WINTER

Yes, winter, with the sleigh rides of the other days and the closed car nowadays, notwithstanding the cold biting winds, has its pleasures. Care of your earnings will give you this and many other pleasures. When the cold comes and then the bad days come, it is nice to have a bank account. The only way for this is systematic saving.

be necessary to have a safe to adequately care for his books and papers from a fire should another one occur.

The matter of care for the money and very valuable papers he is giving to the Murray State bank, as they are better equipped to look after the case and valuable papers than the ordinary same affords. The idea of Mr. Lancaster is to protect the books from the ravages of fire, and trust the bank to do the banking business.

Had Excellent Time.

The ladies of the Christian church, are to be congratulated in the excellent dinner which they served. We were talking to people who had come to eat at the table of the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church from the western portion of the county and they were loud in their praise of the excellent table which was provided, and of the very fine manner in which it was served. This dinner has given the ladies of the church a reputation over the entire county.

Worked the Last Day.

John A. Doughty, sixty-four years of age, on last Monday picked corn at the farm, and after the day's work was done, went to the house, he making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Abner Tucker, and while waiting for the supper and was looking over the paper, and admiring the comic section, when of a sudden he gasped a couple of times and falling from the chair to the floor died instantly. Mr. Doughty has been a resident of Cass county for nearly a half century and leaves a daughter, Mrs. Abner Tucker, and one brother, W. L. Doughty, the wife having preceded him to the other world some ten years before. Mr. Doughty was a very familiar figure in Nehawka and Cass county and was honored by a host of very warm friends.

Has Very Serious Accident.

Robert Roman, the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Geary, living northwest of Murray, while at his play a few days since was on the roof of the cob house and in attempting to get down slipped and in falling one of his hands was caught on a spike ball which protruded from the side of the building, and catching in the hand near the wrist pierced the hand through the palm, and the young man hung thus until his cries attracted the folks, who rushed to his rescue, and had to life the lad, in order to release him from his very serious position. The wound was dressed by Dr. G. H. Gilmore and the lad is getting along as well as under the very severity of the injury could be looked for. He is suffering still from the frightful wound, but is doing fairly well.
