Misses Sarah Upton who is attending the state university, and Miss Carrie Hanson who is a student in a business college in Lincoln, were spending the Sunday at home, they riding down from Lincoln with Senator Banning, in his car and also returning with him.

Dick Davis was kept to his home and bed during a number of days the latter portion of last week, and the fore part of this week, with some stomach trouble, which has often caused this gentleman trouble. He is, we are glad to report, feeling some better at this time.

Ray Frans who is one of the most infatigable of workers puts in his spare time at the office when business is quiet, making furniture for the home and for the farm of his brother, Mr. Rue H. Frans. The relatives are very fortunate in having such a worker in the family.

Grief came to Attorney C. L. Graves when he was unfortunate in getting his right thumb caught in a door at the postoffice, and the door was shut on the member, mashing it very badly. Dr. A. R. Kintner of Nehawka chanced to be in town at the time of the accident and dressed the injured member and made the patient as comfortable as possible but which was not very comfortable at that. The thumb which was very severely mashed, is getting along, but the nail will be lost.

His Own Business.
With the closing of the produce station which L. P. Langhorst had in Union with Mont Robb, who was conducting the place, embarked in business for himself, and has a most desirable place for the business. He has a very neat office where he purchases cream, poultry and eggs, and has his ware room so situated so that customers and patrons can drive into the building and unload the poultry, after the doors are close, with no fear of any of the fowls getting away. When you have anything in this line let Mr. Robb handle it, for he will give you the best prices and fair and courteous treatment. He

William Delozier Dies.

The Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union received a phone message call on last Saturday morning telling of the death of Mr. Wm. De Lozier who died at his home near Magnet on Friday of last week, and asking that the Rev. Taylor come to conduct the funeral. The weather which was far from good on Monday, when the funeral was held was so that Rev. Taylor could not go. The older of the people of Union will remember when Mr. De Lozier made his home in Union and vicinity. The wife, who was a sister of Mrs. James F. Wilson, died some time since. There are a number of children, mostly grown, as Mr. De Lozier was something over sixty years of age. A fuller account of this man's life and the cause of his death will be given later.

Misses Enjoy a Dinner.

Six of the girls of the high school entertained six of their girl chums thus making an even dozen of the members of the high school enjoyed a six o'clock supper at the high school, when the first half dozen treated the second half dozen.

Bonding Company Pays Over 20,000 Dollars

General and Casual Security Co., Makes Settlement for Funds in First National Bank.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon the General and Casual Security Co. of Detroit, Michigan, formally settled the claim of Cass county for the sum of $20,000 for the amount of money carried by the county in the First National bank of this city and which the company was the surety for. The amount was accepted by the board of county commissioners and accordingly a resolution was adopted by the board formally accepting the amount and amending the cross petition of Cass county in the district court vs. the First National bank to allow the crediting of the bonding company with the payment in full of the claim against them.

There remains the sum of $10,882.19 of the county funds deposited in excess of the amount of the bond in the defunct First National bank and which is in litigation in the action brought by Mia U. Gering former county treasurer to recover this amount for the county of Cass. The bonding company is not obligated in this case further as they were not guarantors of the excess amount of funds of the county.

The plaintiffs in the suit have duly accepted the payment of the funds and receipt given the General Casualty and Security Co., for the settlement of their claims and this part of the case closed.

The former treasurer and the county of Cass will endeavor in the courts to secure the setting aside of the sum of $10,882.19 in the closed bank as a trust fund for the taxpayers of Cass county to cover the amount of money deposited in the bank on December 2, 1926. The former treasurer, Miss Mia U. Gering filed suit against the bank on the morning of December 14th for the recovery of these funds as there had been no bond supplied to cover them, which it was claimed had been agreed would be supplied.

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. Heineman, Dentist, Hotel Main Bldg., Phone 527.

From Monday's Daily—
Dr. F. K. Kruse, of Weeping Water, was a visitor here today, being called as a witness in the Barkhurst case in the district court.

Senator W. B. Banning of Union, who is enjoying the week end vacation of the legislature, was here today for a few hours visiting with his friends here.

Earl Blunt, of Denver, who has been at Chicago, attending a meeting of the district managers of the Jewel Tea and Coffee company, came in yesterday afternoon to spend a short time with his relatives and old time friends in this city. Mr. Blunt has charge of the mountain states district of this company.

Roy Holly arrived home last night from his week spent at Imperial, working with the Legion post at that place in promoting a joint carnival with the Holyoke, Colorado, post. The enterprise was a great success and discounts the claim that crop failures have left the west poverty stricken. Incidentally, Holly picked up some brand new ideas in carnival promotion and entertainment that will be of great advantage when the Legion here puts on their annual indoor offering next fall in the new community building.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Robert Troop, well known stock feeder of near Mynard, returned home this morning from Chicago where he has been attending to a large shipment of stock to the market there.

Gus Olson, well known photographer, who is now located in Chicago, arrived here this morning for a short visit in this city with the old time friends and to look after some matters of business.

Miss Amelia Frederich departed this morning for Omaha where she goes to visit for a few hours with Mrs. John Irish at the hospital where she has been for some time taking treatment.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Sheriff Bert Reed and County Attorney W. G. Klock were at Lincoln today looking after some matters of business for the day.

John G. Lohnes and son, Louis, departed last evening for Peoria, Illinois, where they were called by the death of Adam Lohnes, an old time resident of that portion of Illinois and prominent Peoria business man.

SCOTTISH RITE SERVICES

The Knights Kadosh, Scottish Rite Masons of Lincoln, Nebraska, held very impressive services over the body of Wesley Davis, who died Saturday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mabel Cook, near Alvo, at the Congregational church at 10 o'clock Tuesday night. The services were open to the public and a large number of friends and relatives were present to honor Mr. Davis, who, until recently, lived for many years in this city. Mr. Davis has been in poor health for the past several months, and the final summons was a blessed relief from his suffering.

This is the second time this service has been given in this district outside the city of Lincoln, it having been given at Fairbury about two years ago.—Weeping Water Republican.

SERVE FINE SUPPER

The oyster supper and program given by the young people's class of the United Brethren church at the personage in Mynard last Saturday evening proved a very enjoyable, as well as profitable event.

The tables were very prettily decorated for the occasion. Those in dining room, gold and white, while red roses and candles served to give the living room a festive air. Supper was served from six to eight, then they went to the church where the class entertained for an hour, with songs and readings and cartooning, following this they again served supper to all the late comers. All present had a good time and feel that the young folks of Mynard community are to be congratulated for their success.
