Nehawka, Nebr.

Senator W. B. Banning, of Union, was looking after some business matters in Nehawka on Monday morning of this week.

Clarence Hanson was looking after some business matters in Omaha on Monday of this week, he driving over to the big city in his car.

Grover Hoback, who was so ill last week that he was confined to his bed for some five days, is out hustling around, but is looking rather peaked as yet.

Forrest Cunningham is expecting in a few days to move his sawmill from the farm of Henry Stoll to that of B. Wolph, where he has a large amount of lumber to saw.

Robert McClannahan, of Plattsmouth, was looking after some business matters in Nehawka during a portion of last week, as he is considering embarking in the oil business here.

Uncle B. P. Hoback and the good wife were enjoying a visit at their home on last Sunday, from their son, Grover Hoback and family, and the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Anderson, of Union.

Ruth Chapman was visiting with friends in Weeping Water during the past few days, and enjoyed her stay there very much, since the closing of the school, which has been keeping her close to her studies.

Mrs. John McBride, of South Omaha, has been visiting with her many friends in Nehawka during the past week, and has enjoyed the friendships which she made during the years when they resided in Nehawka.

Miss Bessie-Waller was a visitor at the home of her parents at Auburn for the week end and enjoyed the visit very much, returning to her work at the Sheldon department store to enter her work on Monday morning.

Uncle Oscar Nelson, who is still confined to his bed since his return home from the hospital at Omaha, where he underwent an operation some weeks since is still rather poorly, although everything possible is being done for him.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, of Lincoln, where they are making their home, were visiting with friends in Nehawka on last Sunday, they driving over to the hustling city for a visit for the day. Dr. Thomas is enjoying a good practice in the capitol city.

Reports from Weeping Water are to the effect that the home of Fred Gorder, county commissioner, was considerably injured by an incipient fire which caught from a burning chimney. However, before any material damage was done, the fire was extinguished.

Robert H. Chapman, the genial and efficient rural carrier on one of the routes running out of Nehawka, is taking his vacation at this time, and has been relieved by Mr. George Waldo, who is looking after the needs of the patrons while Mr. Chapman is away.

Nels Anderson, the popular proprietor of the amusement parlor, of Nehawka, and who by the way conducts a very fine place, is kept to his home a good portion of the time lately with an aggravated attack of rheumatism, and which has been attended with much suffering.

Mrs. Fern Johnson, daughter of F. R. Cunningham, who has been visiting with her parents for the past week, departed for her home in Colorado, and will stop for a time for a visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Murdoch, at Arapahoe, after she enjoyed a most pleasant visit here.

There is happiness at the home of Dr. J. L. Barrett and the good wife on account of the arrival at the hospital at Nebraska City of a dainty little blue eyed daughter and the father is happy, and the mother is very well pleased with the little one. All are doing nicely and will return to their home in Nehawka soon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Summers, the popular and genial agent for the Missouri Pacific, with the children, and Walter J. Wunderlich and the family were enjoying a visit at the home of the relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Summers, at Stella, on last Sunday, they driving over to the southern city in their car, and returning home after the fine visit they had.

Albert Wolfe and the family were visiting in Omaha for the day last Monday, they driving to the big city in their new car and enjoying the trip immensely. They also visited with friends while there. The office and switchboard was run during their absence by Misses Ruth Chapman and Undine Shrader, who cared for the business in the very best manner.

Mrs. Melvin Sturm was a visitor in Lincoln for the day on last Monday, driving over with her car and having as her guests for the trip, Mesdames B. E. Summers and Walter J. Wunderlich of Nehawka, and Mrs. George Pollard of Avoca. The merry party enjoyed the trip very pleasantly, looking after some shopping, visiting with friends and returning in the pleasant coolness of the evening.

Uncle Joseph Shrader and the good wife, who have been so seriously ill at the home north of Nehawka for some time past, are both feeling a great deal improved and have been able during the past few days to get out of doors and Uncle Joe, who was so seriously ill, was able to walk out and look around the farm some the latter portion of last week. Their many friends are pleased at their improvement and are hoping they may continue.

Miss Kime Very Poorly

Miss Frona Kime, who received the severe injury while at the celebration of the Rebecka lodge at Nebraska City some weeks since, in which she sustained a fracture of an ankle bone, and which developed blood poisoning, is very seriously ill at the hospital in Nebraska City, where she was taken after the accident. All care and the best nursing is being given this excellent woman in the hopes that she may rally, but her condition remains very serious at this time. Her many friends in Nehawka and throughout the state are hoping for a favorable turn in her illness and that she may soon be able to return to her home.

Mrs. Pollard's Funeral Saturday

Mrs. Levi C. Pollard, who about a month since passed away in Los Angeles, and whose remains have been kept there until this time, will arrive from the west, getting to Omaha on Saturday morning and from thence to Union, where the cortege will be met by the friends here and the remains will then be brought to Nehawka, with the funeral held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Sheldon, and interment in the cemetery near Nehawka.

Mrs. Pollard made her home here for many years and after the passing of the husband, Levi C. Pollard, some twenty years ago, she went to the west to reside, and as above stated, died about a month since. The funeral will be held at 2:00 o'clock this coming Saturday afternoon.

Visitors Take the Victory

In the game which was played in Nehawka last Sunday between the local team and a team from Elmwood, it was evident that the visitors came with the intention of winning the victory and also that they had reason for claiming it, for in the contest which was staged at the Nehawka park, they were able to defeat the Nehawka team by a score of 5 to 3.

Are Attending G. A. R. Meet

Early this week, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick, departed for Scottsbluff, where they enjoyed the meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic, which had been having its state convention there during the present week. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick are undoubtedly meeting a goodly number of the comrades with whom he mingled during the straggling times from 1861 to 1865, and we are sure they are enjoying their stay in the sugar beet town.

Do You Want a Cow?

Well I have a very fine Holstein, and a good milker, fresh about sixty days ago, giving lots of good rich milk. R. D. Taylor at Nehawka Mill.

Kill a Big Rattler

While Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cunningham were visiting and looking for truffles at the sight where they had a saw mill for some time a few years ago, near King Hill, below Rock Bluffs, Mrs. Cunningham ran onto a rattlesnake of good size, which he immediately dispatched, and found that the reptile had some eleven rattles, and had been a resident of that neighborhood for some years.
