First National to Pay a 20 Per Cent Dividend

Receiver Authorized by Comptroller of Currency to Distribut Nice Dividend to Depositors.

From Thursday's Datly-

The receiver of the First National bank of this city, Fred Buerstetta, has been authorized by the comptroller of the currency at Washington to declare a twenty per cent dividend to the depositors of the closed bank, which was placed in the hands of him and his family while they were the receiver on December 22nd.

made some time ago by Mr. Buerstetta and has been approved by the Aged Resident take some little time yet before the issuance of the checks can be made to the depositors of the bank. The checks are ordered from this city, sent here by the department, where they are filled out and then returned to Washington to be signed by the comptroller, after which they will be sent back here and Mr. Buerstetta Mrs. Frances Holly Passed Away at will be able to issue them to the depositors who have filed their claims against the bank. The process will take some little time through the course of routine and when the checks arrive, Mr. Buerstetta will announce the fact through the press so that those who have filed claims may call and secure their dividend.

There will be in the neighborhood of $50,000 distributed in the twenty vanced years, she being at the time.
