Philip Thieroll VALUE GIVING CLOTHING

An Egg a Day will Keep the Market Good

Secretary Davis Urges the Eating of the Favorite Crops of the Henhouse.

"Eat more eggs each day. To make poultry pay."

That is strictly original, if you please. We have received from County Agent L. R. Snipes, today for your use, the following bulletins:

Extension Circular No. 919. Eggs an excellent food. Also circular on hog feeding dated May this year. Also circulars on septic sewage tanks and milk cooling tanks.

The one on eggs has a number of most tempting egg recipes you ever saw.

Baked Egg au Gratin: Break an egg into a buttered ramekin, sprinkle with salt and paprika and grated cheese. Add a piece of butter and bake set in hot water until the eggs are set.

Ask your barber for an EGG SHAMPOO.

And Mr. Man, when you go home insist on an Angel Food Cake—they are egg consumers, but worth every egg you ever put into one.

You can eat Brownies by the dozen: 1 c sugar, 1/2 c butter, 2 eggs, chocolate, 1/2 c flour, 2 eggs well beaten; nut, vanilla. Melt butter and chocolate; add sugar, eggs, flour, nuts and vanilla. Mix thoroughly, spread thin in buttered tin—bake slowly twenty to twenty-five minutes.

We have two married men looking for work—one on a farm and the other a machinist. If you hear of an opening please advise.

On June 22nd at Lincoln, crops and soils field day. Of special interest to merchants handling alfalfa seed to be able to detect winter killed alfalfa seed. Mr. Snipes extends the dealers of Plattsmouth a cordial invitation to bring their lunch and mingle with the crowd.

The egg offers an inexpensive food quickly prepared, full of food value, and easily obtained. Try an egg now!

From Gainesville, Florida, to Maine, and from New York to San Francisco, and from San Francisco to Alaska, and through the Canadian Provinces, there is nothing in government cooperation, that has done the agricultural interests the good accomplished by our great experimental farms, and the many hard working earnest county agents, like our own Mr. Snipes.

In Arkansas they have an "Apple Eating Week" in which apples are served baked, in pies, fried, sauce and just apples, to help build up the apple demand. Iowa and Nebraska could do the same in "an Egg Week."

Have you put that bell on your cat yet, or do you prefer to see our baby robins, baby wrens, baby orioles baby cat birds, baby thrushes, baby cardinals constitute its principal diet the rest of the summer?

And you parents—don't you think the training in a Junior Chamber of Commerce would be a great thing for your ambitious boys?

Recently Colliers carried a story of Custer's Last Stand, and last night at the Farnelle this great epic of the West—the Golden West, is put into breathing actual life. Sat enthralled during this picture—better than the Covered Wagon—better than any Western drama have ever seen.

HIKE TO NEBRASKA CITY

From Thursday's Daily— This morning a group of the campfire girls left this city on a hike to Nebraska City, leaving here at 8:30 and with the avowed intention of making the journey to the Otoe county city without the aid of any motor car or other means of transportation.

Many of the most beautiful designs and shades of crepe paper and crepe paper novelties can be found in the Dennison line on sale at the Bates Book and Gift Shop.

Nehawka and Vicinity Shows the Real Spirit

Some $10,000 Raised in Town and the Surrounding Territory for Graveling of the Roads

The residents of the town of Nehawka and the adjacent territory tributary to that place, have shown a real spirit in going after the graveling proposition and are putting across one of the biggest propositions in this line, representing over $10,000 that was raised in that community for the graveling of the town streets.

The last of the projects, comprising $4,429.73 for the graveling of the road to O street, and the mile and a half north of the town was turned over yesterday to the county commissioners and the community assured of having this work done and done right.

There was no bickering or disagreements over the graveling, as to whether this person or that one had a road past their door step or not, and everyone stepped right into the breach for the community good and gave and gave liberally for the work that will benefit not only the town of Nehawka, but the entire surrounding community and in the list of donations there are scarcely any of the residents of that community but who are represented with liberal amounts.

Weeping Water Young People are Wed This Week

Country Home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Colbert Is Scene of Delightful Occasion.

The charming country home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Colbert was the scene of a lovely wedding when their only daughter, Bernice, was united in marriage to Charles C. Joyce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Joyce of Weeping Water, on Thursday evening, June 2, 1927, at 8 o'clock, officiating by Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, in the presence of about 45 relatives and close friends.

Elmer Colbert, brother of the bride, attended the groom, and Miss Marjorie Joyce acted as bridesmaid. The wedding march, which was the Bridal Chorus, from Lohengrin, was played by Miss Charlotte Joyce. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Jessie Jones, of Eagle, sang, "I Love You Truly," and "At Dawning."

Following the ceremony, a dainty luncheon of pink ice cream, in the shape of roses, angel food cake and wafers was served, after which the happy couple departed on a short motor trip to Shennandoah, where they visited at the Floyd Ruby home.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS HIKE TO NEBRASKA CITY

From Friday's Daily— About 6:30 we left town on our way to Nebraska City. However, we thought we could catch a ride so out at the Spangler house, south of town, we got our first ride which covered about 2 miles. We then walked a little farther, and another car came along and we all piled on the Ford roadster. There were only seven of us. The driver took us quite a ways.

We visited the fire at Murray and went on to Nebraska City. We went thru town and then went out to Morton's Park to eat our dinner. After dinner we visited the log cabin and then went back to town. We enjoyed renewing our acquaintance with the Robb family and then went to the swimming pool not far from the city and enjoyed our first swim of the season.

About 3 o'clock we returned to town and started homeward. Stopping at Morton's Park again, we were allowed to go thru the home of Mr. Morton which was thoroughly enjoyed by all of the party. We then started homeward, but were picked up later.

Arriving in town about 8:30 were a group of tired, sunburned, but happy girls and will no doubt be ready for another hike (?) before long.

LEWISTON NOTES

Gus Spaecht trucked a load of stock to Omaha Monday. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Crunk and family were visiting in Union Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Albert Young received a cash prize of $30.00 for a recent magazine article which appeared in one of the leading magazines. The Aid society met with Mrs. A. Hansen Wednesday of last week, the guests numbering nearly 100. A most enjoyable time was had by all who were present.

The Social Circle met with Mrs. Charles Wolf Friday of last week. The usual good time was had. Mrs. John Yardley and Mrs. Elmer Yardley, as well as Mrs. Vera Eggham of Denver, were guests of the club. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Vernon.

There will be a community party at the church Wednesday evening, under the direction of Rev. H. E. Sorter. Both young and old are invited. It is a get-together party similar to the ones conducted by the Methodist people of Plattsmouth. They have wonderful times. Why can't Lewiston? Come out and see.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE

Albert R. Davis, Wayne, Nebraska, was elected grand master of the Masonic grand lodge of Nebraska Wednesday, the second day of the seventieth annual communication of the lodge.

At 11 a. m. yesterday 150 autos drove to Fremont, where delegates were guests of Fremont lodge No. 15. During the afternoon they visited the Masonic-Eastern Star home for children and the Masonic farm property.

At 4:30 the delegation returned to Omaha for a picnic supper at the Masonic home for boys there. No official trip to the Plattsmouth home is on the program this year.

Death of Mrs Mary Wales at Edgmont, S. D.

Former Resident Here Passed Away at Home of Daughter, Mrs. Patrick Egan.

From Thursday's Daily— Mrs. Mary Wales, for many years a resident of this city and well known to the older residents of this community, passed away yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Patrick Egan at Edgmont, South Dakota, following an illness of some duration.

The deceased lady was some eighty-three years of age and has been a resident here for the greater part of her lifetime. She was the widow of Thomas Wales, civil war veteran whose death occurred here a long period of years ago.

In 1923 Mrs. Wales left her home here as her advanced years made her maintaining the home impossible and she has since made her home with the daughter, Mrs. Egan.

The deceased lady is survived by two children, Mrs. Egan and one son, Joseph Wales of Council Bluffs, Iowa. Robert Egan of this city is a grandson of the deceased lady.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR POPULAR COUPLE

As miscellaneous shower was given last Friday evening, June 3, at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John Heil, west of town, in honor of their daughter, Miss Elsie Heil and Herman Wendt, of near Murdock, whose coming wedding is one of the most interesting events of this community, owing to the popularity of the young couple, who have a host of friends.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were received which are highly prized by Miss Heil as a token of the love and esteem of her friends. After a merry evening, a lunch was served consisting of delicious sandwiches, wafers, pickles, cakes and coffee.

The shower was arranged by Miss Malinda Jung, of Malcolm, a cousin who has been here for a number of weeks assisting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Heil, who have now recovered from their extended illness.

The decorations were very pretty the color scheme being pink and yellow, the flowers being of the same coloring. The evening was spent in music, games and visiting together and admiring and inspecting the numerous gifts. About 85 were present to offer their congratulations and to enjoy the evening.—Louisville Courier.
