

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the Interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Frank M. Lemon and wife were visiting for the day in Omaha one day during the present week.

I have 2 bred gilts left for April farrow at 15 cents per lb. Must get them at once.—Harry M. Knabe.

R. L. O'Dell of Plato, Mo., was visiting for a few days at the home of his son, H. M. O'Dell in Nehawka. L. J. Austin was a business caller in Union on last Monday where he was looking after some horses which he had there.

Wm. Waldo and the family one day last week moved to the Ketch farm, and will engage in farming for the summer.

Harry Knabe shipped one of his good board pigs to J. C. Dodson at Grant, Nebraska, Rex Young buying the pig for him.

D. C. West of the Nehawka bank was called to Plattsmouth on last Monday to look after some business matters for a short time.

Harold Kimlon reports one hundred and forty little pigs, and all doing fine, which is very gratifying to this celebrated hog raiser.

Forest R. Cunningham with his coterie of workers are kept quite busy these times with the sawing of lumber at the mill in Nehawka.

Julius Ruhmann was a visitor in Union and also in the county seat on last Monday where he had some business matters to look after at both places.

Glen Rutledge and Robert Chapman were visitors in the county seat on last Friday, they driving over in the afternoon, in the auto of Mr. Glen Rutledge.

W. A. Phillips of Elmwood was business caller in Nehawka on last Monday, driving over from his home town to look after some business for a short time.

James Stone and the family were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm, where all enjoyed the day very pleasantly.

Albert Anderson and family were visiting in Lorton last Sunday, where they drove to visit with the parents of Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens of that place.

Wm. Obernautte, the carpenter and mason, was a business caller in Plattsmouth on last Saturday, where he was called to look after some business matters for a short time.

Ray Berger of Plattsmouth, and a salesman for the Plattsmouth Motor Co., of that place was a visitor in Nehawka and was looking after business for the company on Monday of this week.

County Commissioner C. F. Harris was a business visitor in Nehawka on last Monday afternoon, coming over in his new Universal coupe, and was looking after some business for the county.

Carl Anderson of Weeping Water the baker of good bread, was a visitor in Nehawka on last Monday with a load of his products, which are very eagerly looked for by the citizens of Nehawka.

S. M. Taylor and son, Alda, of Union, were visiting in Nehawka on last Monday morning, they visiting with their friends and also were at the mill, where they were getting some feed ground.

Mrs. Mark Burton and Miss Gladys Wolfe were visiting with friends and also looking after some shopping in Nebraska City on Monday of this week, they driving over to the Otoe county seat in their auto.

Harold Kimlon and the family who are living near Murray, were down to Nehawka on last Sunday, and were guests at the home of the parents of Mrs. Kimlon, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Fulton, where all enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

The merry tunes which is played by the horse shoe players in Nehawka sounds good, and are a fore-runner of better and warmer weather which is soon to arrive. Frank Lemon and Ed Wood were making the welkin ring on last Monday.

Bobbie, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wunderlich, who has been kept to the home and a good portion of the time to his bed, by reason of a spell of measles, is at this time reported as being quite a bit better and it is hoped he will soon be entirely over the attack.

Marion Armstrong was a visitor in Nehawka for a few days last week and was taken to the hospital at Plattsmouth by Glen Rutledge, where he is receiving treatment. Mr. Armstrong is a printer of many years experience, and was born 68 years ago at Plattsmouth.

Martin Ross and the good wife are well pleased with the progress which has been made with the changing of their home, and as all the workmen were busy on that part they are feeling pretty well thank you, as they are assured of having the home entirely finished before the coming summer's work.

The Landberg Garage is at this time undergoing some changes, which are being made to secure more room for the office and parts room. While this is necessary Mr. Lundberg much dislikes to spare the room from the main storage department as many times in winter he had hardly sufficient room as it is.

A crew of workmen are reballasting the tracks of the Missouri Pacific road on the branch running from Union to Lincoln, and are located at Nehawka at this time. A crew of bridge workmen are also located here and putting the bridges all in excellent condition, preparatory to the promised heavier traffic which is soon to be delivered over this line.

Guy Stokes Much Better. While still suffering from three fractured ribs, from the auto accident which occurred some two weeks since, Mr. Guy Stokes is able with great care to get about very slowly. He and wife were over to Lincoln recently but found the trip very tiresome and also very painful.

Married at Lincoln.

The Lincoln Daily Star tells of a very quiet wedding of two Nehawka young people, who are students at the state university, they both being seniors in the state school. They have studied hard to make their grades, and at the same time have seen much of each other, and the friendship ripened into love, and their lives were joined when they were united in marriage at Lincoln last week. The happy groom is Frank Pollard, the second son of Hon. E. M. Pollard of Nehawka, while the winsome bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gansener, whose home is a few miles north of Nehawka. The Journal with their many friends are extending the best wishes for a long and happy life, and one of great usefulness to their fellow-man.

Reward for Arrest of Missing Banker

Circulars Sent All Over Country Seeking Former Dunbar Banker.

Nebraska City, Neb., April 12.—Whereabouts of Thomas Murray, first president of the Dunbar State bank, remained a mystery today, according to Sheriff Carl Ryder, who is conducting the search. A reward of two hundred dollars is offered by Otoe county for his arrest.

Ryder said it is definitely known that Murray, under the name of Thomas Miller, was in Denver on April 3, and went from there to Seattle where he checked out of the fashionable Olympic hotel on April 6. Since then his movements have not been known, the sheriff said. In Seattle, Murray registered as Thomas Murray.

Ryder said today he had sent telegrams and circulars to authorities at all coast cities to be on the lookout for the fugitive. Officials are asked to watch all outgoing boats, and to check passenger lists of boats that have departed. Ryder said, however, that he does not believe Murray would chance an attempt to leave the country by boat.

The circular sent out by Ryder states that Murray is wanted for forgery "in large amounts." Murray is described as a pleasant talker, inclined to be cheerful and jovial, and "will be found at the best hotels and clubs."

It is expected by authorities that notes alleged to have been forged and sold by Murray will total more than 100 thousand dollars. This loss, however, will not fall upon the Dunbar State bank, but will be suffered by the buyers of the notes. The loss in the bank will be chiefly in the form of "frozen" assets, according to officials of the state guaranty fund commission.

RUDY DUSEK THROWS ZBYSZKO

Little Rock, Ark.—Stanislaus Zyzsko failed in his attempt to throw two opponents in 90 minutes here Friday when he was forced to yield the first fall to Rudy Dusek in 52 minutes. Zyzsko won the second fall in 29 1/2 minutes. He then wrestled Charles Rentrop of Little Rock for eight and a half minutes without either approaching a fall.

The Latest Sensation In Nebraska

"Knockless" motor fuel that turns carbon into a source of added power

THE combination does it—reliable, quick-starting, clean-burning Red Crown Gasoline, with Ethyl Brand of Anti-Knock Compound added.

On hills, in mud or sand, you can press down on the accelerator—to the floor board if you like—and get all the power with never a knock.

Whether your car is a service-worn veteran or brand new, you can take hills in high that now call for second. You can crawl along in traffic with less gear shifting. You get better performance under all driving conditions, the year around, with Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline.

Carbon produces added power because it increases compression. The higher the compression, the better work Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline does. Try it. You'll feel the difference, like adding an extra cylinder or two. But beware of imitations.

Be sure you get what you pay for—sold only where you see the Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline sign on the silver pump.

BLIZZARD IN NORTHWEST

Winnipeg, Can., April 10.—The worst blizzard in Saskatchewan and Alberta this season has taken a toll of five lives, caused two railway accidents and one automobile mishap. In Manitoba, where there was more rain than snow, many localities were menaced by floods. The blizzard swept Alberta and Saskatchewan yesterday.

Two railway men were killed in the head-on collision of two freight trains near Seven Persons, Alta. Three persons met death when their automobile crashed over an embankment into Swift Current creek, Saskatchewan, during the height of the storm.

Those who are seeking favors or remembrances for the Easter season can be well satisfied by calling at the Bates Book & Gift shop where the stocks are large and attractive.

DECREASE IN FEED CATTLE

Washington, April 11.—Cattle on feed for market in the eleven corn belt states on April 1 totaled only about 92 per cent of the number on that date in 1926, the department of agriculture announced today. Indiana was the only state which did not show a decrease in the number on feed.

"If the cattle market continues in its present strong condition," W. F. Callander, chairman of the crop reporting board, declared, "additional feeding facilities may be expected where feeding stock is available. But present cattle supplies indicate that the market of fed cattle from April to September can hardly equal the very large marketings during the same period last year. Likewise it seems unlikely that the supply of highly finished corn fed cattle this year during this period will equal last when it was probably the largest on record."

"The strong and advancing cattle market since January 1, this year, and comparatively low prices of corn concentrates has resulted in much more favorable returns from feeding operations this year to date than last. This has caused a keen demand for feeding cattle of all kinds, and has resulted in the highest prices for such cattle since 1920."
