been gathered for some time, but is getting along nicely at this time. Albert Johnson and mother, Mrs. Peter Johnson, were visiting in Murray for the afternoon and evening last Tuesday, they being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Nelson.

Mrs. Glen Perry is having a new roof placed on the house on the east side of the road where one of the help resides. Virgil was over to Murray on last Tuesday for shingles and building material.

Workmen were down from Plattsmouth the first of the week and took up the tank and oil pump which was used by Oscar Nailor before he departed. The pump and tank will be used elsewhere.

A. G. Cisney and the wife with their little one were over from the farm some five or six miles from Murray to see the doctor, and were compelled to first go to Nehawka, then Union and come over the gravel to get to Murray.

W. P. Cook of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Murray on both Monday and Tuesday, looking after some business matters relative to the consideration of the taking over the cream station, but in the end concluded it would not pay him.

Gene Allen with the Kirschbaum Creamery company of Omaha was in Murray for a couple of days during this week, and was looking to the establishment of a cream station, in the place where Mr. John W. Edmunds, formerly was in business.

W. O. Troop who has been so ill with the flu for the past week or ten days was able to be out and at town early this week, while he was able to get out he sure looked like he had been really up against it, for he was not so strong and robust.

Miss Bertha McQuinn of near Union who is the teacher of the school near her home was in Murray on last Tuesday afternoon to receive a vaccination preparatory to her entering the Methodist hospital where she will take a course of practical nursing.

Jess Chambers was visiting and looking after some matters which he had in hand at both Fremont and Columbus during the past week, making the trip via the train and tells of many people being stuck in the snow on the highway running out of Omaha.

Everett Spangler sold three of the later models of radios during the past week, James H. Brown of Omaha receiving one, an A. C. circuit design, while Dale Topfiff had a number 33 Crosley installed, and Ivan De Les Dernier a number 30, and all are working fine.

Miss Lois McManus, of the McManus Pharmacy was spending her Easter at the home of her parents at Falls City, departing on the midnight train Saturday night and returning, getting at Murray early Monday morning. She had a good visit, but was very sleepy when she got home.

Mrs. Earl Lancaster and daughter, Miss Bertha, were at Nebraska City on last Tuesday afternoon, where they went to attend the funeral of a son of "Bud" Royer, the latter a cousin of Mrs. Lancaster, the little fellow who was seven years old, dying early this week with the flu.

While cranking his car a few days since, John Deil the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deil suffered a fracture of his arm, and in order to get to Murray to have the member set, he and father in order to get here went via Nehawka and Union to get to Murray. The arm is feeling better but still has quite a bit of pain.

On last Sunday when A. D. Crunk who lives on the late Wm. Nickle place went into the barn, and assayed to pass between a mule and a horse, which were tied in a stall, the mule kicked, striking Mr. Crunk on the hip, and knocking him against the side of the barn, and injuring him badly. He has not been able to get to town until Tuesday, when he came to town to have the injury treated.

Harry Vantine was a visitor in Murray for a short time on last Tuesday and reports some of the children having had a touch of the flu, and says also that the new son which arrived a short time since was doing well as well as the mother. The little son Willard, who was so severely burned when he set his clothing on fire with matches with which he was playing is also getting along nicely at this time.

Moves to Murray

W. C. Allen and family, who have been making their home at Nebraska City moved to Murray last week, and are making their home in the Presbyterian parsonage which was traded to W. H. Puls, and Mr. Allen is employed by Mr. Roy Gerking.

Murray Christian Church

The pastor was sick over Sunday. His doctor says he can fill his pulpit next Sunday.

Morning topic will be "What Must I do to be Lost?"

The evening sermon, "Our Message to a Divided Church."

Are two churches too many for Murray? If so, is it sinful and wrong to continue two organizations? How is it possible to get together? Would each one have to give up some vital truth to effect such a union?

If not, how could it be accomplished? If so, what sacrifice would each have to make?

Do you favor such a consolidation? If so, hear what one has to say about it who has given the subject much prayerful thought and conscientious investigation in the light of present day conditions and scriptural teaching.

If not, hear what he has to say any way, as nothing will be said that could possibly offend.

The time has come when we should at least consider this question.

FRANCIS BLANCHARD, Minister.

Awards by De Molay to 26 Nebraskans

List Announced at Kansas City on Tuesday—Four Are Named From Omaha.

Lincoln, Neb., April 10.—As a tribute to the zeal of those who have been active in the progress of the Order of De Molay, the grand council of that organization at a meeting at Kansas City in March, awarded the Legion of Honor to 361 past and present De Molays, the Cross of Honor to 280 advisors of De Molay chapters and the Honorary Legion of Honor to 41 freemasons not officially identified with the movement. The list was made public at Kansas City today by Frank S. Land, founder and grand scribe of the order.

The awards for Nebraska are: Legion of Honor—Robert Parkins Waterhouse, Waterhouse, Walter, Otto and Clarence Murray Nelson, Fremont; Dean Edwin Schaffer, Hastings; Charles Woodson Reilly, Kearney; Harold S. LeRoy, Jr., Norfolk; Dwight Raymon Martin, Matthew Leitch Hogarth and Norman Selby Casey, all of Omaha; Ponda Cornelius Brown, Scottsbluff; William Richard Barnwell and Arthur Lyman Moyer Tekamah.

Honorary Legion of Honor—Albert E. Davis, Wayne, and Lewis E. Smith, Omaha.

Cross of Honor—E. G. Laing and Thomas Wesley Gre, Alliance; V. C. Biggs, Central City; Charles Albert Keene, Fremont; Will D. McLaughlin, Kearney; Harry Frederick Russell, Hastings; Floyd A. Lyman, Superior; Frank E. Wark, Tekamah; Walter L. Schinabel, Broken Bow, and Daniel M. Hill, Nebraska City.

Senator Borah is met, on the other hand, with Chairman Butler's argument that the Nelson between his party and Sinclair, which has caused such a scandal was arranged by his predecessor, Will Hays; that the present party officials, accordingly, have nothing to do with it.
