

Alvo Department

Mrs. Clara Prouty and daughter of near University Place were guests of friends in Alvo for the day last Sunday.

Theo. Carnes of Murdock was a visitor in Alvo for a short time and was looking after some business matters while in town.

W. O. Boyles of Lincoln was looking after some business matter as well as visiting with friends in Alvo on last Wednesday.

Simon Rehmeier was a visitor in Lincoln on last Wednesday, and enjoyed seeing a very fine picture which was placed on the screen.

M. C. Keeler and the family of Glenwood, Iowa, were visiting with friends and relatives in Alvo and were attending church as well.

Walter Collins, Peter Johnson and Dick Elliott shelled and delivered corn last week to the Rehmeier Elevator, and received a very fine price for the grain.

C. M. Skyles and the good wife of Lincoln were spending the day in Alvo and were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Boyles as well as attending church here.

Frank Lane of Weeping Water was a visitor in Alvo for a short time on last Wednesday, driving over from the bustling city of Weeping Water to look after some business.

Roy Cole and the family were visiting in Alvo and vicinity and were while here visiting with their many relatives and friends, they driving over from the home near Myrard.

Mr. N. C. DeLes Dernier of near Union was a visitor in Alvo for a short time on Wednesday of last week, and was looking after some business matters, and visiting with friends.

Henry J. Miller departed for the Golden West on last Monday, where he expects to visit with his son, Archie Miller, and family, and in fact look the country over with a view of appropriating a portion of it, should it look just good enough.

T. M. McKinnon, the hustling farmer northwest of Alvo, has added to his conveniences for the farm and to enhance the pleasure of living on the farm, one of those excellent modern cars, the Whippet. This will add much to the convenience of the members of the family and enable them to go and come at their convenience.

The Junior-Senior banquet of the Alvo high school which was given at the school building was one of the most pleasant events which has occurred in Alvo for some time. The banquet was served by the members of the Home Economics class of the school, and was prepared by the mothers. This was a demonstration of the effects of good practical cooking by those who surely know the secret of cooking the best eatables in the best way, and the serving of this same good eats and most approved fashion and taught by the school of Alvo, and in fact by most of the up-to-date places of learning over the country. They sure had a good banquet.

Died in Lincoln.
Word was received some time since of the very serious illness of Frank Van Andel who later died, and was brought to Alvo for burial. Mr. Van Andel was a son in law of Mr. Edward Linch of Lincoln, who is a brother of our townsman, P. J. Linch. We will endeavor to get a fuller report of the life and sickness of this young man.

Had a Real Feed.
Two of the young men of Alvo were over to Lincoln where they got their feet under one of the tables loaded with all manner of good things to eat at the Corbuser hotel, and they sure say the eating was fine. The occasion was a banquet which was put on by the Goodrich Rubber company. Mr. Art Dinges, the auto dealer in the beautifying of the school grounds and the last thing which they have added is a lilly pool, and which they procured Ludwig Bornemeier to construct. Mr. Bornemeier has a most beautiful pool of this kind at his home east of Murdock, and was well qualified to construct one for the Alvo scholars. And it sure is a beauty.

Made Lilly Pool.
The students of the Alvo Consolidated school have taken much pleasure in the beautifying of the school grounds and the last thing which they have added is a lilly pool, and which they procured Ludwig Bornemeier to construct. Mr. Bornemeier has a most beautiful pool of this kind at his home east of Murdock, and was well qualified to construct one for the Alvo scholars. And it sure is a beauty.

Alvo Entertains the Elmwood Masons
Canopy Lodge of the A. F. & A. M. Meet at Home Town of Their Worshipful Master.

Canopy lodge of the Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, of Elmwood, have a membership, which extends over a good portion of Cass county and a most excellent class of American citizens, which you would choose to meet. Their worshipful master, Charles Ayers, when the matter of having a get together meeting was mentioned he was able to put the matter over of selection of Alvo for the place of the meeting, knowing full well that the crowd would be taken care of by the ladies of the Methodist Aid society, and he was right, for we have been fortunate enough to eat at a banquet where they served.

So the banquet was staged for Alvo last Friday evening, and with plenty of music, singing and sociability, and some of the very best speaking, and eats that could not be excelled, all who attended were sure to have an excellent time. There were covers laid for one hundred Masons and Stars, and a person for each cover.

The address of welcome was delivered by the worshipful master, Charles Ayers, who reviewed Masonry in western Cass county and extended a welcome to the hustling city of Alvo. The address was responded to by Mrs. Victor West, who was indeed a most pleasing speaker and her address was enjoyed by all who listened to the same.

The meeting was followed by an address by Herman Ruhge who has been a member of the order for the past thirty years, and in reviewing those few happy years he cites many features of Masonry which was well worth the living and enjoying. This was followed by a solo by Mrs. Willard Clapp who captured the music loving portions of the assemblage, and from the encore which this excellent singer received, they were most of them lovers of music.

Will L. Atchison then spoke on the subject of "Horse Feathers," and which kept the house in most uproarious laughter, and the members so they could hardly eat from laughing.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by J. E. Curtis, and was one well worth listening to of any one who would wish to be inspired with the idea of better citizenship.

The meeting was under the guidance of the efficient toastmaster, C. D. Ganz, who sure brought success to this the first banquet in the hustling little city of western Cass county.

TRIO TO MAKE LONG HOP

Fresno, Calif., April 16.—At dawn tomorrow Jimmy Angel, one time army flier, will hop off from the Fresno municipal airport for Guaymas, Sonora, Mex., on the first leg of a 25,000 mile air tour to Cape Horn and back.

After months of preparation and many untimely delays, Angel said today everything was ready for the start. The trip is expected to take two months. He expects to reach Guaymas, 300 miles from Fresno, tomorrow evening. He will be accompanied by Prescho Stephenson, vice president of the Beacon Airways, Inc., and William Benton of Evanson, Ill., who will act as co-pilot and mechanic.

From Guaymas the plane will go to Tampico. The route from there follows: Vera Cruz, Guatemala, Columbia, Bolivia, Patagonia, Cape Horn and back. No itinerary has been drawn for stops in South America.

SORLIE MAY GET POSITION

Washington, April 20.—Gov. A. G. Sorlie of North Dakota, is understood to be under consideration by President Coolidge for appointment as treasurer of the United States to succeed Frank White, who has resigned to become connected with southern banking interests.

Governor Sorlie has been recommended by both Senators Frazier and Nye, republicans of North Dakota. If the governor should be tendered the appointment, it would be necessary for him to resign as his term does not expire until next Jan. 1.
