- HAD RECORD CROWD
- A new high record was set in attendance at Legion old time dances Saturday night, probably due to it being an "off" night for the bi-weekly club dances at Cedar Creek, and a good many from that vicinity were among those present. There was also the usual large crowd from Murray, Rock Bluff, Union and Nehawka.

Mrs. Renwanz was taken with the flu, and with other complication has kept this excellent woman in her bed for many days. She is, however, feeling some improved at this time.

G. W. Holt and the wife were visiting for a time at Plattsmouth on last Tuesday, they driving over to the center of the county, where they were joined by Fred Ossenkopp and wife, they then going to the county seat, and after looking after some business matters for a time, they returned, driving via Omaha.

George Bucknell says that business in that line is good and he is looking for a good season, in all lines, which is inspiring for all as that is just what they have been looking for. The special sale which they held a short time since, was one which they are well pleased with, and all patrons should be for the prices were in many instances less than wholesale prices.

Attend District Meeting

A large number of the members of the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges of Greenwood, attended the district meeting, at which was given the district degree, the meeting being held at University Place, and which was greatly enjoyed by all in attendance.

The State Laws Say—

That in approaching a highway, from a side road all autos must stop, look and listen, and see that there is no vehicle coming which might in any way cause a collision, and result in injury or loss to either party. This is a good law, for just last week Greenwood experienced a most terrible catastrophe as the result of carelessness of the driving on the public highway. In this wreck one woman was killed and another injured as well as much property lost. You can see these yellow signs, saying STOP. State law better observe them and be safe.

It is claimed that Al Ethrege has a new invention that is a dandy. He has his stalk rake hitched to his auto, and he claims that the motor gets so hot, with the work that it burns the corn stalks as well as raking them up. Well we have been looking for something like this.

New Board Organized.

The city board was organized on last Monday evening, and installed the new members and are now in good working order and a progressive year for the bustling city of Greenwood. Billie Judge elected at the recent election, O. F. Peters, refused to serve, as he was already crowded with time to look after his affairs, and the council therefore appointed L. V. Schaffer to the position.

School Entertainment is a Success

College Hill Entertainment at Opera House Pleases Large Crowd—Home Movies Shown

The entertainment given at the opera house on Thursday evening of last week by the College Hill school, sponsored by the teacher, Miss Matilda Stahlman, was a decided success. Miss Marie Kaufmann, teacher in the Plattsmouth schools, who has toured Europe extensively, where she has taught and studied, was present at the entertainment with pictures of Switzerland and the island of Marken, Holland, which were very instructive and interesting, while some local pictures she showed proved very entertaining.

One picture of Dorothy and Irene Rietter was especially good, these popular little singers having appeared often on different programs and they also have been heard over the radio, so their picture on Miss Kaufmann's film were generously applauded.

County Agent L. R. Snipes was present and gave a splendid address. He stated that Cass county ranks among the highest in club work and in receiving the highest awards. He also stressed the aims and the importance of our county fair. Mrs. Snipes accompanied him and gave a splendid reading. Miss Matilda Jochem and Carl Vogler also gave pleasing readings and were heartily applauded.

Several beautiful songs were given by Matilda Jochem, Florence Wegener, Alene Ragross, Clarence Ellsworth and Orland Stohman, accompanied by Miss Vera Rahrdanz, on the piano.

A large crowd was present to enjoy this splendid program and the proceeds will be used entirely for school purposes.—Louisville Courier.

MARRIED IN LINCOLN

Paul Stander, living south of Greenwood, for some time, where he has been quietly farming and ever a hard worker, but not confiding many of his secrets to his friends, quietly slipped away to Lincoln one day last week, and there at an early hour, was united in marriage with Miss Marie E. Eckery of that place. They returned the same day to Greenwood, where Paul had a home nicely furnished for the bride, and where they are at this time living happily. The Journal joins with the many friends of the bride and groom in extending congratulations and well wishes to them and the hope that their life may be a blessing to the community in which they may reside.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stander of north of Greenwood and the bride a young lady of much culture and accomplishment in her home town of Lincoln.

HONOR TRACK MEN

From Friday's Daily—

The university of Nebraska athletic department, which has been honoring with numerical members of the various track teams over the state, has designated for this honor three Plattsmouth high track stars, Jack Hatt, Bernard Galloway and George Perry, citing these three stars for their exceptional services in the track and field sports during the present track season. The local school is well pleased that their fellow students have been given this award by the athletic board of the state university.

MUSIC MEMORY CONTEST

A music memory contest was held at the Taylor school house in district No. 37 on Friday afternoon at 2:30 that proved a most interesting feature of the school year in the district. The young people have been studying the numbers used in the tests for the past six weeks and they have taken the greatest interest in this line of musical education and made many fine showings in the contest. The name of the selection, the author and the nationality of the composer were all required to be given and the knowledge of the pupils in this line of work was surprising.

In the contest, grades 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 were participating and the first prize was awarded to Grace Welch, grade No. 5; the second prize to Frank Bierl, grade six, and the third prize to Arnold Buehler, grade five.
