

Alvo Department

Charles Edwards shipped a car load of fine hogs to the South Omaha market on Monday of last week. Business called the Simon Rehmeier to Alvo on Tuesday of last week, where he was looking after some business transactions.

Simon Rehmeier and the family were enjoying a visit at Weeping Water on last Sunday, where they spent Christmas with relatives. Edward Casey and the good wife, of Lincoln, were enjoying a visit at Alvo, where they have so many old friends, on Wednesday of last week.

Carl Rosenow was a business visitor in Lincoln on last Tuesday and was accompanied by Walter Vincent, they driving over in the car of Carl.

W. H. Warner was a visitor in Lincoln on last Monday, where he was visiting at the home of his brother, Frank Warner, of that place.

Among business circles it is reported that there is a demand for an apartment house in Alvo, as in some instances the other supply is inadequate to the demands.

Charles Godbey to keep in fit condition, was out at the farm on last Wednesday, doing some grubbing out of the dead apple trees that the land might produce more abundantly.

Art Bizi and the family on last Sunday enjoyed the Christmas when all the family were at the home and family reunion was had as well as they enjoyed the Christmas season.

Walter Vincent was a business visitor in Omaha on last Monday and was accompanied by a number of friends, who were looking over the city and all attended a movie before returning home.

W. H. Warner, one of the esteemed residents of Alvo, has been visiting in Plattsmouth for the past week at the home of his brother, Charles H. Warner and the family, he making the trip over to the county seat with the Journal man.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bornemeier were down to Wichita, Kansas, last week, where they visited for a short time and on returning were accompanied by Mrs. Bornemeier's mother, Mrs. Fred Ostertag, who is coming to Elmwood to make her home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dickerson and the little one were enjoying a visit last Sunday at West Point, where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Moddie, Mrs. Moddie being formerly Miss Clara Dickerson, all enjoying the visit there very much.

Mrs. Clifford McMasters, of Hutchinson, Kansas, is spending the holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Weeds. Mrs. McMasters was formerly Miss Ruby Woods. Mr. McMasters will come this way to accompany the wife home, following the termination of the visit here.

John W. Banning and the good wife were, enjoying the Christmas season on last Sunday and Monday at Union, where they were guests at the home of Henry O'Donnell and sister, and where Christmas cheer was in evidence a plenty, with an excellent dinner. However, Henry O'Donnell is not feeling the very best.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yager presented the parents with an excellent radio as a Christmas gift, and which will give this excellent couple much pleasure in listening to the whole world. The radio, which is an Erla, and was purchased from Arthur Dinges, is one of the very best made and will give the best of service.

R. M. Coatman and his father, Wm. Coatman, of Weeping Water, departed for Grand Island on Tuesday of last week, where they went to visit for a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Gollaber, Mrs. Gollaber being a daughter of Mr. Coatman, Sr., and a sister of R. M. Coatman, they returning to Alvo on Wednesday of last week.

The friends of Uncle John B. Elliott, claim this ingenious man has set the hands of the clock of time back some twenty-five years. He has been in the habit of wearing a mustache, as was the practice of men in the past, and it added to his appearance in years, so he concluded to have it removed and consequently had it shorn. He now looks twenty years younger, so the boys say. And the boys' opinion is generally right.

Having Fine Dances
The Legion dance at Plattsmouth on last Wednesday night was largely attended and everyone enjoyed the music of Pat Kroh and his Peony Park orchestra, who have been engaged for a return date on January 25th. The next Wednesday night dance falls on the 11th, and the Legion has several good orchestras under consideration, among them the Buick Master Six, the Omaha Nite

Owls and the Collegians, of Lincoln. The dances are held in the new Legion community building, which has 5,000 square feet of the finest hard maple dance floor in Nebraska.

Enjoy Christmas Day
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Park, living east of Murray, were gathered a number of the relatives of Grandmother Mary Wiley, who is the mother of Mrs. Park and also of Mrs. W. C. Timlin, Mr. and Mrs. Timlin and son being present at the gathering and enjoying the visit very much.

Gave Minister a Surprise
When the Christmas tree exercises were being given on Christmas eve, and Rev. R. H. Chenoweth had concluded his portion of the exercises, he announced that that was all, but His Honor the Mayor, A. Dinges, said "Hold on a minute, we have something else for Santa dropped a few bundles which have to be accounted for before we disperse." Then in some very touching words he presented a radio set to Rev. and Mrs. Chenoweth and which came as such a surprise that for a moment the Rev. Chenoweth could not find words to tender his thanks to his friends. A. B. Stromer, who had the matter on hand of securing the funds, had done his work so well that no intimation of the coming gift had reached the pastor and his good wife, and they were really overcome with the manifestations of their friends for everyone in Alvo and vicinity are their friends.

OBITUARY
Treat Fenn Askew was born June 12, 1886, in Weeping Water, Nebr., and passed away in Omaha, Nebr., December 23rd, 1927. He grew to manhood in Weeping Water, leaving here to enter service of the Union Pacific railroad system. He was united in marriage in Omaha April 14, 1913, to Minnie Glur, of Columbus, Nebr.

Treat was employed by the Union Pacific system as train baggage man-electrician for nineteen years. His health failed three years ago, and since that time he had been on the inactive list, as disabled in service. He is survived by his wife and two little daughters, one brother, Curtis, of St. Paul, Minn., and one sister, Mrs. Helen Wallick of Weeping Water.

The funeral service was held Monday morning at the Glenda Mortuary, Omaha, Covert Lodge No. 11 A. F. and A. M. in charge. The remains were sent to Columbus, where services were held at the home of Mrs. Anna Glur, conducted by Rev. Hents, and interment was made in the Columbus cemetery. Brother members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen acted as pallbearers. —Weeping Water Republican.

PAIR RECOVERING FROM MOTOR HURTS
Claus Tams of Nebraska City, injured several days ago when his car skidded and fell on its side in a ditch south of Syracuse, is slowly improving at his home here. Mrs. Tams, who was with him at the time, sustained body bruises but has recovered. The car was badly damaged, the axle bent and both fenders on one side twisted.

Mr. and Mrs. Tams were on their way to Auburn from Syracuse to visit the son, Lee Tams, and when the driver turned out to let another car pass, his car skidded and went into the ditch. A passing motorist stopped and took them to Syracuse where they received medical treatment and were later taken home. —Nebraska City News-Press.

HOLD FINE INITIATION
From Saturday's Daily—
The Eagles lodge of this city has had a great growth in the past year and on last Thursday evening held the initiation of a class of nineteen candidates, all of whom go to swell the list of the membership of the order and bringing the Eagles close to the largest membership of any of the fraternities of the city.

Submarine disaster such as that of the S-4 are an inevitable accompaniment of national preparedness. Every country attempting to maintain an efficient military force has them. We are obligated to accept these tragedies in the same spirit that we accept loss of life upon a battlefield.
