the happy couple when the event shall have been celebrated.

Wanting Better Roads

A large number of the farmers living south of Greenwood met at the King school on Wednesday evening of last week and discussed the matter of taking steps to secure the graveling of the road running south from Greenwood to connect with the O street highway running east from Lincoln, and afford a cut-over route from the D. L. D. to the street, as well as opening up a large amount of farm territory to the advantage of better roads at a very small cost, considering the increased number of people it will serve. This strip of roadway is nine miles in length and will make it possible for a good portion of western Cass county as well as some of Lancaster and much of Otoe to get in connection with Omaha with trucks and will facilitate the delivery of the farmers' cattle without the necessity of long detours extending almost to Lincoln before a cut-over route is available.

Western Cass county is entitled to better road conditions and the farmers are actively demanding them. The meeting had extended an invitation to the members of the Board of County Commissioners to be present and take part in the deliberations.

Still Very Sick

Mrs. O. F. Anderson, who is at a hospital in Omaha, where she underwent an operation some time ago for relief from appendicitis, still remains quite ill at the institution, notwithstanding she is having the very best medical attention as well as nursing. Her many friends are hoping that she may show decided improvement in the near future and soon be able to be at home again.

Shipping Seed Corn

C. D. Fulmer shipped a car of corn which was sold to the Robertson Seed company of Waterloo, and will be sent all over the country to improve the yield of corn in communities that have a seed shortage this year. A number of cars of corn have been shipped from Greenwood this winter for seed, and more are expected to follow before planting time, as the excellence of the corn grown here last year is attracting the attention of farmers all over the country.

Bootleggers Flee Officers

One evening last week, two suspicious characters appeared in Greenwood and being rather under the influence of liquor, when the officers got after them, they fled to Lancaster county, but were taken into custody by the officers at Waverly, and assessed the proper fines, it being reported that the total amount aggregated $300 and ninety days in the bastle.

Hurt Playing "Blackman"

While engaged in the sport of "Blackman," at the schools, Dwight Falcott and Paul Palmquist were somewhat injured, but not of a serious nature. One of the boys was carrying his arm in a sling while the other was navigating with the assistance of a pair of crutches.

Good Material for Board

At the caucus which was held last week for the placing in nomination candidates for the school board, for the coming year, a good attendance was out and some very good nominations were made for the positions that are to be filled. In the providing of the candidates for office, double the number to be elected were placed on the ticket and the voters will vote for wto of the four placed in nomination, the two highest being elected. Those nominated are Dr. W. H. McFaddon, Watson Howard, E. H. Armstrong and E. A. Landon, all of them good men for the place.

Will Make Improvements

The Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company have been receiving at Greenwood a large amount of poles and other construction material for their local and toll lines here and will in the very near future begin the work of making some extensive improvements in their plant and toll lines in Greenwood and vicinity.

Sells Fine Chicks

Watson Howard was awarded the contract for furnishing for the Union college at College View, 750 White Leghorn baby chicks which will be used at the experimental station of the college. As they were looking for the purest breed, Mr. Howard is pleased that by the testing and judging he has been accorded the honor of having so pure a strain of these chickens.

High standard hatching eggs from chickens which lay lots of eggs.—Harry Leesley, Greenwood, Nebr.

Home Devastated

One day last week Sam Loder, who with the wife had been in the west for the winter and were spending the time in Los Angeles, returned to make their home here, and on entering the home after the two weeks absence found that the house had been entered by some marauders who had stolen most of their goods, leaving two plates, two knives and two forks, evidently wanting to leave Mr. and Mrs. Loder something to eat a lunch on. It seems that nothing is safe when there is no one there to guard it. The value of the property is not so much considered in this case as the fact that much of the property which was taken comprised gifts and things valued above the mere price that might have been paid for them.

Membership of Legion Auxiliary Over 100 Mark

Large Number at Meeting Last Night—Will Outfit Kitchen in New Community Building.

From Saturday's Daily—Some forty of the members of Hugh J. Kearns unit, the American Legion Auxiliary, were present at the regular monthly meeting held last night at the home of Mrs. Harold Erickson, with Messadmes E. H. Douglas, James Doyle, A. H. Duxbury and C. W. Morrison the assisting hostesses.

Membership reports showed that the Auxiliary has now attained a membership of 103, with a number of others who have promised to join in the next few weeks.

Several matters claimed the attention of the business session held prior to the social part of the evening, principal among them being the decision to make the April meeting an annual guest day, with invitations to the Gold Star mothers and sisters of Cass county, as well as members of the G. A. R., D. A. R., and W. R. C. and all ladies living in this city who are eligible for membership in the Auxiliary. This will be an afternoon meeting and will be held on Friday, April 15th, at the social parlors of one of the Plattsmouth churches, the location to be announced later.

The suggestion of department officials that each unit do some community work each year, was acted upon favorably by the decision to contribute $10 to the library for the purchase of additional books.

Considerable discussion was also had in regard to plans for outfitting the kitchen in the new community building, an undertaking the Auxiliary pledged itself to at the beginning of the drive for funds with which to erect the building.

Money making activities planned for the future include a bake sale on Saturday, April 15th, and a public card party Thursday, April 21st.

It is planned to divide the Auxiliary into some ten groups of ten to twelve members each, and have the different groups vie with each other in the promotion of money-making activities during the year.

It was requested that anyone having old papers or magazines, please notify Mrs. Henry Soennichsen, telephone No. 377.

During the social part of the evening that followed the business session, Mrs. J. A. Capwell gave a reading which was much appreciated.

The entertainment was fittingly climaxed with the serving of delicious refreshments.

Lee Poultry and Swine Specialist Here on Friday

Will Hold Clinic in Building on South Sixth Street Formerly Occupied by the Wells Grocery.

Dr. J. M. Bowman, a member of the Research and Clinic Department of the George H. Lee Company, of Omaha, will hold one of those interesting and helpful Poultry and Pig Clinics at the old Wells grocery store building, 134 South 6th street, at 2:00 o'clock Friday afternoon, March 25th.

The object of the Clinic is to assist farmers and poultry raisers in reducing the tremendous loss among poultry and pigs, that occurs on the farm every year. The clinics conducted by Lee specialists have frequently been called Short Course schools, teaching how to recognize, correctly diagnose, treat, and prevent disease and other troubles that are the common cause of much loss to poultry and swine raisers.

Farmers who have unthrifty chickens or pigs are invited to bring in specimens for post-mortem examination, and receive free instructions on the cause, treatment and prevention of the trouble. Plenty of specimens are needed to bring out the full value of this demonstration, but if your hogs are sick and you believe, or suspect the disease is contagious or infectious, do not bring such articles to the clinic but notify F. G. Fricke & Co., and, if possible, the Doctor will call upon you and make an examination.

There will be no admission charge and nothing offered for sale at the clinic. Every farmer in this community should take advantage of this opportunity to become better posted on disease prevention.

ROAD CONSTRUCTION IMPORTANT INDUSTRY

One hundred representative Montana farmers, in convention at Miles City, Montana, unanimously agreed that there is no economic need for outside financial assistance in their section, and petitioned congress to remove their state's name from the pending seed loan bill.

And yet the commodities committee in Congress county (Montana's banner wheat producer last year), finds that of the acreage producing this crop, 50 per cent is put in by methods that give only a one-in-ten chance of profit and that few farmers pay attention to pure seed, which may insure success where failure is otherwise probable.

These two reports in one great agricultural state throw light on the farm problem. One says that good seed and good cultivation are essential to success, and 50 per cent do not realize it, while the other indicates a local courage and farm skill that makes its own success without laws or gratuities.

SECRETARY DAVIS ILL

From Friday's Daily—Secretary W. G. Davis of the local chamber of commerce has for the past two days been confined to his home as the result of illness and has been unable to carry on his usual activities and the many friends regret to learn of the indisposition of the general secretary and trust that he may soon recover and be able to resume his usual activities and once more be able to take up the duties of his office as usual.

BRYAN'S BIRTHDAY

March 19th is an anniversary that is dear to the people of Nebraska regardless of their political belief as it is the anniversary of the birth of one that Nebraska claims as its most distinguished son, William Jennings Bryan. The great Commoner was born March 19, 1856, at Salem, Illinois, a son of Judge Silas Bryan, one of the leaders of the pioneer bar of Illinois. William J. Bryan came to Nebraska with his young wife in 1887 and located at Lincoln and made this state his home until the last years of his life when he removed to Florida but remained in the eyes of the state still a son of the great west.

His life was a great battle for the reforms that he had striven for in 1887 and located at Lincoln and made this state his home until the last years of his life when he removed to Florida but remained in the eyes of the state still a son of the great west.

He is the first "sour-dough" in the Weepah district and says he knows the game from "A to Izzard." After getting hearings the couple bought a book of locations, cranked up their flivver and were off for Weepah, scene of the latest gold strike in Nevada.
