Recover Stolen Car at Albia, Ia., on Tuesday

Pontiac Coach Belonging to Frank Blotzer Found and Also Missing Night Man.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening a message was received here by the local police announcing the fact that the Pontiac coach belonging to Frank Blotzer, which was stolen from the garage here Sunday night, had been found at Albia, Iowa, where the car was picked up and Anton Hack, night man at the garage, who was missing as well as the car had also been taken in custody by the police of Albia.

Mr. Blotzer was first notified of the fact that the car had been found when he was called later by the police and notified to hold the car and the man Hack, until officers from this city could reach Albia.

This morning Mr. Blotzer and Deputy Sheriff Scott departed for Albia where they will secure the car and Hack as well if he is willing to come without extradition papers. Otherwise the papers must be secured from the governor at Lincoln for the return of the garage helper from the Iowa city.

The car is reported to carry the license number 20-25693 but no calers number.

PURCHASES RESTAURANT

From Tuesday's Daily—
Louis Leiner, who has just sold his farm near the cemetery to Anton Janda, has decided to move to other localities and with his son, has purchased a small restaurant at Louisville and is now located there making a very pleasing start in this line of business. Mr. Leiner still suffers the effects of the auto accident in which he was injured in August 1925 at Oreapolis and finds that he is unable to pursue any very heavy work and will try and make a first class and up to the minute restaurant proprietor. When in Louisville the Plattsmouth people can visit Louie and be greeted by the slogan, "How Much Do You Weigh?"

Infant Buried Monday.

Joy came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Eaton on September 27, 1925, when they were blessed with the charge of an infant son. The death messenger came January 31, 1927 and took the 4 month old son, Gerald Clayton Willis leaving the home desolate. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the Sciotia cemetery with the services conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor.

All local news is in the Journal.

Broadcasting a Worth-While Message!

We're telling the world about our low prices on Dried Fruit—even lower than the Radio peddlers announce. Since the start of prune sale promotion by radio a week ago, our Dried Fruit sales have more than doubled, showing that people are not asleep and that they do read and heed the prices that save them money and not just listen over the radio and bite on everything that's offered. Keep up the good work, Henry!

Prices Talk Out Loud Read These and Profit Thereby:	Our Low Prices			Radio Prices
	Per Lb.	3 Lbs.	25-lb. Box	25-lb. Box	Plus PP and COD
Prunes (Large 40-50, very fancy)-----	14c	40c	$3.15	$3.00	$3.49
Raisins (Very best seedless)-----	11c	32c	2.55	3.00	3.49

Apricots (Choice new crop)-----	29c	85c	2.80	3.25	3.61

Good smaller size prunes as low as 4 lbs. for 25c. All our prunes are Santa Clara fancy pack, and every box of our Fruit is "faced," which Henry says costs 35c a box extra. You get real quality here.

Remember, these prices aren't reduced to meet radio competition, as we have been selling Dried Fruits at the above figures throughout January and will continue to do so. You can buy one pound or a hundred of us, see the goods before you purchase and be assured of fancy quality and absolute satisfaction. Don't be misled!
