

Alvo Department

Genuine Glass Cloth at Banning's Lumber Yard, 35c per yard.
Charles Godbey was superintending the dragging of the streets of Alvo and had them in fine condition last week.

Carl Rosenow is employed in Murdoch at the barber shop while Emil Kuehn is looking after some business elsewhere.

S. L. Dinges, of Palmyra, accompanied by his son, George Dinges, were visiting in Alvo, being guests of Arthur Dinges for the afternoon.

Charles F. Wood, of Elmwood, was a visitor in Alvo last Wednesday morning, being a guest of his brother and was looking after some business as well.

Robert Crawford, of Murdoch, was a visitor in Alvo for a short time last Wednesday afternoon, driving over in his car, and looking after some business.

John Coleman has been constructing some hog houses for Simon Rehmeyer, who is embarking in the hog business on the plot of ground which he has near the elevator.
Oscar Hoffman was a visitor in Alvo on last Wednesday, coming over from Plattsmouth to see John Coleman regarding some property which Mrs. M. Coleman has in Alvo for sale or exchange.

The Ladies Aid society met at the basement of the church on Thursday last week, where they looked after the work which comes under their supervision and also enjoyed a very sociable time.

See the ad of David L. Boothby in this issue. He is carrying a line of samples for the sale of clothing and storm coats. Drop in and see him, he has some very appealing prices on clothing which will save you money.

Simon Rehmeyer was receiving corn from three shellers at the same time on last Wednesday, those shelling being Dick Elliott, Edward Fisher and W. E. Heir, which kept the genial elevator man humping to care for it.

John Wood was a visitor in Lincoln on Wednesday of last week, where he was looking after some business matters and was accompanied by Joe Ladoras, who went over to see about securing work for the summer.

Uncle Joseph Armstrong is continuing to make improvement on his property in Alvo and is having a cistern constructed for the home which will add much to the value of the property and be a great help for the household.

Mrs. Herbert Strong is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Coatman and is caring for the little daughter which recently arrived, as well as taking care of the mother of the little newcomer. All are getting along nicely.

John W. Banning, the lumber man is building some brooder houses at the lumber yard with the assistance of John Coleman, the carpenter, which he is having in readiness for those who may need them for the early chicks.

The citizens of Alvo and vicinity are much interested in a move to secure better roads running through Alvo north and south, as they are composed much of a mail route and the roads over which the students of the Alvo schools are transported to and from school.

Albert Hanson, who lost so heavily by the fire and whom the people of Alvo gave a shower, are very appreciative of the kindness Mr. and Mrs. Hanson are well acquainted here and have many friends who are only too well pleased to render such assistance as is in their power.

Uncle Henry S. Ough and Robert Parmenter and family who departed some time ago for the south, arrived at Norwood, Mo., in due time and are getting things in readiness for farming, which is much more advanced there than it is here. They found the weather nice and mild on their arrival.

James Pilkington, who has been employed on a building which was under construction at Lincoln during the past winter, completed the work about a week ago and has since been at home, where he will remain until something new opens up at Lincoln, which should be soon, as the capital city is experiencing quite a building boom at present.

The Farmers Union of Alvo and vicinity are doing some very good work along the lines of their organization, they having had a meeting at the Methodist church, with a very prominent speaker from Lincoln to make an address, and a very entertaining and worthwhile program besides. There was also a most appealing display of eats which were prepared by the ladies and when the ladies do prepare something to eat you may know it is the best.

Attended Funeral in Iowa
Mrs. J. J. Clites was called to Woodbine, Iowa, one day last week on account of the death of the wife of her brother, Mrs. Willard Campbell and was there for the funeral, remaining for a few days. Her brother, William Campbell, brought Mrs. Clites home during the week, she staying with her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Bennett.

Did You Get a Cigar?
Well, they were going round a few days since, but as we do not smoke we did not use any. The occasion was the arrival of a very diminutive little lady who came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Coatman, to gladden the lives of this estimable couple as well as the sisters and brothers who were gladdened by the advent of the little lady. The mother and young Miss are getting along nicely and it is thought with careful nursing that the proud father will pull through.

Serious Fire Occurs in Mynard Neighborhood

Large Barn and Contents at Home of A. A. Wetenkamp Completely Destroyed by Fire.

From Thursday's Daily—
This morning at 1:30 the family of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wetenkamp were aroused by a telephone call from one of the neighbors and which conveyed the message that the large barn on the Wetenkamp farm was afire. As the family rushed to the barn it was a seething mass of flames and resulted in the destruction of the barn and all of the contents. When the family discovered the fire it was so far advanced that nothing could be done to check the flames that filled every part of the barn.

The loss will be very heavy as there were six horses used in the farm work, caught in the flames and burned to death and the larger part of a carload of hay also was in the barn and destroyed as well as the harness and other equipment of the farm which was in the barn was sacrificed to the blaze.

Four cows had been in the barn but as the upper portion of one of the doors was open it is thought that one of the cows in escaping broke open the lower portion of the door and which allowed all of the cows to reach safety.

The loss will amount to several thousand dollars it is thought as the barn and contents was only partially covered by insurance and much of the value of the contents will be a total loss.

The fire burned for some time and was one of the largest that has occurred in that part of the county for some years and the blaze from the barn illuminated the skies for many miles in the vicinity of the fire. No cause of the fire is known.

Funds for the Building Coming in Very Rapidly

Six Members of Committee Looking After Collections to Expedite Work—Let Contract Soon.

From Thursday's Daily—
Collection of subscriptions to the American Legion community building is progressing most satisfactorily. Once in a while a solicitor finds someone who thinks the money isn't needed until construction actually starts a few weeks hence. This is not the case, however, as it is necessary to get the money in now and then determine upon the amount necessary to borrow, making arrangements for the loan before the call for bids can be announced. Then, there will be no after delays due to lack of money or inability to collect on subscriptions.

For the most part, subscribers are paying their pledges in cash, but in a few instances the payment is being stretched out over two, three or four equal monthly installments secured by note. There is no objection to this, as it enables the committee to lay the notes on the table when making arrangements for the necessary loan to erect the building and provides assurance of payment as well as a stated time for receiving the payment.

Nor should any contributor with the interest of seeing the building constructed at heart, object to this form of settlement of his obligation. Contractors have plans out now for making of estimates and as soon as the outstanding sums are in the call for bids will be announced.

With a large number to be seen by the committee, it is only delaying matters to put them off or have them call on you again. So let's stay behind the project wholeheartedly and make good on our pledges, either with all cash or short-time negotiable notes.

A cure for tired, balky motors

IF your motor is carbon-choked—knocks and loses power on the hills or when snow, slush or mud makes the going hard—fill up the tank with Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline.

It's the winning combination—old reliable Red Crown Gasoline for power, and Ethyl, that "knocks out the knocks" under all driving conditions.

It actually makes carbon a source of added power, because Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline works best when compression is high. There's nothing like it for putting pep and power into a motor.

At all Red Crown Service Stations. Costs a little more, but well worth it. Fill up with Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline and see what your car can really do.

To avoid dilution, drain your tank before you fill it with Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline for the first time, and use Red Crown Ethyl exclusively thereafter.

Presbyterian Church Planning Old Age Pensions

Pension Sunday, April 24th Plan Will Be Presented in Campaign for $15,000,000.

The campaign of the Presbyterian church to raise $15,000,000 for the inauguration of a thorough-going pension plan to provide for the old age of the ministers of the church which has swept its way so successfully through the eastern states, has now arrived in Nebraska and in particular in the Nebraska City Presbyterian church. Judge H. D. Landis of Seward is Presbyterian chairman and he has established headquarters in the First Presbyterian church at Lincoln. In a recent interview he states that this Presbytery, containing 39 churches, has for its minimum goal the raising of $57,501.40. Plans are now in operation to secure the co-operation of the outstanding leaders of all the churches of the Presbytery and throughout the state of Nebraska. The plan is to inform and inspire the individual members of the churches by personal contact.

Pension Sunday, April 24, the pension plan will be presented by ministers in all of the churches of the remaining fourteen states in which the campaign is now being promoted. This will be followed by the actual solicitation of funds to be completed May 9th. Judge Landis announces that a strong executive committee consisting of leaders throughout the Presbytery will soon be appointed and organized for the campaign.

The campaign in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky has just reached its climax, adding more than $2,000,000 to the fund, which now totals nearly $10,000,000. This task of raising $15,000,000 is the greatest undertaking in the realm of finance by any religious body in the history of Christendom and all hands are confident that the amount required to put the plan into operation will be successfully reported at the gener-

MARRIED AT PAPIILLION

Miss Eldora Baldwin of Weeping Water and Herbert C. Lohnes of Omaha shipped away and were quietly married Thursday afternoon, March 10, 1927, at 5:30 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage at Papiillion. They were accompanied by the mother of the bride, Mrs. E. C. Baldwin of Weeping Water. The happy couple will make their home in South Omaha.

Both of the young people are well known, having been born and reared in this vicinity, and both graduated from the high school in Weeping Water.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Baldwin of this city, and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lohnes, also of this city. The Republican joins with their many friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous life in the future.—Weeping Water Republican.
