at a hospital in Kansas, last week and who was buried at Murdock on last Saturday, as Rev. Ostertag was formerly a resident of this place. Among those who were in attendance at the funeral were Messrs. Frank E. Cook, Albert Snedgen and W. C. Timlin.

A good time even if it is hilarious and wild sometimes is not particularly by out of order, but when it becomes pernicious and devilish, it is time to call a halt. On Monday evening someone having more desires for sport than for the thought of the rights of the neighbors and friends dismantled the wagon of George Hardnoek, which he uses, and which cost him a half day to re-assemble. Think next time.

Joy It Is a Boy

So are the members of the household of Daniel Reuter rejoicing for on last Friday the second son arrived at their home. There had come six daughters and now two sons to grace the family board. The mother and the little man are doing well and there is joy among all the members of the home on account of the recent arrival.

To Depart for West.

Messrs. Archie Miller and Wayne Swartz, will depart for the Golden state of California about the tenth of December, they are hustling to get their work done and be ready by that time. Archie is lamming into the corn picking as he desired to get the corn out and ready during the early days of December. They are thinking they will like the west very well.

Depart for California.
