

Alvo Department

Business called John W. Banning to Omaha one day last week, where he went in his auto.

Elmer Rosenow was a visitor in Lincoln on last Wednesday, going over to secure goods for the Dickerson grocery.

Business called Art Dinges to Lincoln last week, where he went after some auto supplies and to look after some other business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ganz entertained at a six o'clock dinner at their home one evening last week a party of friends from Lincoln.

John W. Banning, the hustling lumber dealer received and disposed of in his sheds a car load of lumber last week, and is well equipped to care for all the wants of his customers.

George Browne and wife, of South Bend were spending the day in Alvo on last Wednesday, they being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yeger, parents of Mrs. Brown, while here.

One of the stores of Alvo contained a large sign offering good seed potatoes at $1.50 per bushel, while the Lincoln stores were selling the same for $1.75. Better patronize the home town if it is safe.

Since the fire which consumed their home last week, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Johnson have been making their home in Alvo, and he drives back and forth to look after the affairs on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burst, of Red Oak, Iowa, friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dickerson, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson for the week end last week, where all enjoyed the occasion very much.

Arthur Dinges and the good wife entertained at their home in Alvo for last Sunday and at dinner the parents of Mrs. Dinges, Mr. and Mrs. George Bray, of Syracuse, and at which time all enjoyed the day very nicely.

A. B. Stromer, the efficient and genial carrier of the rural mails out of Alvo has been feeling quite poorly for a number of days during the past week, so much so that he was not able to carry the mails, but is hoping soon to be able to resume his work again.

The ladies of Alvo, who are alive to the best usage and the very clever thing under any circumstances, gave an evening at the Jordan hall one day last week, the object of which was to express their friendship to Mrs. S. K. Johnson, who lost so severely in the fire which destroyed their home last week.

Last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Coatman, of Elmwood, were gathered the parents, William Coatman and the good wife, of Weeping Water; R. M. Coatman and family, of Alvo, to properly celebrate the passing of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Coatman. A most pleasant time was had and a sumptuous dinner served.

A small blaze which promised to be a fire, but was extinguished by prompt action, at the home of Jessie Hardnock a short time since, prevented a loss, but is a warning that all should be very careful of fire when the exposures are such as to cause them. The winds seemed to whip about the roof of this home in a way that caused them to keep a good lookout.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moss, of Kearney, and their son, Wayne, who is a student in the Kearney schools, were spending last week end from Friday until Sunday evening at the home of Charles Godbey and the good wife, Mr. Godbey and Mrs. Moss are brother and sister. Messrs. Moss and Godbey, accompanied by Master Wayne, were over to Lincoln last Saturday, where they visited the town and viewed its magnificent buildings and industries.

The Alvo Woman's reading club held a most pleasant meeting Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. Joseph Parsell, and at which there were a large number present. A very worth while program was given and one which was of much material benefit to all in attendance. At an appropriate hour delightful refreshments were served. All departing felt that they had enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon with the genial hostess.

fish troops were besieged so long during the Boer war). Simon had John Coleman construct a modern home with a den, a sun room, a sleeping porch and all the latest attachments.

Surprise Their Friends
On the 25th day of March, 1903, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Coatman were united in marriage near Elmwood, and as the fact was known by the friends of this excellent family, who reside south of Alvo, where Mr. and Mrs. Coatman resided for so many years, some fifty of the neighbors and friends with good things to eat, went to the Coatman home in Elmwood, where Mr. Coatman is now engaged in business, giving the family a most pleasant surprise and a pleasant evening, with the good eats which they carried along, and in departing they extended the wish that they may enjoy many more happy years of wedded life together.

Will Make Home in Potter
Harry H. Boyd, who has been conducting the mill at Elmwood for some time past, last week closed the institution and accepted a position of operating a mill at Potter in the western portion of the state, and on last Wednesday morning John B. Skinner with the big truck departed for the west with the household goods, while Mr. Boyd and the family went out in their car. Semerad Girl Still in Dangerous Condition
Victim of Torture-Robbers in Serious Shape—Search Continues for Men Who Beat Her.

Howells, Neb., March 28.—While a country wide search for the four men who Monday night tortured and robbed a seventy-four year old farmer and his daughter progresses, the daughter, Rose Semerad, is in a serious condition as a result of a beating she received at the hands of the men.

Investigating physicians found Miss Semerad had suffered a badly bruised face and that her nerves were shattered by the shock. She had been beaten, bound and gagged by the bandits in their effort to find a rumored money cache on the farm. The father, Joseph Semerad, has recovered from the beating he received and on Wednesday aided investigators in their attempt to learn the identity of the bandits.

It was the father who worked himself loose from his bonds after the bandits had left with $27 they had forced from her. He walked three miles to his son's home to give the alarm.

Leslie Hasson, a deputy state sheriff, came here from Lincoln Wednesday to investigate. He professed the belief that the outrage was perpetrated by local persons, but declared outside bandits might have had a hand in it.

MRS. GOODHUE IMPROVED
Northampton, Mass., March 28.—Such marked improvement was shown today in the condition of Mrs. Lemira Goodhue, the mother of Mrs. Calvin Goodidge, who is ill at the Dickinson hospital here that Mrs. Goodidge was able to spend almost three hours at her mother's bedside in one visit today. Reports from the hospital said that Mrs. Goodhue passed a comfortable day and appeared bright and happy.

A bulletin issued by her physician, Dr. J. E. Hays, was the most favorable made—public since the aged patient suffered a relapse on Sunday. She has been in the hospital since December when she was stricken with influenza.

BRITISH SCORES BRITAIN
Washington, March 26.—Representative Britten of Illinois, ranking republican in the house naval committee, declared in a statement tonight that the British proposal at Geneva to limit the tonnage and size of guns of new battleships was "but a gesture for American pacifists and pro-British propaganda." He also interpreted the proposal as favoring Japan at the expense of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schulz and children were at Omaha today to enjoy an outing and to visit with friends.

Flood Control Measure Rushed Through Senate

Bill Is Approved Almost Before the Members Know What Is Going On.

Washington, March 28.—Mississippi flood control legislation was shot through the senate today by a vote of 79 to 9, with a speed that astonished everyone.

After only an hour and 29 minutes consideration the compromise Jones bill was approved with a chorus of ayes and sent to the house, where leaders hope to bring it or a substitute measure up early next week.

The senate vote came without warning after Chairman Jones of the commerce committee had explained the provision of the 325 million dollar measure. He said it represented a co-ordination of the conflicting views of all senators from the states which suffer the greatest when the Mississippi overflows.

Only a few on floor. Only about a dozen senators were on the floor, but they recovered their astonishment in time to join in the vote. Senator Curtis (Kas.), the republican leader, assented, but before a roll call could be taken, Senators McKellar (Tenn.) and Ransdell (La.) rushed forward with amendments.

Assent was given to both proposals, each of a minor nature, and the bill was run for a final vote on the measure, which, it is hoped, may prevent another catastrophe such as that of last spring when the Mississippi overflowed, entailing a loss of more than two hundred lives and property damage amounting to hundreds of dollars.

Accept Norris Amendment. Action came so swiftly that Senator Norris (rep., Neb.), who had proposed an amendment received permission to have it considered even after the result of the roll call had been announced. His proposal to change the title of the bill to name tributaries as within the scope of the measure was accepted.

Other senators with long prepared addresses sat dazed at the sudden action, and even the oldest attaché of the senate could not recall that a measure of such far reaching importance, and one that ultimately will take at least half a billion dollars out of the federal treasury, had been put through with such swiftness.—World-Herald.

TWO DIE IN WIND STORM

Birmingham, Ala., March 29.—Two persons are known to have been killed and four others injured in a series of high winds that swept northern Alabama tonight.

Many towns and villages throughout the northeast and northwestern sections of the state were reported hit and isolated. All telephone and telegraph wires between Birmingham and Fayette, Talladega, Argo, Clay City and Springville were reported down. The dead:

R. E. Nelson, fifty-five, farmer, of Clay City.
Mrs. G. E. Mann, forty, Clay City. The injured:
G. E. Mann, Clay City.
Miss Eva Mann, Clay City.
Mrs. M. T. Payne, Anniston.

M. T. Payne, Jr., Anniston. Unconfirmed reports from Argo said a number of persons had been injured there. Attempts were being made to learn the fate of fifty convicts in a road construction camp reported destroyed near Trussville, a few miles northeast of Birmingham. The territory around Muscle Shoals also was isolated.

DISARMAMENT NECESSARY

Berlin, March 28.—The League of Nations must not default in its disarmament program despite the apparent impotency of its organism, Foreign Journalists in an address at their annual dinner tonight. He stressed Germany's right to demand universal disarmament as vouchsafed here by the treaty of Versailles and the protocol signed by the Locarno powers in 1925.

"The whole problem of disarmament has been left at the stagnation point as a result of the failure of the Geneva discussions," he said.

Corn Borer Probe is to be Continued

Representative Purnell of Indiana Will Renew Warfare Against Pest Next Year.

Washington, March 30.—Hearings were closed by the house agricultural committee Thursday on the Purnell resolution to authorize an appropriation of $10,000,000 for continuing the government's war against the corn borer in the midwest lake area.

The measure will be considered Friday in executive session with indications pointing to a possible postponement of the opening of the fight against the pest, so far as the federal government is concerned, until fall. If this should be decided, the winter months would be used in formulating plans for a renewal of the warfare in the early spring months in 1929.

Representative Purnell (R), Indiana, author of the proposal, disclosed that the advisability of postponing the campaign had been discussed with Agriculture department officials. He said that the delay had been suggested because the season now was somewhat advanced.

Purnell explained that if this should be decided upon, the respective state agriculture departments could continue the work during the interim.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC!

We have closed the Plattsmouth Auto & Wagon Company's Toll Bridge over the Platte river north of Plattsmouth and we take this means of expressing our hearty appreciation for the generous use the Public has made of our Bridge since its erection and opening for travel in December, 1911.

We feel that our Bridge has been of great service to this community especially, as well as to the traveling public at large, and while it would now be entirely inadequate to handle the present day demands on account of the great increase in automobile travel and the constantly increasing tonnage of Trucks and Auto Busses, our bridge has served its purpose very satisfactorily for many years and undoubtedly has been the means of hastening the construction of the new, modern capacious double track structure with its splendid roads leading to and from, and which has superseded our "Little Old Bridge."

This State and County Aid Bridge will be paid for within the next few months and the closing of the old bridge will make possible the removal of Toll Charges a trifle sooner.

Again thanking the public for the splendid patronage our Bridge has always received—
We Remain, Very Sincerely

THE PLATTSMOUTH AUTO & WAGON BRIDGE COMPANY
