Charles Bates and the family were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of friends in Nebraska City and made the trip in their auto, and found the roads very crowded.

Walter J. Wunderlich who is a hunter when it comes to banking and looking out for business was kept at home during the first part of the week on account of a severe cold.

Tommy Troop has been kept from school by an attack of flu, and has had quite a tussle with the malady, but is reported as being some better at this time, and hopes soon to be again at his studies.

J. J. Krecklow and Warren Munn were over to Union on last Monday where they took a truck load of brooms which have been manufactured by Mr. Krecklow and marketed them in the sister town.

On Friday of this week the Murray study club will hold their session, and are expecting some very eminent speakers present to address the organization, and which will be well worth the while attending of every member.

Harry Knabe had a car load of oats shipped to Nehawka through the elevator which he is using for the feeding of his hogs, well knowing that a change of rations from corn along is excellent for the growing porkers.

Fred Nutzman and family and the family of Eugene Nutzman were visiting at the home of friends and relatives at Springfield in Sarpy county, where they all enjoyed the occasion very much as well as the delightful ride over and back.

Earl Chappell, who has been visiting for some time in the west, going to the coast, where he visited with a sister, returned home last week, and tells of enjoying the trip very much. He reports good crops all the way through Nebraska.

A number of the members of the Murray Woman's club residing in the vicinity north of Nehawka were over to Plattsmouth on last Friday where they met with the study club of Plattsmouth, as the guests of the organization at the county seat.

Robert Troop and Rex Young were out to Grand Island late last week, where they attended a cattle sale and where Mr. Troop purchased some forty-seven head of feeders which arrived this week and have been put on feed at the lots of Mr. Troop west of Mynard.

Bert Chapman, who was a familiar figure in these parts over forty years ago, and who has been away for over a quarter of a century, appeared a few days since and is visiting with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Fulton, and assisting with the work at the blacksmith shop.

Grandfather L. G. Todd of Union was rejoicing very much during the past week on account of the arrival at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ernest Rathe and husband, a son, the mother and young man doing nicely and the father as well as could be expected, while Grandfather Todd, is hilarious.

Wm. Larrick and two sons who have been working for the past year at the farm of W. T. Schlichtemeier, but on the daughter who was their housekeeper getting married recently they concluded that it would be better to move to own where Mr. Larrick has accepted a position with the Missouri Pacific on their track work.

J. W. Ruhga and wife, accompanied by their son John Ruhga, Jr., and wife, all residing southwest of Weeping Water, were the guests for the day at the home of J. G. Wunderlich for the day last Sunday, where all enjoyed the visit very much. In the evening also Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Roschans of Plattsmouth were guests at the Wunderlich home.

Charles Herron and wife accompanied by W. L. Renner and family were visiting in Lincoln for the day Sunday where they spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Beck, they making the trip in their cars and by the way they found the roads filled with cars and dust. The guests and host and hostess were neighbors for many years west of Murray.

The delegates to the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. and the guests of Assembly No. 100, J. G. Wunderlich and Mrs. Nelson Berger returned home from the state meetings and reported a large and enthusiastic meeting of both branches of the fraternities. There were some two thousand delegates present at both meetings. They were the guests of the city of Scottsbluff, while there and were shown all the interesting places of the city.

Messrs. J. M. Clarence and W. A. Clarence, the well diggers, have been at the Harry Knabe home for the past week where they have been sinking a well for the genial gentleman. They sunk one hole to the depth of 165 feet and not getting the desired amount of water, changed locations and are going down at another. The later place was passed on by one of the celebrated Water Witches, who said that they would sure get water on the spot which he indicated.

HAMPSHIRE GILTS

I have several real outstanding Hampshire Gilts to farrow soon. Must be taken at once. Also one pure bred Cotswold Ram. Price reasonable.

HARRY M. KNABE,
Nehawka, Nebr.

Great Crowds at Oil Well.

The Nehawka oil well bids fair to be a good competitor to the Nebraska state fair, should the weather remain good for a number of Sunday following the present. Last Sunday even driving room on the O street road was at a premium, for the cars were parked along the highway by the orchard and extending to the residence of Mrs. Whitman, as well as filling the orchard itself, and the road running north toward Nehawka. It is conservatively estimated that there were five thousand visitors at the place Sunday.

Undergoes Operation.

Mrs. Conrad Johnson who has been suffering for some time from stones in one of her kidneys and which has been giving this excellent lady much suffering, was compelled to go to the Methodist hospital in Omaha, where she underwent an operation for its removal, and a most delicate operation, but one which this good woman went through nicely and is getting along fairly well though very low at one time. The many friends of Mrs. Johnson are hoping she may soon be on the highway to speedy and permanent recovery.

Visited in the West.

Dan Anderson and wife and daughter, Miss Marie, Mrs. Louis Ross and son Billie, and grandfather, Ernest Ahrends, all departed about a week since for Imperial where they visited for the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. Meyers being a daughter of Mr. Ahrends and a sister of both Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Ross. A delightful visit was had and a most pleasant trip going and returning.

Friends Meet Sunday.

On last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Rutledge was gathered the family of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sudduth, where the guest and host and hostess enjoyed the day splendidly. These two families were neighbors in the Ozarks of Missouri years ago, and sure would love to have had an opportunity to have spent a short time on the picturesque scenes of the Ozarks at this time of the year when everything is mellow with the tints of autumn, and the weather is such that one could not wish for it finer.

Visited in South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rough were spending the past week in South Dakota, where they were the guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Ben Benson and husband and where they drove in their car, and enjoyed the visit and the trip very much.

The folks live in Colone, which is in the very southern portion of our neighboring state. They found the weather and the roads very fine for their trip.

Celebrate Birthday.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Murdoch on last Sunday were gathered a number of the friends and relatives of the family where a most delightful day was spent, the occasion being the celebration of the birthday of Mrs. J. E. Mulick of Omaha, who is a sister of Messiaes Henry Wessell, J. W. Murdoch and W. T. Schlichtemeier. All the families and also including that of William Browne of South Omaha, were present, and also Miss Velma Wessell, who is employed with the Union Pacific in Omaha, were present. Miss Velma returned to her work in Omaha, with the friends who were at the birthday celebration.

At the Oil Well.

The management at the oil well is getting things in the best of condition for the sinking of the well with neatness and dispatch and as soon as the casing which is so essential to have for going through the bed of quick sand which lies under all this section of country, shall have arrived, the work of sinking the well will be pushed with much rapidity.

A Cass County Paper

Why pay $2 for a country weekly, when the same amount of money will buy a year's subscription to the Semi-Weekly Journal, the big Cass county newspaper. One of its big advantages is that it reaches the readers twice a week, with live, up-to-the-minute news from all sections of Cass county. Another advantage is that it is the official county paper and publishes the proceedings of the county commissioners, along with all other important events transpiring at the court house. The Journal is the one Cass county paper you cannot afford to be without.

Hand your subscription to our field representative or mail direct to the office and get your name on the list of subscribers now. Winter is coming on and you will soon have lots of time to sit around the house and read all the newspapers and magazines you can afford to take. Let the Journal be first on the list.
