Enjoyed Family Reunion

Last Sunday was held at the Wash Park, where many a political convention has been held in the years that have passed, the reunion of the families of Boeier, Borenier, Ochlerking and Kuntz, at which notwithstanding the threatening weather there was a large crowd in attendance. The rain and the threatening weather in a way interfered with the gathering but another will be had some time in the future at which time it is hoped there will be better weather, and they can enjoy the gathering better.

The Boys are Here

They are here, for they came last week and are making the people happy. The first to arrive as reported by Dr. L. D. Lee, was a son to arrive at the home of Don Roberson then one came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hamilton, with two twins this time they finding a home at Ed Guiltstarff, and but a short way off one came to the home of Fred Cordes, and a few miles to the east a son came to the home of Joseph Miller, making seven in all. This looks fine and two more would have made a ball team. All are reported as doing well and all having found happy homes, but the proud fathers would make another chapter and we will have to wait for that next time.

Campaign for More Alfalfa Planting Grows

With a small beginning about four years ago in Stearns county, Minnesota, the 10,000 Acre Alfalfa club movement, initiated by the Blue Valley Creamery Institute of Chicago, has grown to such an extent that clubs with a goal of 10,000 acres of this valuable legume have been organized in Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, South Dakota, Kentucky, West Virginia and Texas. During this same period the alfalfa acreage has increased in the nine Mississippi valley states from 814,000 to 2,416,000, according to a survey just completed by the institute.

Has Chicken Eating Pony

John Hansen has a pony on the farm which his children have a great time playing with and riding. The pony is quite gentle, but has a habit that is not becoming to a respectable Shetland pony. The other day the pony was caught in the act of eating some of the young chickens and since that time it has been confined in a box stall in the barn. It was seen to catch and eat two chickens that were starting to feather out and evidently enjoyed the repast.

Enjoy Family Gathering

From Thursday's Date—
The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Soenichsen in this city was the scene of a very pleasant gathering of relatives this week when a number of the relatives came from the northern part of the state and joined here by the members of the family in a real old time reunion that all appreciated to the utmost. Claus Ploehn, Hans Pasch, and daughter, Mrs. George Heynie, Mr. and Mrs. Will Maas and children, motored down from Scribner, coming with well laden baskets that formed the basis of a fine picnic dinner. Here the members of the family were joined by Mr. and Mrs. John Wickman and daughter, Clara, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wohlforth and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wohlforth and Miss Freda Wohlforth.

REDECORATES SHOP

The barber shop in the Hotel Main building which is operated by Edward and Howard Fullerton, has just been redecorated and makes a very fine and attractive appearance. The walls have been repapered in a new and striking design of varicolored paper that makes a very handsome setting to the room while the ceiling has been also repainted and made equally handsome. The redecorating of the shop certainly makes for the betterment of this popular barber shop.

Many Attend the S. S. Convention

Eight Mile Grove Church Well Represented at Hooper—Former Pastor in Charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip G. Hennings called Saturday and reported attendance at a Sunday school convention of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Hooper last week, from Tuesday until Wednesday night. Rev. O. Rhode, pastor of the church at Hooper, was in charge. Rev. Rhode was formerly pastor of the Eight Mile Grove church and his former friends here were much pleased to meet him again.

There were 27 who attended from the Eight Mile Grove church, mostly from the vicinity of Cedar Creek. Eight teachers of the Sunday school were delegates, and the others attended also. The eight delegates were Mrs. P. G. Hennings, Miss Esther Albert, Mrs. Louis Frederick, Miss Selma Kraeger, Mrs. Julius Engelkemeier, Mrs. Ernest Hill and the pastor and wife. Rev. and Mrs. A. Lentz.

The attending speak highly of the splendid hospitality of the Hooper congregation and the convention was a great success. Many interesting talks were heard and much enthusiasm was felt by all attending. Mr. Fisher, a splendid worker among the young people, was present and talked strongly on organization for the Lutheran League.

Twenty Sunday schools were represented, this being the 5th annual convention of the district. The convention started with a membership of four Sunday schools with 24 present and upon the present occasion there were 150 present.

The Eight Mile Grove church has a Sunday school of 130 members and they are all boosters and workers and take a great interest in the work, which is very gratifying to their pastor, Rev. Lentz.—Louisville Courier.
