Funeral Services of Mrs. John Urish Sunday

Last Rites Are Held from the Eight Mile Grove Lutheran Church—

Mary Urish, daughter of John Sporer and Mary nee Goodnature, was born on the 22nd of April 1861 at Wapuka, Wisconsin. She was baptized and confirmed in the Christian faith of the Lutheran church. When she was three years of age her parents removed with her to this neighborhood, residing in the vicinity of Weeping Water. At the age of 14 years her parents died, leaving her an orphan, together with her 3 sisters and 3 brothers, two of whom preceded her to the beyond. On the 15th of December 1887 she was joined in holy matrimony to John Urish of Eight Mile Grove precinct. This union was blessed with 7 children, 4 of the living being in the order of their ages:

- Henry Urish, Weeping Water. Meta Schaefer, Nehawka. Lucile Terryberry, Cedar Creek. Geneva Urish, residing at home.
- Two children, Elizabeth and Virgil, died in infancy, while John Virgil Urish preceded her from this earth on the 17th of October, 1919.
- Having been ailing since July 1926, and her strength gradually failing despite all medical skill and loving ministrations of her nurses, especially her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth McCullough, who has been with her since the 19th of October, 1926, she grew weaker and weaker, until at last it was deemed necessary to have an operation performed on her in order to prolong her life. She was operated on Monday morning, March 14, at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha. She succumbed to its aftereffects and gave up her spirit on Thursday night, March 17th at 7 minutes to 12 o'clock.

She attained to the age of 67 years, 10 months and 25 days.

The funeral service was held on Sunday afternoon, March 20, from the Eight Mile Grove Lutheran church, her church, her pastor, Rev. Lentz, preaching the funeral sermon on Eccl. 12:14. The service was most beautiful by songs, being: "Just Where I Need Thee Most," and "Abide With Me," sung by the Weeping Water quartette—and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" sung by Ethel Schaefer and Mrs. Lentz—"God be With You" sung by the church choir. Her neighbors functioned as pallbearers, being Messrs. P. A. Hill, J. Hill, J. Kraeger, Adam Schaefer, E. Gansemser and Herman Gansemser. Her body was laid to rest in the Glendale cemetery.

She leaves to mourn her departure her husband, Mr. John Urish; four children, Henry Urish, Meta Schaefer, Lucile Terryberry and Geneva Urish; five grandchildren, John, Edward and Virgil Urish, sons of the deceased John Virgil Urish of Plattsmouth; John Jacob Schaefer, Catherine Marie Prisk, May Lucile Terryberry; four sisters, Anna Mumpher, of Sheridan Oregon, Rosa Mark, of Longbeach, Cal., Elizabeth McCullough of Longbeach, Neb.; two son-in-laws two daughter-in-laws, three sister-in-laws, and many friends.

She was a loving wife, an exemplary mother, a faithful church member, a helpful member of the Ladies Aid, a patient christian, a true believer. May it be true of her: blessed are they that die in the Lord from henceforth saith the spirit that they rest from their labors. May the eternal light shine upon her.

Company to Pay for Lost Trunk

Nebraskan Who Went to Europe and Didn't Get Baggage for Year Has Cause for Action.

Fred W. Klepper of Weeping Water was awarded a judgment for $500 against the Globe & Rutgers insurance company, on a policy on his baggage issued when he went to Europe in 1924, by the supreme court Friday.

On the Italian frontier he lost his trunk, and it was not until a year later that it was found in a customs house in New York. It was sent to him, in a damaged condition.

The policy provided specifically that the company was liable for no delays whatsoever, and only for a lost trunk. The question was whether the owner was deprived of his property for so long a time as to entitle him to recovery on it as being lost.

The supreme court says that a proper construction of the policy justifies this holding. It said in effect that where the tracing of the company showed no results it was proper to infer, that it was lost. It says this in a reasonable interpretation of the objects and purposes of the policy. The trunk was not sent to him until after he had sued on the policy.

Boy Scout Work in the Nemaha Area

Much Interest Shown in Conference Held at Auburn in Interest of the Work.

From Wednesday's Daily.—The Boy Scout work in the southeastern section of the state, known as the Nemaha area, was discussed at some length at a meeting held at Auburn yesterday by leaders of Scouting from the counties of Cass, Otoe, Nemaha, Richardson, Johnson and Pawnee, in Nebraska and Brown and Pawnee counties, Kansas.

The meeting was featured by a dinner at the Auburn hotel and the local Scout organization was represented by E. H. Wescott, chairman of the executive committee and F. I. Rea, one of the active members of the committee. There were thirty-four of the members of the various unit committees present at the meeting and who spent the time very profitably in the discussion of the plans for the coming year which promise to be a great deal more promising for the Scouting work than any heretofore experienced.

The Scout work in the new area is more thoroughly organized and is under the active leadership of Mr. Heese of Nebraska City as the regional scout master and who has plans that will draw all of the organizations of this section into the southeastern district as far as camping facilities are concerned and the organized activities.

One of the new plans is the outdoor camp for the Scouts in their work and which is located at Nebraska City and to which point the various groups over the district would go to take up part of the scout work each year. Each of the various units by raising a certain amount of money is ranked as a contributing member to the area activities.

In the past the Plattsmouth and other troops have used the Lincoln Scout camp at Camp Quivera near Louisville as their place of summer outings and which is quite convenient to this city but under the new plans they may participate in the Nebraska City camp.

The Auburn meeting Fred I. Rea of this city was selected as one of the members of the area advisory committee.

DEATH OF LONNIE MAURER

From Wednesday's Daily.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Maurer is stricken today by the sudden death of their little thirteen year old son, Lonnie, who passed away this morning at the home after a very brief illness which suddenly developed into the severest type of pleural pneumonia and in a few brief hours had claimed the life of the little one just growing from childhood into his boyhood days.

Lonnie has been ill since Monday with what was thought to be a cold and slight attack of the flu and it was not thought that his condition was serious in the least until late last night when his condition suddenly grew worse and in a few hours he had passed away despite all that medical skill and loving hands could give for his relief.

The blow that has come to the parents is one that is heavy and such as only others who have journeyed in the vale of sorrow can appreciate in the taking away of the loved little lad whose life had been interwoven in their hearts in his few short years of life. In his passing the parents and others of the circle of loved ones and friends can feel that the coming of the messenger of death was for the best, that the little spirit that had grown and bloomed through childhood days had won the love of the Master and in His divine wisdom He had called the little lad home ere the world had bruised and roughened the life that was bright with the bloom of innocence and youth.

Lonnie had been a carrier of the Evening Journal for several months and was a faithful and attentive worker and whose death brings a great regret to the members of the Journal and who share with the family the sorrow that his passing has brought to them.

At the close of the services the body was borne to the family lot in the Catholic cemetery where it was laid to rest in the last long rest and was borne by the pall bearers representing the Knights of Columbus and the Catholic Workmen, W.
