Fixing Up Base Ball Park Much Needed Move

City Has Taken Right Steps to Preserve This Valuable Property from Ruin.

From Wednesday's Daily—The baseball park east of the Burlington passenger station, on the river front which has for years been gradually going to rack and ruin, has at last a chance to be placed back in at least a partial semblance of its former glory.

The city board has operated on a very small margin of funds in the past year that would not even permit anything like an adequate repair of the park and in the past two years the board has had no appropriation for park use and has had to do some real financing to get along in making what progress they might in the park system of the city. This has tied up the hands of the city park board in getting the ball park fixed up in proper shape.

The baseball team two years ago spent a large part of their receipts on the grounds and Manager Swanson and his teammates had the place in fair shape but high waters caused by the heavy rains has played havoc with the work that was done and the result left the park in a very bad shape.

The fence will have to be given an entire going over, be strengthened and on the west side have special reinforcing against the high water that follows each big rain as the result of the floodwater from the city sewers. In the work of repairing the baseball park the city park board and the streets alleys and bridges committee will have the assistance of C. S. Johnson, who has taken a real interest in the ball park and was one of the men who helped build up the park some eighteen years ago and who is anxious to see it placed in the best of shape for future use.

The park is the only place of its kind in the city and is needed for ball games as well as the use of the high school for their football games and other athletic events and should by all means be placed in the best of shape for the coming year and be kept in proper shape in the future.

WIND DOES DAMAGE

The territory in the vicinity of South Bend and west of Louisville was visited last night by a very heavy wind storm that came on late in the night and did more or less damage through that section of the country.

Near the farm of George Vogler the storm was at the worst and a large tree was blown down, this falling on the high tension line of the Nebraska Power Co., that supplies the town of Murdock and the adjoining territory and with the result that the town was without lights for some time.

No great property damage was reported, however, as the result of the visitation of the storm through the country.

JOHN HAS ACCIDENT

From Wednesday's Daily—John Zitka, the efficient member of the street cleaning department of the city, whose little two wheeled cart is a familiar sight on the streets, was the central figure of not a little excitement on the main drag yesterday.

John, in pursuit of the elusive dust and dirt that gathers on the street had backed his cart up in the rear of a small truck and was industriously sweeping when the owner of the truck hurried out of a store, jumped in the truck and not noticing the cart of Mr. Zitka, started to back up the truck and with the result that the dump cart was very much damaged and the feelings of Mr. Zitka accordingly riled up. What the street cleaner thought of the incident was very forcibly told and the services of Carl Kunsmann, the chairman of the streets, alleys and bridges committee was required to get the matter smoothed over. The city cart was fixed up and in a few hours was back in service again.

Mrs. Henry G. Soimil-ben was a visitor in Omaha today to spend a few hours in that city visiting with friends and also at the hospital with Mrs. Waldemar Soennichen and little daughter, Mary Phyllis.

PICK your hill and watch her PULL it

FILL your tank with Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline and head for the hardest hill you know. You will be surprised at the way you shoot up the grade and at the absence of "knocking".

In slow traffic you'll find a more powerful pick-up and less need for gear shifting. Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline gives every car new powers of performance, in summer as in winter.

There's no magic about it and no doubt. The power comes from quick-starting, clean-burning Red Crown Gasoline. The addition of Ethyl Brand of Anti-Knock Compound makes it possible to use this power to better advantage because the Ethyl makes Red Crown Gasoline burn differently.

It develops a steadier push on the piston for the full length of the power stroke. It prevents knocks and vibration and much wear and tear on the motor. The higher the compression—from carbon or any other cause—the better work Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline does.

Try a tankful of this new combination fuel in your car. But be sure you get the genuine—sold only where you see the RED CROWN Ethyl Gasoline sign on the silver pump.

For "knockless" operation avoid dilution. Wait until your gasoline supply is low before filling with Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline—then use Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline exclusively.
