The change in the home is making it more convenient for the house wife and making the home much the nicer.

At the election of the board of education of the Alvo consolidated school which fell on last Tuesday, the results showed F. L. Edwards and L. M. Shaveley elected for the three year term, while Roy M. Coatman was elected for the two year term. In the city election which was held on last Tuesday, the successful candidates were C. E. Ganz and R. M. Coatman.

Elmer Rosenow has accepted a position with a market at Dunbar, and was one day last week moved to that place by one of the Coatman Skinner trucks. Mr. Rosenow is an excellent butcher, and will make the man or firm for which he will work, a very excellent man, and while he will be missed from Alvo, we are wishing for him and family much success in their new home.

The Farmers' Union of Alvo and vicinity gave a picture show by Harold Lloyd, known as "In Hot Water," and which will be the last for a time by them. ## SUFFERING FROM TUMOR

From Saturday's Daily—This morning Harry Leosis, proprietor of the Royal Cafe was called to Perry, Iowa, by the serious condition of Mrs. Leosis who has been there for a few weeks visiting and taking treatment. It has been undecided as to the cause of the illness of Mrs. Leosis but after a test made by the physicians it was decided that the trouble was that of a tumor on the brain and which will require a very critical operation to perform. The operation is one that requires the greatest of skill and it is probable that the patient will be taken to Rochester, Minnesota, to be operated on at the Mayo hospital.

Keep in Trim!
Good Elimination Is Essential to Good Health.

THE kidneys are the blood filters. If they fail to function properly there is apt to be retention of toxic poisons in the blood. A dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches, headaches, and dizziness are symptoms of this condition. Further evidence of improper kidney function is often found in burning or scanty passage of secretions. Each year more and more people are learning the value of Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, in this condition. Scarcely a nook or hamlet anywhere but has many enthusiastic users. Ask your neighbor!

Heavy Rain Causes Washout on Railroad

Missouri Pacific Has Portion of Track Near Stella Damaged as Result of Very Bad Storm.

From Friday's Daily—The main line of the Missouri Pacific railroad from Kansas City to Omaha suffered considerable damage last night as the result of a very heavy rain in the vicinity of Stella and Auburn and which caused a portion of the track near Stella to be washed out and delayed the train service to a great extent until noon when the damage was repaired.

The location of the washout was where a small creek runs along the track and the creek gathering a large volume of water undermined the track and caused a washout that took several hours to repair and place the line in shape for travel.

The northbound train, No. 105 due here at 6:23 a. m. was able to get through the soft track before the damage grew too great to permit the other trains to pass over the track and the morning train was delayed so that it was two hours late when reaching here.

The trains over this line of the M. P. were detained over the Burlington until noon when the traffic was able to be resumed on the main line.

"His army, composed as it is of mercenaries, has gone on strike," the statement declared. "Having had a vision of huge loot in case of success, but now realizing the impossibility of getting into the national treasury many of the bandits who joined his forces are deserting."

EVOLUTION CASTS SHADOW

Independence, Mo., April 6.—Prospect of a clash over evolution caused a temporary stir among delegates at the general conference of the reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints here today. The evolution question bobbed up in connection with Graceland college of Lamoni, Ia., the church's school, but was dropped after brief discussion.

Alvin Knisley, missionary from Canada, addressing the chair, said rumors had reached him "concerning the teaching of the Darwinian theory of evolution in Graceland college. If they tell their pupils about it as a theory only, I have no particular objection," he said, "but if they are teaching that it is a fact, I will think a long time before sending my children to school there."

NEW IOWA BRIDGE BILL

Des Moines, Ia., April 6.—Subject of interstate bridges again came before the legislature today when Senator Charles S. Browne of Jackson county introduced a bill directing the highway commission to co-operate with officials of neighboring states and the federal government in construction or maintenance of interstate bridges on primary roads.

Construction under the act is to be paid for from the general fund of the state. It also makes a specific appropriation of 600 thousand dollars to be divided equally between two bridges across the Mississippi at Sabula and McGregor, Ia.

The bill may permit the highway commission to take up negotiations for bridges across the Missouri river, also applying the tolls to the purchase price until an appropriation may be made.

Banker of Dunbar Missing and Loss in Prospect

Thomas Murray, Town's Chief Citizen a Fugitive as Forgeries Alleged—Plea of Wife Fails.

Dunbar, Neb., April 6.—With the Dunbar State bank in the hands of the guarantee fund commission and a loss of 100 thousand dollars in its accounts, officials today were checking the activities of Thomas Murray, 59, missing president and pillar in the community, in connection with the reported forgeries of 50 thousand dollars worth of notes.

If there were any forgeries, as has been alleged by customers of the bank, none have been found that will affect the bank, G. R. Buckner, guarantee fund official in charge, announced. The bank loss is represented chiefly by "frozen assets," notes that have greatly depreciated because of the depression that began in 1920, he said. The checking, however, he added, has only been started.

Notes Discounted.
Notes of Henry Kasbohm totaling 15 thousand dollars, and of O. C. and James P. Baker for five thousand dollars each, which have been reported forged, had been discounted to the United States First National banks of Omaha and to Nebraska City banks, by Mr. Murray, Mr. Buckner said. They will bring no loss to Murray's bank, he added. Other notes have been reported forged, but whether this is true cannot be determined for several days.

Although Dunbar citizens are stunned at the disclosures coupled with the bank president's absence for a month after he had left ostensibly for Robston, Tex., they are not unanimously inclined to pass judgment on the man who had lived in the community of 425 persons for 11 years, and who had risen to be president after starting as a teller when the bank was founded 32 years ago.

What Statement Showed.
When Murray departed he left the bank in charge of Henry Westbrook and Earl Seyler, cashier. The bank had deposits of approximately 400 thousand dollars. The last published statement gave:

Resources—Loans and discounts, 264 thousand dollars; overdrafts, $24,011; bonds and securities, three thousand dollars; banking house and other real estate, $19,500; cash on hand, $50,267.

Liabilities—Capital stock, surplus and undivided profits, $40,241; deposits, $387,065.49; bills payable, 10 thousand dollars; deposits in guaranty fund, $820.

Had Been in Omaha.
Mr. Murray had been in Omaha, stopping at the Fontenelle, from March 6 to 9. Investigation revealed, Murray was superintendent of the United Presbyterian Sunday school for almost 20 years, and was an elder in the church. He was a former mayor, a former president of the State Bankers' association and had been interested in a lumber and grain firm as well as the Thermopak company which was organized in Omaha. Recently he had sold out practically all his interests in the city, but he still was regarded as "the biggest man in the town."

No less stunning than the general citizenry are his two brothers, James and John Murray, who displayed bitterness at their brother's departure. James Murray is a director of the bank, and faces a considerable loss because of the bank's condition. The other brother formerly had been in partnership with the missing president in a lumber firm. Both are active in the same church where their brother was an official. John Murray is a trustee.

LET IN THE SUNSHINE
Due to increasing knowledge of the health menace of a smoke and soot-polluted atmosphere, gas is desired as the principal source of heat in large cities, since it is the outstanding smokeless fuel.

No method of heating can hope for a prosperous future unless it recognizes the three essentials, health, comfort and cleanliness. Humidity is as vital as proper temperature. Gas stands head and shoulders above every other fuel when it comes to performing the dual task of heating and moistening the air.

A proper understanding of the beneficial effects of sunshine is the first step in preventive medicine. It brings us to realize the need of squeezing every ounce of benefit from this life-sustaining force that is the greatest of all germ-killers.
