Sherman Austin, who has been visiting for some time in Omaha with his sisters, returned to Union on last Sunday.

John Christfeisser and family moved to Union and are occupying the Clara Davis house next to the Clarke hotel.

Genuine Glass Cloth for hotbeds and chicken brooders at the Frans Bros. Lumber Co.

Joe Huber was over to the sale of Frank W. Martin last Saturday, where he purchased some fifteen shoats which he will feed.

Ruth Applegate, Malinda Smith and Dorothy Foster were kept away from school during a greater portion of last week by illness.

Last Thursday, Clifton B. Smith as compelled to clerk a farm sale. He says that it was the closest day that he has had for a sale this year.

Robert Willis, with the help on the farm, has been making a number of posts with which he expects to do considerable fencing this spring.

E. H. Schulhof of Plattsmouth spent the day here Monday, tuning and repairing some of the musical instruments that required his attention.

Linus E. Reynolds and his sister, Miss Ida Reynolds, were down from Omaha on Sunday to spend the day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Reynolds.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore, and their son, John Gilmore, of Murray, were the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Frans of Union for the day last Sunday.

John Durman and wife, residing southwest of Weeping Water, were in town Saturday afternoon, visiting their friends and attending to some business matters.

Miss Ida Freeman was quite poorly for a number of days and while she is not as yet in her former state of health she is improving and is feeling quite a bit better.

Joe Banning and Otis Keene were erecting a tower on the roof of the Banning building for an antenna, for the use of the radio which Mr. Banning has at the store.

Will L. Taylor of Omaha, a former resident of this village, was down from Omaha on Sunday looking after business affairs and visiting some of his relatives and friends.

The store owned and operated by Mrs. Mabel Reynold has two very attractive windows dressed with the pet milk products and which is attracting the attention of the public.

Mont Robb was a business visitor in Plattsmouth Wednesday of last week and was for a few days following not feeling very well but was down to the store again on Monday.

L. G. Todd, who was for so long at the hospital, and who since his return has been slowly convalescing, is getting around but is not feeling the best as yet but is gaining steadily.

Fred Tigner and family were over to Louisville where they went to visit with Mrs. John Tigner, who has been in very bad health for some time past. Mrs. Tigner is the mother of Mr. Fred Tigner.

John Livingston was down from Plattsmouth and got the car which Charles Atterberry has had, for delivery to a patron and will return on the car when he shall have received a shipment.

Wilbur Eaton, who has been in the hospital some two weeks, is reported as convalescing nicely since his operation for appendicitis. The parents were able to return home early during this week.

The Becker boys are hauling logs to another site, where they are expecting soon to move the saw mill, for the making of sufficient lumber for the completion of the barn which they are building.

W. E. Banning and wife were home for the week-end and when they returned they were accompanied by Mr. George Garrison, who was looking after some matters during the early portion of this week.

On Monday of this week, Henry Becker threshed for Isaac Dye, and on Tuesday at the home of R. E. Taylor, this is pretty early or pretty late to be threshing but excellent weather for the work.

Mrs. C. G. McCarthy and son, Donald, were spending last Sunday at the home of the mother of Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. Albertina Ost of Nehawka. They had a very enjoyable visit with the mother and grandmother.

Elaine Smith gave a Valentine party at her home Friday, February 11th. Thirty-two little tots were present and had a merry time. After the games were played refreshments were served, which were enjoyed by all.

R. D. Stine was a visitor in Omaha on Monday of this week and made the trip on the train. George was looking after the business matters at the store during the absence of the father. George is well qualified to attend to the business.

After mature deliberation by the powers that be, it has been decided that Robert Hastings will be allowed to retain the pipe which he has smoked since the French and Indian War, and notwithstanding the fact it is fairly good condition yet.

Word was received here some time since of the death of Mrs. George Shrader, at her home in Denver. It will be remembered that Mrs. Shrader was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Eaton of Arriba, Colo., and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Eaton of Union.

The bull terrier which was the special pet of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Havenridge, in some way got into the creek during a very cold night and one foot was frozen into the ice. The dog had excellent care and was finally taken to a dog hospital in Omaha where it died.

The Boy Scouts of Union Troop are showing some real Scout stuff these days. They observed the Anniversary Week and some of them used this opportunity to pass some of the First Class tests. All boys of the community are cordially invited to join this splendid troop.

Union at Peru. The boys basketball team was down to Peru last week and in the first game which they played in the tournament they were pitted against Adams and lost to that team by a score of 15 to 16. The next game they won over the team from Otoe by a score of 16 to 6, and on the whole were not dissatisfied.

FOR SALE—Purchased White Lushang eggs for hatching, $5 per hundred. Phone 2213.—Wm. Schneider, Cedar Creek, Nebr.

Held a Good Service. On last Sunday there was a large and very appreciative audience at the services of the Baptist church, and on the coming Sunday Rev. W. A. Taylor will preach from a portion of the second verse of the third chapter of Genesis, using this portion of the verse: "God said, behold the man has become as one of us to know good and evil." Better get out and hear this discourse.

Band Concert Postponed. There was considerable disappointment on account of the Union band not giving a street concert last Saturday afternoon, but an unavoidable accident prevented part of the band being present, hence the postponement. If the weather permits, the concert will be given on the street Saturday, February 26, at 3 p. m. The band boys regret that they had to disappoint the people, but it was unavoidable, and they have a very nice program of music arranged for next Saturday afternoon.

Celebrate Birthday Anniversary. On last Monday at the home of her son, Mrs. Winnie Crawford and wife were celebrating the birthday anniversary of Mrs. W. L. ### SURPRISE TEACHER

From Wednesday's Daily—Yesterday was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. G. E. Brubaker teacher in the city schools, as well as that of George Washington and the occasion was made a very delightful one for the teacher when the birthday of the teacher when the children of the Central Building, with the aid of their mothers carried out a very pleasant surprise on the teacher.

The little folks had learned of the date of the birthday and the plans for the surprise were kept a close secret until 3 o'clock when the mothers of the little folks arrived to spring the surprise on Mrs. Brubaker. Several of the mothers, Mrs. Charles Peterson, Mrs. John L. Tidball, Jr. and Mrs. William Highfield had prepared cakes and others secured the ice cream that formed the treat for the children and the teacher in honor of the birthday anniversary and which was very much enjoyed.

The little folks had secured funds and purchased "An Old English Garden" a very attractive picture that was presented to the teacher as a reminder of the anniversary from the little folks.

The refreshments were served by Mesdames Peterson, Highfield, Tidball, C. A. Rosencrans and W. A. Robertson.
