Many Improvements Mark the

Are Being Made More Attractive by Improvements.

From Thursday's Daily-

ticularly in the way of the better- Brown. ment of the various business build-

In the downtown district there has Mrs. Karl Brown. been many changes made that have The out of town guests were Mrs. interior and the exterior.

The use of the paint and brush has made a great many of the exterfor of the buildings present a wonderful appearance and lending to Elks Name J. the entire business section a much needed improvement.

Several of the stores have carried on extensive remodeling changes in the interior of their buldings that have added to the appearance as well as the convenience of the stores and among these that have and are still engaged in the work of remodeling are the H. M. Soennichsen, the E. A. Wurl and the new Red and White grocery stores as well as the building that is being occupied by the Ghrist Furniture Co.

Perhaps one of the most outstanding improvements that has structure on South Sixth street which was formerly used by the pop club house on North Sixth street, to bridge. factory and which has been in a state of partial dissolution for several years. The property was secur- lodge which was made necessary by ination of the only toll bridge in the ed by the Building and Loa associa- the resignation of Charles W. Hula, state that spans a state stream and attraction to that part of the city his insurance business will not per- many years to secure a bridge of this and is occupied by the Maytag Co., as mit his devoting the time that the kind and which was made possible Mr. Chase. their distribution headquarters and office should have. display rooms.

the entire record of 1927 would its advancing strides again, after the great deal of time of the secretary. post war period of depression. Other improvements are being carried on in the shape of remodeling and remake the year record breaking in the number of improvements that been so costly but they have added exceptionally valuable man in the much to the appearance of the busi- position of secretary. The new secness section, while others will cost retary has been a great booster for odist church. A number of the relaa great deal, one of these being the the Elks as well as the golf club and remodeling of the Hall building on his election to the secretaryship as- at the last rites. The pall bearers South 6th street which is to be used sures the right man in the right place as a motion picture theatre.

The total of the changes made will amount to many thousands of dollars and certainly speaks well for with his ability and business manthe first four months of the year and agement Mr. Holmes will be the Frank J. Morgan of this city and also if the ensuing summer is prolific of logical man. improvements as the first few months of the year 1928 will set a very high standard of improvement in the city.

PRESENT FINE PROGRAM

From Thursday's Dally-

A group of the local members of the Plattsmouth Women's club were were the guests of the ladies of that opening of the Legion community at that place and will be under obat Papillion yesterday where they city and gave a very delightful program at the home of Miss Ida Fricke. one of the leaders in the musical offerings, the crowd was barely large of her illness, from which she has work of the Papillion club.

The program was along the lines of the study of the Indian music and in this connection Mrs. E. H. Wescott gave a very interesting talk on the as fully as cool as any out-door pa- and observance of the patient. history of the Indian melodies and vilion, but it is hard to make the was heard. Mrs. James T. Begley, soprano and Mrs. E. H. Wescott, contralo, gave several of the Indian songs while Mrs. Robert Reed was with music by the Orioles, and expects heard in a group of the Indian selec- to have a good crowd on account of tions, played very charmingly on the it being a holiday, piano, and Mrs. A. D. Caldwell presented a group of melodies in violin selections.

The ladies were well pleased with their visit to the Sarpy county city | Friends here of the Lee Sharp famand received many expressions of ily have received announcements of tended the meeting of Bellevue chapthe pleasure of the ladies on the fine the graduation in the class of 1928 ter and where the degree work was program of the songs and music of the Wenatchee, Washington, High conferred on several of the local canprogram of the songs and music of the Wenatchee, Washington, High conferred on several of the local canArizon, and where he stopped at the of education and the citizens of to the board of education to receive M. Bestor, the second. the original American man—the Red school, of Miss Helen Sharp, the eld-didates. Members of the high school Hotel Esplendor. The manager of Plattsmouth who had provided the the diplomas that they had earned. The hostesses served dainty and the original American man—the Red school, of Miss Helen Sharp, the eld-didates. Members of the high school Hotel Esplendor. The manager of Plattsmouth who had provided the the diplomas that they had earned.

DEBATING CLUB HAS TREAT

debating team of the High school, schools, where she has completed her and accordingly the Omaha chapter which has had a very successful sea- final High school work. The many wsa secured to give them the needed son in their work on the platform in school friends and former classmates degrees. the south central school debates, had of Miss Sharp, who are now completan additional pleasure afforded them ing their school work here will be in the treat given by their coach, R. pleased to learn of her success in F. Patterson, who by his splendid completing her four years of High From Thursday's Dailywork, has given the local schools one school work. of the best teams in a great many

The young people motored to Omaha, where Mr. Patterson entertained From Thursday's Danythem at a theatre party at the new! The reports received here from by Judge A. H. Duxbury and was home again. Orpheum and after several very pleas- Lincoln state that Miss Claire Green, witnessed by the parents of the shall, Hazel Harkins, Mary Swatek, her family and the many friends, Doris Young and Dorothy Brink. both at Lincoln and in this city.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

From Thursday's Daily-

Miss Minnie Guthman was hostess yesterday at a very charming May bridge breakfast at her home on Spring Season North Fourth street, and which we enjoyed by a group of the friends. North Fourth street, and which was

There were eight tables arranged and the settings were in the bright Business Houses and Residences Alike and colorful garden flowers that ad-|ded a very pleasing touch to the scene of enjoyment.

In the playing, Mrs. Karl Brown of Papillion, was awarded the first From Thursday's Daliyprize, while Mrs. J. A. Donelan was The past several months have seen awarded the second and Miss Lucille the Platte river which in the next and which will be resumed with the a great deal of improvement in the Horn the third, the consolation prize two or three months will become a city in a great many ways and par- being awarded to Mrs. Maldon D.

ings as well as the residences over Miss Guthmann was assisted by the before the bridge becomes a free Misses Marie and Lucille Horn and structure.

W. Holmes as the New Secretary

as the Secretary of the Elks and Golf Club.

From Thursday's Daily-

country club and golf club affairs as later sold it to the state and the two very bright and attractive sight as mortar board caps and presented a keep their interest, their realization musical career for this Plattsmouth much improvement over the city as well as their own routine lodge busi- counties with the object of securing it has been painted in the very rich very fine appearance as they took of the needs and desires of young man in the future years. ness to handle has made the office the free bridge. show and is an indication of the fact of the secretary of the lodge a real that the entire community is making task and one that will take up a

The lodge voted to elect to the office James W. Holmes, who has been active in the lodge work for a decorating of places and which will number of years and also has been the president of the golf club for a tions and which will make him an in this important time when the Elks are putting over the country club and golf course proposition and

FINE ORCHESTRA

From Thursday's Daily-Jess Williams and his Songsters, of Lincoln, who played for the American Legion dance last night, is another of the fine orchestras that has ing the orchestra here. prefer the park pavilions, anyhow. dance booked for next Wednesday, to this city.

GRADUATES IN WASHINGTON

From Thursday's Daily-Last evening the members of the has been attending the Wenatchee that would take them from the city

STILL VERY POORLY

King of Trails Bridge Soon to

Rock Asphalt Surface on the Roadway.

The King of Trails bridge over structure that will be free to travel, is to be given a thorough re-sur-In the entertaining and serving, facing of the roadway of the bridge

The state engineer is calling for bids for placing on the bridge a roadadded to the attractiveness of the Thomas Sullivan and Mrs. Traver, of way surfacing of an inch and a half business section and which have Omaha, and Mrs. Frank D. Burgess, of rock concrete to replace the presbeen large factors in making the of Salina, Kansas, former resident ent gravel surfacing of the bridge buildings more attractive in both the here, who is now moving to Omaha and which will offer a greater wearing resistance to the heavy travel on June -9th. than the gravel.

The work as announced is to be Red and White completed on July 1st, just prior to the time that the structure will probably be opened as a free nontoll bridge.

The bridge has been purchased by the counties of Cass and Sarpy and the state of Nebraska, the counties paying their half of the cost of the bridge as well as the interest on the Postmaster Will Have New Honor structure through the medium of tolls and the travel that has passed over the bridge has now practically paid for the cost of the building of the fine steel and concrete structure and also the incidental expenses that Last evening the members of have been incurred, including the been made is the rebuilding of the Plattsmouth lodge No. 739, B. P. O. salaries of the toll keepers and the E. held a special meeting at the other maintenance and costs of the

> take up the matter of the filling of | The attainment of the free bridge the office of the secretary of the is a great advance toward the elim- perfect of condition. by the Plattsmouth and Omaha group The fact that the Elks have the of men that erected the bridge and is occupied by the new firm is a

FUNERAL OF HARRY WHITE

From Thursday's Dally-The funeral services of the late Henry White were held here on Wednesday afternoon, the body arriving number of terms and is thoroughly Burlington, and being taken direct from Omaha on No. 24 over the to the Oak Hill cemetery where a short service was held by the Rev. Harold E. Sortor of the First Methtives and old friends were present Fred G. Morgan, C. F. Vallery, Guy White, O. C. Dovey, William Schmidtmann and W. J. Streight. Mr. White was an uncle of Mrs. a great uncle of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Horn of Hay Springs, Nebraska, who with their son and daughter were here for the last rites.

GOES TO HOSPITAL

From Saturday's Daily --

Mrs. Ruth Thomsen, of this city, been brought here by the Legion for was taken to Omaha yesterday, where its bi-weekly feature dances since the she entered the Immanuel hospital building last Fall, but as usual the servation and treatment for some past three months with the mid-week time in an effort to locate the cause enough to pay the expenses of bring- suffered for some time. It is not known whether or not an operation The basement dance hall in the will be necessary, and which will have partially completed Legion building to be determined by the examinations

The many friends over the county throughout the program the theme of dancers understand this, and then will regret to learn of the illness of the music of the native American there are others who just naturally Mrs. Thomsen and trust that it may not be of a serious nature and that The Legion has a Decoration night she may soon be able to return home

ATTEND OMAHA CHAPTER

Last evening a number of the officers and members of Nebraska Chapter No. 3, Royal Arch Masons, motored to Omaha where they atest daughter of the family. Miss faculty that were advanced to Sharp was a student here for a num- the degrees in the chapter and had hood and since the removal of the the commencement of the summer family two years ago to the west, vacation and summer school work

WEDDED AT COURT HOUSE

Yesterday afternoon at the county court occurred the marriage of Miss

Blank books at the Journal office, and to visit with the old friends.

A PLEASANT MEETING

From Friday's Daily-On Tuesday afternoon the Social Circle club met at the beautiful country home of Mrs. Frank Moore, east be Resurfaced of Murray. The afternoon was spent visiting and discussing the plans for the social meetings that will be held during the summer season until the State to Call for Bids for Placing resumption of the regular study period in September.

The club leaders have made their last trip to the office of the county agent at Weeping Water, completing the lessons for the present season. From Saturday's Dalisnew lessons in the coming fall. With the delicious luncheon served

Allen Vernon, everyone surely enjoy- the final grades and which entitled ed the occasion to the utmost and them to the coveted parchments that which aided in the completion of a gave them the distinctions of high time Mr. Bradford recalled the fact hostesses were most royal entertain- that they had given to the school statement that music and the human held at the home of Mrs. Ezra Albin of the American high school.

Store Opens to Consolidation of Chase Meat Market and Handy Way Grocery in New Establishment.

From Saturday's Dally-This morning the Red and White grocery and meat market, located on Main street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, opened its doors to the public after several days in which the decorators have been busily engaged in placing the store room in the most

The new store represents the consolidation of the S. S. Chase meat tion and rebuilt and is now a real the present secretary, who finds that will be the result of a campaign of market and the Handy Way grocery was sounded by Charles Nowacek, at seventeen they had at five when Carty showed in the recital the owned by Hilt Martin, son-in-law of member of the class of 1929 and one the parent was the whole world to marked progress that he has made in been finished in spotless white, the gave the plea for the divine blessing ence until the close. ceiling and walls, the large ice storthe shelving and the bins for the of the new business house.

The exterior of the white trimmings, while the upper portion of the building has been done its capacity. in the tones of deep green and maning the whole structure one that attracts much attention.

stock of Mr. Martin was completed being Miss Estelle Baird. last evening and everything was in hour came to bring the Red and ranking student of the class and who the superintendent here. White store into existence and on behalf of his fellow students asadding a very attractive feature to sisted in the expression of pleasure the business section of the city.

GO OUT ON SEARCH

From Saturday's Dailysearching for stolen property that it was claimed had been taken from some Burlington box cars at Oreapolis and also endeavoring to locate parties that had robbed a bunk car at Ashland and who were suspected of having come this way, following the railroad line it was thought. Special Agent Young of the Burlington was here and assisted the sheriff in the search but which failed to reveal the parties or any trace of the stolen articles, altho the sheriff spent the larger part of the night on the hunt.

STILL IN HOTEL BUSINESS

From Thursday's Dailymouth some thirty-even years ago.

IMPROVING NICELY

Class of 1928 Say Farewell to Hi School Days

One of the Largest Classes in the History of the School Are Given Diplomas.

Last evening another class of students passed from the threshold of the Plattsmouth high school, comby Miss Margaret Moore and Mrs. pleting their four years of work in them to the accredited high schools very fine afternoon, and the ladies school graduates and representing a were convinced of the fact that the return of the energy and interest mencement speaker offering the work in the period that they had voice would come over the air with-The next social meeting will be been members of the great democracy out wires to convey them would have being young men and twenty-five complished this. young ladies, this being the first time inadequate to accommodate the given the world a greater vision and is now carrying on musical studies crowd that assembled to enjoy the greater attainments. The boy or girl at Chicago. graduation and long before the opening of the program standing room in tain that which their ambition called tastefully arranged ith the summer the auditorium was at a premium for, they should try and make suc-

was carried out in the most pleasing have as to their future profession manner and the class under the di- or place in life. rection of their sponsor, R. F. Patterson fully carried out their part speaker gave the message of the of the program in making the occasion a success in every way.

the notes of the processional march confidence and faith in the parent of the brilliant musically inclined them. It was the duty and the re- his musical work in the Chicago students of the school. The class en- sponsibility of the parent to live musical colleges and his offerings tered in their grey gowns and the tones of the red with the spotless their places on the platform, they the child in their mind and to guide fiffing the stage of the auditor um to and counsel the young man or

As the class reached the stage the Rev. O. G. Wichmann, pastor of the at commencement and the speaker The interior of the store room has St. Paul's Evangelical church, who held the closest attention of the audiof the young men and women who the first time, that the class appreciated the successful co-operation of called out to spend several hours them through the school, serving the duties. The class must serve their in the past.

the farewell for the class to the Reed and Doris Hogue. school where they had labored for the past four years in completion the program was the saxophone numof the high school work, Miss Jahrig ber given by Frederick M. Gorder. picturing the pleasure that the one of the graduates who has been Many years ago there was a well the severing of many friendships and John F. Gorder, his mother. known hotel man man, Joe. Opelt, the development of new interests in engaged in the conduct of hotels at life. She spoke of appreciation of the church colleges of the state was pre- very pleasing number of the members Nebraska City and also had charge of class to their parents, who had made sented to Miss Fern Jahrig, honor present. The hostesses of the event, the Riley hotel in this city. The Ne- the sacrifices that were necessary in student, by Superintendent R. E. Mrs. A. G. Bach, Mrs. A. W. Cloidt braska City News-Press tells of a re- the completion of education of the Bailey. cent visit that John W. Steinhart, members of the class, to the teachers The class of 1928 was then pre- ranged a very pleasant time at bridge well known citizen of Nebraska City who had trained through the grade sented by J. V. Simons, principal of and in the playing of this fascinpaid to the west and which included and high school years the minds of the high school, who gave the class ating game, Mrs. Fred Lugsch was among other places visited, Nogales, the students and also to the board a fine tribute and recommended them given the first prize and Mrs. Frank the hotel is Clyde Oplet, a son of opportunity of the high school educa-Joe Opelt and who was a little lad tion. The class should make loyalty by Dr. F. L. Cummins, president of course of the evening that were very ber of years during her young girl- desired to complete the work before when the family resided in Platts- their motto and bear this to their the board of education, in a few well much enjoyed by all of the memthat they make along life's way.

The reports from the St. Joseph in Prof. H. E. Bradford of the state school had graduated. He stated the the H. M. Soennichsen Co., store on hospital state that Mrs. Frank Woos- university, whose subject was that school was proud of its graduates and ter of this city, who was operated of "The Magic Touch," the speaker wished them well. He then gave the on there Wednesday afternoon, is taking the story of Aladdin and the diplomas to the following members Memorial day and the Shirley popnow doing very nicely and with the wonderful lamp, which required but of the graduating class: present rate of improvement the pa- the touch of the hand to bring their districts could and would send Robert E. Wurl, Marie Wright.

or their education.
In discussing the magic touch of Recital Given for their education. that twenty years ago when a combeen laughed at, that if a man had The class of 1928 of the Platts- foretold that young man would one mouth high school was one of the morning step in his plane in New largest that has been graduated and York and thirty hours later step out was exceptional in the fact that a on the landing field at Paris, he very substantial majority of the class would have been thought foolish, yet were boys, thirty-four of the class time with its magic touch had ac-

What had won for the men and in the history of the school that the women of America had been the the Trade Today in the history of the school that the women of America had been the masculine portion of the class had power of thinking, the forciful and a very much interested group of the exceeded the feminine in the point of strong minds that had gone from music lovers of the city to enjoy the the beaten path of thought and voice recital by Jack McCarthy, tal-The school auditorium was wholly found new inspirations that had ented Plattsmouth young man, who leaving school should strive to at-The program of the commencement cessful the dreams that they might

To the fathers and mothers the magic touch, asking the question as to whether or not the child would artistic touch gave added beauty to It was promptly 8 o'clock when have the same blind and unshaken the numbers. their own life with their children, to woman. The address was one of the best invocation was pronounced by the that has been heard for many years Endearing Young Charms."

Superintendent R. E. Bailey, who age room for the meats as well as were completing their school work. presided over the meeting introduced The class had the pleasure of en- W. G. Brooks, superintendent of vegetables and fruits are all in the joying a very fine musical offering in schools of Burlington, Iowa, and also clear and spotless white. The dainty the solo given by Frank A. Cloidt, a former superintendent of the local Tender Apple Blossom. red flowers that are a part of the well known local vocalist and also schools, who gave a brief expresdecorative plan also aid in the beauty secretary of the board of education sion of his appreciation at being and who had as his number, "In present and recalled many of the The task of the removal of the victus," by Bruhn, the accompanist incidents of his school work here fered by Mr. McCarty. and of the fact of the graduating The salutatory was given by class had just commenced their school Mr. McCarty was the beautiful and readiness today when the opening George Olson, the second highest work in the grades while he was still loved "Songs My Mother Taught Me"

Fontenelle chapter of the Daughers at their attainment of their success. of the American Revolution, gave Mr. Olson stated that he recalled the the presentation of the history prize Mrs. A. D. Caldwell, Miss Martha sensations of the twelve years before that was awarded to Henry Wooster, Gorder, Miss Jean Caldwell, Dick when he had entered the school for one of the high ranking students of Avard, Ira Mumm and George Cald-

Superintendent R. E. Bailey als Last evening Sheriff Bert Reed was teacher and parent in advancing gave the Palmer awards that had by Weber and the "Minuet in G" by been given to members of the norclass each year until this time when mal training class for their excellent the difficult selections being very arthe responsibility of serving became work in their penmanship which is the difficult selection the duty of the members of the class under the direction of Miss Marie when they too must take up their Kaufmann, supervisor of this de- of Plattsmouth's most artistic musicommunity and their friends in the members of the class receiving partment of the city schools. The future as others had served for them reward were: Florence Wiles, Loa n the past.

The valedictory address was given Gretchen Warner, Gladys Bushnell, by Miss Fern Jahrig, the highest Marie Sperry, Mary Ellen Vallery, ranking student of the class, gave Frances Wiles, Ona Graves, Eula

One of the delightful features of graduation brought, as well as the active in the musical as well as the feeling of regret that the members athletic life of the school and whose of the class all felt at the partings, accompaniment was played by Mrs. The scholarship awarded by school, their home and the friends chosen remarks and which Dr. Cum- bers of the party. mins recalled that when he gradu-The class of 1928 had an excep- ated over forty years ago the class tionally pleasing speaker as the or- had numbered just eight and which ator of the commencement exercises was then the largest class that the tient may soon be on the highway to hurrying to the service of the owner Gladys II. Bushnell, George Allen white cross, speaks of the undying Georgia W. Conley, of Weeping Wa- recovery. This is most pleasing news of the lamp, the genii that would Caldwell, Ellis E. Champlin, Alice dead of America that sleep on a forter and Francis W. Benedict of Glen- to the friends here and are hopeful serve the every wish of the owner of Colvin Crabill, Loa Davis, Margaret eign soil where they had fought valwood. The marriage was performed to have this estimable lady back the lamp. To the young man or Lucille Engelkemier, Bernard I. Gal- iantly and died. The display is arwoman there was a magic touch in loway, Ralph E. Gansemer, Frances ranged by the ladies of the American life that they alone possesed, no Tinsley Ghrist, Frederick Maurice Legion Auxiliary who are to conduct ant hours the young people motored former resident here, is quite poorly bride, Mr. and Mrs. George Conley. Mrs. John Weber and children, gift could bring them certain things Gorder, Ona M. Graves, Wilber S. a campaign for the sale of the memback to their homes here. Those at her home in the capitol city and After the wedding the bridal couple Joe. Catherine, Josephine and Hall, Lucille Hatt, Doris Hogue, John orial poppies in this city. The Auxenjoying the event were: George her condition has caused a great deal returned to Weeping Water where came down from Omaha last evening friends, save their own magic touch G. Horn, Charles E. Howard, Olive iliary makes use of the funds receiv-Thacker, Marie Sperry, Henry Mar- of apprehension to the members of they expect to reside in the future. to attend the commencement, exer- of service and which they must exer- winifred Huffer, Virgel G. Hutton, ed to aid the disabled and sick vetcises of the Plattsmouth High school cise to bring forth their dearest and to visit with the old friends. dreams attainment.

Fern Jahrig, Ruth L. Janda, Noble erans of the world war that are still dreams attainment.

A. Kiser, Bernard H. Klinger, Law- in the hospitals of the nation.

In his opening the speaker called rence Leonard, Henry R. Marshall, the attention to the trend of the Isabel M. Marshall, Ralph A. Mason, times that had brought more and Fred M. McMaken, William Nelson, more young people through the high Marie G. Nolting, Pauline Nowasek, school, how a few years ago small Raiph W. Olsen, Edwin George Olson, classes were the rule in all schools Edward Francis Patterson, Merritt and now larger and larger classes E. Patton, George W. Perry, Donald were leaving the schools, the parents R. Pittman, Eula Mae Reed, John E. giving their children greater op- Sander, Don Franklin Schneider, portunities in the way of education. Oliver J. Schneider, Dean F. Snyder, This was true largely of the boy and Marie Sperry, Frances M. Stewart, girl from the farm where the parents Lester E. Stout, Wm. Newton Sulliwere now giving their children the van, Dorothy E. Todd, Mary Ellen same opportunities that had in the Vallery. Margaret L. Vetersnek, past been held by only a few in the Gretchen C. Warner, Edgar Street cities, today the boy and girl of the Wescott, Florence E. Wiles, Frances farm coming to receive their final E. Wiles, Linville L. Wiles, Clement education in the high school because Theodore Woster, Henry T. Woster,

by Jack McCarty a Real Success

Large Number at the First Methodist Church to Enjoy a Real Treat Last Evening.

From Friday's Datiy-Last evening the auditorium of the

The church platform was very tractive setting for the beautiful musical treat that was given to those attending Mr. McCarty was assisted in the ecital by the delightful accompaniment of Mrs. Robert G. Reed, whose

The clear sweet voice of Mr. Mc gave the promise of a very brilliant

The opening group of the numbers included the charming and loved melodies of "Drink to Me With Thine Eyes" and "Believe Me If All Those

In the second group was found brilliant and colorful selections that he talented young vocalist gave a wenderful rendition and included "Little Silver Ring" by Chaminade, "Fairy Story by the Fire" by Merikants and "Would God I Were the

The difficult number, "O Del Amato Ben" and "Nina" embraced the third group of the numbers of-

In the closing group of numbers of by Dvorak, "The Dark Blue Eyes of Mrs. L. O. Minor, regent of the Springtime" by Ries and "The Banjo Song" by Homer.

The string quintette composed of well gave two wonderfully presented selections, "Prayer and Rondo" Beethoven, the skillful handling of Mrs. Robert G. Reed, who is one and "Polishinelle" by Rachmanin-An appreciation of the fine program was expressed in the fine silver music lovers of the city. DOES HAVE FINE TIME offering which was given by the

From Thursday's Datty-Yesterday afternoon the Benovelent and Patriotic Order of Does held a most delightful business and social the meeting at the Elks club and with a and Mrs. Edward Brantner had ar-

The diplomas were then presented delicious refreshments during the upper Main street, bears a beautiful window that carries out the idea of pies blooming amid the green of the Donald H. Born, Alive V. Bulin, vendure, the little green tent and the

"LEST WE FORGET"