

Alvo Department

W. L. Copple began the picking of his corn today, Monday, and thinks it in pretty good condition.

Joe Bombos has been assisting with the work at the Banning Lumber yard for the past few days.

Wm. Kitzel was a business visitor in Lincoln on last Wednesday, driving over to the city in his car.

John B. Skinner took a load of sheep to a farmer over near Murray on last Tuesday which had been sold there by Mr. Frank E. Cook.

F. E. Dickerson, accompanied by Lyle Miller and Lee Coatsman were over to Omaha on last Monday where they were doing some shopping for the day.

John B. Skinner and wife and Mrs. R. M. Coatsman were visiting in Omaha on last Wednesday, they were guests of friends as well as doing some shopping.

James Friend filled his car with gas and departed saying he did not know just where he would land before he came back, but probably his trip was not long.

Emil Rosenow and wife of Elmwood were guests at the O. E. Kitzel home on last Sunday afternoon and evening, where all enjoyed the occasion very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Boyles of McCook arrived in Alvo early last week for a ten days visit with friends here, and also taking a short vacation from their work in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Kitzel entertained at a six o'clock supper in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Boyles who are spending several days with friends at Alvo and vicinity.

John B. Skinner was over to Omaha on last Monday with a load of fat sheep which had been fed by Jess Hardcock, and which were very fine specimens of this class of stock.

The game of ball which Alvo played at Murdock was a very interesting one and was very tightly contested, the Alvo boys having to give the game to the Murdock lads in the finals.

R. M. Coatsman was a visitor in Murdock on last Tuesday where he had some business matters to look after, and also watched the ball game between the Alvo and Murdock teams.

Last Sunday R. M. Coatsman and the family were over to the fisheries at South Bend, and at the Peterson gardens of Ashland, where they enjoyed seeing the fine flowers which that place grows.

W. E. Heier began cribbing his corn today, Monday and while he would like to have it an opportunity to dry a little longer, thinks it a shame to waste the fine weather which we are enjoying today.

C. H. Kirkpatrick, and the good wife will depart on or about the first of November for the west and will visit in California, and should the climate and country appeal to them strong enough they may remain for the winter.

Simon Rehmeyer was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Friday where he attended the Blue Lodge of the Masons, and enjoyed a very pleasant evening with the fraternity of the County Seat as well as many visitors from over the county.

Mrs. M. L. Golliver of Grand Island, a sister of R. M. Coatsman, and Miss Gladys Coatsman, another sister and who is teaching in the Wesleyan University were visiting for the afternoon on last Monday at the Coatsman home in Alvo.

W. L. Copple has had installed at his home a new and very latest model and design of a console radio, which is a wonder in its working, as it brings in the stations from all portions of the country clear and distinct with all notes however low in the musical program.

Thor Boyles who lives in the western portion of the state, has been in rather poor health for some time past and he concluded he would go to Hot Springs for a while, that his health might be restored, and while his away C. D. Ganz is looking after the affairs at the bank which Mr. Boyles conducts.

The Woman's Reading Club, on last Thursday evening gave a very delightful evening in the shape of a Halloween party at the home of Frank E. Cook and wife, which was in the way of a hard time social, and was most thoroughly enjoyed by all who were privileged to be in attendance.

Lee Shaveley who has been under quarantine at the home on account of diphtheria for some weeks, had the quarantine raised on last Wednesday, as the disease is entirely eradicated, and all visitage of the disease in this locality has been stamped out, and all are privileged to return to school again.

The C. K. C. of Alvo, we know the members, but not the order, but that does not differ, they went over to Fremont for the week end last week and there camped in the Knights of Pythias park, for over the time, and spent the nights and days in hunting and fishing and camping out in the open. They all declare they had an excellent time and we are of

HOME FROM CONVENTION

Mrs. Nelson Berger who left Nehawka a week ago last Sunday and went to Scottsbluff to attend the Nebraska state convention returned home Tuesday. Mrs. Berger was a delegate from the Nehawka lodge and reports a splendid convention.

When the convention closed she went to Haxtum, Colorado, where she visited her brother and family. The first of last week Mr. Berger and Mrs. Will Damkroger of Clatonia, Nebr., drove to Haxtum and after a few days visit there they all returned home together.

While in Colorado Mr. Berger had the privilege of seeing considerable of the northwestern part of the state. One of the most interesting sights he saw was the large sugar refinery at Old, Colorado. He had the privilege of going through the refinery and states it was a wonderful sight to see the beets converted into sugar. The factory he visited turns out approximately 4,000 sacks a day.—Nehawka Enterprise.

The Bee First Candymaker in World's History

Use of Honey as a Sweetener Was One of the First Moves to Develop Taste for Sweets.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Who was the world's first candy maker? Stung again. It was none other than that most industrious and conscientious of workers, the bee, according to Walter C. Hughes, secretary of the National Confectioners' association.

"The bee probably was armed with a 'stinger' for no other reason than to attract mankind to its products," Mr. Hughes said. "In honey, primitive man not only discovered something that was pleasing to the palate, but that contained heat and energy-producing elements for the human body."

"Physicians among the ancient Greeks and Romans utilized the bee's honey in preparing their medicines. The manufacture of candy traces its origin back to the days of Hippocrates, father of medicine, who lived in the fifth century, B. C. In those days, doctors' remedies for human ills consisted of doses of bitter herbs. In order to tickle the palate of his rich patients, Hippocrates smeared a little honey on the edge of the cup containing the potion, and later on coated his pills with similar substances, thus comforting his patients, and, no doubt, also increasing his fees."

"Little did Hippocrates think that he was destined to go down to fame, not only as the father of medicine, but as one of the originators of the art of candy making."

"From this quaint origin, the candy industry has progressed until today it is one of the world's leading industries. Its production involves labor of all parts of the world and employs every means of transportation known to man."

Missouri Pacific Plans Much Work on Its Roadway

Three Miles of Trackage Near La Platte Included in the Plans for the Coming Year.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 27.—Authority to expend $24,200 for track improvements on the Omaha division has been given by President L. W. Baldwin of the Missouri Pacific.

These improvements include track raising, rock ballasting and installation of additional culverts. This work will begin at once and will prevent future interference with service as a result of floods and high water.

This work includes installation of additional culverts near Reserve, raising and dock ballasting for a distance of three miles at Pomeroy, two miles at Cochrane and three miles at La Platte.

In addition to these improvements authority also has been given for improvements to tracks on the Southern and Central Kansas divisions of the Missouri Pacific. On the Southern Kansas division $90,000 will be spent in raising main track and yard at Oswatimie, including the Southern Kansas main line to the Pottawatomie River valley. On the Southern Kansas division more than $200,000 will be spent for track raising at points near Leroy, Guilford and Needesha. In the Necho and Fall river valleys the track will be raised for a distance of four miles and at Guilford for a distance of two miles. The three foregoing projects involve a total expenditure of $375,000.

All of this work is in line with the general policy of the Missouri Pacific for the continued improvement of facilities.

CORNUSKING CONTEST NOV. 8
Fremont, Oct. 27.—The Joseph Roberts farm on Lincoln highway, five miles east of Fremont, has been selected as the site for the annual Dodge county cornhusking contest to be held November 8. The Roberts farm last year was the scene of the national cornhusking event.

The winner of the contest, according to the announcement made Wednesday, will be donated a Sweepstake silver loving cup donated by Grover Spangler, Fremont jeweler. Ten other huskers will each receive prizes donated by Fremont merchants. The winner and runnerup of the county contest will be entered in the state contest at Seward, November 10.

FORBES UNABLE TO PAY
Leavenworth, Kas., Oct. 26.—Charles R. Forbes, former head of the United States veterans bureau, serving two years in the federal prison here, today applied for forms on which to make affidavit that he is unable to pay a $10,000 fine imposed at the time of his sentence.

Simultaneously he advised Warden B. T. White that he is willing to remain in the penitentiary thirty days longer in order to cancel the fine.

Forbes was convicted more than two years ago in connection with misappropriation of funds entrusted to him as head of the veterans bureau.

State Saves on Road Graveling

Pierce-Wausa Project is Advertised Four Times Before Satisfactory Bid Secured on Work

Secretary Cochran of the department of public works saved $18,000 by rejecting bids three times and advertising four times for bids on 15.7 miles of gravel surfacing and incidental work on the Pierce-Wausa road project No. 268-A. Bids were opened in Lincoln yesterday and a contract awarded to C. W. Smith of Plainview, whose bid was 20 cents per square yard for gravel three inches deep, a total of $39,240. The work must be completed by May 1.

Stevens Bros., of St. Paul, Minn., received a contract for gravel surfacing one inch deep on 7.5 miles on the Pierce-Wausa project No. 136-K. This firm's bid on class A gravel was 8 cents per square yard, a total of $7,440.

Bids on grading 1.1 miles on the Sciota-west project No. 310-A were rejected because of errors in the bids. The Diamond Engineering & Construction company of Sciota, whose bid on one bridge was awarded a contract.

The contract for three bridges on the Schuyler-Pilger project No. 261-B, was awarded to the Fremont Construction company, whose bid on the three was $8,387.63.

Bids on two inches of gravel on the Orleans-Oxford project No. 246-A were rejected because of an error in the printed specifications sent to bidders.

The Central Bridge & Construction company of Wahoo was given the contract for eleven miles of gravel surfacing, three-fourths inches deep, its bid being .0512 a square yard, a total of $7,080.96.

The Capitol Bridge company, of Lincoln, was awarded a contract for drainage pipe on the Trenton-south project, the total bid being $958.80.

George W. Condon, of Omaha, was awarded the contract for two bridges on the Niobrara-Center project No. 113-C, his total bid being $2,019.13.

DEATH OF PETER NIELSON

From Saturday's Daily—
The death of Peter Nielson, for a number of years a resident of this city, occurred last night at 9:45 at the Methodist hospital in Omaha, where he was taken Wednesday suffering from the effects of a severe paralytic stroke and which has since made his condition very grave. Mr. Nielson seemed to rally slightly Friday morning but late yesterday his condition grew worse much more rapidly and hope of his recovery was abandoned and he continued to sink until death came to his relief.

The deceased has made his home in Omaha for a number of years after leaving this city and was in operation of a business place on Cuming street at the time of his death.

Mr. Nielson is survived by the wife, who was formerly Miss Mary Kalasek of this city, as well as four daughters, all residing in Omaha. The funeral services will be held in Omaha on Monday as far as could be learned here, although the hour for the service had not been definitely set.

ALLOT BUILDING SPACE

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 26.—The college of dentistry at University of Nebraska will have quarters in the new Andrews hall which will be ready for occupation by next September, according to present plans.

The proposed arrangement gives the English department occupancy on the first floor, the department of modern languages the second floor, and the college of dentistry the third.

Construction which will be of brick, trimmed in Bedford stone is expected to cost 300 thousand dollars. It is being named "Andrews hall" in honor of E. Benjamin Andrews, chancellor of the university from 1900 to 1908.

DECISION IN KOUKAL CASE

From Friday's Daily—
This afternoon County Judge A. H. Duxbury handed down his decision in the claim of Julia Krachtville against the estate of John Koukal, deceased, in which the court fixed the amount of the sum to be allowed the plaintiff at $500.

Mrs. Krachtville had filed a claim for $10,200 against the estate for labor and services performed in the household of the deceased, her father and for the care of the two small children of the Koukal family for a period of years.

The case will probably be appealed to the district court for final trial.
