ALVO GARAGE
Art Dinges, Propr.

The household goods of Mrs. M. O. Weeks were sold during the past week at auction, they bringing good prices.
John B. Skinner had a load of cattle on the South Omaha market on last Wednesday for Eldon Snoko, from near Eagle.
Henry Eickerman and son, Herman, from east of Greenwood were looking after some business matters in Alvo on Wednesday afternoon of this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vickers were over to Lincoln on last Tuesday where they visited with their daughter, Miss Mureal Vickers, who is attending school at Lincoln.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cozman of Weeping Water were visiting for a short time at Alvo, they being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cozman while here.
Uncle Henry Thomas who has been spending a number of weeks at Courtland with relatives, returned to Alvo one day last week and is making his home here for the present.
Professor R. V. Kelley of Omaha but who was formerly a superintendent of the Alvo schools, was a visitor for a short time in Alvo during last week and was meeting with his many friends.
Mrs. J. F. Buck of Poatello, Idaho, and Miss Mary O'Donnell of Union, both sisters of Mrs. John W. Banning, were guests at the Banning home in Alvo for a number of days during the past week.
Mesdames A. B. Stromer and Arthus Dinges, were visiting with friends and at the same time doing some shopping in Lincoln on Tuesday of last week, they driving over to the big city in their car.
John Sutton, W. L. Coppel, Ben Menchou and J. M. Manners were released from quarantine last week, and three of them were experiencing the second restriction, and sure enough and sure enough to get away from the tie up.
The city of Alvo is running a close race between the city of South Bend in the matters of the people of Alvo getting vaccinated for prevention of small pox, and the people of South Bend killing does in fear of rabbits.
W. H. Warner was enjoying a visit on last Wednesday afternoon from his friend, Oscar Gopen, Sr., whom he has known for a number of years in the east portion of the county. The gentlemen enjoyed the meeting very much.
Mr. Kline, the janitor of the Alvo schools, who has been in not the best of health for some time past went to Lincoln one day last week where he entered the Lincoln Sanitarium for treatment and which he is hoping will give him better health.
Mr. H. E. Moore who with the good wife along as nurse, who has been at a hospital at Lincoln for some time past, where he underwent an operation and is now convalescing very nicely, returned home on last Sunday evening, and is now looking after the work at the station.
The Cozman hardware store has accepted the sales of the "icyball" which is a refrigerating plant of exceptional value, which does away with the electric current and the mass of ice, as it is capable of freezing ice in the box, and apparently in a spooky way, as it seems a mystery how it works. This is the product of the Crosley Radio corporation.
The rural mail carrier who is expected to stand any kind of usage was given a ride in one of the very latest models of the Ford car, one day about a week since, and for some two or three days afterwards could not carry the mail on his route. We are not informed whether the car rode so fine which he was given the ride in that he could not go back to the mail wagon, or whether it rode so hard that he could not ride in any car until he had fully recovered. You had better ask Abbie.

Buys Business of Own.

Eddie Craig who has been employed in Lincoln at the barber business for some time has purchased a barber shop of his own at Johnson, where he moved last week, and where they will make their home in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Craig and son, Jack, were visiting for over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Friend, parents of Mrs. Craig.

Married Last Saturday.

On last Saturday at the home of Grandmother Fairfield, who resides in University Place was celebrated the wedding of one of the very fine young women of the neighborhood of Alvo, Miss Alice Fairfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fairfield, who was united in marriage to Mr. Henry Fisher of Stratton, Illinois. The home of Grandmother Fairfield had been decorated in colors of blue and white for the occasion and presented a most beautiful appearance.
Miss Doris Cozman of Alvo presided at the piano and played most beautifully the wedding march, while Miss Hazel Ayres was the maid of honor, and Frank Hemphill of near Murdock was the best man. A delightful wedding supper was served, the newly married couple visiting at the home of the bride's parents on Sunday and departing for their home at Stratton, Illinois on Monday evening, where they will be at home to their friends after February 15th. The Journal with their many friends are extending congratulations and best wishes to this excellent couple.

Canning Club News

Owing to the prevalence of scarlet fever in the Alvo community a temporary ban was placed on all meetings, but this has not deterred the Sunshine 4-H Canning club from beginning their year's work.
The leader, Miss Lucille Christensen, distributed Lesson VI, "Cold Pack Meat Canning," early in January. The girls are making use of the lesson, now that the butchering season is here. Edith Robertson reports she has canned beef and clarified soup stock. The club will have their first meeting at Miss Christensen's home as soon as the ban is lifted. At that time Miss Christensen will distribute the premium fruit jar rubbers which the club has won.
Genevieve Dougherty, Maxine Eidemiller and Edith Robertson, three of last year's club members, won their 4-H club prizes and are proudly displaying them.
In December, Mrs. Orville Robertson, local club leader for 1927, received the lovely leadership pin in recognition of her services in club work.

Shower for Bride.

Among the many social affairs given in honor of the prospective marriage of Miss Minnie Stahlman and Ivan Althouse, was a miscellaneous shower given Friday evening by Misses Carolina and Letha Althouse, sisters of the groom, at their home near Alvo.
Among the guests was the Walter League of the Lutheran church of Eagle, to extend heartfelt congratulations and best wishes. There were also a number of neighbors, relatives and friends present, and many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the popular couple. The shower was arranged as a surprise and was carried out successfully, and the occasion was very merry and enjoyable, and the coming bride was assured of a hearty welcome into the neighborhood of Alvo, when she came to make her home there.

C. S. Montgomery Dies at Home in West

Pioneer Nebraska Attorney and Resident of Omaha Fifty Years Follows Partner to Death

C. S. Montgomery, 77, for 50 years a resident of Omaha, died Monday at his home in Glendale, Cal., just two days after word had been received of the death of Judge Lewis A. Groff, former Omaha, also of California, with whom Mr. Montgomery was associated in the practice of law at Omaha 50 years ago. Retiring from practice with the firm of Montgomery, Hall & Young four years ago, Mr. Montgomery with his family left Omaha to make his home in California. He was prominent in early democratic circles in the city and state, and at one time was a candidate for attorney-general.
Mr. Montgomery, who was born at Sparta, Wis., started his legal career with his partner, Mr. A. H. Williams of Montgomery & Son, in Lincoln in 1873. In 1879 the firm of Groff & Montgomery was formed in Omaha, and Mr. Montgomery began a law practice that continued over a period of 30 years. He was known as an outstanding lawyer in the city, having served as attorney for the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad. Mr. Montgomery appealed and argued the first case decided by the United States circuit court of appeals for the Eighth circuit from the district of Nebraska.
Judge Groff, who died last week in California, left Omaha to become commissioner of the general land office at Washington. For many years he served as postmaster at Redondo Beach, Cal., where he resided, and then entered a law partnership with Judge Charles Montgomery, son of the elder Montgomery with whom he was a partner in Omaha.
During Mr. Montgomery's residence in Omaha, the family home was at 3510 Harvey street. Always an enthusiastic worker in affairs of All Saints church, Mr. Montgomery was senior warden of his church and chancellor of this Episcopal diocese for many years. When he left Omaha clergy and laity combined to pay him honor, and a dinner by Episcopal dignitaries was given for him at the Omaha club.
Besides his wife and son, Judge Charles C. Montgomery, Mr. Montgomery is survived by his sons, Gray of Los Angeles, and Captain Harry Montgomery of Washington, D. C. A sister, Mrs. C. G. Jager, resides at Omaha. Funeral services and burial will be in California.

REACH PARTING OF WAYS

Washington, Feb. 2.—The senate's slush fund and elections committee today to a parting of the ways late today on the counting of the ballots in the Vore-Wilson senatorial contest from Pennsylvania.
After conferring with Chairman Waterman, of the election subcommittee, Senator Reed of Missouri, chairman of the campaign funds committee, wrote to David S. Barry, the senate sergeant-at-arms, directing him not to turn over any of the Pennsylvania ballots to the elections committee.
Barry was reminded by Reed that the ballots now in his custody and brought here from Philadelphia and Alleghen counties were seized under the authority of the Robinson resolution, which directed that the campaign funds committee proceed to take over the ballots.
The Waterman subcommittee decided late today to start the count of the ballots next Monday.
Whether the differences between the two committees can be amicably settled or will eventually reach the floor of the senate is a question the answer to which lies in the future.
