

Greenwood Department!

Prepared in the Interest of the People of Greenwood and Surrounding Vicinity

BABY CHICKS WE HAVE THEM

All kinds hatching every week. They are going fast. Better get your order in so as to be sure of getting them when you want them. Prices are right!

Leesly Hatchery

2 miles East of Greenwood on the Louisville road.

Mrs. Joseph Clymer was kept to her home and bed for a number of days last week on account of a very severe attack of the flu.

John Armstrong of Lincoln was a visitor in Greenwood for the day on last Wednesday, driving over to the bustling city in his auto.

Miss Fern Dolbow was having a severe tussle with the flu last week and at the latter end of the week was reported as being much improved.

Robert Bourk and wife moved last week from the place where they have been living to the Dasher house, where they will make their home in the future.

F. A. Bennett and wife, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Freda of Lincoln, were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Calfee.

Douglas, the little three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coleman, who has been so seriously ill for some time is reported as being some better at this time.

Miss Catherine Coleman and sister, Mrs. Ella Marshall, the latter of Ashland were visiting and looking after some shopping in Omaha last Tuesday, they making the trip via the bus.

J. C. Currah of Lincoln, the father of Mrs. C. E. Calfee was a visitor at the home his daughter in Greenwood for the week end and was enjoying the day and an excellent dinner while here.

Charles Godbey of Alvo was a visitor for a short time in Greenwood on Wednesday of last week, having been at Waverly where he had taken C. H. Kirkpatrick for a visit with friends.

Miss Margaret Kelly was very sick last week on account of a severe attack of the gripe, but with careful medical treatment and the very best of nursing was reported as being much improved during the latter portion of the week.

A fire of last Tuesday during the time of the very high winds burned the barn of Alvin Adams northwest of Greenwood, and entailed a great loss both in the buildings consumed as well as the grain which was burned and destroyed, which in the end entailed a large loss.

Lawrence Coleman the seventeen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Niles O. Coleman, who has been so ill with bronchial trouble for some time past is reported as being better at this time. Their daughter at Lincoln, is reported as being about the same as heretofore, and is resting nicely.

Sophus Peterson, the blacksmith, who is a hustler and a persistent worker, was in a way handicapped last week on account of an attack of the flu which interfered with his work. He thought he would have to forego the work but, as he loved to work and it was there for him to do he attacked it, and in a way won out the flu, for he is much better now.

The Greenwood Cemetery association held a very profitable gathering on last Saturday night in which there were departments a food sale andazaar, the purpose being for the raising of funds for the care and beautifying of the cemetery, which is indeed a very beautiful burying ground, and reflects much credit on the community for the good care that is taken of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bourk entertained at their home in Greenwood, for the day last Sunday, and had for their guests for the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bastron of Lincoln, L. Kissinger and wife of Havelock, and Frank Starkey and family of Columbus. The group sure enjoyed the occasion very much, and the excellent dinner which was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Bourk.

See the change in the ad of the Greenwood hatchery, which occurs in this issue, this institution is hatching many chicks every week and have had a good demand for them, and at the beginning of last week their brooders were almost bare on account of the large sales. However, during the week they had incubator capacity of 2,500 hatch and more the early portion of this week. All wanting chicks would do well to have their orders on file.

Christian Church Active.

The Christian church of Greenwood has been very active in the work of the church and its auxiliaries and have enjoyed a good attendance as well as increase in the membership of the church. At the last Lord's day service there were four members received into fellowship of the disciples. They were Misses Hazel and Violet Borden, Helen Marvin, and Anna Nickles. These will make good and efficient workers in this society.

Mules and Horses.

I have a number of good mules and horses, will sell in matched teams or singly, to suit, they are good and sound and true to work. Or will exchange to suit. P. A. Sanborn Service, Greenwood. m26-tfw

Have Fine Time.

The General Kensington which was the last which the ladies will give for the season, which was held at the I. O. O. F. hall on last Tuesday was on which was surely greatly enjoyed by all. Rex Peters was the one to win the first prize and which was a deck of cards, but as the season for the sport is now about over he hardly knows what to do with them.

The School and City Election.

The results of the school and city elections which were held on last Tuesday were comparatively quiet but were filled with interest, but without the strife which oft times is evidenced in the election day. The results being for board of education, John Schilling, E. H. Armstrong and Gust Sorman. While for the city solons there was no contest, Robert Mathews and Dr. Talcott, being the only candidates and Judge O. F. Peters for city magistrate.

Attended Farm Bureau Meet.

A number of the people who are always seeking to know better farming methods and the things which come to the farmers as a problem and which the experience of mankind is now solving, were over to Weeping Water a few days since where they were in attendance at the farm bureau demonstration, and where they met many progressing farmers and also more progressive ideas. The visitors from the neighborhood of Greenwood of Greenwood, who were O. F. Peters, Leo Peters and wife, Sidney Parks, Art Jeffreys, and many others came home well pleased with the visit and the things which they learned as well as the very pleasant treatment accorded them at Weeping Water.

Trade Expansion Contest Sale.

The enterprising firm of White and Bucknell, who has built up an extensive clientele in the hardware and house furnishing business are for this entire week putting on a sale which outranks all other sales ever held in this city. There will be one hundred dollars in gold given away on the last day of the sale to the one holding the highest number of votes. Votes will be given for amounts paid in on purchases or accounts owing the firm. Five dollars will get five thousand votes, and ten dollars will count for 15,000 votes, as well as old tires and magazines on Monday and Thursday. See their ad in this paper and also the large bills.

Harger-Gamblin

The marriage of Miss Bessie M. Harger of Greenwood and Raymond H. Gamblin, also of Greenwood, took place Saturday in University Place at the home of Mrs. Eva M. Grassmuck, mother of the officiating clergyman, Rev. H. L. Grassmuck. Rev. Mr. Grassmuck is pastor of the Christian church at Greenwood and with Mrs. Grassmuck accompanied the bridal couple to Lincoln. Mr. Gamblin and his bride will reside in South Bend.

Rock Creek Club

The Rock Creek Homemakers club met at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Jeffery Tuesday afternoon. The studies were on pictures in the home, and their proper hanging and framing. Members of the club had written letters on the spirit of the home which were read at the meeting. Election of officers was held with all officers retaining their former position. The club will have a call meeting Wednesday the 18th at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hartsook. All members are requested to bring their finished work. Tuesday April 24th is achievement day at the State Farm for all the clubs. The meeting will be held at 1:30 o'clock in the students activity building.

Will Leave for California

Nelson Elmelund who has been a resident, and cashier of the Farmers State Bank of Greenwood for the past few years was bidding his many friends goodbye last Saturday as he expects to leave for California this

BAKING POWDER

Same Price for over 35 Years 25 ounces for 25 cents

Guaranteed Pure and Healthful Our Government used millions of pounds

He does not know how long he will be gone but if he finds a position that suits, he will remain for an indefinite time. Nels as he was called here, has made many friends during the time he has been making his home here, who will hate to have him leave but who wish him well in his new business career, or what ever he intends to do.

Kings Daughters Meet

The Kings Daughters met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Everett Cope with a good crowd in attendance. The time was spent embroidering tea towels for the hostess. A delicious luncheon was served at the close of the evening.

Mrs. Warren Boucher will be hostess to the class at the Christian church, Friday, April 13 at which time shrubs will be planted and the church grounds cleaned up in general. Every member is urged to be present.

Obituary

Henry Weideman was born February 2, 1857, in Lockport, N. Y., and departed this life at his home in Nora Nebraska, March 13, 1928, at the age of 67 years, 1 month and 11 days. He was reared in a Christian home near Burlington, Iowa, coming there with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Weideman, at an early age of two years. He remained there until he was twenty-three when he removed to Greenwood, Nebraska, and later to Elmwood, living there until coming to Nora, twenty-four years ago. He was married to Hannah Marie Gerbiling at Elmwood, Neb., March 5, 1902. He was the youngest child in a family of nine children; five preceded him to the land beyond; two died in infancy.

One sister, Mrs. Henry Schroder, one brother, Charles Weideman, both of Lincoln, and one brother, Herman Weideman of Cambridge, Ohio, who will direct the affairs of the community in the coming biennium.

In the city ticket there was elected for the completion of the board Simon Rehmeier, Simon Boyles and Arthur Dinges. While the additions to the Board of Education were Harry Appelman and Simon Rehmeier.

Business Looking Up. F. E. Dickerson, the merchant, in a conversation with the representative of this paper, said that business was looking up, and that his gross receipts were gradually climbing each month. This looks good to us, and we are sure that the other business houses of Alvo can say the same thing for all are carrying good stock of goods and are treating their clients the very best. For instance in the matter of tires, Mr. Art Dinges is making better prices for reliable makes of the auto footwear, than can be purchased by those who are making pretensions of low prices and good goods elsewhere. See Mr. Dinges ad in this issue.

BUFF LEGHORN EGGS for hatching. $3.00 per hundred.—Mrs. F. C. Riestler, Manley, Neb. Call Louisville phone 1922. a9-6w

FIRE LOSS IS $500,000 Scranton, Pa., April 4.—Employees had narrow escapes when the Scranton Republican building was destroyed by fire early this morning. The loss was estimated at $500,000. The fire started in the press room.

NORRIS ARGUES FOR MATE Grand Island, Neb., April 5.—A large audience greeted Senator Howell and C. A. Sorensen, candidate for nomination for attorney general, here tonight. Senator Norris continued his appeal to the voters for the re-nomination of Howell and his return to membership in congress. From Howell's record Norris pointed out why certain interests were in opposition to his congressional mate. In his talk, Norris paid special attention to the activities of the power trust and to our action in Nicaragua. Sorensen gave a brief talk, in which he advocated the selection of Norris delegates to the national republican convention.

Alvo Department

Charles Godbey was looking after some business matters in Greenwood on last Wednesday, driving over in his auto for the occasion. Messrs. R. M. Coatman and John B. Skinner were visiting with friends and also looking after some business matters in Elmwood on last Friday.

Will Brown began listing with a two-row lister, preparing the ground for planting corn as they will double list the ground which places it in better condition for cultivation later in the year.

Charles Haertel, Sr., shelled and delivered corn to the Rehmeier elevator last week, and has the work out of the way for the surplus of spring work, which is knocking at the doors of all farmers.

Will Atchison was in town on last Wednesday with a load of feed which he had ground at the Coatman grindery, and placed in condition that the stock gets every particle of nutriment which the food contains.

Mr. C. H. Kirkpatrick and his friend, Mr. Lytle who is visiting here for a time, were taken by Charles Godbey to near Waverly, where they both formerly resided and where they visited for the day with former friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Lytle, Mr. Lytle a brother-in-law of Mr. C. H. Kirkpatrick and former resident of this vicinity and who has been living on the Pacific coast for a number of years, arrived in Alvo last week and had been visiting with Mr. Kirkpatrick and the good wife, and with other friends and acquaintances of other years.

W. O. Boyles Some Better.

Mr. W. O. Boyles of Lincoln who has been for the past two weeks at Rochester, Minn., and where he was accompanied by his brother, S. C. Boyles of Alvo, and in company with him returned from the hospital, in the north, last week feeling much improved from the treatment. The operation which he underwent was very slight and required that they remain for a couple of days, after which they were able to return home. Mr. S. C. Boyles accompanied the brother to his home in Lincoln, then returned to Alvo.

Alvo Wins First Game.

In the opening of the season at Alvo on April first, the home team fooled the visitors in the wonderful twirling of the sphere, so that when the time came to total up the scores, it was found that Alvo had eight runs credit to their side while the visitors, the West Bricks of Lincoln, only had two.

Have Very Enjoyable Time.

The high school carnival which was held last week, was a most pleasant affair, and one which was also remunerative to the grades and high school, who were endeavoring to secure funds for supplying things which no provision is made at the high school and which often are badly needed. Coupled with this was a contest for the best methods and ways for the securing of the necessary funds which was won by Miss Eleonora Hinchley.

Alvo City Election.

Well, election day has come and is now gone, with the incidents which are always coupled with it. Like hustling and energetic town which it is she made a good choice when she selected the members of the board who will direct the affairs of the community in the coming biennium.

In the city ticket there was elected for the completion of the board Simon Rehmeier, Simon Boyles and Arthur Dinges. While the additions to the Board of Education were Harry Appelman and Simon Rehmeier.

Business Looking Up. F. E. Dickerson, the merchant, in a conversation with the representative of this paper, said that business was looking up, and that his gross receipts were gradually climbing each month. This looks good to us, and we are sure that the other business houses of Alvo can say the same thing for all are carrying good stock of goods and are treating their clients the very best. For instance in the matter of tires, Mr. Art Dinges is making better prices for reliable makes of the auto footwear, than can be purchased by those who are making pretensions of low prices and good goods elsewhere. See Mr. Dinges ad in this issue.

BUFF LEGHORN EGGS for hatching. $3.00 per hundred.—Mrs. F. C. Riestler, Manley, Neb. Call Louisville phone 1922. a9-6w

If we were not so positive that the more copper in it and more zinc "Galvannealed" or it make "RED BRAND" Fencelast years longer we would not ask you to buy it.

J. W. Banning Alvo, Nebr.

FUND WASTE IS CHARGED

Albany, N. Y., April 5.—Governor Smith today ordered an extraordinary special and trial term of the supreme court at Long Island City, to consider what he said had been described to him as "a criminal waste of public funds in Queens county in very large amounts." He designated Supreme Court Justice Arthur S. Tompkins to preside over the term which he ordered convened April 16. The governor's action was based on the unofficial recommendation of former Supreme Court Justice Clarence J. Shearn who, the governor said in a statement, had telephoned him that his work as an investigator of the administration of the former borough president, Maurice Connolly, had come to an end. Connolly resigned a few days ago as borough president.

AVERTS A RAIL CONFLICT

New York, April 5.—The New York Times tomorrow will say that executives of the Pennsylvania, New York Central and other eastern railroads today agreed upon a four-trunk system which has met the approval of Leonard F. Loree, sponsor of a fifth trunk line between the east and west.

An open conflict between Loree and the heads of the other powerful roads was averted by Otto H. Kahn, a member of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., bankers for Loree and his proposed system. His success as arbitrator made possible the plan by which will be integrated roads worth between five and ten billion dollars, operating about 50,000 miles of trackage. Although details of the plan were not learned, it is understood Mr. Loree's Delaware & Hudson is assured access to the west.

NAVAL DRAMA RE-ENACTED

Gibraltar, April 4.—Capt. Kenneth G. B. Dewar, flag captain of the Royal Oak, and Rear Admiral Bernard St. G. Collard, leading figures in the present day "Pinafore drama" of the British Mediterranean fleet, faced each other today as cross-examiner and witness at the court martial of the captain. The admiral is conducting his own defense on charges of conduct subversive to naval discipline, an accusation of which Com. H. M. Daniel already has been found guilty.

4 Choice Bulls for Sale

I have four very fine yearling Bulls all eligible for register— one Holstein, one Durham, one Guernsey and one Jersey. It will pay you to see them if in need of a good Herd Bull soon.

Chas. Forman Alvo, Nebr.

Home Town Best!

The broadcasters sing songs to attract your attention, then sell you the goods. We sell you the goods so reasonable that you sing the song yourself for very gladness.

FOR INSTANCE

Pathfinder Cord, 30x3 1/2 ..... $6.50
Best Rugby Cord, 30x3 1/2 ..... 5.50
Balloon Cord, 29x4.40 ..... 7.35

Only First Class Repairing and Supplies

Alvo Garage, ART DINGES, Proprietor.

IF YOU FAIL TO ATTEND THESE THREE BIG DAYS AT OUR BIG SALE IT WILL BE YOUR LOSS
Ask Your Friends About this Big Contest Sale

WEDNESDAY SPECIAL

Wednesday will be known as Congoleum Rug day. Each rug sold on that day will carry 50,000 Extra Votes. 9x12 Rugs as low as $6.49 Others in Proportion

Thursday Special

Thursday will be known as Enamelware day. Everything has been cut to the Quick. 25,000 Extra Votes on every piece of Enamelware.

Friday Special

Friday will be known as Stove day. For every Stove (either coal or oil) bought on this day, we will give 250,000 Extra Votes. Friday, April 13th.

WHITE & BUCKNELL GREENWOOD - - - - - NEBRASKA