Mrs. Dan Lynn, on Christmas day, there was entertained a large party of friends, who surely did enjoy the excellent dinner and a splendid day at this hospitable home. The turkey that graced the festive board was shipped in from Ohio, for the occasion and the fine Christmas dinner, consisting of both roast turkey and fried chicken as well as pies, cakes, salads and other tempting viands too numerous to mention, was prepared and served by Mrs. Lynn, who is noted for her appetizing meals and everybody ate their fill, a good time being had by all. At 4 p. m. the guests departed loud in praise of their host and hostess for the pleasant time they had enjoyed and bestowing many compliments upon "Uncle Dan" and "Aunt Martha" as royal entertainers.

The guests were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. George Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. William Porter, Mr. and Mrs. John Lidgett, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, Mrs. Joe Lidgett, Henry Lidgett, J. W. Woodard and Robert Hastings.

Gave Shower
On Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rahe was given a shower in honor of Miss Naomi Mougat, who was united in marriage with Mr. David Rankin on Wednesday evening. Miss Naomi, who has been teaching school at Whitney, Nebraska, met this excellent young man, their acquaintance rapidly ripening into love. They will make their home at Whitney, where the groom is engaged in farming. The Journal, with the many friends, extends congratulations to this excellent couple and also wish them much happiness, prosperity and health.

Christmas Programs Given
The two churches of Union observed Christmas eve with programs and a Christmas tree and treat for the kiddies which was surely enjoyed by the young folks and who were well pleased to greet Santa Claus.

At Mont Robb's Home
Mrs. F. W. Robb and Miss Gussie Robb entertained for Christmas day, giving the dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mont Robb, Mrs. Bessie Robb, wife of Mr. F. W. Robb, doing the cooking at her home south of town and the dinner being served at the home in Union. There were three for the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Glover and son of Omaha, they arriving on Christmas eve, when the dinner was served and remaining over the night, returning home the following day; Mr. and Mrs. C. West, of Wyoming; Mrs. Minnie Stafford and son, Herbert, of Nebraska City. The evening was most excellently enjoyed by all present.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS ELECT

From Wednesday's Daily—
The Royal Neighbors of America held their annual election of officers at their lodge rooms in the Woodmen building on Monday evening and with a very large number of the members in attendance at the meeting. The following were selected:
Oracle—Mrs. Helen Meisterger.
Vice-Oracle—Mrs. Flora Arn.
Chancellor—Mrs. Rose Sulser.
Recorder—Mrs. Garnet Ohlschlagger.
