Such a Dog's Life

While in Nebraska City some two years ago, and having his favorite dog along, Fleming Robb had the misfortune to lose his faithful friend and could not find him being forced to return home without him. It so happened that Glen Rutledge was in Nebraska City at the same time, and when he was ready to return home, he found a dog in his car that refused to be driven away, and so brought the animal on home with him, giving it to C. Legion Post Elects Officers for Ensuing Year

L. W. Niel Selected as the Commander for the Ensuing Year—Feed Closes Evening.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening the members of Hugh J. Kearns post No. 56 of the American Legion held their annual election of officers at the new community auditorium that has just had its first unit completed by the efforts of the Legion and the citizens of the community.

There was a very pleasing number of the members of the post out for the meeting and a great deal of business handled with the completion of the building committee report as well as plans for the Harvest Festival to be discussed and took the business session until a late hour in the evening before adjournment was found possible.

The chief feature of the evening session was the selection of the officers for the ensuing year and the following were named by the post to head the organization:

Commander—L. W. Niel.
Vice Commander—Ray Larson, (Army)
Vice-Commander—C. E. Ledgeway, (Navy)

Members of the executive committee—Ray Larson, Ralph Pettit, H. L. Geyer, Leroy Stewart, Don Selvers, Henry G. Soanrichsen, M. D. Brown, Garold Holcomb and Fred Lugsch.

Following the general election the members of the new executive committee assembled and selected M. D. Brown, who has been the finance officer of the post for the past year as the occupant of this exacting office for another term.

The newly elected commander announced the following appointive officers for the coming year:

Adjutant—Elmer A. Webb.
Service Officer—A. H. Duxbury.

Historian—Mrs. Kathryn Lugsch
Chaplain—Rev. H. E. Sortor.
Sergeant at Arms—Garold Holcomb.

With the election disposed of by the post the members were invited to the new kitchen of the building where the "feed" committee, the two heavyweight twins, Lugsch and Holcomb, had prepared a repast of hot hogs, pickles, cheese, yeast and white bread and doughnuts and coffee for the regalling of the inner man.

The selection of Mr. Webb as the adjutant of the post is also a recognition of a long service as he has been adjutant of the post since 1920 and has been one of the tireless workers of the organization and his services as adjutant has ranked among the best of any post in the state.

HAVE HALLOWEEN PARTY

On Saturday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Patton, west of this city was the scene of a very delightful Halloween party given by the host and hostess to a number of the friends and neighbors and which was an occasion that all enjoyed to the utmost. The home was arranged in the decorations of the season and the games and contests held were in keeping with the spirit of the occasion.

In the ladies guessing contest, Mrs. Matt Sulser proved the most successful, while Mrs. Martin Nelson received the consolation prize of the evening.

Perhaps the event of greatest importance and interest was the gum chewing contest among the gentlemen of the party, and which resulted in Martin Nelson winning the first prize and Q. K. Parmele receiving the consolation prize.

The men of the party were also required to give a vocal number or a recitation and Mr. Patton and Q. K. Parmele presented the vocal number while the rest of the men of the party were heard in recitations that proved a real treat. Robert Patton, Jr., also gave a Halloween recitation.

Dainty refreshments in keeping with Halloween were served at an appropriate hour. Those attending the event were: Mr. and Mrs. Q. K. Parmele, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lutz and children, Glen and Alice, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Sulser, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Starbuck and son, Billy, Miss Dorothy Hirz and Miss Estelle Geis.

Three more "Buy-a-Chair" purchasers were accommodated yesterday by the committee having charge of the seating purchase for the new community building, the list now having reached a total of 452. The three whose dollars were received yesterday were Blanche Gamer, Harvey L. Gamer and Fontenelle Chapter, D. A. R. Twenty-eight dozen additional chairs have been ordered and are being held in the warehouse at Omaha pending ability of Rea McMaken to bring them down, he having volunteered this service, along with the first fifteen dozen, which he likewise brought down at no expense to the committee. This splendid contribution on the part of Mr. McMaken is highly appreciated.
