Earl Bennett moved last week and found a good place to live at the old Bennett homestead, where he will farm the coming season.

Business called R. M. Coatsman to Waverly on Tuesday afternoon of last week, he driving over to the neighboring town in his car.

Mrs. Clo O. Schaffer was a visitor in Omaha on Wednesday of last week where she was called to look after some business for a short time.

Ed Casey of Lincoln was a visitor in Alvo for a short time on last Tuesday, coming over on the train for a short time to look after some business.

There will be no basketball for this week on account of the number who are members of the team being incapacitated by the prevailing scarlet fever.

See the change in the ad of the Coatman Hardware company, and remember that they are ready to serve you to the very best, just give them an opportunity.

Wm. Atchison was in town from near Elmwood last Tuesday with corn, alfalfa and oats to grind, which was soon converted into chicken feed by R. M. Coatsman with his grinder.

On Wednesday of last week John Skinner and the good wife were visiting with friends and also looking after some matters in Weeping Water, they driving over in their car.

George Kaffenberger of Lincoln was a visitor in Alvo for a short time on Tuesday of last week, while on his way from his home at Lincoln to the farm which he has over near the city.

George E. Steel shelled and delivered corn at the Rehmeier elevator, and at the same time shelled and delivered the rent corn belonging to Ed Casey of Lincoln, on whose farm Mr. Steel lives.

Erbert Taylor, who has been employed by L. D. Muller, and who is making his home northwest of town, was a visitor in Lincoln one day last week where he was looking after some business propositions.

A. J. Friend and family were over to Shenandoah last week and visited the new studio of Earl E. May, and thinks it a most beautiful place as well as providing a fine opportunity for the broadcasting of the programs which is a feature of the institution.

Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, county commissioner, was a visitor in Alvo on Tuesday afternoon and was looking after some matters for the county, in the line of inspecting the roads and ascertaining the needs of this portion of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. George Coatsman were over to Grand Island on the weekend last week, where they were spending the few days at the home of their aunt, Mrs. M. L. Gollhofer, they driving in their car and also seeing the country and one of the finest towns in central Nebraska.

Mr. E. H. Moore, who has not been in the very best of health for some time past, with the good wife, are taking a vacation at this time, and are receiving treatment for the health of Mr. Moore. While they are away two lady operators are looking after the business at the station.

Simon Rehmeier evidently did not keep account of the miles his car ran, for it used the last drop of gas, and makes as many miles possible under any circumstances, for when he was over to Weeping Water and Avoca one day last week, when he was nearing his home, the machine evinced an indication of laying down, and when near Frank E. Cooks, to pacify the car, Simon backed up one hill and scooted down another, and when he had arrived at the home of J. D. Forman had to walk to town and lug out a can of gas to get home. He will watch closer another time.

Only One Saw the Ocean.

A number of the farmers about Alvo and Murdock concluded that they would like to spend the winter in California, and so hitched up their gas wagon, and started, they getting along nicely until they arrived in New Mexico, where they had a break down, and when they had gotten the car repaired and filled with thirty-five cent gas they thought the state of Nebraska would look pretty good to them. Two came back and the other one went to Los Angeles and looked at the Pacific ocean and then he also returned.

Mrs. S. Walters of Hebron, Nebraska, who has been here visiting with her son, Harry Walters, returned to her home this morning after a very pleasant stay in this city.

Attorney Guy Clements of Elmwood was in the city today for a few hours attending to some matters of business at the court house, and visiting with friends.

From Saturday's Daily—
Oliver Schneider departed yesterday afternoon for Glenwood where he will visit over Sunday with his sister who resides at that place.

Jess Olsen and Ben Buckingham of Greenwood were in the city today for a few hours and while here Mr. Olsen called at the Journal and had his name enrolled as a reader of the weekly edition of the paper.

The fact that the primaries this year will be held in April has led to the political gossip being started early this year and candidates are beginning to be mentioned over the state and in the various counties.

This year the political offices to be voted on will number merely the state and legislative tickets, the only county offices that will be voted on being that of state representative and county commissioner over the first district as the state senatorship represents the district of Otoe, Cass and Sarpy counties.

In this connection the friends of Phil L. Hall, Jr., of Greenwood are urging that Mr. Hall enter the race for the democratic candidate for state representative at the coming election. Mr. Hall is one of the leading young men of the county and has had an active part in state affairs for several years, serving as adjutant general of the state under Governor Morehead and Gov. Neville and was in U. S. service as colonel of the Sixth Nebraska, and later of the 127th field artillery. He has had a fine business experience and is at the present time at the head of the Greenwood State bank and had a broad and thorough knowledge of the affairs of the state that entitles him a very valuable man in the office.

The section of the county where Mr. Hall resides has not often asked for candidates and certainly they should have the opportunity of having the genial Phil Hall as a candidate for representative.

Mrs. Jacob Wessell, 63, pioneer of One county, died at the family home, five miles south of Nehawka, Wednesday evening at 7:15 o'clock following an illness of several months. Heart trouble was the cause of death. She had been confined to her bed for one week.

She was born in Germany and came to this country in 1884 with her brother, Henry Heesch, of this city. In 1886 she was united in marriage to Jacob Wessell in this city and had since made her home in the northern part of the county where she was well known. She was a member of the Lutheran church and for years was active in church work. She was well known in this city where she often visited relatives and did her shopping. She had many friends here who will regret to learn of her passing.

She is survived by her husband, four daughters and three sons, Mrs. Truman Tysor, Nebraska City; Mrs. Conrad Johnson, Mrs. Frank Freese, Cass county and Miss Katherine Wessell at home.

Henry Heesch, a brother and Miss Katherine Heesch, a sister, reside in this community. Another sister, Mrs. Mita Wessell, lives in Germany. The funeral announcement will be made later.—Nebraska City News-Press.

Ohio executed a mental defective of 17 and found the millionaire bootlegger George Remus was just a little crazy when he killed his wife, that's all. Now we're beginning to understand the state the "Ohio gang" came from.

Enjoy Evening of Music of Great Amer. Composer

Life and Works of Edward McDowell Subject of the Meeting of Women's Club.

From Thursday's Daily—
Last evening the music department of the Plattsmouth Women's club held a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. E. H. Westcott on high school hill and with a large number of the ladies in attendance.

The subject of the meeting was the study of the works of one of the greatest of American composers, Edward McDowell, the program of the evening being devoted to sketches of the life and works of this musical genius.

Mrs. Robert M. Walling gave two of the woodland sketches of McDowell in which was featured some of the sweetest of his melodies that has won a lasting place in the music of the world and in the artistic presentation of Mrs. Walling was very much appreciated.

Mrs. John P. Gorder reviewed the musical works of McDowell and gave a short sketch of his life and the effects of his music on the national musical life.

Mrs. E. H. Westcott gave an account of the Peterbo colony in New Hampshire, founded in memory of the great American composer and where the musicians and authors may enjoy rest and quiet while they are preparing their music in work, when hundreds go each year to study their musical works.

The music department also selected Mrs. John P. Gorder to be chairman of the music week activities in this city and as well decided on the plans for the holding a musical on St. Valentine's day, February 14th at which there will be many pleasing social features.

Pioneer Dies at Nehawka Home

Mrs. Jacob Wessell Passes Away at Age of Sixty-Three Years After Lingering Ailment.

Mrs. Jacob Wessell, 63, pioneer of One county, died at the family home, five miles south of Nehawka, Wednesday evening at 7:15 o'clock following an illness of several months. Heart trouble was the cause of death. She had been confined to her bed for one week.

Golf Club Has Annual Election of Officers

James W. Holmes Again Named as the Head of the Plattsmouth Club at Meeting.

From Friday's Daily—
Last evening the members of the Plattsmouth golf club held their annual meeting at the Hotel Main and with a very large number of the members in attendance and much interest shown in the plans for the coming year.

One of the chief matters of the evening was the election of officers of the club and for the various offices the following were selected: President—J. W. Holmes. Vice-President—William Baird. Secretary—Treasurer—A. W. Clويد. Directors—George Peirings, Dr. R. P. Westover, C. A. Rosencrans, A. O. Moore.

The club voted to place a fee of $10 per year on memberships for those who reside outside of the city limits and who desire to become members of this popular club, while the fee for new memberships in the city will remain at $27.50.

The golf club have many plans for the year and with the enthusiasm that was shown at the meeting last night the club should find the season of 1928 one of the best that the club has enjoyed.

Mr. Holmes has been the president of the club for the past few years and his services in this office has been such that the members of the club have insisted on his retaining the office for another year.

James Johnson Critically Ill

The condition of James Johnson, who has been seriously ill at the home of his son, Mogens Johnson and family, the past several months became very critical this week and very little hope is held out for his recovery or even a possible lingering for long. Although Mr. Johnson has not suffered intense pain, apparently at any time, a gradual sinking has taken place and for the past week the patient has been unable to take nourishment, being kept alive principally through the use of medicine. His children have been summoned to his bedside and all that loving hands and careful medical attention can accomplish is being attempted.

Mr. Johnson will soon reach his 72nd birthday, and until the last few months has been very active in life, and it is well known that Mr. Johnson has enjoyed unusually good health until this time. He has lived in Weeping Water a great many years and reared his family in our community, where he has earned the love and respect of a large circle of warm friends and neighbors, and the esteem of all with whom he associated.—Weeping Water Republican.

NEW IRVING BERLIN SONG HIT ILLUSTRATED

Carl Weigel, feature organist at the Parmelo theatre has a great treat in store on Monday night.

Thru special efforts he has been able to secure the slide version to the tremendously popular composition entitled "Mr. Cropland Man," a ballad that will appeal particularly to fathers, mothers and children.

The fact that these slide illustrations are in such great demand accounts for their being in a class all by themselves; this has made it so difficult for Carl Weigel to obtain same. The coloring is beautiful beyond description, the designs highly artistic and the song itself so appealing that it will linger longer in your memory. Monday night.
