In the ball game which was played on last Sunday, between the teams of Alvo and Elmwood, the home team won by a score of 12 to 6.

A. B. Stroumer and the good wife were visiting with friends in Omaha for the day on last Sunday, they driving over to the big city in their car.

George Hadcock was busy during the past week unloading a car load of salt which was received by the enterprising firms of F. E. Dickerson and John Woods.

The ladies aid society got together and entirely renovated the church building on last Tuesday and now it is spick and span, and looking fine. Now everybody come to church and Bible school.

John B. Skinner, the good stured truckster, and he does a lot of it, has been having a set of bolts, the last one to appear on his chin, and which does not add much to his natural beauty, or feeling.

P. F. Deuser of near Ashland was a visitor in Alvo for a short time last Monday and secured a two row buster from the Crown Hardware company, and which will be used in the planting of his corn.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church were meeting with Mrs. J. B. Skinner on last Wednesday afternoon, where they all enjoyed the occasion very pleasantly and also did good work for the church.

John Sutton was in town on last Wednesday and was hauling out some lumber for re-roofing his chicken house which was letting in the sunshine and the rain. He liked the sunshine but not the rain in the chicken house.

The county is having built two concrete bridges southwest of Alvo, one of the bridges was necessary, besides the fact that the roads are traveled much, that it is necessary to be crossed in the serving of the school children routes.

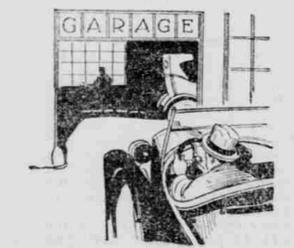

R. M. Cozman was over to Lincoln on last Friday with the members of the seventh and eighth grade pupils of the Alvo school, where they saw the sights of the big city, the students were sponsored by their teacher, Miss Rossmoyle.

C. D. Ganz who was looking after some matters of business at Lexington last week also visited at McCook, where he purchased an Essex sedan, which he drove to Alvo, and which will serve this gentleman and the family very nicely.

A. B. Stroumer who is the agent for the General Electric refrigeration system in Alvo and the vicinity installed during the past week, a cabinet for each of the following: H. L. Bornemeier, H. H. Moore and Art Dinges, they all being very well pleased with the new manner of refrigeration.

Philip Cozman the patrolman of the country roads leading out of Alvo has arranged a device whereby he can clean out the ditches on the side of the road without an assistant, and also is with the help of a man to hold the slips filling in at all the bridges on his territory, and which shows that Philip is doing excellent work for the county.

At the Mothers and Daughters club banquet which will be held at the church basement on the coming Wednesday, they will be served by the mothers who are sure the ones who know the manner of furnishing good eats are done. The money thus

Home From the West

Henry J. Miller, who was in the west for the past two weeks returned home early last week and was pleased with the west, but he says that the state of Nebraska is a pretty good place to live. California is also a good place to make a home, but there is so much to do before a realization of ones investment and work can be looked for. Archie Miller who took a tractor out with him has found much use for it in breaking the ground for use, which has to be graded so as to receive the irrigation waters, which are used there.

Alvo in Good Condition

The statement of the financial condition of the city of Alvo, which is posted shows the condition as being very good, with the gravel paid, and a surplus of some $217.00 in the treasury, and no taxes form the property schedules for the past year, which makes the condition good, and besides this there are no bills to pay.

Large Number Hear Lecture by Noted Speaker

James C. Rowell of the National Board of Lecturship of Christian Science Church Here

From Friday's Daily—Last evening a very large number were present at the auditorium of the public library to hear the message that was brought to this community by James C. Rowell, member of the board of lecturship of the Mother Church of the Christian Science society. The attendance was remarkably large in view of the weather conditions as the hour of the opening of the services saw the height of the rain storm.

Preceding the lecture Mrs. C. C. Barnard gave several of the hymns on the piano and which was followed by the introductory remarks by Mrs. Eric Teppell, first reader of the local Christian Science society and who introduced Mr. Rowell, the main speaker of the evening.

The lecture was very much enjoyed and the speaker, one who delivered his message in a forceful manner and made clear to the audience the teachings of the Christian Science faith and his address gave one an insight into the causes for the rapid growth of this faith over the world.

The address of Mr. Rowell appears in full on page No. three of this edition of the Evening Journal.

PLEASANT QUILTING BEE IN CEDAR CREEK HOME

The hospitable home of Mrs. S. J. Reames, in Cedar Creek was the scene of a pleasant old fashioned quilting bee last Saturday afternoon, when a number of friends from Louisville were invited down for the day. The quilt was pieced by Mrs. Reames' mother, the late Mrs. Lizzie Pribble, of Louisville, a much loved and highly esteemed pioneer of this vicinity, and the ladies were very happy to do the quilting on this highly prized article.

A sumptuous dinner was served and in the afternoon before the departure of the guests, delicious ice cream and cakes were served. Those present were Mrs. S. J. Edgerton, Mrs. John Busche, Mrs. Bert McNealy, Mrs. Clarence Busche, Mrs. Adam Fornoff and daughter, Miss Florence, of this place, and Mrs. Walter Fornoff, Mrs. Fred Buechler and Mrs. Emil Franke, of Cedar Creek—Louisville Courier.

YOUNG PEOPLE ARE WEDDED

From Saturday's Daily—This morning at the residence of Rev. Father Jerry Hanck occurred the marriage of Miss Bessie Louise Sedlak and Leonard E. Turk, both of Omaha and Helen Jane Sedlak, and David E. Lundberg, also of Omaha. The brides are the daughter of Thomas Sedlak for many years a resident of the west part of the city and the ladies spent their childhood here where they have many friends and for years the family made their home in the residence property just north of the golf course. The wedding party was accompanied by Thomas Sedlak, father of the brides.

Creameries a Benefit in the Farming Areas

Arnold, Nebraska, Has Just Completed a Very Fine Plant for Handling Cream.

The following from the Arnold (Neb.) Sentinel, tells of one of the fine large creameries that has been erected in that locality and which will be a real boon to the farming interests of that locality and which has the strong support of the residents of that section of the state: "The next issue of the Sentinel will carry the announcement of the opening date of Arnold's New Creamery, and from what we can see and learn, we will surely have something to be proud of, and something we should lend an undivided support. "Dick Baker, secretary and treasurer of the Baker Refrigerating Company was an Arnold visitor Wednesday, and said, "It is certainly a pleasure to install an iceing machine in a building like this, as it is the best creamery I have stepped into for its size."

"It has been several months since the Peterson Company sent men into this community to sell stock for a home creamery, and the idea took root immediately, and the stock was sold in a little over a week. Later Andy Wineburg landed on the job as construction engineer, and since that time work has never hesitated, and in a little over sixty days we find a new creamery building has been reared in what has been a vacant ground for years; a building of the finest construction, and one that any individual or firm might be proud to own.

Mr. Wineburg informs us the building is complete, and in a few days the machinery will be installed and the opening date will be announced in the next issue of our paper, and as we noted above, now is the time for not only those who have invested their money in the concern, but those who furnish the raw product for its operation, to boost it to a finish. This has always been the attitude of Arnold people, regarding anything that seems right, and we predict that they will see to it that Arnold's new institution goes over the top."

AN OLD RESIDENT PASSES TO BEYOND

Riley Rector, son of Samuel and Mathilda Rector, was born near South Bend, Indiana, October 5th, 1847, and died at Weeping Water, Nebraska, at the home of his son, Rollie Rector, April 27, 1928, at the age of 80 years, six months and 22 days.

He, with his parents, moved to Nebraska in 1856, where they later homesteaded land east of Weeping Water, now known as the Lee Brown farm. From here he moved to and lived in Rooks county, Kansas, a number of years, then in Iowa eight years, returning to Weeping Water to live until the time of his death.

He was converted 27 years ago and was one of the trustees of the M. B. C. church when the church was bought.

In the year of 1870 he was married to Sarah Ann Swindle, who preceded him in death 23 years ago. To this union were born eight children, one of whom, Edie, passed away at the age of 12 years.

He leaves to mourn his loss two sisters, two brothers, seven children, 24 grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren. His children are, Frank of Denver, Colo., Stella McNullen, of Los Angeles, Perry of Weeping Water, Samuel of Weeping Water, and Guy of Los Angeles. His sisters are, Ellen Rector and Rose Berrie of California. His brothers are, James, of California, and Simeon of Lincoln, Nebraska.

Funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Louise Barbezat, at the Memorial church Sunday, April 29. Music was furnished by the church quartette, Mr. and Mrs. George Reckard, Mr. Bert Fisher and Mrs. Frank Ronne.

Burial services were held at the cemetery, Louise Barbezat, at the Memorial church Sunday, April 29. Music was furnished by the church quartette, Mr. and Mrs. George Reckard, Mr. Bert Fisher and Mrs. Frank Ronne.

FUNERAL OF HANS TAMM

From Saturday's Daily—The funeral services of the late Hans Tamm will be held at 4:30 Sunday afternoon from the Lutheran funeral home at 4th and Vine street. The services will be conducted by the Rev. O. G. Wichmann of the St. Paul's church and the pall bearers will be Hans Seivers, P. F. Goors, Henry Sanders, Adolph Geise, John Wichman and William Starkjohn.

Mr. Tamm is survived by four children: Clava Tamm of Nebraska City, Fred Tamm of Stuart, Nebraska, Will Tamm of Aurora, Illinois and Mrs. Anna Roberts of Malmo, Nebraska. The wife and one daughter, Mrs. Bertha Stewart, preceded him in death several years ago.

MRS. N. H. TYSON DIES

Mrs. N. H. Tyson, of Fremont, a long time resident of near Elmwood, passed away Thursday evening at her home after a short illness and the funeral of this estimable lady was held this afternoon at 2:30 at Elmwood, the old home of the family. The deceased lady was forty-eight years of age and was formerly Miss Dottie Cook, Elmwood, where she was reared to womanhood and where she was married to Mr. Tyson. The family has, for the past two years made their home at Fremont. Mrs. Tyson was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Q. K. Parmele of this city and also of L. A. Tyson, prominent resident of Elmwood.

MANLEY NEWS ITEMS

Fred Bauer shelled and delivered his last year's corn crop to the Manley elevator the fore part of last week.

Arnold Harms and his friend, "Whitie," of Omaha, were spending last Sunday at the Harms home for the week-end.

Hugh O'Brien and the family were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth for a very pleasant visit on last Sunday evening.

Arnold Schliefert and the family were visiting with friends and at the same time looking after some shopping in Omaha last week.

Dan Sherman was shelling and delivering corn on last Wednesday, and seemed to have struck a pretty good place in the market for the sale of his crop.

The planting of corn at this time is becoming quite general and it will not be long now until most of the farmers will be getting their corn in the ground.

W. Scheehan, the assessor for Center precinct, has been hustling with the work and has much of it done, but still has many of the taxpayers yet to see.

Elmer Pearson was a visitor in Omaha on last Tuesday, where he was arranging for Delicia ice cream for the summer, and was also looking after other matters while there.

Miss Alice Harms, who is an instructor in the schools at Tamora, located between York and Aurora, was enjoying a visit at the home of her parents in Manley on last Sunday.

Joseph Walpert and sister, Miss Katie Wolpert were over to Plattsmouth on last Tuesday, they driving over in their car to look after some business matters as well as to visit with friends.

A. Steinkamp has been rather poorly for some time and was kept to his home and bed on account of an attack of the flu, but was able to be out and had returned to his work on the road last week.

At a baseball game which was played between the team of Manley and the Cedar Creek team a week ago, the contest was very spirited and resulted in a victory for the Cedar Creekers by a score of 13 to 8.

Herman Rauth sold his corn last Wednesday and was able to get the sale made just two minutes before the break in the price, which amounted to a good piece of money to Herman. The market broke badly from the high point early last week.

Wm. Mann was a visitor in Omaha on last Monday, where he was marketing a load of cattle which he had trucked to the big town. Again on Thursday he was over accompanied by the family, they visiting with friends and shopping as well.

Herman Dall has been kept on the jump with the demands for farming machinery, and has been busy going back and forth between here and the distributing station in Omaha a good deal of the time, getting machinery for the farmers who are needing it.

The blacksmith shop of Anton Auerswald caught on fire one of the windy days last week, and it took some good hustling to put the fire out before there was any great damage done, and by hustling and plenty of hard work, the place was saved with but little loss.

We dropped into the blacksmith shop of Anton Auerswald during the past week and found that gentleman with a shop full of work and working like a badger and getting the work out, but he sure was sweating, until it made the shirt wet. However, he is glad to have the work and will do it right.

Picture Agents Abusive

A set of picture enlarging canvassers have been infesting the country about Manley and have been very abusive in their canvass, they carrying away pictures which are keepsakes of the families whether they wanted them enlarged or not. Many of the farmers are irate over the way they have conducted their canvass, and will give the agents a very vigorous handling should they get hold of the offenders.

DIRIGIBLE ITALIA STOPS IN NORWAY

Oslo, Norway, May 5.—Continuation of the flight of the dirigible Italia to Spitzbergen has been postponed until Saturday by Gen. Umberto Nobile, owing to snowstorms and the forecast during the night. The Italia arrived at Vadsoe, in northern Norway, Friday morning from Stolp, Germany. A small rent was made in the ship in landing, but this was not expected to delay further flight. Fresh supplies of fuel were taken on in preparation for the flight over the Arctic waters to Kings Bay, Spitzbergen.
