Urges Consideration of the Bank Settlement Plan

Steps That Might Be Best for the Whole Community That Should Be Considered.

Over the Christmas holidays, finished reading the Life of Christ by Giovanni Papini—one of the most entrancing living stories of the Christ, from an orthodox standpoint ever had the privilege of studying. The simplicity of the story, its rapid movement, from the birth to its climax at the cross, would appeal to all lovers of orthodox Christianity.

Previously had enjoyed an entirely different view of the growth and development of the Bible, by Prof. Sunderland, dean of theology at the Ann Arbor University, Ann Arbor, Mich. Also the Bible by Rev. Gladden. It is fine to throw these stories together, and drink at the fountain of these great minds.

And speaking about poetry, frankly admit am not much of a reader of poems, but the Rubaiyat, and The Eternal Goodness are my two favorites along with a lot of others, they stand out supreme. The Quakers and Unitarians both claim Whittier as their own—however, that is immaterial.

Whittier is sublime here—
"Who fathoms the Eternal Thought?
The Lord is God! He needeth not
The poor device of man."

"And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain;
That bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain."

"And so the besided the Silent Sea
I wait the aufulled star
No harm from Him can come to me
On ocean or on shore."

"And Thou, O Lord! by whom are seen
Thy creatures as they be,
Forgive me if too close I lean
My human heart on Thee!"

In "A Psalm of Life" Longfellow in the following strikes vital truths that touch us all, Plattsburgh and vicinity—
"Not enjoyment and not sorrow
In our destined end or way,
But to act that each tomorrow
Finds us farther than today."

"Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate,
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait."

Right now there is up for consideration, the proposition of our First National bank, in its efforts to keep the affairs of that institution out of the costly hands of a receivership. Our only suggestion in this would be that all depositors, in a broad impersonal way, keeping in mind only the most good for Plattsburgh, give earnest consideration of the plan as proposed, weighing it carefully, before its rejection. This is a problem that calls for a great honest fair sense of civic loyalty, and love of our city and is not a matter of personalities. In event this plan can be found to be fair, legitimate, and safe, and for the best interest of all concerned it should be accepted. It is hardly fair to pass snap judgment—get legal advice if necessary, don't attempt to solve these matters on the street-corners. Many a creditor if given a chance to make good, has slowly and honestly paid up a hundred per cent where impulsive, quick court action has lost all parties money. It is with a fair, honest, tolerant attitude this should be approached.

This warm weather has made Lady Skating Rink very weak and faint. Cheer up—cold days are coming.

Wahoo, we note from the Wahoo Democrat, just celebrated the 50th anniversary of the first Union Pacific train's arrival at that city. Notice in 1873 corn was selling for twelve cents a bushel at Wahoo! We also note that Wahoo has several good calf clubs sponsored by the business men of that city. In 1870 the U. P. owned 150 engines and 2,500 cars; today they require 1,000 engines, and 56,000 cars to handle their business. Oh, is Nebraska progressing? We'll say yes! In 1870 best land around Wahoo sold for $10 an acre, and from that down to $3 per acre.

So—
"Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate,
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait."
W. G. DAVIS,
Secretary.

RECEIVES A SAD MESSAGE

From Wednesday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith this morning received a message announcing the death of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Claude Smith, which occurred late yesterday afternoon at the home in Omaha. The death was very sudden and came as a great shock to both Mr. and Mrs. Smith as they had visited at Omaha only last week with the son and his wife and at that time Mrs. Smith was in her usual health. The deceased lady was thirty-five years of age and has been married for the past two years. She is survived by the husband and the aged parents who reside in the west part of the state. The body will be taken to the old home for interment.

District Clerk's Office Has Been Very Busy Place

Close of Year 1926 Has Found Large Volume of Business in the Affairs of Office.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The close of the year 1926 has found the office of the clerk of the district court over which Mrs. Golda Noble Beal presides, a very busy place and one in which a great deal of business has been handled in disposing of the routine matters and the handling of the litigation that passed through the office.

There were filed eighteen criminal cases, all of whom have been disposed of and the larger part of which was tried the jury trials in the district court.

There were damage suits numbering 19 filed, foreclosures to the number of 15 in while the divorces filed there were 13. The cases covering will contests, guardianships, notes, quieting title and other matters.

In the naturalization department of the office there were five granted citizenship certificates, first papers to 13 and the petitions for second papers received from 12 persons. Of the applications for citizenship there will be eleven in the class that will be examined on March 7, 1927.

The office also received six applications for passports from the residents of the county, these largely being from those who were members of the Shennandoah party last summer.

There were three jury terms the past year. The clerk of the court office also handled the sending out of 204 notices to the judges and clerks of election. The office also had the handling of 9 insane cases in the past year.

SECURES OCCUPATION TAX

From Wednesday's Daily—
Chief of Police A. R. Johnson enriched the city coffers yesterday in the sum of $15 which he secured as occupation tax on one of the traveling peddlers who frequent the city with their wares and sometimes escape paying the fee necessary for a license and which the local merchants are required by ordinance to pay. The chief arrested the party and brought him down to the office of City Attorney Capwell where the man was given the alternative of either coming through with the coin for the tax or enjoying a rest in the city jail until he was fined. After some consideration it was decided that the amount would be paid and accordingly the city clerk issued the proper license and everything was lovely and the city richer in the license fees.

RECEIVES PLEASANT NEWS

From Wednesday's Daily—
This morning Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hallstrom received the glad news that they were again grandparents, as early today a fine bouncing little son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hallstrom at Avoca and the occasion is one of the greatest joy to the parents as well as the little brother and sister, who will have a new playmate. The relatives here at Plattsburgh are also delighted over the happy event and the many friends will join in their best wishes for the future welfare of the little one.

MOVING TO MISSOURI

From Wednesday's Daily—
The W. F. Clark family who have made their home in this city for the past few years are to leave within the next few days for Springfield, Missouri, where they are planning to locate on a farm near that place. Mrs. Clark has been very active in this city and her going will bring a great regret among the friends in the church. Gilbert Clark the son, of the family has been one of the mainstays of the local high school football team in the last two years and his going will leave a place hard to fill in this part of the high school athletics.

WORD FROM THE WEST

From Wednesday's Daily—
The many old time friends of the Henry Steinhauer family in this city will be pleased to learn that the Steinhauers are doing very nicely at their new home at Midwest, Wyoming, and that Mr. Steinhauer is engaged there in the oil fields. Mrs. Steinhauer has been enjoying very good health for the past year up to the last two months when she was suffering from a very severe attack of the flu that has kept her confined to the home for the greater part of the time.

County Parts with Number of Capable Officers

Changes in Offices of Sheriff, Treasurer and Register of Deeds Take Place Thursday.

From Wednesday's Daily—
When tomorrow shall have come and gone Cass county will have parted with several of the officials that have served the interests of the people faithfully and well and in extending a well wish for those who are to come upon the scene to take up the duties of the offices to which they have been chosen it is well to acknowledge the splendid work and service that these retiring officials have given.

Three of the principal offices of the county will have changes made in them and which especially in the treasurer's office will bring about a complete readjustment of the working force of the office.

In the office of the sheriff E. P. Stewart, who has held this office for the past three years is stepping out and will be succeeded by Bert Reed, a genial and pleasant gentleman and whom will doubtless make a fine official as he is a most highly esteemed citizen in his home community and a kindly and considerate man in every sense of the term. In the time that Mr. Stewart has been the sheriff of the county he has made a clean cut and business like official and leaves the office in splendid shape and with this county ranking among the best in the state in law enforcement and all of this without any of the show and display that many officers have taken to be a necessary part of their official duties. Mr. Stewart has conducted a careful business administration of the office as well as seeing that the laws were all enforced at all times and his record is one of the most satisfactory in looking back upon in the future years. In the discharge of his office he has been firm and at the same time has given every person that he has taken into custody every right and safeguard that the law has given to them in proving that they might be innocent and no one who has ever been placed in the custody of the sheriff has suffered abuse or intimidation from him in his capacity as the chief law enforcing officer of the county. Mr. Stewart has served Cass county well in the time he has been in office.

In the changes in the county treasurer's office, John E. Turner, one of the fine young men of the county is to take over the reins of office and conduct the future handling of the finances of the county that are in his custody and succeeded by Miss Mia U. Gerling, who is known to the state over as one of the most efficient officers in the state. Miss Gerling has given Cass county many years of faithful service, service that has been more than just merely the handling of the office as she has kept a keen personal interest in the affairs of the position and has been early and late on the job to personally see that the business of the office was kept at the high standard that she has established. Miss Gerling entered the service of the county some twenty years ago, as a clerk in the office of the treasurer and served under the administrations of Frank E. Schlater, W. K. Fox and Mike Tritsch and was selected four years ago as the county treasurer of the office herself and has in all these years served with earnest effort the people of Cass county. Miss Gerling has made a splendid record in all lines of her official work and her systematic manner of conducting the affairs of the office has brought to her words of praise from state officials and treasurers of other counties who have had the opportunity of inspecting the office. The task of handling the $1,000,000 business of Cass county is not a small one and Miss Gerling has proven that she was well fitted for the office. Now that she is to enjoy a rest from the tasks that each day have taken her time and efforts, she can feel a pleasure in knowing that she has been a tried and faithful agent of the taxpayers of Cass county.

The office of register of deeds also marks the passing of another of the faithful officials of the county, Mrs. Edna D. Shannon, who is to be succeeded in the office by Miss Jessie M. Robertson, a very highly qualified lady and who will take up the duties of this important office commencing Thursday. Mrs. Shannon has been at the helm of the register of deeds office since January, 1919, and in the eight years of her service has been attentive to her tasks and in the recording of the instruments filed in her office and the keeping of the records and transaction of the business of the office has been always on the job and giving the people of the county the best service that could be demanded. Her experience in the office has given her the opportunity of giving real service and which she has faithfully delivered to the people of Cass county.
The office of county surveyor also is changing hands in the passing of Fred Patterson, who has held this office longer than the memory of those who have resided here in the past twenty-five years can recall. Mr. Patterson being succeeded by Miles Allen in this office. Mr. Patterson is a lifetime resident of Cass county and a member of one of the oldest families in the county and as he retired from office to enjoy life at his pleasant home in Rock Bluffs precinct he will forget the tasks of chains and measurements in a well earned rest.

Walter Urwin, Aged Man, Found Dead in Apartm't

Long Time Resident of Weeping Water Discovered Yesterday Dead Some Time.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon County Attorney W. G. Kieck was called to Weeping Water by the report of the finding of the body of an aged resident of that place, Walter Urwin, who had been living in a room in one of the vacant buildings of that city.
The aged man had passed away in the night apparently, as he was found in bed and apparently the death was a natural one as there was nothing to indicate otherwise in the investigation that was made by the county attorney.
In the clothing of Mr. Urwin there was found the sum of $26.20, his savings and which he had been carefully hoarding as he had lived very simply and for some time had made his home in the room in the vacant building where it was found.
Mr. Urwin had been missed around the streets where he was a familiar figure and an investigation disclosed the fact of his death and on finding the body the county attorney was at once notified.
The aged man who is thought to have been in the neighborhood of seventy years of age, had no relatives as far as known and his body will be laid to rest in the cemetery at Weeping Water as the county attorney directed that he be given a suitable burial.
For many years the deceased was a familiar figure in Weeping Water and he was known as a recluse.

A senator with a little flair for straying off the reservation can save a lot on breakfasts this year.

HAS FINE NEW LOCATION
From Wednesday's Daily—
"Chick's Cafe" which was formerly located on South Fifth street is now located on South Sixth street in the Modern Woodmen building and where Mr. Henry Lamphere, the proprietor opened his new place of business yesterday afternoon and will keep it in operation for the benefit of the patrons all day and at night as well. Mr. Lamphere has operated one of the most popular places of the city and his new location will allow him to handle a greater volume of business and with the most pleasant surroundings. The room that is now occupied by the cafe has been renovated and repainted and decorated and makes a very attractive place for this popular eating house. New gas ranges, and all of the equipment necessary for the cafe has been installed and the lunch counter along two sides of the room gives plenty of room for the patrons and also allows a good sized kitchen and work room. "Chick" is now ready for business and will welcome his friends and patrons in the new place.

HOLDS COURT AT TECUMSEH
From Tuesday's Daily—
District Judge James T. Begley was at Tecumseh today where he was called to hold court in the first district for Judge J. B. Raper of Pawnee City. Judge Begley is one of the most able members of the district bench in the state and his services are sought when possible by the judges in other districts when they have the opportunity of having outside judges sit in cases in their district.
