Guaranty Fund Commission to Pay Large Sum

Three Nebraska Banks to Be Cleared Up by the State Department at Once.

Nearly a quarter of a million dollars in cash is being paid by the Nebraska guaranty fund commission this week to depositors in three of the banks which it has been operating, located at Bennington, Malcolm and Scottsbluff. The money for these payments was derived wholly from collections and sale of assets of these particular banks, no draft being made upon the guaranty fund for any part of the amount.

The banks will continue to be operated as going concerns for the time being. Secretary Van E. Peterson of the commission announced Wednesday morning. Further liquidation of their assets is expected, he said, and depositors will receive additional installments on the amounts due them before receivers are appointed.

All of the banks have been under the commission's control less than a year; in fact, the average time it has had them in charge is only nine months. During that period, their deposit liabilities have been cut down $716,563 out of the $1,000,000 which they had in their own properties and customers' notes.

At the times they were taken over, the Scottsbluff, Malcolm and Bennington institutions had total liabilities of $1,578,531.

The guaranty fund commission has thus succeeded in paying 45 per cent of the obligations out of the receipts from their operation.

New Plan Working Well.
"This method of paying depositors in each bank out of the collections made by the commission from its assets is working out very well since it was adopted two months ago," said Secretary Peterson. "Our policy is to pay as large a percentage as we can at an early date, and make further distributions from time to time as the money comes in."

"Results are much better than under the old plan, when the guaranty fund was first drawn upon and the banks affairs were allowed to drag along for a considerable period of time thereafter before the fund was reimbursed."

"Now payments are restricted in the first instance to what the assets of a bank can be made to yield under liquidation. This expedites the collection of accounts and notes, as it is to every depositor's interest to help the commission realize upon the assets so that it in turn can make payment to the depositors without undue delay. Each depositor gets the same percentage of his approved claim when a distribution is made."

Since opening his western campaign, Senator Reed has said of the platform that the party has "bigger fish to fry than prohibition," and again tonight he declared the issue, in his opinion, is "purging of the public business; the cleansing of the departments; the restoration of decency to the capitol."

"That is the crying need of the hour," he shouted. "That work can only be done by the democratic party. When that task is accomplished, it will be time to debate and divide upon other questions."

"Without hesitation I declare that the strata of the republican party which has for the past eight years controlled the government is the most corrupt, the most venal and the most vicious body of men by which this nation has ever been afflicted."

In his night address before a dinner of the Kansas Democratic club, he centered his words on the demand he has made in the west for party harmony.—World-Herald

COOLIDGE IN VIRGINIA
Alexandria, Va., Feb. 22.—In this city where George Washington attended church President Coolidge participated in a celebration today commemorating the birth of Washington.

A salute of 21 guns greeted Mr. Coolidge when he landed at the Alexandria naval torpedo station from the Mayflower. At Carlyle house fully three thousand persons gathered to view the president.

The president was forced to abandon handshaking after 1,800 had filed in order to be at the reviewing stand in time for the parade. There he watched members of the army and navy from Washington, marines from Quantico and the state militia march by.

SENATE PASSES BIG BILL
Washington, Feb. 21.—The senate today approved the conference report of the interior department supply bill, which would appropriate $272,400,000 for the expenses of that department in the next fiscal year. Some opposition to the report was encountered when LaFollette, republican Wisconsin, objected to inclusion of the irrigation project for the Flathead Indian land in Montana, a provision insisted on by the house.

OPENS ROOFING HOUSE

L. L. Vroman of this city has just completed arrangements for the opening of a sub-warehouse here of one of the largest roofing concerns of the United States, and of which Mr. Vroman is the local representative in this part of the state. Mr. Vroman has been with this company for the past five years and is well qualified for the line of work that he is now handling.

Mr. Vroman states that by the close of the year this company should be able to employ from twenty to twenty-five men in the work in this part of the state and which will be handled from the warehouse located in this city. The company plans to have three trucks and three roofing crews operating in eastern Nebraska and western Iowa and a number of salesmen in this territory in the coming year.

Invisible Empire Casts Off Masks

Official Edict Makes Hooding Unlawful—All Members to Receive an Advanced Degree.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Official announcement was made today that the Ku Klux Klan has discarded the mask as a part of its official regalia.

In a copyrighted statement issued at the organization's headquarters here, it was asserted that "in every klansman tonight forswore the mask and made it clear that the order has no political ambitions for itself or for its members." At the same time the statement said that tonight's action was "in preparation for new and larger activities in our national life."

The statement quoted an edict from H. W. Evans, imperial wizard, as follows:

"That on and after midnight Feb. 22, year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-eight, no mask or visor shall be upon the helmet of the regalia of any klansman. It shall thereafter be unlawful for any klansman to wear any mask or visor as part of his regalia and each klansman who shall be unavoidably absent from the meeting of a klansman to be held throughout the Invisible Empire on the twenty-second day of February, shall as soon thereafter as possible attend a regular meeting of the klans and there become a member of the Knights of the Great Forest. That on and after the said date, all klansmen are forbidden to fraternize with, or remain within klansmanly fidelity to, any who shall thereafter wear upon him a mask or visor."

No further explanation of the Knights of the Great Forest was contained in the statement.

MAKES REAL SUCCESS
The many old time friends in Cass county of P. M. Shrader, former resident of near Murray, will be pleased to learn of the success that this gentleman is making in the west where he located after leaving this county some twenty years ago.

Mr. Shrader is the son of J. D. Shrader, now living in the east and has many relatives in this section of Cass county. The success of this old time Cass county boy is a great pleasure to the friends and the source of a great deal of pride to the relatives.

In speaking of the advancement of Mr. Shrader the Sacramento (Cal.) Bee has the following:

"The Realty Salesmen of Sacramento, which is declared to have been the first organization of its kind in the United States, launched itself this week on a comprehensive program under the leadership of P. M. Shrader of the Robertson-Govan company, new president of the salesmen."

"A solicitation of new members is now under way, with a view of having all of the real estate offices in the city represented by memberships in the Realty Salesmen of Sacramento."

"Shrader said that one of the most important pieces of work before the salesmen this year is co-operation with the Sacramento Real Estate Board toward making the 1928 convention of the California Real Estate Association a success. This convalescence will be held next October."

"This year's meetings of the salesmen, which are held every Wednesday noon in the Hotel Sacramento, will be mostly of an educational nature, designed to aid the salesmen in bettering themselves and raising even higher the ethics of their profession."

RECORD CROWD AT DANCE
Receipts at the Legion's old time dance Saturday night established a new high mark for week-end dances in the new community building. A. L. Brown had charge of preparing the hamburger sandwiches, donating his services in this line. 400 were passed out during the intermission. A large crowd was here from the vicinity of Union, as well as Cedar Creek, Nebraska and Murray.

There will be old fashioned dances the next two Saturdays, March 3rd and 10th, and a big feature St. Patrick's dance Saturday, the 17th.

WALKER PLANS CHANGES
Mobile, Ala., Feb. 22.—Mayor Walker of New York, who left New Orleans today with the intention of stopping here for a speech tonight, suddenly cancelled his plans and continued on to Atlanta. It is believed the mayor was displeased with the original call for a theater address for which tickets had been sold. The changed plans called for a smaller meeting at a hotel, and this was not to the mayor's liking.

Kansas Requests Equalization of Shipping Rates

Wants Freight Charges on Grains for Export Purposes to be Same in Four States.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Equalization of freight rates in the Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Colorado grain belts on grains for export purposes so that all shippers may have the choice of moving their commodity through the gulf ports, was Kansas City's request of the Interstate Commerce commission.

Walter R. Scott of the Kansas City board of trade, testifying at the commissioner's hearing on export rates Friday, also asked that the rates into the ports be adjusted so that no one water outlet would have a traffic advantage over the others.

The export investigation was authorized by the Hoke-Smith congressional resolution which sought to determine if a rate adjustment would aid farmers.

Scott said a wide difference in rates between southern Kansas and Oklahoma points eliminated Kansas from the export trade so long as there was grain enough in Oklahoma and Texas to meet foreign demand.

The Kansas City man, the only witness of the day, said it was not the desire of the Kansas City grain interests to bring wheat through Kansas City, but that grain in storage there should have the opportunity to compete with southern wheat for the export business.

Scott declared there existed a 9-cent difference in the rates between End, Oklahoma, and Wichita, Kansas, both near the Kansas-Oklahoma line. He said Kansas City was the wheat buying and storing center of the southwest and the price on that market fixed the price for that section.

He declared that he did not consider that the price of American wheat was fixed by the Liverpool market, as some economists contend, but that prices were established by a mutual dependence of all world markets. The export prices in the United States, he added, are fixed by market, with the future quotations largely governing.—Omaha Bee-News.

MAYOR DEPLORES STRIKE
Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 22.—Mayor William H. Gillespie of Pittston tonight addressed a letter to A. K. Morris, general manager of the Pittsburgh coal company, Rinaldo Cappellini, president of district No. 1, and Alec Campbell, insurgent labor leader, calling their attention to "the reign of lawlessness existing in that city. The letter says in part:

"As mayor of this city I deem it my duty to call your attention to the deplorable condition of affairs that exists in this city. I speak for the peaceful law abiding men, women and children who are terrified by the reign of lawlessness that now exists in this community. Dynamiting, murder and attempted murder, are of frequent occurrence. A bloody feud has been started among the so called foreign element, and when it will end, or where it will end, God himself only knows. It is enough to know that this community may become a second Hertzog or night, and that lynchings and murder may easily follow in the wake of a storm of mob rule, riots and lawlessness. This disgraceful and tragic situation is laid at the door of the labor troubles in this city and vicinity, and is attributed directly to the hostility that exists between the mine officials, mine contractors, union labor leaders and insurgent labor leaders connected with the Pennsylvania Coal company. The public, whether rightly or wrongly, holds each of you in part responsible for this reign of terror."

COMMISSIONER CONTRADICTED
Washington, Feb. 24.—Testimony of Abram F. Myers, federal trade commissioner, as to his activities as to his activities as an assistant attorney general in the celebrated bread merger case was further contradicted Thursday before a senate judiciary subcommittee, which investigated the entry of the consent decree in that case.

Judge will Rule Today on Senate Right to Arrest
Expected to Make the Decision on Stewart's Application for Habeas Corpus.

Washington, Feb. 22.—While the senate is seeking more light on the mysterious Liberty bond transactions of the Continental Trading company tomorrow, Justice Bailey is expected to hand down his decision as to the right of the senate to arrest Robert W. Stewart, Standish Oil official, because of his refusal to answer certain questions before that committee.

Stewart, who is at liberty on a temporary writ of habeas corpus, will be in the District of Columbia supreme court, as will also David S. Barry, sergeant-at-arms of the senate, who, with John McGrain, his deputy, arrested Stewart here early this month after he refused to say whether he had any knowledge of the Liberty bond transactions.

Should Justice Bailey dismiss the temporary writ Stewart would be remanded to the custody of the sergeant-at-arms, but he would escape immediate arrest by noting an appeal from the decision. Should the writ be made permanent the government will appeal, so that in any event the case finally will go to the United States supreme court for adjudication.

Sinclair Makes Statement.
New York, Feb. 22.—Harry F. Sinclair, oil magnate, and his co-defendants, W. S. Burns, W. Sherman Burns and H. Mason Day, convicted of contempt of court in connection with the Teapot Dome oil scandal, today issued statements defending their right to shadow jurors.

They based their right on the assertion that "it has long been the practice of the government to shadow jurors."

"It is apparent," Sinclair said, "that it is lawful for the government to use its great secret service in shadowing jurors, but unlawful for the citizens to exercise the same right. He before no court has held the mere act of jury shadowing to be unlawful. It is concluded that the statute forbids it, and the repeated practice both by the government and by defendants in courts all over the United States has given it the sanction of usage."—World-Herald.

Reed Assails Those Seeking a Party Split

Says "Such a Man Is Best Assistant Republicans Can Have." Dwells on Harmony.

Topeka, Kans., Feb. 22.—Democratic leaders who insist upon platform planks on which the party is divided were bitterly assailed tonight by Senator Reed (Mo.) before a statewide rally of democrats.

Without mentioning names or the issues to which he referred, the Missouri declared that "the man who seeks to divide the party, to force into the platform issues upon which there is great division, is the best assistant the republican party can have."

He said "the efforts to coddle and attract all sorts, classes and opinions have alienated the votes of thousands who would willingly give loyal adherence to the great principles for which we stand."

Since opening his western campaign, Senator Reed has said of the platform that the party has "bigger fish to fry than prohibition," and again tonight he declared the issue, in his opinion, is "purging of the public business; the cleansing of the departments; the restoration of decency to the capitol."

"That is the crying need of the hour," he shouted. "That work can only be done by the democratic party. When that task is accomplished, it will be time to debate and divide upon other questions."

HOPE SCHOOL AT NEW HOPE SCHOOL, DISTRICT 60
The recently organized Parent-Teacher association of New Hope school, District No. 60, held a well attended meeting one evening last week.

A round table discussion was engaged in on the subject, "How Parents May Hinder Their Children."

The school was checked to see if it graded up to a standard school and was found to lack only three points.

Other interesting features of the program included a chalk talk by Hamilton Meisinger and harmonica solos by Stephen Becker.

There was a large crowd present to enjoy the refreshments that were served at the close of the program.

A voice from North Dakota objects lustily to the immigration bill of Congressman Box applying the quota to all countries on this hemisphere. In legal phraseology, the bill is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

BOOSTS THE P-T-A
From Saturday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. B. Wolph, two of the prominent residents of Nehawka, were here yesterday afternoon for a few hours and were in attendance at a meeting to discuss the Parent-Teachers association, a branch of which has been established at Nehawka and in which Mr. Wolph and wife are active and enthusiastic workers. Mr. Wolph is a great believer in the organization of this association that will tend to give a greater interest in the school on the part of the parents and place them in a position where they can assist the young people in school and the teachers in the advancement of the schools by co-operation and interest. Mr. Wolph states that he believes the public at large should give more attention to the schools and the young people that they may assist the younger people in character forming.

URGES DEFINE AIR DUTIES
Washington, Feb. 23.—A resolution proposing an investigation by a joint congressional committee of the question, of control over air craft for sea coast defense purposes was introduced today by Senator Bingham, republican, Connecticut, a former officer in the army and navy.

It provided that a committee of five senators and five members of the house hold hearings and recommend legislation clearly defining the authority of the army and navy respectively over the aircraft defense of the coasts and for the co-ordination of the two air services in such fashion as to insure efficient use of air power.

MARINES KILL 4 REBELS
Managua, Feb. 22.—United States marines in three encounters with small bands in the Jinotega region within the last 24 hours killed four rebels and wounded several without themselves receiving a scratch.

A scout plane killed two with its machine guns when it observed a small band east of Narajo, southeast of Jinotega. Two more were killed ever since the opening dance—and at Esteta.

Pat Kroh is coming back again on March 7th. His Peony Park orchestra is one of the outstanding dance orchestras of the score or more that have played here and he has never failed to make us money. The contract for his appearance here once a month has some little time yet to run and there is certainly no cause to regret making such a contract, although the advisability of doing so was somewhat questionable at the time.

This week we pay tribute to Harold Erickson and Ralph Petet, the Stameses—or should we say "Gold Dust"—twins of the Legion. Anyway, they are a pair of tireless workers and to see them scrubbing up the kitchen and getting things ready to pass out countless bottles of pop on dance nights, one cannot help but be reminded of the familiar pictures of the Gold Dust twins. Only of course they don't appear ala Sept. morn and aren't ebony hued color, either. The boys have had charge of the pop stand ever since the opening dance—and at Esteta.

Eventually a fine concrete driveway, some 12 feet in width will extend along the west side of the building, between it and the Sinclair company's property line.

The trustees have rented the building for Tuesday night to the Loyal Service class of the Christian church, who will serve a waffle supper. The schedule of rental rates cover only the overhead (including interest on borrowed money) and any organization or individual can rent it. For information see Maldon Brown, who is chairman of the board of trustees.

Arrangements are being made to have banquet tables built soon. The need of having tables of our own is very apparent almost every time the building is rented.
