Meisinger Family Holds Annual Reunion

Large Number of This Splendid Family Gather at Park at Cedar Creek to Enjoy Event.

From Monday's Daily—
The beautiful and attractive park at Cedar Creek with its lakes and the pleasant shade of the stately trees, was the scene yesterday of the second annual reunion of the members of the Meisinger family and the attendance was very pleasing to the committee that had charge of the arrangements of the family gathering many who were present for the first time being numbered among the jolly party that filled the park and made the event one of the greatest interest and pleasantness.

This family has had a large part in the making of this portion of Cass county into the splendid agricultural section that ranks among the best in the state and the picnic members of the family who came here in the late sixties and the early seventies by their hard work and thrift have left to their descendants a worthy heritage in the splendid farming section that they created.

The family came originally from Germany and first settled in Tazewell county, Illinois, and from there with the spirit of the pioneers they moved westward to the then little known area of Nebraska, settling here when the conditions of living were the hardest, but filled with the hardihood and strength of their forebears they gave to this state a wonderful contribution in its development.

The members of the family came to the picnic yesterday prepared to enjoy the day in a good old fashioned reunion and in which the various members of the family renewed their ties of kinship, the late generations of the family living married into other of the prominent families of the county and increasing the memberships of the family until it numbers hundreds in this part of the county.

Most of those attending came with well laden baskets of the good things gathered from the wonderful picnic grounds and the city homes of the members and which furnished the basis for the many picnic dinner that were spread in the shade of the trees.

During the late morning and the afternoon the Louisville Farmer Union band, of which several of the members of the family are members, furnished a very enjoyable musical program that helped to make the event of more than usual interest.

District Judge James T. Begley was present in the afternoon and gave a short address that was followed with the greatest of interest by the picnic party.

Judge Begley paid a glowing tribute to the part that the members of the family in an early day in this county had played, their thrift and energy that had developed the farming interests of the county and the upbuilding of the town communities that had been fortunate in having members of the family locate near them. It was the pioneers that had laid the foundation for success that the following generations were carrying to larger fields of success.

It was not until late in the afternoon when the members of the family bid each other farewell and closed the reunion to await the next year when another of these happy events will again call them together in the bonds of kinship.

Constable Svoboda detected Arnold Christianson in the act of having some of the famous juice of the corn in his possession and the officers at once swept down on him and placed him under arrest. The man was brought on to this city and lodged in jail over Sunday.

This morning complain was filed by County Attorney W. G. Dieck against Christianson and on entering a plea of guilty to the charge the man was sentenced to serve sixty days in the county jail by Judge A. H. Duxbury.

City Council Adopts Estimate on City Paving

Four Districts Estimated to Cost $24,505.50 for Concrete and $30,505.50 for Brick.

From Tuesday's Daily—
The special session of the city council last evening took up the matter of the estimate of the paving in districts 49, 50 and 51 and all members of the city legislative body were present to take part in the meeting and hear the estimate that had been prepared by the firm of Bruce & Groupe of Omaha, city engineers and who were represented at the meeting by John A. Bruce, senior member of the firm.

There was present a number of the residents of district No. 50, the district embracing 9th street from Chicago avenue to Diamond street and Rock street from Chicago avenue east to Eighth street. The residents present at the meeting were anxious to learn the cost of the paving to each lot front and thought that the cost had been represented to them as lower than it really would be.

Mr. Bruce estimated that on streets where there was no curb and gutter that the cost of the paving, grading, curbing and guttering on forty foot lot frontage would be $130 to cover the entire outlay of the cost.

In response to the inquiry of Stodola as to the cost of frontage on 42 and two 40 foot lots, Mr. Bruce estimated the cost to be not over $400.

The estimates of the engineers for the four districts which include 16th street from Main to Pearl, Eighth street from Main to Pearl, Pearl from Fourth to Sixth, Rock street from Chicago avenue to Eighth street and Chicago avenue from Chicago avenue to Diamond street, in the class of six inch concrete paving would amount to $24,505.50 while for brick paving the cost would be $30,505.50.

On motion of Councilman Luschnisky seconded by Councilman Egenberger the report of the engineers and the estimate was adopted and the mayor and city clerk authorized to advertise for bids for the same.

GOES TO OMAHA

From Tuesday's Daily—
Miss Teresa Hemple, who has long been one of the efficient teachers of the city schools, departed yesterday for Omaha where she goes to take up new lines of work, being engaged with the Drake Realty Co., of that city in their offices at the Drake Court.

Miss Hemple has had a very successful career as teacher as well as a business woman and her experience along lines of business efficiency and accounting will be most valuable to the large realty company in which she is to be associated. Miss Hemple was for many years grand recorder of the Degree of Honor of Nebraska, and made a splendid record in that office and later resumed her teaching work which she continued up to this year.

The new position is one that will mean a very substantial increase in salary for Miss Hemple and her many friends are pleased that she has been given this pleasing recognition of her efficiency.

The many friends regret very much to see Miss Hemple leave the city but join in wishing her success in her new work and surroundings.

RETURNS FROM AUTO TRIP

From Tuesday's Daily—
Last evening Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Warthen and son, Norman, returned from a very pleasant auto trip to Greenfield, Iowa, where they were visiting at the home of Mrs. Warthen's sister, Mrs. Ira Dieck. While they traveled through a number of good towns they found none that looked as good as Plattsmouth. They report the corn in that section of Iowa as fine but the country very hilly and rough, but which their Chevy made without trouble and safely bore them to and from their destination.

Hectic Contest Goes to Pappios by 6 to 5 Score

Locals Wobble and Bad Umpiring Finished the Job in Giving Win to Visitors.

From Monday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon the baseball fans had the opportunity of witnessing several innings of good ball playing, some very costly bobbles and a lot of poor judgment on the part of the umpire of the contest, in which the locals suffered more than their opponents and which in a tenth inning finish resulted in Papillion taking home the grapes by the score of 6 to 5.

The first innings of the game were fast and furious and while the locals led three to 1 up to the seventh the game was working nicely but after that inning the locals had a relapse and the umpire also added to the tumult with his decisions that to say the least showed very poor judgment.

The game was featured by the hitting of Newman and Reichart as well as the timely bingle of Ed Gradoville, who covered first for the locals. The work of Haberline in left garden and also his hit that gave his team the lead, marked the game for Papillion while Chip Bressman also was in the limelight with his hitting, his double whacking the game.

In the second inning the fireworks started for the locals when Mason was hit by Jimmy and was sacrificed by McCarthy to second base and from where he scored when Newman hit a drive to left field.

The third saw the Platters again add one run to their score, George Reichart was up and drew a walk, but was caught attempting to steal second while Spidell was whiffed by Jimmy. Art Klauschie then drove a hard one through short and was followed by Ed Gradoville who hit to Ruff at second, Blondy missing the ball and allowing Ed to reach first and by a wild heave to Beerline allowed Klauschie to canter home with another run. Mason hit to short left but Gradoville was nipped at the plate.

The first outbreak on the umpire was in the fourth when Ruff was on base for Papillion when Beerline hit to left and Blondy scored but the ump called the ball foul and Blondy was shooed back to second and Beerline later was out on a fly to center.

It was in the sixth frame that the Papillion stock started to raise on the market when Bressman hit safe to left and was followed by Ruff who hit safe and then King hit through Newman at short to score Chipper.

Plattsmouth in the last of the sixth rang up another run and looked good for a winner when our hard hitting pitcher Swanny hit clean to center and was advanced to third on the double of Hans and Swanny came home when Ruff failed to handle the grounder of Herold.

The bitter eighth was where the Papillion Hornets proceeded to tie up things and where everything went wrong for the Platters, errors and the bad judgment of Umpire Bill making our cup of grief full to overflowing and turning what seemed a sure victory into the bitterest of anguish.

Ruff made an easy out from Pete to Ed and then Swanny lost King on a walk to first and Burns was safe when Swanny heaved wild to first base and then Beerline hit to center and the ball was good for two runs. Fritz Haberline hit to center and scored Beerline and sewed up the game. It was in this inning that Umpire Bill threw the hooks into the locals.

In the ninth Papillion stepped out and took another run for the lead, of the contest, Bressman hitting safe to right and Ruff being safe when Newman juggled the grounder, King was safe on an error of Herold in throwing to second and Chip scored but Ruff was caught at home on a throw of Newman.

The locals came back strong in their half of the ninth they scoring two runs and forcing the contest into extra innings. Reichart hit safe to left garden and was advanced on the error of Ruff at second when Art hit to second and the play was made on George. Ed Gradoville was then up and after one of his drives had been called foul by the ump he laced one through short that no one cared to tackle and George scored, and on the wild heave in, Art came home with the needed run for the tie.

The agony closed in the tenth when with one down Mattheis hit safe through second and tallied when Chip Bressman came through with a smashing two bagger to right field.

The Platters made a hard attempt to rally in the last of the extra inning when Swanny was on first through the error of Jimmy and advanced to third on the double of Newman to center, but the runners died on the sacks as Herold and Reichart were out on short flies and Spidell whiffed.

The tabulated score of the game was as follows:

Harvest Hands Made Victims of Stickup Men

Gang of Holdup Men Operating Out of Omaha Seem to Pick on Returning Harvesters.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The result of the activities of a stickup gang operating from Omaha during the line of the Missouri Pacific railroad served to keep Sheriff Bert Reed and Constable Tom Svoboda out the greater part of last night and until near 5 o'clock this morning.

The sheriff was called to Union at 2 o'clock this morning by the report that "stickup" men had held up two returning harvest hands and taken from them a small amount of money. It was found when the sheriff arrived at Union that the holdup had occurred at La Platte but the parties were thought to have ridden on to Union and the sheriff had a large group of the sidoor Pullman occupants rounded up but none answered the description of the men desired.

The two men held up were young men who had been working in the harvest fields and like a great many other young harvesters were saving money by trying to beat their way on the freights in getting to and from their scenes of labor. They had ridden into La Platte from Omaha and while there they were approached by two men, one carrying a gun that was described as about a foot long. The harvesters were robbed of something like $2 between them and the hold up men then made a fadeout from the scene. When the freight reached Union the men that were stuck up reported the matter to the train crew and Sheriff Bert Reed was then notified.

There was a large number of hoboes and harvesters at the Union yards where three freights were waiting to get out and the sheriff had a busy time in trying to find someone that resembled the two men that had done the holding up, but without success.

The members of the train crews reported that in the last few weeks there have been a great many cases of these robberies reported and it seems that a gang from Omaha ride out on freights out of Omaha and make a practice of holding up the harvest hands that may be lugging their way on the freights and relieving them of their hard earned money, the holdups in this last case having had a waterhaul as far as money was concerned, but in many cases considerable sums are taken from the returning harvesters who have saved their money during the time they are working and start for home with considerable coin on them.

Former Banker Returning Home from Cleveland

Dropping of Charges Against Jack Patterson Seems Probable—Have Had Little Basis.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Jack Patterson, former Plattsmouth man and later banker at Union, who has been the center of a nation wide sensation as the result of his discovery after a three year absence, is to make the start for his old home from Cleveland, Ohio, late tonight or early Wednesday.

Patterson has been in custody at Cleveland since he was first found Friday afternoon by special agents of the life insurance companies and members of the city detective force of Cleveland, and has freely discussed the case and his reasons for the disappearance that he left his family for three years impressed with the fact that he had met death in Lake Michigan.

After many conferences and messages it was decided late yesterday afternoon to have Deputy Sheriff W. R. Young go to Cleveland to meet Mr. Patterson and also Attorney David Fitch of Omaha and Senator W. B. Banning of Union, who has had charge of the Bank of Union since the disappearance of Patterson in July 1924, who expect to accompany the deputy and Mr. Patterson home.

The generally friendly feeling that has been reflected in the old home locality of Mr. Patterson has caused him to feel a great deal more cheerful and to look forward with more pleasure to the return to his former home where the wife and children are awaiting his coming with feelings of joy that he has again come back to them after being thought dead. The Union people have a very kindly feeling for their former banker and are anxiously awaiting his return.

It is generally thought that while the warrant made on the complaint charges embezzlement, that the charge will stand as the case has been a very weak one and aside from differences that may exist between the Bank of Union and Mr. Patterson, there seems little to indicate that he will face prosecution when reaching here.

The companies that have carried the policies on the life of Mr. Patterson have no interest in the case aside from having him identified and they will then probably take action to have the policies cancelled and this will end the case as far as they are concerned.

HAS RIG DAMAGED

From Wednesday's Daily—
This morning Frank Sloumb, aged resident of Mynard, was the central figure in a small accident that occurred on the K. of T. highway a short distance south of the sub-station of the Nebraska Gas & Electric Co., and while Mr. Sloumb received a bad shaking up he was not seriously injured.

Mr. Sloumb was going from Plattsmouth south to Mynard, driving a one horse wagon, while a large sedan belonging to A. B. Rossie of St. Joseph, Missouri, was also going in the same direction. The aged man is very hard of hearing and was unable to hear the car coming back of him and kept his vehicle right in the center of the road. A Ford touring car came from the south at this time and passed at a good rate of speed and to avoid the Ford Mr. Rossie was forced to turn so that his car struck one of the wheels of the wagon of Mr. Sloumb, the wagon, which was a very dilapidated affair being considerably damaged and Mr. Sloumb was thought to be injured and was hurried on to Murray by Mr. Rossie, but the examination at the office of Dr. Brendel failed to disclose any serious injuries and Mr. Rossie brought Mr. Sloumb back to the scene of the accident to gather up his property. Sheriff Reed was notified of the accident and arriving at the scene found that the accident was not of a serious nature. The damage to the wagon will be settled by Mr. Rossie and Sheriff Reed took the aged man on to his home. The horse that was used on the wagon also escaped with little injury.
