sale which was conducted at the sales pavilions at the stock yards.

Grandmother Clarence, who has been quite ill for the past several days is reported at this time as being much improved, and which will be pleasing news for her many friends.

Gust Splitt, who has been having a trouble with the flu for several days is so far improved that he was able to be in Union on last Monday and soon hopes to be himself again.

The Frans Lumber company received a car of nut coal, the first of the week, which will last much longer than the ordinary car as the weather is getting warmer with each day.

Messrs. F. H. McCarthy and John Fitch were called to Murray on last Monday afternoon where they were looking after some business matters as well as visiting with their friends.

Mrs. Rachel Taylor, who was called to Union two weeks ago by the death of her cousin, Mrs. Erwin, departed for the early Tuesday morning train for her home in Sheridan, Missouri.

James Marsell, the superintendent of the Union schools, was a visitor at the home of his parents at Highland, Kansas, for the week-end, where he and they enjoyed the visit very much.

Elmer Withrow and wife were in Nebraska City on last Monday morning where Mrs. Withrow was having some teeth taken out, and as soon as the weather settles a little Elmer expects to have some of his felled.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dowler were in attendance on last Friday at Weeping Water, at the funeral of the uncle of Mrs. Dowler, Mr. Mont Daidvain, who died early last week at his late home at Big Springs, Nebraska.

L. B. Mougey shipped three car loads of very fine heifers to the South Omaha market on last Monday evening. These three cars of baby heaves are sure fine and should record near the top of the market for the day.

Herbert Roddy, who has been selling some household necessities for some time past has returned his samples and will engage in farming this summer. He believes in plowing corn while the sun shines as well as making hay.

Ben Albin has purchased a new Nash coupe, which is a dandy and which he will use for his getting about, and will not refuse to give a ride to a friend sometimes. That is right Ben, share to good rides with your friend and friends.

C. G. McCarthy was a visitor in Nehawka and at the farm which he owns north of that town, where he went to look after the staking out of a place for the excavating for a foundation of a new barn which he is to have constructed on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Y. Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Smith of Myrard, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Wilson of Louisville, Frank Read and family of Murray and Miss Lois Smith of Lincoln were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker on last Sunday, where all enjoyed a very pleasant day.

F. W. Robb and family were enjoying a visit on last Sunday with the family of Cyrus A. Tyson of Omaha. Mr. Tyson being a brother of Mrs. Robb, where all enjoyed the day very much. They all visited the taverns show and found this popular place the last word in the theatre line.

There is some gas squabble south of this portion of the county, at Nebraska City and on further south, which has influenced the price here and now the gas is selling in Union for ten cents which with the tax added makes it seventeen cents. This seems some what in contrast with the price of 20 1/4 cents which prevailed last week. It is reported that the price at Falls City is twelve cents and with the tax making fourteen cents. Let them fight, the people can stand it all right.

Mrs. Belle Frans of Murray was a visitor in Union with relatives for the week-end, and went to the home of her mother where she is caring for that excellent lady, who suffered a fall last week which caused some very severe bruises, and was at first thought to have caused a fracture of her hip. It is hoped that this has not occurred. With the very advanced years of Grandmother Fitch, her return to health will be slow. Her many friends are hoping that she may soon be restored to her former health.

At the Baptist Church.
A very worthwhile program is being prepared for the coming Sunday, Easter Sunday, which is composed of a good deal of excellent musical numbers. There will be preaching in the evening as well as there has been many requests of late that there be services during the evening, and it has been decided that evening services will be held on Sunday beginning with the coming Sunday evening. A cordial invitation will be extended to all who are not worshipping elsewhere to come and worship with the church.

Restaurant for Sale
I am offering my restaurant, which is doing a good business and well located, for sale at reasonable terms. Address Cozy Cafe, Union, Nebraska.

Quiet Wedding Saturday Night.
On Saturday the home of Rev. W. A. Taylor at Union was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Miss Grace Duclach Dauff of Cedar Creek and Charles L. Greene of Union were united in the bonds of wedlock. The marriage lines were read by Rev. Taylor and the ceremony witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Brien, the latter a sister of the bride.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Dr. J. B. Duff and wife and was born and reared in Cedar Creek and is a graduate of the Plattsmouth schools and since completing her school work has been engaged in teaching over the county in the rural schools.

The groom is one of the young business men of Union, being a partner in the firm of Rihm & Greene and is one of the most highly esteemed young men of that portion of Cass county.

Many friends will join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Greene many years of happiness and success in the future years that lie before them.

Doing Good Work.
We chanced to see Raymond Erwin and some of his boy chums carrying a very fine cedar chest to his home as a present for his mother and a fact which we think one of the very nicest acts which a son can do to remember the mother with such an acceptable present. This is one of a number of such pieces of workmanship which the students of the manual training department of the schools have accomplished during the past winter. David Mead has also constructed one, and it was hinted that there were others, but we were not able to find who they were.

NOTICE TO THE CITIZENS OF THE VILLAGE OF UNION
Your attention is hereby called to the ordinance of the Village of Union in regard to chickens running at large.

If you own chickens that are running at large, you will see that they are put up and kept in a pen at once. Anyone found guilty of violating this ordinance will be subject to fines and penalties according to law.

You are also asked to get your yards and alleys free from rubbish.

By order of Village Board.

Subscribers of a newspaper in a small Iowa town got together the other day and decided to give the editor a trip to California. The funny part is that they're providing for a return trip.

KFNH and KMA Censored by the New Radio Commission as "Wave Pirates"

Radio stations KMA and KFNH of Shenandoah and KSO of Clarinda will be "blacklisted" as "pirates" unless they take immediate steps to abide by new rulings of the Federal Radio Commission, according to a decision of the commission. The Shenandoah stations were listed among those who have contributed to the chaotic reception since last July.

Three classes of stations will be acted against by the commission, it was announced. They are:

1. Wave length jumpers.
2. Radio "pirates" who take over channels assigned to Canadians.
3. Stations established since last July which appropriated lengths previously assigned by the commerce department.

These stations must at once find new wave lengths acceptable to the commission.

Stations which have jumped their wave length according to the commerce department, follow:

- KMA, Shenandoah, KFNH, Shenandoah, WOK, Homewood, Ill.; KSO, Clarinda, WHT, Deerfield, Ill.; WAAW, Omaha; WEW, St. Louis; KFTN, Muscatine, Ia.; WJAZ, Chicago; WGES, Chicago; WEMC, Bertie Springs, Mich.; WADF, Detroit; KOIL, Council Bluffs; KFDY, Brookings, S. D.; KWRC, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; WSBG, Chicago; WKBB, Joliet, Ill.; KOCV, Chickasha, Okla.; WCMA, Culver, Ind.; WVI, St. Louis, and WEHS, Evanston, Ill.

LOST IN A COPPER MINE

Butte, Mont., April 10.—Lost for three days 2,200 feet below the surface of the earth in a copper mine without food, water or light, Roland Sulvain, a miner, today was discharged from a Butte hospital, where he had been recovering from exposure and hunger. Sulvain's light was blown out last Saturday night while he was in an abandoned drift. He wandered about in the dark, calling for help, and at the end of two days hunger and thirst had begun to exact their toll on his strength. Sulvain said today that he drank copper water and for hours rubbed stones together in an effort to produce sparks with which to light his lamp. Tuesday night, in the darkness and subsequently was rescued by two other miners.

George L. Sheldon of Lincoln was in the city today for a few hours looking after some matters of business with friends.

Mr. M. E. Manspeaker of Omaha is here to spend a short time visiting with the old friends and attending some matters of business.

A. S. Ghrist, who has been at Des Moines, taking treatment, has returned home and feeling very much improved over his past condition.

George L. Sheldon of Lincoln was in the city today for a few hours looking after some matters of business with friends.

FLOOD WATERS REDECE IN SOUTHERN KANSAS

Kansas City, April 10.—Oklahoma and southern Kansas streams, the overflowing of which the last few days caused the loss of 17 lives and great damage to growing crops, appeared tonight to have concluded their orgy of destruction. Reports from affected sections told of receding waters, of rivers returning to their banks, and of cessation of rain, with a warm sun shining.

The Verdigris river at Independence, Kans., which spreads out over thousands of acres of wheat lands, was falling, as was the Neosho river at Parsons.

Bottom land farmers in southeastern Kansas, forced to flee on short notice, leaving their live stock to its fate, today were sadly contemplating the future.

Details Reasons for Failure of the Grain Company

Failure to Sell Stock Is Given the Blame by Rosenbaum—Testifies at Hearing.

Chicago, Ill., April 11.—A co-operative marketing plan for grain farmers was wrecked on the indifference of those it sought to aid, Emanuel P. Rosenbaum, New York and Chicago broker, who started the plan, told the grain investigating committee of the Illinois legislature today.

Inability of farm organizations to sell stock in the Grain Marketing company, which they had accepted as a vehicle of remedy in 1922 and 1923, caused the failure of the company, the broker declared.

The marketing organization had its inception in a conversation between Rosenbaum and Frank P. Walsh, a Chicago attorney, in 1922. Walsh had investigated co-operative marketing in Russia, Denmark, Germany and Ireland.

After many conferences with government officials, elevator owners and farm group heads, the marketing company was organized by the Rosenbaum Grain corporation, Rosenbaum Brothers, the Armour Grain company and Davis-Merrill company and Besides elevators, terminals and offices worth 17 million dollars, the companies turned over 30 million dollars of contracts to the company, Rosenbaum declared. A year's option was given the farm organizations to acquire the properties, during which they were to pay four million dollars to the funders. It was to be obtained from the sale of stock. When the stock selling proposal went to the wall, the Grain Marketing company followed.

The Pure McCoy!

Pardon the slang; we're excited.
We can't keep our enthusiasm for this New Goodyear Tire below a college cheer!

They said—when they announced it—that it's "The Greatest Tire in the World!"
That's putting it about as you can in good English.

But when you see this tire—when you know what this new-type tread specially designed for balloon wear really means to you—you'll get pepped-up, too.

No more skidding, no more uneven and fast tread wear, no more of the things that have made some fellows say of other balloons, "I'd almost as soon have old-fashioned tires."

It's the pure McCoy! That's all. See it and you'll say the same.

BENEFITS OF COMPULSORY INSURANCE QUESTIONABLE

Compulsory automobile liability insurance is being experimented with in the state of Massachusetts and is prominently discussed in political circles in many other states. Figures recently prepared by Frank E. Helvey of the Insurance Federation of Nebraska, give information which can be applied to practically every state with suitable changes of proportionate increase or decrease in population, as compared with Nebraska.

Mr. Helvey's figures for Nebraska show a total registration of 337,959 passenger cars and 28,784 trucks, or a total of 366, 773 registered automobiles for the year 1926. Of this number, 112,878 passenger cars and 12,137 trucks, or a total of 125,015 automobiles, were owned and used on Nebraska farms, and it is estimated that farm machines will increase to 140,000 in 1924.

Personal injuries and property damage from automobiles as checked up from Nebraska newspapers for a period of more than a year, from May 1, 1925, show that only 1.3 per cent of the total reported accidents were traceable to farm-owned cars.

Under compulsory automobile liability insurance in a state like Nebraska, a farmer would have to pay 40 per cent of the accident and damage bill, although liable for only a little over one per cent of the actual damage. Under a compulsory law in Nebraska, it is estimated car owners would be forced to pay annually $5, 686,368, of which sum the farmers would pay $2,240,000 per year to insure solvency on their part for a 1.3 per cent responsibility for accidents.

The benefits to be derived from this type of compulsory insurance are questionable when compared with encouragement of increased litigation and possible recklessness.
