

Alvo Department

Elmer Bennett was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday, where he went with a load of stock for the neighbors.

Lee Coatman, of Elmwood, was looking after some business matters in Alvo on last Wednesday afternoon.

John Coleman has been assisting in the painting at the store of John Woods in the transformation from the old to the new conditions.

Philip Coatman has been driving the truck which hauls stock to Omaha, during the absence of John B. Skinner, who is visiting in the west.

A. L. Bird and family were visiting in Lincoln last Tuesday, they driving over in their car for the occasion, which was business combined with pleasure.

Mrs. James R. M. Coatman and Otto Ingwerson, with the daughter of the latter were visiting in Lincoln on last Wednesday afternoon, they driving over in their car.

Hal Parsel has been making the change which is necessary for the new plan of running the Dickerson store, and has been having Frank Garcia assisting in the painting of the interior, which is to be white.

Joe Armstrong has been painting at the home of John Skinner, which is being gotten in readiness for his return from the west, where John and his bride are spending some time before returning to housekeeping.

Word from Alta Litch, who is now at Kilaro, Calif., is to the effect that the days are very warm there, running away up over a hundred, but the nights are cool. Miss Alta is enjoying the stay there very much.

A. Suedgen and the family were enjoying the Fourth as well as the week end at the home of friends in Omaha, they going on Friday evening and returning home on Tuesday morning and report having had a most enjoyable time.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kirkpatrick on last Wednesday afternoon, where they had a most excellent meeting and were entertained in the very best manner by the hostess, Mrs. Kirkpatrick.

Otto Ingwerson and wife and their daughter, Miss Gladys, and son Frank, all of Wayne, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Coatman, Mr. Ingwerson being a brother of Mrs. Coatman. They came to spend the Fourth and also remained for a few days afterward.

Word from the old country is to the effect that Mrs. Simon Rehmeyer, who is spending the summer there, had an excellent trip over and is enjoying the visit very much, she having found the folks all enjoying good health and very much pleased to have their daughter visit them.

John Skinner departed for the west on last Saturday and was traced as far as Fullerton, but from there no traces of this gentleman could be found. He was to be away for some two weeks and it is expected he will spend some time in Estes Park, Colorado, while away. They will reside in Alvo after their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Boyles, of McCook, were visiting in Alvo on last Sunday and the following day, and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Boyles, while here. They stopped off here while on their way from Detroit, where they had been for a new Essex sedan, which they are driving through to their home in the west.

Sunshine 4-H Club Notes

Genevieve Sheesley's canned cherries were judged best and Francesan Edwards' second best at their meeting last Tuesday.

At the next regular meeting on July 14th, canned beans will be judged.

The girls enjoyed their first picnic June 28, with their leader, Mrs. Leaver.

Making Store Look Better

John Woods, who has become a member of the Independent Grocers Alliance, as well as F. E. Dickerson, is making a change in his store interior, as has also Mr. Dickerson. These gentlemen, seeing the advantages of this change in their manner of doing business have by their change endeavored to procure the better service for the people whom they serve. You will note the change when they have completed the same and also the better prices at which they will furnish you the staple and fancy goods of which you may be in need.

Fish a Plenty

Yes, that is just what the celebrated fishermen and their good wives secured when they went over to the Platte river for the week end.

Chamber of Commerce Offices to be Open Again

Raphael Janda Selected to Serve as Clerk and Have Charge of Office and Rest Rooms.

At the meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce held this morning at the chamber of commerce offices on North 6th street, it was decided that the rest rooms and the office that has been kept open since last September, be maintained each day as a meeting place and to give the visitors to the city the opportunity of enjoying the rest rooms that are a part of the establishment and which have had a very generous use from the traveling public and also a number of local organizations that have used the rooms for their meeting places.

The board of directors also selected Raphael Janda of this city as the clerk to have charge of the office work and look after the management of the rooms and the reception of visitors that might come to the offices to gather in formation as to the city. The selection of Mr. Janda was a very pleasing one and this young man, graduate of the local school in the class of 1927 will prove an most acceptable person in the office as he is very efficient and has a pleasant personality.

SWINE SONG GAINS FAME

The swine song, made famous by Fred Patzel, Madison, Nebraska, farmer, has had another bid for fame and from the musical notes of the hog call has been woven a romance that appeared in the current issue of the Liberty magazine. The Plattsmouth people will recall Fred Patzel and his calls which was a feature of the last indoor carnival of the American Legion held last November in this city. That Fred is the king of all callers there is no doubt and the great deal in placing Nebraska in the forefront at the Philadelphia convention of the American Legion last year when his calls featured the march of the Nebraska delegation in the great parade of the Legion.

Peiham Grenville Wodehouse, writer of humorous fiction has written a comedy piece has written the story for Liberty, "Pig-hoo-o-o-ay" and which has to deal with a prize porker on an English estate that refused to eat. The hero, a young Englishman that has worked on a Nebraska farm and by giving the proper hog call wins the porker back to her rations.

Certain Fred is getting his full share of fame as is most successful of the hog callers and as the man that made this a nation wide feature.

MAY MAKE CHANGES IN TRAINS

The Missouri Pacific railroad that has maintained one of the very best passenger train schedules in their history on the Kansas City-Omaha line of the railroad is contemplating some changes that will be felt in a number of the towns and takes off the schedule two of the passenger trains.

One of the most popular trains as far as this city is concerned is contemplated being removed. No 197, northbound, leaving this city at 7:23 is also planned to be taken off the line.

The morning train that now reaches here from the north at 9:40 a. m. will be changed to leave Omaha at 1:30 p. m. under the proposed schedule.

The changes were announced to be effective July 10th but local officials of the railroad state that the changes have not been entirely decided upon and that the retention of the night train to Omaha is being urged in many of the towns along the line. The matter of the change is in the hands of the officers of the road at St. Louis and possibly may be modified.

Dr. Frederick Cook has been denied a parole by the United States supreme court. This arctic explorer and green goods exploited as charged, will have to stay where he is. The doctor will have to look up the pardon route.

Elmwood to Hold Gala Celebration July 28

Community Day Will Be Quite an Event for All Sections of the County to Join in.

The annual community celebration which the town of Elmwood has featured for the past several years, will be held on Thursday, July 28th, the announcement is made from the west Cass county town.

On the occasion of the community day large numbers of the residents of all sections of the county gather at Elmwood to make it a real success and Plattsmouth will have a number present to enjoy the occasion that our neighboring town has arranged.

The several towns over the county have community events that are a most enjoyable feature of the summer season and in which all parts of the county can join in one great big time. There is the Old Settlers reunion at Union, the county fair at Weeping Water, Ford day at Murdock and this year there will be also the Fall Festival to be held at Plattsmouth, as this event will be celebrated instead of the Fourth as was the program last year.

All the county gatherings are events that all can enjoy and will have many very interesting features for the young and old residents of the entire county and serve as the means of getting acquainted and have a better understanding of the several communities and their opportunities and advantages.

TWO OLD TIMERS OUT OF PICTURE

Two ancient and honored members of the major league pitching fraternity were discharged from the big show this week with the information that their services were no longer required. They were Leslie Joseph Bush and Stanley Coveleskie, the noisiest and most subdued players respectively, in the game.

Assuming that their major league careers are ended, since club of both leagues waived on their services, baseball loses two right-handers who have contributed a wealth of pitching greatness to its archives. When in his heyday each ranked with the best of the past and present. But they are gone, and from now on memory and the printed records will have to serve.

Joe Bush, besides having his enviable record as a great pitcher could imitate more barnyard fowls, birds and beasts of the forest and all domestic animals than any player in baseball. With a peculiar rasping voice, he could summon more whistles, cackles, chirps, crowing, barking and general outbursts of animal life than any one could imagine.

Stanley Coveleskie was just the opposite temperament. If he ever said more than two words at once during his career no one seems to have heard him. Silent, pensive and ever brooding this great Pole waded thru the best years that baseball has known and wound up with an enviable pitching record. When he was with the Senators they prided upon having the three most silent men in baseball—Coveleskie, Ossie Bluege and Alex Ferguson—and the loudest, Bush.

THE VANISHED FLOWERS

In Honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Beil.

Ah, when the stars are shining,
And the sun has gone to rest—
Then think of your "Dear Parents."

They are alone I guess.
Have their children grown up, I wonder—
Yes, they have, they've gone out to roam
And left their "Dear Old Parents" Alone at home.

One is way out in Oregon—
The place she calls her home.
Another is down in Kansas,
And she's down there all alone.
The rest are here in Nebraska
And one is here to stay—
For Joe left his "Dear Old Parents"

And they called it his parting day.
Nearly sixty years have wandered—
And there's two left in that home.

They are your "Dear Parent's" Children,
And they realize they're alone.
They have striven and pondered for you—
Worked and grieved, too;
Thinking that some day 't would bring
A happy home to you.

—Ruthie Beil.

KINTNER-SWARTWOUT

The marriage of Miss Rae Swartwout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Swartwout of Kansas City, Mo., and Dr. Elmer H. Kintner of Weeping Water, took place Saturday afternoon at 4:30 in the Central Congregational church of Omaha. Rev. Adams performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by Mrs. O. C. Hinds of this city, and Mr. Hinds served as best man. Mr. R. A. Swartwout gave the wedding dinner at the Fontenelle Hotel at 7 o'clock.

Dr. and Mrs. Kintner and Mr. and Mrs. Hinds returned home Monday night. Dr. and Mrs. Kintner will be at home in the Eva Hammond home on Randolph street.

The happy young couple have the well wishes and congratulations of a host of friends in this community, where the groom has spent most of his life, having been reared on the farm and received his diploma from the Weeping Water high school. The bride also has a host of warm friends in the community, having taught in the high school here the past year. The groom is engaged in the dental profession in Weeping Water, and is counted as one of our finest business men. The Republican joins their friends in wishing them a most joyous and successful life.—Weeping Water Republican.

MUST GET BETTER PRICES

Chicago, July 7.—Men who understand the problem of agriculture as well as the principles of banking are needed in the financial institutions of the nation. E. H. Thomson, president of the federal intermediate credit bank of Springfield, Mass., told the American institution of co-operation here today. Mr. Thomson said there is need for a longer term credit arrangement for co-operatives under certain conditions and that he looked for development in the field of agricultural credit, but he was not prepared to say whether the arrangement should take the form of longer term mortgage credit on the amortization plan, or some other scheme.

Farmers today, however, he added, need better prices for their products, "some way of getting out of debt than a way of increasing indebtedness."
