HOLD DISTRICT MEETING

From Saturday's Daily—
On Oct. 14th the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Omaha District held the Annual District convention at Hurst Memorial church, Omaha. It was well attended, several ladies going from Plattsmouth, Mesdames Sertor, Barkus, Hayes, Roman and Misses Kennedy and Mages.
It was a noticeable fact of the presence of many of the district pastors, including the district superintendent, Dr. Wilson. The honored guests and speakers were Miss Jean Rothwell, formerly of First M. E. church of Omaha, but for the past five years a missionary in Moradabad, India, and Miss Ethel Householder, also a Nebraska girl, from Tzschow, West China.
In the evening was held the annual young peoples' banquet and the Plattsmouth company of Standard Bearers was well represented, the delegation going in cars after school. The young people are the future of Christian work and we are especially proud of our own group since they carried home with them the loving cup presented to the district by Mrs. Mary Hyde, former correspondent secretary, to be given to the company having the most class "A" members each year. The cup is beautifully engraved.
Those Standard Bearers going from here to the banquet were, Isabel Marshall, Gladys Bushnell, Treva Edgerston, Mildred Hall, Bernice and Marjorie Ann, Francis Ghrist, Dorothy Elliott, Ponia Trivy, Jean Hayes, Vivian Lightbody, Doras and Gladys Young, Germaine Mason, Alice Funk.
Those driving cars were Messrs. Hayes, Lightbody, Barkus and Lillie. Splendid programs were given during the day and evening which gave all present a new inspiration to begin another year. Mrs. Bothwell gave a heart to heart talk to the girls in the evening after the Candle Light service during which the new members were introduced.

BERGMANN JURY GIVES UP

The jury that went out in federal court at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon came in at 3 o'clock Friday with the information that it was impossible to reach a verdict. The case was brought by Fred Buerstetta, receiver for the First National Bank of Plattsmouth, to collect an assessment of $5,000 on bank stock held by Mr. Bergmann. The jury couldn't agree as to whether Mr. Bergmann wanted his stock canceled after he saw that the bank was in deep water, or whether he made application a month before that time and before the period in which he would have been liable as a stockholder.—State Journal.

SUFFERS WASHDAY MISHAP

Mrs. C. D. Nave, who lives about six miles northwest of Crete, Neb., had her leg broken in several places and received painful several cuts and bruises about 12:25 p. m. Wednesday when she was dragged into the pulley of a gasoline-propelled washing machine which she was endeavoring to repair. The power belt leading from the engine to the washing machine had slipped from its pulley and Mrs. Nave attempted to adjust it while the engine was in motion. The result was that as soon as she had thrown the belt back in place parts of her clothing caught and she was dragged into the pulley. Castle, Roper and Matthews' ambulance was called and Mrs. Nave was brought to Lincoln where her injuries are being treated at the St. Elizabeth hospital by Dr. J. Stanley Welch, Lincoln, and Doctor Gordon, of Crete. Hospital authorities reported on Wednesday that Mrs. Nave was resting comfortably. Mrs. Nave is a cousin of C. H. Nave living north of this city.

CHAIR LIST TOTALS 375

From Thursday's Daily—
When the "Buy-a-Chair" drive ends Saturday night, the number of contributors will exceed 400, according to present indications. Twenty more names are being added to the list each day, making the total now 375, and with two more days to go a goodly number will doubtless be added. The final chair order is being held up until the close of the drive, as the committee will purchase a chair for each $1 contributed, on the back of which will be painted the donor's name. The 380 previously received have now all been lettered and Sign Painter Holly is only awaiting the arrival of the rest to complete the job. Remember, the chair drive ends Saturday night, so if you want in on it, hand your dollar to one of the Legion boys whose names are published at the bottom of the list of today's contributors.
