

Aged Resident of Cass County Called to Rest

Mrs. Lucy Mooberry McVeey Died at Home of Daughter, Mrs. Jessie Smith Near Mynard.

From Thursday's Daily—
This morning at 12:35 just as the midnight hour had passed, Mrs. Lucy A. Mooberry McVeey, one of the oldest residents of this section of Cass county, both in years and in the period of her residence in this community, passed away, her death occurring at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jessie Smith, near Mynard.

The deceased lady has resided in Cass county for the past fifty-seven years and has been known and respected by a very large circle of friends over the county in the many years of her residence.

Lucy A. Mooberry was born October 29, 1824, in Tazewell county, Illinois, and at the time of her death was past ninety-three years of age. She spent her girlhood in the old home in Illinois and where on November 9, 1871, she was united in marriage to Jesse R. McVeey, then a young veteran of the Union army that had returned to his home to start life in the ways of peace and to establish for himself a home.

Shortly after their marriage, in 1872, Mr. and Mrs. McVeey came on west in the wake of the growing western emigration and located in Cass county, Nebraska, they establishing their home on the farm three miles northwest of where the present town of Murray is located and here they made their home for over forty years. In the later years Mrs. McVeey has made her home with her children, who have rendered her the most devoted and attentive care.

Of the family of Mrs. McVeey there remains two children, Lintie McVeey of near Newark and Mrs. Jessie Smith of Mynard, as well as four grandchildren and one brother, Lintie Mooberry, of Allentown, Illinois, to mourn the death of the loved lady. The husband and four grandchildren have preceded her in death, the husband passing three years ago.

The funeral services of Mrs. McVeey will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the U. B. church at Mynard, the services conducted by Rev. George Weaver, the interment taking place at the Eight Mile Grove cemetery.

LAST JURY CASE

From Thursday's Daily—
This morning the petit jury panel took up the hearing of the last jury case of the April term, that of the Farmers State bank of Greenwood vs. Walter E. Palling, a suit involving settlement of the affairs of the bank and Mr. Palling, a former stockholder in the bank.

The jury in the cases of the Lincoln Cleaning and Dye Works vs. Don Philpot, et al., and Harry Eisele vs. Don Philpot, et al., suits for damages growing out of an auto accident near Greenwood, returned a verdict last evening in which they found for the defendant, Mr. Philpot and decided that there was no damages due the plaintiff in the case.

Following the report of the jury in the Philpot case and the securing of the twelve good men and true, for the Palling trial, the remainder of the jury panel was excused by Judge Begley for the term and sent on their way rejoicing at the completion of their service and which assures them two years immunity from jury service.

THE WORLD IN HIS CAR

From Saturday's Daily—
Frank Staples the genial and efficient trainman for the Burlington, running between here and Lincoln, has his car equipped with a radio, so that he has the whole world at his shoulder, for the radio set is just back of the seat in his Pontiac six coupe. As we were passing along the street, and were caught by a concert which was being given from New York City, over one of the networks, which is so popular in the east, and doing very nicely. Mrs. Long was formerly Miss Edna Newton of this city and the many friends of the family here will extend their best wishes to the parents for the future welfare and happiness of the little one.

ENJOY EVENING OF BRIDGE

From Thursday's Daily—
Last evening was the social meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America and the ladies were most pleasantly entertained at the home of Miss Helen Egenberger, who was assisted as hostesses by Mesdames A. G. Bach, James Newasek, and E. A. Webb.

The time was spent in the diversion of bridge, there being five tables of this interesting card game and in the playing Mrs. J. A. Griffin received the first prize while the second prize was awarded to Mrs. Charles M. Gradoville.

At a suitable hour the hostesses served very dainty and delicious refreshments that proved a most delightful feature of the evening.

Eastern Star Holds a Very Fine Meeting

Officers and Party of Distinguished Visitors Are Here to Attend Session.

From Thursday's Daily—
Last evening Home Chapter No. 189 of the Order of the Eastern Star held a very largely attended meeting at the lodge rooms in the Masonic temple and which was featured by the inspection of the chapter by Mrs. Nan Martin, of Omaha, the district supervisor.

With the supervisor came a party of distinguished members of the Eastern Star including Mrs. Grace Annas of Dunbar, past grand worthy matron of Nebraska, Mrs. Porter, worthy matron of Vesta chapter of Omaha and Mrs. Wickert, associate matron of Vesta Chapter as well as Mrs. Nesser, one of the leaders in the Star circles of Omaha.

The officers of Home chapter and the visiting guests were most delightfully entertained at a 6:30 dinner, served in the dining room of the temple and which was arranged and served by the ladies of the members of the Knights Templar as a token of esteem for the Eastern Star chapter. The tables were very beautifully arranged in a floral decoration that carried out the colors of the Star in a very artistic manner.

Following the dinner the inspection of the chapter was held and the officers gave the report in fine shape and received much commendation for their splendid work in their various stations.

DEATH OF MRS. KAUBLE

From Thursday's Daily—
The death of Mrs. Frank Kauble, Sr., a resident for many years of this community, occurred Tuesday night at Scottsbluff, Nebraska, at the home of her son, Henry Kauble.

The deceased lady was eighty-four years of age and came to Cass county when but eleven years of age and the family resided in pioneer days in the vicinity of old Rock Bluff and where she was married many years ago to Frank Kauble, who preceded her in death ten years ago. Since the death of the husband, Mrs. Kauble has made her home for the greater part of the time with her daughter, Mrs. A. D. Caldwell in this city, and she is now residing in the home of her oldest son, where she has since made her home. There is left surviving the passing of this good woman, three children, Mrs. A. D. Caldwell of this city, Henry Kauble of Scottsbluff and Frank Kauble of Omaha. One year ago, her son, Henry Kauble, of Portland, Oregon, is also left to mourn her death.

The many old friends here will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Kauble and extend to the members of the family circle their deepest sympathy in the loss that has come to them.

DRIFTERS ARE PLENTIFUL

From Friday's Daily—
The vicinity of the Burlington station this morning resembled a reunion of the wandering willies as there was a very large number of unfortunates of all ages, some mere youths to aged men and ranging from the dusky hued negroes to the tow headed whites. The chilly April breezes have caused the unfortunate wanderers to seek shelter in the city bastle where the night police force have them quartered so that the men will not be wandering over the city and committing depredations. They are released after the coming of the morning and spend several hours after being released at 7:30 in wandering around the market section of the town and loafing around the railroad stations.

HOLD A FINE MEETING

From Saturday's Daily—
Last evening Nebraska chapter No. 3, Royal Arch Masons, held a very fine time at their lodge rooms in the Masonic temple and at which time there were eight candidates given the Mark and Past Master degrees by the officers of the chapter. There are several other candidates for these degrees that will be conferred at one of the coming sessions of the chapter.

Closing Up Defunct Loan Association

Representatives of Stockholders Secure Receiver to Wind Up Affairs of Association.

From Thursday's Daily—
The Livingston Loan & Building association of this city, which ceased business as a live and going organization in 1923, is having the last of its affairs cleaned up now through the instrumentality of the courts with a receiver to handle the affairs of final liquidation.

Some time ago a number of actions were filed in the district court by former stockholders of the association who offered objection to the methods that were used in clearing the affairs of the association up, demanding that a receiver be appointed. Attorneys W. A. Robertson and W. G. Kieck representing the litigating stockholders had their request granted by the court and Judge Begley has named as the receiver of the defunct association, Searl S. Davis of this city well known real estate man and farm loan representative.

Mr. Davis has already started to function in his new capacity and securing a list of the real estate that is owned by the association as well as other resources and will endeavor to get the properties disposed of and cleared up and the affairs of the company wound up in a manner that will be satisfactory to the stockholders and the court that now has supervision of the case.

This association had a large number of stockholders at the time of its closing and who voted to keep the association out of a receivership. The public through Mrs. Carlson and Mrs. Gerner's rooms closed by the state as an active loan and building association, since that time the former officers have been endeavoring to get the affairs of the association wound up as rapidly as possible and to secure the best settlements possible for those who were interested in the company.

TWO COUPLES ARE WEDDED

From Thursday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon was a busy time for Rev. H. E. Sortor of the First Methodist church, he having a sudden rush of business in the marrying line and which took up some time of his regular grind of business.

The first couple that came to the doors of the parsonage to seek the magic words that would join their hearts and lives were Oscar C. Budd and Miss Alice Kolacny, both of Omaha and which took up some time of the evening. The association was followed by the address of the association wound up as rapidly as possible and to secure the best settlements possible for those who were interested in the company.

HAVE FINE MEETING

From Thursday's Daily—
Last evening the Parent-Teachers association of the Winterset Hill school enjoyed a very delightful meeting at the school house, which was very largely attended and an unusually pleasant evening enjoyed.

The first part of the evening was taken up in a business session and which was followed by the program of the evening. Miss Ariel Moore of the city schools gave two very delightful piano numbers while Mrs. Rachael Stone also favored the members of the party with two of her artistic piano selections.

The study hour was in charge of John Sickle who had as his subject, "The Pre-School Child" and gave a very thorough and interesting discussion of this important subject.

The social hour in which Miss Jeanette Stone was the leader followed and was enjoyed to the limit by all of the guests of the evening.

SEARCH FOR MISSING PROPERTY

From Thursday's Daily—
This morning Sheriff Mehrens of Burt county and a number of the residents of the vicinity of Blair, were here in search of several skiffs from the vicinity of Blair a few days ago. The Burt county sheriff and the owners of the property thought that the skiffs had been brought on down the Missouri river and are visiting the different points along the river in the hope of being able to locate the missing articles. Sheriff Mehrens is a brother-in-law of Sheriff Bert Reed of Cass county and enjoyed a visit with our genial sheriff while here.

SMALL FIRE AT DENTAL OFFICE

From Friday's Daily—
Last evening a fire that might have had serious consequences occurred at the dental offices of Dr. Paul T. Heinemann in the Hotel Main building, and only the prompt and effective work of L. R. Sprecher, local taxi line owner, prevented the fire gaining headway. Dr. Sprecher was outside the hotel and noticed a small blaze starting in the workroom of Dr. Heinemann and as the office was closed, Sprecher climbed over a transom over the doorway leading from the hotel lobby into the dental office and extinguished the flames without serious loss. The fire was caused by a small gas burner used in the office, igniting a small wooden shelf over the dentist's workbench and which shelf was quite badly burned before it was discovered by Mr. Sprecher and the fire extinguished.

Central P-T-A Has Fine Meeting Last Night

Fine Program Presented by the Pupils of Grades at Central Building—Many Attend

From Friday's Daily—
The Central P. T. A. met in the high school auditorium on Thursday evening and was attended by a good sized audience who came to enjoy the splendid program and business meeting. The program was opened by a piano solo by Miss West, this was followed by a reading by Edna Mae Peterson and a piano solo was again enjoyed, given by Miss Rachel Robertson. The pupils from Mrs. Carlson's and Mrs. Gerner's rooms sang a group of three songs which showed the splendid training they had been given.

Miss Alice Hiatt appeared in a violin solo accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Caldwell. A review of the bulletin was given by Mrs. Hiatt. This was followed with the address of the evening which was given by Mr. A. L. Tidd, his subject being "Development of Character in Children." He divided his subject into three general parts, the middle childhood and brought out some very fine points in each group.

The subject was handled in such a clear and concise manner, that the parents were made to realize what a wonderful wonderful world has been given them in a mold and help develop the child's character.

Following the address a social half hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by Mrs. Gerner's room. The banner was given to Mrs. Gerner's room for the highest number of parents present.

Will Glorify the Humble Hen in Egg Week

Special Campaign for the Urging of Eating and Using More Eggs—Much Local Interest.

SHERIFF GOES TO COLORADO

From Friday's Daily—
Last evening Bert Reed departed for Denver, Colorado, where he goes to present extradition papers to governor of Colorado, asking for the return of John Noel, formerly of Elmwood, who has been charged in a complaint led in the county court here by George F. Wilson of Elmwood, in which Mr. Wilson has charged the man with embezzlement. Mr. Noel has been placed under arrest in Colorado and refused to return unless required and which made necessary the preparation of the extradition papers.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

From Saturday's Daily—
The morning Mayor and Mrs. C. A. Johnson took their little eight year old daughter, Gloria, to the hospital at Omaha, where an operation will be performed for the purpose of removing a puss gathering from the lung of the child. Gloria, the only child of the family, has been suffering from pneumonia and Norma has recovered very nicely but the malady and its complications has affected the other sister more severely and made necessary her hospital treatment. The many friends of the family are trusting that the little lady may be able to return home in a very short time and relieved of her affliction.

Death of One of the Pioneer Residents Here

Mrs. Martha Ruffner Tutt Died at Home of Daughter in Yakima, Washington, Aged 85

This morning P. E. Ruffner of this city received the letter announcing the death a few days ago of his elder sister, Mrs. Martha Caroline Ruffner Tutt, which occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Rutan at Yakima, Washington.

The deceased lady was eighty-five years of age and was born in Virginia, the native state of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Ruffner, the family later moving to Missouri, where the mother of Mrs. Tutt passed away. The marriage of Martha Ruffner and Andrew Tutt occurred at Oregon, Missouri, in 1862 and the following year they came to Plattsmouth where they made their home for a number of years, leaving here in the middle seventies for Helena, Montana, where Mr. Tutt died some thirty years ago. Since the death of the husband Mrs. Tutt has largely made her home with her children and her only son, Lee E. Tutt of Yakima, has given her the most loving care together with her daughter, Mrs. Rutan, until the advancing years made the death of the mother inevitable.

The death of Mrs. Tutt leaves Mr. P. E. Ruffner of this city the sole survivor of a family of seven children and the sturdy Virginia stock from which they spring has brought them all to a ripe age as Mr. Ruffner is in the late seventies and still able to be active and looking after his daily affairs.

SURPRISE MISS SMETANA

From Saturday's Daily—
Last evening Miss Ann Smetana was given a very delightful birthday surprise arranged by her sisters, Mrs. Elmer Lohnes and Miss Helen Smetana and which was held at the Lohnes home on Granite street. The guest of honor had been called to the home of the sister and was not aware of the delightful time in store for her until the members of the jolly party arrived on the scene.

After the guest of honor recovered from the surprise that was occasioned when the friends rushed into the house with their cries of greeting, the time was spent in playing cards and which proved a most pleasing diversion.

At a suitable hour dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Lohnes who was assisted by Mrs. Wallace Warner, also a sister of the guest of honor. The dainty refreshments were prepared by the large and handsome birthday cake that was prepared by Mrs. John Kaffenberger.

In honor of the occasion Miss Ann received many handsome and much appreciated gifts from the jolly party of friends.

Those who enjoyed the occasion were: Lucile and Marie Horn, Eleanor McCarthy, Marie and Elizabeth Nolting, Florence Thacker, Viola Meisinger, Jean Fitch, Rose Janca, Frances Sedlacek, Florence Terryberry, Mary Sedlak, Helen, Eleanor and Ann Smetana, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Warner and children, Charles and Vivian, Mr. and Mrs. John Kaffenberger, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lohnes and Louis Lohnes.

Spring Music Festival of the City Schools

Offering Last Evening at High School Auditorium One of Greatest Interest to Public.

From Saturday's Daily—
The spring musicals of the senior and junior high schools, staged last evening at the high school auditorium, was one of the most delightful of the musical ability of the young people of the school.

The program was under the direction of Miss Sylvia Cole, supervisor of music of the local schools, and B. E. Woodward, who had charge of the orchestra work of the evening. The young people reflected the splendid training that has been given them in the musical offerings of the school were much impressed with the advancement that the young people have made.

The program embraced the group numbers of the double quartet of the senior girls, the group and choruses of the girls' glee club of the high school as well as the junior high glee club of both the boys and girls, as well as the high school and junior high orchestras.

Miss Cole gave two very enjoyable vocal numbers, "By the Waters of the Minnetonka" and "I Passed by Your Window" which gave full scope to her fine voice and the artistic manner in which they were given.

The eight senior girls form a very delightful quartet and were heard in three numbers during the evening, "Keep on Hopin'", "In the Heart of the Hills" and "My Nebraska".

The high school orchestra that has often pleased the Plattsmouth audience presented three very enjoyable numbers that were well given and including the tuneful and charming "Night in June" by King.

The girls high school glee club, one of the best of its kind in the state and comprising some thirty voices gave three high class selections, "May Day Song," "Mighty Lak' A Rose" and "Sundown" and in which the young ladies were at their best.

The junior high glee club, composed of both the boys and girls, and with an ensemble of some fifty also made a very entertaining part of the evening with their numbers, "Twelve Gray Dwarfs," "Star's Lullaby" and "Sing 'Till the Clouds Roll By."

The orchestra of the junior high school was one of the outstanding features of the program and their selections presented by the eighteen piece musical organization was a real treat.

JURY FINDS FOR PALLING

In the trial of the case of the Farmers State bank of Greenwood vs. Walter E. Palling, in the district court yesterday, the jury in the case returned a verdict in which they found for the defendant and cross-petitioner, Walter E. Palling and assessed his recovery at the sum of $221.24.

In this case the plaintiff bank sued for the recovery of the sum of $495.12 which it was claimed was owed by the defendant and which the defendant answered in a reply and cross-petition in which he set forth that in disposing of the stock owned by him to the purchasers of the bank it had been agreed that he was to have a position in the bank and that the bank was to be removed from the position and for which he asked judgment against the bank in the sum of $2,000, also claiming that the note represented a part of the sum that was due him.

LITTLE ONE NOT SO GOOD

From Saturday's Daily—
The reports from the Methodist hospital in Omaha state that little Dorothea Mae Duxbury, who is there recovering from a severe case of appendicitis, while not considered seriously by the attending physicians was causing her parents, Judge and Mrs. A. H. Duxbury considerable anxiety. The little girl has been doing very nicely after the operation but the past two days she has not been feeling so well, the infection causing some fever and making her condition more serious.
