

Union Department

Prepared Exclusively for The Journal.

IT IS THE BEGINNING THAT COUNTS

Nothing can grow that never gets started. Take a Savings Account, for instance. It grows by interest, as well as additions. You can start a Savings Account here with a single dollar. Try it and watch it grow!

THE BANK OF UNION

W. B. Banning, Cashier—Union, Nebr.

Gathering Corn

We have the Hooks, Pegs and Mittens. Cribbing for storing the corn when gathered. Galvanized and rubberoid roofing to keep it dry. Then you can sit by the fire and listen to the Atwater-Kent radio. We have them all. The radio season is here; don't delay buying longer.

JOE BANNING

UNION :: :: :: :: NEBRASKA

Henry H. Becker was threshing buck wheat for John Armstrong and also sweet clover for Harry Gobelman during the week.

Phillip Rhin and wife were visiting with friends in Plattsmouth on last Sunday afternoon, they making the trip in their auto.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stoll, of near Nehawka, were visiting in Union on last Sunday, they being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. McCarty.

A. L. Becker has been working on the boulevard at his farm, which extends about a mile over the property and he now has the roadway in excellent condition.

At the sale which was held by John Dukes and mother on Monday of this week, there was a goodly crowd present and the prices which prevailed were very satisfactory.

L. V. Davis, of Elmwood, will be employed to sink a well in Union for the water supply, which is required for the water works system soon to be inaugurated in Union.

County Commissioner C. F. Harris was in Murray and other portions of the county, where he purchased clover seed for shipment to Clarinda, for the Berry Seed company.

Charles Greene and wife were spending last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Brien of near Alvo, they driving over to the interior of the county in their car.

Irl Warlick, of near Murray, was a visitor in Union, where he was looking after some business matters and visiting with friends here, as he formerly lived for some years near this city.

O. J. Hathaway, the mail man, purchased a new Star coupe, which he will use for carrying the mail on the rural route and with which he will be able to give excellent service to the patrons.

Con Watkins, who resides east of Union, while at his work on the farm last week had the misfortune to mash one of his fingers, which has caused a good deal of suffering, but he is getting along nicely at this time.

Annie DeLamaster, of Ohlowa, an old time friend of Mrs. Dan Lynn, the ladies having been school day chums together, was a visitor for a few days at the home of Judge and Mrs. D. Lynn, of Union, during the past week.

John Armstrong, while the other farm work is not pressing too much, and before the time for the gathering of the corn, is painting and soaking the felloes of his wagon in linseed oil, the better to provide for their preservation.

Otto Ehlers and Miss Ethyl Becker were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Havenridge for the day last Sunday, and where all enjoyed the visit very much as well as a very fine dinner which was served by Mrs. Havenridge.

While D. R. Frans was working in the lumber yard, by mistake he allowed a heavy plank to fall on one of his toes and now he is wearing a carpet slipper on the foot. He is getting along nicely however, and it is hoped he may soon be well again.

Clifton B. Smith, scout master of the Union troop, Raymond Schreiner, assistant scout master, and Fulton Harris, troop leader, were over to Nehawka City on Monday evening of this week, where they were in attendance at a meeting of the Scout officials of the district.

Frank and Anna Bauer were visiting in Greenwood for the day last Sunday and found the roads filled with autos and dust, with a wreck along the way by two people unknown to them, and getting home just in time to nail up the store windows where the burglars had entered.

Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Summers and their two daughters, Misses Irene and Sylvia and the mother of Mrs. Summers, Mrs. W. A. Jones, all of Omaha, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Becker last Sunday, and as well visited the farm and park of Mr. Becker over on the river bank.

Robert Eaton lost a boat on last Sunday and going after the missing craft, found it on the other side of the river and had the missing ship brought home by Louis Burbee. Some time since A. J. Hathaway and Loy Hathaway lost their boat, but did not recover it until it had gotten to Nebraska City.

The attendance at the Baptist church and Bible school was very good and the interesting lessons as well as the excellent discourse which was delivered by the minister, was much enjoyed. The officials of the Bible school and the church are all greatly encouraged by the renewed interest that is being taken in the Bible school and church work.

While Phillip Rhin and wife were going to Plattsmouth on last Sunday afternoon, they were run into by a car driven by a doman, who while driving at a rapid rate attempted to pass between the car of Harry Nelson and that of Mr. and Mrs. Rhin, sideswiping the latter, with the result that the fender of Mr. Rhin's car was badly crumpled up and a wheel torn from the car driven by the unknown woman.

ESTRAY

On the Lynn Arbor Farm 3/4 mile north of Union, Nebr., one red roan bull calf, weight about 500 pounds, in good flesh. Prove property and pay charges, or calf will be sold soon.

D. LYNN, Union, Nebr.

Eyes of Love

The Epworth League of the Union Methodist church will present a home talent play, "Eyes of Love," at the M. W. A. hall in Union on Friday, evening, October 28th. The admission will be 40 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. The cast of characters will comprise Beulah Niday, Iola McQuinn, Lois Morris, Donald McQuinn, Sarah McQuinn, Mildred Morris, Milo Joy, Loy Pell, Cecil Niday and Harold James.

Amateur Burglars at Union

Whether they be amateur or professional, they are a menace to the business of this bustling city, and having made their visits with much frequency during the past few years, they have been looked upon as a nuisance, and are making it unsafe for one to be in business. The work of this despicable set of people was at the restaurant, which they entered and took some nine or ten dollars worth of goods and made their getaway. At the Clarke hotel, they entered and took a clock, evidently of the belief that they were "taking time by the forelock." At the store of Frank Bauer they took a pair of shoes, entering his store from the rear and when they could not get into the front room, went to the front of the building and broke a pane of glass and made their getaway from near the window. This is the second time that the store of Mr. Bauer has been burglarized within a month, the loss the other time being four pairs of shoes. Some way must be devised to secure these culprits.

Receives Severe Fall

Mrs. Harvey J. Miller, residing a few miles from Union, had the misfortune to fall down a flight of stairs at her home this week, which gave this excellent lady a severe shaking up, although no bones were broken. Numerous bruises and contusions, of which none were of a very serious nature were the principal effects of the fall and Mrs. Miller is very sore and stiff from her experience, but she is thankful that the injury was not more serious.

That Sunday Travel

Never before was it brought to the attention of the people as it was on last Sunday, the highways and the byways both being filled with cars, all going somewhere. We ourselves, met forty cars between Murray and Plattsmouth, and all but a very few from Omaha. Stewart Rough, in coming from Lincoln met two hundred and forty and between Nebraska City and Omaha the road was filled during the morning, a set coming out of the city and another set going to the city for the day, while in the evening the crowds were reversed.

Were every one taxed who traveled the road on last Sunday alone, a large sum might have been realized for the improvement of the roads.

ARREST MAN AT NEHAWKA

From Wednesday's Daily—Last evening Millard O'Dell was arrested at Nehawka by Sheriff Bert Reed and Deputy Rex Young, on a charge of being intoxicated and creating a disturbance at his home in that place to which he returned after being absent for a period of several months and in which his wife abhors.

The family had formerly lived in the vicinity of Union and where Mr. O'Dell was engaged in the purchase of walnut logs, but he later became dissatisfied with the price and from his home leaving the wife and several small children in poor circumstances and which made necessary the application of the wife for a mother's pension as efforts to locate the man failed. Last evening he suddenly appeared at Nehawka and being in a state of intoxication started a big row with the wife and which resulted in the officers being called to the scene of the trouble. Mr. O'Dell was brought on to this city and lodged in the county jail.

It was stated at the court house today that a complaint was filed today with retention of his family and drunkenness would probably be filed against the man.

Favors of all kinds for that Halloween party can be found at the Bates Book & Gift Shop.

Fairview Community Gathering Enjoyed

Very Large Number Are Present to Take Part and Enjoy the Fine Program Arranged.

The Fairview Community gathering held last Friday evening was enjoyed by everyone present. It was scheduled for a week later but owing to the fact so many other affairs will be staged at that time the committee in charge thought best to meet at an earlier date. This no doubt, kept many from attending but it is announced that from now on there will be a meeting on time set and notice will be given in the Plattsmouth Journal and also in the Louisville Courier. Every one welcome to these meetings.

Mrs. Joe Rhodes and Mrs. Albert Murray were in charge of the entertainment for the evening and it proved a real treat as well as a surprise for the ladies had Mrs. O. Sandin of Plattsmouth with a number of her pupils who registered a hit from their appearance to the closing number. The program was as follows:

Community singing led by J. R. Mayfield.

Two Mechanical Dolls—a song specialty—Brink Sisters.

Piano Duet, Selma Heil, Mildred Heil.

Black Hawk Dance—Reichstadt Sisters.

Monolog—Jimmie Under the Table, Anna Mae Sandin.

Vocal Duet—Mildred and Ruth Aley.

Sailor's Hornpipe—Song and dance number, Reichstadt Sisters, Anna Mae Sandin.

Musical Reading—Norene Kaffenberger.

Piano Solo—Glen Rhodes.

Solo Dance—Aurelia Reichstadt.

Piano Solo—Mildred Murray.

Mrs. Albert Murray was heard in an original song number which created much merriment as it was directed at the good looking and good natured men present.

While waiting supper Dr. Sandin led in a general good time sing at which the genial doctor proved himself a past master.

Mrs. Ed Heil and Mrs. Dan Terryberry had charge of refreshments and served hot coffee, sandwiches, cake and pickles in a very efficient manner.

After the supper the audience insisted on hearing Mrs. Sandin, who responded with some of her exceptionally fine readings.

Fairview wishes to thank Mrs. Sandin for her efforts and the girls for their exceptional fine numbers, also the home talent represented.

Mr. Henry Heil and Mr. Earl Terryberry will have charge of the sale for the meeting.

The ladies of the community will put on the entertainment which will be Nov. 28. Don't forget the date.

Boy Scout Program for Year to be Enlarged

Program Outlined Will Permit Expansion and Participation in District Work.

From Tuesday's Daily—Last evening a group of the Boy Scout executives met with Mr. Vernon of Lincoln, representative of the regional director of scouting, Ex-Governor S. R. McKelvie, who was here and the group discussed at some length the prospects for the expansion of the Scout work.

Plattsmouth has made a very pleasing advance in Scouting in a quiet and unassuming way in the past, but their program has not permitted them the full participation in the movement that has been desired and which is now necessary as the local Scouts are placed in the Southeastern Nebraska district that includes, Cass, Otoe, Nemaha and Richardson counties with the Scout headquarters at Nebraska City for the area. The area program calls for certain features of scouting that have not heretofore been in this local scout movement and which will require a modest sum to help carry on the enlarged program as well as the attainment of one of the long cherished desires of the Scouts—a week end camp that the boys can have for their own.

The committee in charge feel that a sum of not over $500 will be sufficient for the Scout program for the year and this certainly can be secured in the community where Scouting has proven one of the big assets in citizenship building. The Scout work in Plattsmouth has been a splendid thing in the development of the spirit of true Americanism and self reliance among the young boys of the community and the four fold plan of development has been something that the youth has needed in making the proper foundation for future citizenship.

Mr. Carlton Hyde, district scoutmaster of Nebraska City was here today for a few hours visiting with the Scout executives and getting ready for the plans for the enlargement of the local Scout movement.

FOR SALE OR RENT

Modern six-room house on paving. Herman J. Hough, 716 North 6th street, Plattsmouth. 013-1mw

Get your school supplies at the Bates Book and Stationery Store, where you will find the complete line at all times.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Copy for this Department furnished by County Agent

Corn Yields

It is rather hard to say what the average corn yield of Cass county will be, but in shucking out test plots in 17 fields, and these fields were farmed by farmers better than the average, we found that there were some good yields in Cass county. These fields were first and second year to corn from alfalfa and red and sweet clover. Just to show what it does to land that has been in the legume crops for two or three years, we found one field which yielded 20 bushels of corn per acre. After being in alfalfa two years, and it winter-killing, it was planted to corn this year. The yield (with a high per cent of moisture) was 76 bushels per acre. All of these fields averaged from 50 bushels up. So it pays very profitably to use legumes for two years, then plant to corn.

Farm Management Tour

With Mr. Yerkes and Mr. Medlar of the Rural Economics department of the University of Nebraska, held a farm management tour and visited the home of Ed Jochim near Louisville and Edward Schoeman, of Nehawka. There were not as many at this tour as should have. The outstanding farm management problems of these two farms could be easily seen. They were stock farms, had good crop yields and were well managed. Of the 77 farms completing farm record books last year, 47 of them came from Cass county. C. B. Steward, secretary of the State Farm Bureau Board, Federation made a summary of the 77 records and appeared before the freight commission in Minneapolis last week in behalf of the farmers. The 15 best had 87 acres of corn against 17 for the 85 poorest, but their yield was 12 bushels greater than the least profitable farmers. We wish everyone in Cass county to be in any mood to study and enjoy his schooling. The school that is getting ready now to have a hot lunch club a little later in the fall will take care of the ice cold sandwich problem. It is estimated that one-third of the rural and urban children of school age are in a low condition of health. Poor food habits are the reason in many cases and the lack of pep in the school room, lack of pep on the playground, and misbehavior in both places. No one thing will do more to correct these troubles than a good, warm dish of food eaten with the usual lunch at noon.

Ice Cold Sandwiches

Ice cold sandwiches of the ice cream variety may be fine in July and August, but regulation sandwiches that come out of a school boys' lunch pail ice cold this winter, will not make him thrive physically nor will they keep him in any mood to study and enjoy his schooling. The school that is getting ready now to have a hot lunch club a little later in the fall will take care of the ice cold sandwich problem. It is estimated that one-third of the rural and urban children of school age are in a low condition of health. Poor food habits are the reason in many cases and the lack of pep in the school room, lack of pep on the playground, and misbehavior in both places. No one thing will do more to correct these troubles than a good, warm dish of food eaten with the usual lunch at noon.

Pullet Culling Pointers

The best pointers to use in choosing the pullets that are to stay in the poultry flock this winter are these: Watch the pullets out in the yard and get with a paint brush or tarred rag on a stick all the underware, droopy, sniffling, thin shanked, (pale shanked in yellow shank varieties), cross-billed and off-color pullets. The tagged pullets can be taken off the roost, given another examination, and sold. This process of elimination will take out of the flock the pullets that will be unprofitable as layers in the flock this winter. In doing all this work, it should be kept in mind that the pullets that will do the laying are the ones that are now plump and smooth, bright eyed and red combed, ambitious and good eaters.

Corn Shucking Contest

If there are enough interested in a corn shucking contest, we will probably hold one on October 31. Write to the office and we will let you know the time and place.

L. R. SNIPES, County Agent.

MORE VOTES THAN VOTERS

Omaha, Oct. 24—Retraction of an article in the school paper, The Creightonian, is demanded by the senior law class of Creighton university in a petition presented to the student union of governors tonight.

The article in question appeared in the issue of Oct. 19 and stated that forty-three members present at a recent class election cast forty-seven votes for presidential candidates. A Gamma Eta Gamma nominee, Tim Grady, was elected president; Elmer Lang, vice president, and Henry Eaton, secretary. All are members of Gamma Eta Gamma fraternity and were elected over nominees of the Delta Theta Phi fraternity and the non-fraternity men.

The article "conveys the opinion of a graft perpetrated men," declared the Kammass. "Records at the law faculty office show that forty-five men were present and cast twenty-one votes for Grady, eighteen for the non-fraternity man and five for the Delta Theta Phi candidate."

Editors of the paper gave George Koehn, Delta man and president of the school honor society, Alpha Sigma Tau, as the source of their information. Koehn admitted making the statements afterwards, but said "they were not for publication."

If you are planning any social function for the Halloween season your task in selecting favors and decorations can be made easy by inspecting the line at the Bates Book & Gift Shop.

Now is The Time to ply the busy needle

And you will have no difficulty in finding attractive pieces of needle work from our large assortment.

- Boudoir Pillows
- Pillow Cases
- Luncheon Sets
- Laundry Bags
- Aprons
- Cards Table Covers
- Silver Cases
- Dish Holders

Prices from 25c to $1.65

The H.M. Soemmichsen Co.

"The Store of Big Values"

Well Loved Teacher Honored on Annivers'ry

Mr. and Mrs. George Jung Guests at Banquet at Home in Malcom—Received Many Gifts.

The Louisville relatives of Mr. and Mrs. George Jung, of Malcom, drove out to that place last Sunday to take part in the celebration of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jung. Mrs. Jung was formerly Miss Carrie Heil, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Heil, of Louisville and her parents and Mr. Jung's mother, Mrs. G. Jung, of Northville, Kansas, were among the honored guests.

Mr. Jung taught the parochial school at Trinity Lutheran church of Louisville for eight years and this fall began his 29th year of teaching in the Lutheran school at Malcom where he and his wife are much loved and highly esteemed.

As a token of the high regard in which he is held by his congregation they were given a big surprise on Sunday afternoon. Rev. F. Moeller preached on "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world" and the male choir and a mixed choir sang some fine numbers. A dinner was served in the basement of the church to which all the relatives were invited and they bring glowing reports of the generosity and hospitality of this congregation who had spared no trouble and expense to make the dinner a fitting banquet to honor their beloved teacher and wife.

A substantial purse was also presented to them and a fine silver casserole was the gift of the Ladies Aid society of the church. They also received many beautiful gifts of silverware.

The tables were beautifully decorated with flowers. One table was decorated in a "One Hoss Shay" of 25 years ago and an automobile laced "1927" was the center of attraction on the young folks' table.

During the serving of the meal the male quartette sang several selections and delighted everyone, receiving hearty applause from all.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr. Jung and wife were presented with a silver set, consisting of a creamer, sugar bowl, berry spoon, jelly spoon and fruit dish.

Mr. Jung is a son of the late Rev. G. Jung, for many years a well loved pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Louisville and he is well known in this community. His wife is a fitting helpmate to him in his chosen calling and has made a place for herself in the hearts of their congregation. Their many Louisville friends join the Courier in extending congratulations and best wishes for many more years of usefulness and happiness in their wedded life.—Louisville Courier.

On Friday evening, twelve neighboring teachers and their families were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jung at a wedding supper, their elder daughter, Miss Malinda Jung, acting as hostess upon this occasion and filling that role with her usual grace and charm. The evening passed delightfully with music, both violin and piano and with vocal selections by a male quartette and Mr.