The Thrift Habit

Parents are now able to acquire property in the child's own name the very day of his birth or any time thereafter.

Our way is adapted to every income. The increasing cash values, together with actual possession of the contract, furnish the incentive to save and to hold the child's interest.

Junior and Juvenile Thrift Plans fill an actual need.

Saving is a habit. Establish it early.

The Burglar Plies His Trade. Last week burglars entered the store of Joe Banning, and while they had the opportunity to loot the store they only took a number of articles, amounting to but a few dollars, such as knives, flash lights and one clock.

On Saturday night the store of Mabel Reynolds and the restaurant of James Fitzpatrick were looted, and but a few articles taken at the store of Mabel Reynolds, they secured between twenty and twenty-five dollars worth of goods, while these are small the continued practice is somewhat of a drain on the businesses. The store of Mrs. Reynolds has now been broken into fourteen times in three and a half years. Something should be done to catch the culprits, and make it safe to do business in the small towns.

Marauders also entered the Fitzpatrick Cafe.

HOLD FESTIVAL. The M. E. Aid society of Union will give a "Four Season" Festival, in the M. W. A. Hall on Saturday, May 5th. A six o'clock dinner will be served cameleria style with a lot of good things to eat.

PLATTSMOUTH ROOTERS

The Live Wire Pig Club

A very interesting meeting was held last Thursday evening, April 19, by the "Plattsmouth Rooters" Pig club.

The meeting was opened by singing "America," followed by our club yell.

After the business of the club was disposed of, the study period was conducted by our leader, John M. Kaffenberger. Problem VII, "Sanitation and Disease Prevention" was read and discussed. Gale Hennings and Rudolph Wurga joined our club. Any boy or girl between the ages of 12 and 21 is eligible to membership.

Five visitors were present at our meeting.

The next meeting will be held at the Mynard community hall on Friday evening, May 4th, at 8 o'clock.

Flowers of Springtime are Now Blooming

But the Beautiful Displays Are at the Plattsmouth Greenhouse of Henry Jasper.

The Plattsmouth greenhouse on west Locust street is now a treat to the eyes of the lover of the beauty of the floral kingdom, as Henry Jasper, the owner has his spring offerings in the lines of flowers for the trade all in bloom and of the greatest profusion and beauty.

Mr. Jasper not so long ago constructed a new greenhouse that was arranged according to his own wishes and likes, and has made a wonderful place in which he has produced some equally wonderful offerings in the way of flowers for the trade and has enjoyed a very fine patronage from the residents of this section.

At this season of the year there are thousands of the most alluring and beautiful sweet peas of every hue and type in bloom, the vines yielding hundreds of the blooms every day and Mr. Jasper has many calls from Omaha and nearby cities for his surplus supply of blossoms.

The recent Easter season is reflected in the greenhouse where the Easter lilies and the Callas are still blooming and giving a wonderful fragrance to the whole greenhouse.

The carnations that will soon be in such demand for Mother's day, are also in evidence and Mr. Jasper has his plants in readiness to give their beauties to the market and has especially featured the snow white and the deep red carnations which are now blooming very freely and will continue the season for several weeks yet.

In the potted line the geraniums are now in bloom as well as the lantanas that are ready for garden planting as soon as the weather permits and the flaming reds and pinks of the geraniums adds a very pleasing touch to the interior of the greenhouse.

Mr. Jasper has also planted a number of his bulbs in the open flower garden that will in a few weeks be producing results and the peonies are commencing to spring forth and will give a yield of their showy blooms for the memorial day season.

Mr. Jasper has just become a member of the Florists Telegraph Delivery and is now able to handle orders of that nature and the correspondents of this company are located in the principal parts of the world. The florist in the old home in Germany under whom Mr. Jasper learned his trade as florist is a former pupil of the Plattsmouth school.

The Plattsmouth greenhouse is a real asset to the city and Mr. Jasper knows his flowers, as a visit to the home of floral beauty attests.

Will you give a Penny for its Life?

IT costs one cent more per chick to feed Purina Poultry Chows for the first six weeks than to feed uncertain unbalanced mixtures. Of the chicks fed average mixtures 50% die. Purina saves 90%. It costs a lot more to let chicks die than to save them. The best feed you can buy is by far the cheapest. You can save a cent—or a life. Which will it be?

CANNING CLUB NOTES

On Saturday afternoon, April 21, Edith Robertson entertained the Sunshine 4-H Canning club at her home near Eagle, Nebraska. All members were present. The president, Genevieve Daugherty, presided over the business session. Each girl responded to roll call by giving the recipe she used with one of her 1927 canned products. Everyone enjoyed singing a club song.

Rose Beth Clark demonstrated the "Correct Way to Label Jars." Marvel Skinner gave a demonstration on "Precautions With Canned Goods." Edith Robertson demonstrated "The Appearance of Jars for Market." Irene Rueter talked of canned beans and using them in salads.

Plans for Club Week were discussed. If plans can be perfected the club will have canned products for sale later and will take orders for canning.

The members then were invited to the kitchen where everything was in readiness for the
