Everett Noble Given New Ford Car at Elks Dance

Local Man Presented With Fine New Ford Sedan or Coupe as Feature of the Dance.

From Saturday's Daily—
Last evening the Elks staged their long looked forward to dance, at the American Legion building, which was announced, was for the purpose of raising funds to be applied on the local quota of the Crippled Children's fund of the order.

The attendance was very pleasing and the large dance floor was filled from early in the evening until the final number sent the merry crowd of dancers on their way homeward. The music was furnished by Blondy Baughan orchestra which gave a program of the latest and most up to date dancing numbers to entertain the large crowd.

The awarding of the Ford sedan or coupe, was the great feature of the evening and awaited with interest by those who had gathered to watch this feature of the evening. In the final selections of the winners Sheriff Reed and Everett Noble were in the drawing and the result was finally that Mr. Noble received the car, one of the latest and best of the Ford products and one that will make a fine gift for the lucky owner.

LINDY LANDS IN NEW YORK

Curtiss Field, N. Y. June 7.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh landed here at 4:56 p. m. after a flight from Buffalo, he thus concluded a round trip transcontinental journey by air, in the interests of the Trans-Continental Air Transport, inc., to which he is technical advisor. He brought two passengers.

He was enabled to escape the notice of the large crowd at the field because his attention was focused on the planes of two women, Thea Rasche and Mabel Boll.

ARCTIC FLIERS IN PARIS

Paris, June 8.—Coming from London by airplane, Capt. George H. Wilkins and Carl E. Eielson, the Arctic fliers, reached Paris this morning. They were the guests of the French aero club this afternoon and were welcomed among others, by Ambassador Herrick, the Norwegian minister, attaches of the British embassy and hundreds of aviators.

Wilkins and Eielson will be officially received at the city hall tomorrow. They will pay official calls to the American and British embassies and the Norwegian legation and will attend the aero club banquet in the evening. On Sunday they return to London.

Wedding of a Popular Young Couple Sunday

Miss Inez A. Fosberg, of Louisville, Becomes Bride of Thorwald V. Hansen, of Elba.

A very pretty wedding occurred on last Sunday afternoon at two o'clock when Miss Inez A. Fosberg became the bride of Mr. Thorwald V. Hansen at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Fosberg, southwest of Louisville.

The bride was beautiful and charming in a gown of Queen's blue and peach and she carried a bouquet of Mrs. Ward's roses. She was attended by Miss Cecile Phelps, who was gowned in a rose tan. Miss Grace Hoover played Lohengrin's wedding march. Rev. R. J. Myers, pastor of the M. E. church of Gretna, a former Louisville pastor, officiated. The groom was attended by the bride's eldest brother, Robert Fosberg. The ring ceremony was used.

The house was tastefully decorated in pink and white flowers and presented a very festive appearance. After the impressive ceremony, a three-course luncheon was served, only near relatives and friends being present. The wedding cake was baked by Mrs. A. W. Hansen, sister of the groom. A beautifully decorated cake was also baked by Mrs. C. E. Carlson, a neighbor. Mrs. H. G. Shandy and daughter, Mrs. Schaefer, of Texas, relatives, who were here on a visit, assisted in serving the guests.

The bride is one of Cass county's best teachers and is handsome and well liked. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fosberg, who are highly esteemed in the community and she is loved and respected by all who know her. The groom is a progressive and prosperous young farmer from the vicinity of Grand Island. He is highly respected in his home community and has a comfortable home prepared for his bride on the home place of his parents, who have moved to town. Their address will be Elba, Nebraska, where they will go to housekeeping at once, surrounded with the best wishes of their host of friends. The couple joins with the community in wishing this popular young couple every happiness and success.—Louisville Courier.

Band Goes on a Booster Trip Last Evening

Dozen Auto Leads Visit Louisville and Weeping Water—Advertising the Carnival.

From Friday's Daily—
Some fifty Plattsmouth citizens, including members of the band and the American Legion, visited Louisville and Weeping Water last night on a booster trip, advertising the Isler Carnival Shows which will exhibit here next week under auspices of the American Legion.

The cars got away to a good start at around 7 o'clock and were in the neighboring cement city a half hour later. A large crowd gathered on the street to listen to the selections of the band, while Legion members put out advertising matter in the windows of the various business houses of the town and later the announcement was made of the coming of the carnival next week.

From Louisville the cars made the run to Weeping Water, arriving there in the advance of the time for the weekly band concert on Main street, and while the large crowd was waiting for the splendid program of the Weeping Water band to begin, the Plattsmouth musicians gathered about the band stand and played a number of snappy selections that won the applause of the crowd. The carnival announcement was repeated and advertising matter placed in the stores, all of which are open on Thursday nights.

Several of the Plattsmouth band men were invited to sit in with the Weeping Water band during the concert that lasted more than an hour, while other members of the party visited with the Weeping Water folks or took in the dance at Philpot's hall, where a large crowd of merry-makers was gathered to trip the light fantastic to music furnished by the Blondy Baughan orchestra that plays here tonight for the Elks benefit dance. Although the weather looked threatening, the clouds disappeared and the stars gave assurance of good roads home, so many stayed until a late hour.

Elmer Johnson departed this morning for Lincoln after a short visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Johnson and will enjoy a visit with his university friends, leaving soon for Chicago for the summer.

Passing of a Loved Resident of Cass County

Mrs. Caroline Backemeyer, Widow of One of the Leading Ministers of the West.

After only a few days of sickness in her beautiful home, Caroline Sophia Seiker, former wife of Rev. F. Backemeyer, passed on to her eternal reward. She was born on Jan. 13, 1853, in Diepenau, Hanover, Germany, coming to America in 1871. She soon joined hands with her husband, Rev. F. Backemeyer, who preceded her in death seven years ago. One year before their marriage, she was soundly converted and remained a true and strict member of the church, and follower of the Christ. In 1875, her husband entered the ministry, her activities in the church widened and she became an outstanding figure in church life.

Rev. Backemeyer served the following fields: Fremont, two years; Stanton, three years; Grand Island, two years. After this Rev. Fred Backemeyer was elected to the responsible position of Presiding Elder, and their residence was in the following cities: Hastings, four years; Fremont, three years; again in Hastings four years. Going back into the regular pastorate once more, he served the following places: Talbasta, four years; Milford, four years and Omaha one year. Later on Post Oak Mission, Texas Conference and St. Francis, Kansas, was served by this tireless and efficient worker.

Retiring they spent quiet and happy sunset years at Elmwood, where this honored couple did all within their power to uphold and support the cause. July 21, 1921, the angel of death claimed Rev. Backemeyer. Baring up bravely, Mrs. Backemeyer now preferably and with reverence called Mother Backemeyer, continued in her noble work alone and yet not alone. God was very precious indeed to her in her declining years. The beautiful summer months she usually spent at Elmwood, and the harsher winter months with her children at Vesta and Waco; and at Gary, Indiana. She had shortly returned from one of her extended visits and was enjoying spring time when suddenly stricken with a malignant form of pneumonia. She passed away on May 31st, quietly, peacefully and painlessly. She had many relatives, but to begin to enumerate her many appreciative friends is impossible for lack of space and time.

There remains six children, one of whom could not reach Elmwood for the last rites of love and memory. The children are Chris, of Waco, Neb., Marie, of Denver, Colo.; Emilie of Vesta, Neb.; Ernest of Seattle, unable to be present, Fred of Gary, Ind.; and Ed. of Miami, Florida. Her only brother, William Seiker, also of Gary, Ind., was unable to be present for many years resided in Elmwood.

Her remains were tenderly born to her last resting place Sunday afternoon, June 3. A very large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral exercises. Rev. E. F. Haist of Kearney, preached the sermon, assisted by Rev. Chas. Lewin, local pastor. Rev. E. L. Wiegert read the scripture. Rev. H. Pieper led in prayer. Rev. Victor West of the M. E. church in the closing prayer. Rev. N. Norenberg from the Calahan congregation and many of his members were also present. The quartette composed of Mrs. Harry Grene, Mr. Joe Kunz, Mr. Walter Lenz and Henry Bornemeier rendered some very fine selections. The floral display was very beautiful and showed the great honor and respect for the deceased. Her funeral text was taken from the words of Saint Paul in his first letter to the Corinthians, the tenth chapter and the twenty-third verse, "I have received it of the Lord, that I have committed unto you." In spite of the falling rain many accompanied the mortal remains to the place of burial, where Rev. Haist and Rev. Lewin held a brief service.

She is gone and quietly sleeps, her windowless palace, at her work do follow her.

Peace be unto her ashes. —Elmwood Leader-Echo.

Woodland is Honored by the Grand Lodge

Omaha Man Elected Grand Master of Lodge; Will Install New Officers Today.

Delegates and others attending the 71st annual grand lodge convention of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Nebraska at Omaha, were entertained at a theater party Wednesday night by 11 Omaha lodges. The convention, which opened Tuesday morning, will close Thursday after installation of officers elected Wednesday.

Frank H. Woodland, Omaha attorney, was elected grand master of the lodge, succeeding Albert R. Davis of Wayne. Ira C. Freet, York, was elected deputy grand master; Orville A. Andrews, Lincoln, was elected grand senior warden; John R. Tapster, North Bend, grand junior warden; Lewis E. Smith, Omaha, grand secretary.

Officers filled by appointment and announced Wednesday night were Rev. George A. Beecher, Hastings, grand chaplain; ex-Senator Norris Brown, Omaha, grand orator; Lute M. Savage, Omaha, grand custodian; J. Dean Ringer, Omaha, grand marshal; Ralph O. Canaday, Bridgeport, grand junior deacon; John W. Disbrow, Omaha, grand tyler.

New officers will be installed Thursday afternoon following final reports of committees.

More than 600 delegates and others had registered from 289 state lodges by Wednesday, second day of the convention. More than 250 towns and cities were represented.

"This is the largest meeting in our history," Lewis E. Smith, grand secretary, said. "It is the most harmonious, and a great deal of good work was accomplished."

More than 200 attended a luncheon Wednesday noon by Nebraska Veteran Freemasons' association, a subsidiary organization for Masons who have been members of the fraternity for more than 21 years. Among the speakers who responded to calls were Bishop Beecher, Charles Chappell, Minden, Neb.; J. J. Wemple, Cleveland, O.; A. R. Davis, Wayne, retiring grand master; E. C. Houston, Tekamah, Matthew A. Hall, lodge 268, president of the organization, presided.

The luncheon and meeting was held in the dining room of the Masonic temple.

W. A. Cotton Is Oldest.

William A. Cotton, Nebraska City, is the oldest Mason attending the convention, having been a member of the fraternity for 87 years. He was initiated as Master Mason on March 20, 1861, according to Lewis E. Smith, grand secretary. Mr. Cotton was born March 7, 1833, and is 95 years old. He is a director of a Palmyra bank, and drives his own automobile and leads an otherwise active life in spite of his advanced years. He wore the gold Jordan during the convention, an award to the Mason longest a member of the fraternity in the state.

Past grand masters present at the convention are George H. Thummel, John J. Wemple, Samuel P. Davidson, Henry H. Wilson, Frank E. Bullard, Charles E. Burnham, Harry A. Cheney, James R. Cain Jr., Samuel S. Whiting, Andrew H. Viele, Frederic L. Temple, Ambrose C. Epperson, John J. Tooley, Joseph H. Fradenburg, Lewis E. Smith, Charles A. Chappell, Robert R. Dickson, John Wright and Edwin D. Crites.

MANY ILL AFTER BANQUET

Washington, June 8.—One hundred and forty persons are ill as the result of a banquet at Business High school here Tuesday night. Twelve of those stricken are said to be in a serious condition, tho it is believed that all will recover.

The banquet was held to celebrate the winning of a competitive drill by a school cadet company. Almost immediately afterwards pupils, teachers and school employes were stricken, among them being Stephen E. Kramer, first assistant superintendent of schools. One hundred and seven of those sick are students. An investigation is under way.
