An Apology—And a Promise

We beg your indulgence with the crowded, cluttered-up condition of our store, during the work of remodeling. In a few more weeks the job will be completed and we shall be proud to show you our new combination SELF-SERVE—SERVICE STORE, patterned after the most advanced ideas in modern day merchandising. People tell us daily (and we believe it ourselves) that we will have the most efficiently arranged store in Cass county when we get done. All the Service factors that have made our store popular will be retained and improved upon, with the handiest of Self-Serve features for those who do their shopping personally and wish to select the items they buy quickly.

Rival Baseball Magnates Offer Parks to Lloyd

Harold Lloyd's Latest Paramount Comedy "Speedy" Filmed at Yankee Stadium.

Baseball magnates literally threw their parks at Harold Lloyd recently when that film comedian made known his intention of filming scenes for his latest comedy entitled, "Speedy," released by Paramount, in and around one of the big league parks. Lloyd transported his entire company to New York to obtain authentic "shots" for his new comedy. In his new comedy, Lloyd portrays the role of a youth who is baseball crazy, so much so, in fact, that he spends his time day dreaming about it, and his diamond heroes. As a result he is repeatedly fired from his jobs for spending too much time in that pastime. Finally he determines to make good for the girl he loves, and forthwith becomes a taxi driver. It falls to his lot to drive Babe Ruth, the Sultan of Swat, to the day's game, and the baseball park scenes that followed, were taken at the Yankee stadium.

Upon hearing that Lloyd was going to use such a location for his new picture, the owners of a park wrote the bespectacled comedian to this effect:

"It would afford my associates and myself the greatest of pleasure, if you would accept our offer to turn over the entire facilities of our park, and our staff, in the filming of your new picture, in which we understand you are going to use a baseball sequence. We recall your great football picture 'The Freshman' and we know that if you use any baseball scenes in your latest work they will be fully as interesting as your football production. You are held in the highest esteem here, and we would esteem it a high honor to be able in any way, to assist you in the filming of your picture."

The picture is said to be one of the best comedies ever filmed, and is up to the standard set by Lloyd in all his comedies. The picture will be shown at the Parmele theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Ann Christy is the new leading lady chosen by Lloyd because he thought she best represented the modern New York girl.

Young People Return Home from Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wooster Arrive Here for Visit With the Home Folks.

From Wednesday's Daily— This morning Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wooster, Jr., arrived here to spend a short time here with the home folks and with the mother of Mr. Wooster who is at the hospital at Omaha, recovering from an operation. The young people have been on their honeymoon in Colorado and the west and returned here to be with the mother of Mr. Wooster.

The marriage of this estimable young couple occurred on Wednesday, May 16th at Anardarko, Oklahoma, the marriage being performed at the Holy Family church at Anardarko. Father Daniels, pastor of the church celebrating the nuptial mass. The bride was formerly Miss Beatrice Krytiner, one of the popular young women of her home community and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Krytiner, former residents of this city. The bridal couple were attended by Misses Catherine and Mary Krytiner, twin sisters of the bride, as bridesmaids and Messers Charles and Matthew Wooster, brothers of the groom, as the groomsmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Wooster will spend a short time here and at Omaha and will then go to Lincoln, where they will make their future home and where the groom is in the employ of the Burlington.
