'Speed' Sleeps, Walks and Talks After Hard Test

Bradford Functions Again After His 3,924 Auto Drive Without Sleep

"Speed" Bradford, ace of automobile drivers, was on his feet accepting congratulations from many friends Monday after his 3,924-mile no-rest drive which ended Saturday night. His sleep in the display window of an Omaha motor company, concluded at 4 p. m. Sunday, 19 hours after his trip was ended.

"Speed" was allowed to sleep only one hour at a time. Every hour his nurse, Mrs. Mathilda Knott, awoke him and talked to him for a few minutes in order not to allow him to sleep too soundly.

Once, after a previous race, Speed was allowed to stay asleep and he was "dead" to the world for 72 hours, and sick for nearly two weeks afterward, he said.

Up and around Monday, Speed was telling friends of the hardships of the race, his characteristic smile beaming from his round face.

The race against time lasted 88 hours and 23 minutes, actual driving time. His average speed was 44.4 miles per hour and his maximum speed was 72 miles an hour. His elapsed time was 102 hours.

Speed used the collegiate model Whippet roadster, MonaMotor oil and Pisk tires.

The race of "Speed" attracted a great deal of attention here and where he made his stops at the Bauer garage on each lap of his endurance race.

Sheriff Captures Escaped Convict

Man Arrested on Suspicion Is Bernard Smith, Under Sentence for Murder in New Mexico.

A man giving his name as L. E. Wilson, who was apprehended on Thursday by Sheriff Andy Carter of York county at Waco, was found to be Bernard Smith, who escaped from the state penitentiary of New Mexico at Santa Fe on July 24. Smith was serving a forty-five year sentence for the murder of a railroad brakeman. He had served four years at the time of his escape, which was made in the morning.

Sheriff Carter arrested the man at Waco after his suspicions were aroused by the finding of a loaded .38 caliber Colt automatic revolver, a flash light and a glass cutter in his possession. The state sheriff's office was notified and Deputy Sheriff Weingent went to York and returned the man to Lincoln.

Smith claimed that he had never been finger printed nor any record made of him. Within fifteen minutes after he was brought to Lincoln it was discovered that he was the escaped convict and made a full confession to Sheriff Carter Friday.

In a statement obtained by the sheriff Friday he says he pulled post-office jobs at Aida and at Phillips, Neb. He told the sheriff that he had a suit case at the American Express office under the name of Wilson. The suit case was found to contain $155 worth of fountain pens alleged to have been stolen from the McClary drug store at Doniphan. The burglary occurred Sept. 30. It also contained six stamped money orders for $500 each, which are believed to have been taken from the Aida, Neb., post-office Oct. 1, and merchandise that to have been taken from a general store at Phillips, Neb., Sept. 27. He admitted, according to the sheriff, to entering the postoffice and a grain elevator the same night.

His record showed that he served four months for a postoffice robbery at Muskogee, Okla.

Fire Prevention Week in This City

Fire Chief O. Sandin Urges All Efforts to Remove Fire Dangers and Make Clean Record.

This is fire prevention week all over the United States and Fire Chief O. Sandin is in the forefront in urging the Plattsmouth people to see that they do all possible to remove possible causes for fires and in making for a greater and better record in the number of fires in 1927-28 than they had in 1926-27.

The city had a great record the past year in the number of fires and the very small number of losses that were sustained and which was largely the result of the persistent efforts of the chief of the fire department and the members in seeing that there was cleanups made in the spring and early fall of all debris and dangerous conditions that might exist over the city but this is not the end of the unrelenting struggle against fire, that great destroyer of life and property.

There is at this time of the year a great need of the repairing of chimneys and a careful examination of the flues and chimneys. Chief Sandin states, as a great deal of the fires that have occurred here are from this cause and the responsibility for which is directly due to the property owner not seeing that the flues are placed in the best of shape before the season of the year arrives for the starting of furnaces and heating plants.

It is a matter of the welfare of each individual property-owner and citizen to see that every effort is made to save the homes from fires and the menace of fire danger that may wipe out the home or place of business and cause a loss of life perhaps.

The fire chief urges everyone to get into the spirit of fire prevention week and do their part in trying to make the coming year one without any fires that will bring sorrow and loss to the residents of the community. Be a soldier in the ranks and see that your place of business or dwelling is given every attention to insure against fire.

SUFFERING FROM APPENDICITIS

From Wednesday's Daily—Thomas Svoboda, Jr. is confined to his home since Monday as the result of an attack of appendicitis, the third of which attacks the young man has suffered in the last few years. The chronic appendicitis is such that it is thought best to have an operation performed this time to give the young man any measure of permanent relief from his suffering which has interfered with his school activities and kept him confined to his home on several different occasions.
